ESSANAY PERIOD

Here was the time that Chaplin began to come into his own. With more time devoted to the preparation of his films, his talent became even more in evidence and there was less and less dependence on slapstick. Almost all of his Essanay films were two reelers (most of them are or will be available from Blackhawk) and were more painstakingly produced. But, so high had his popularity skyrocketed in 1915 that Mutual was able to sign him away from Essanay in February, 1916, at salary and bonus totaling $670,000 for a year.

THE CHAMPION

(Edna Purviance, Bud Jamison, Leo White, Ben Turpin, Lloyd Bacon and "Broncho Billy" Anderson are also in the cast.)
This one has Charlie as a boxer showing off to his girl, imitating a fighter's stance, scratching the wrong head, and bidding farewell to his dog before the big bout. (1915, Essanay).

HIS NEW JOB

(Leo White, Charlotte Mineau, Ben Turpin and Gloria Swanson)
His New Job was Chaplin's first film for Essanay and the only one made in Chicago. With him in the cast are Leo White and Charlotte Mineau, Ben Turpin, and Gloria Swanson. While this picture is long on slapstick, it is elaborately done and gives definite evidence of having started out with a story, which many of the Keystones did not do. (1915, Essanay).

A JITNEY ELOPEMENT

(Edna Purviance, Leo White and Lloyd Bacon are also in the cast.)
Edna, a wealthy heiress, pleads to be saved from Count de Ha Ha, and Charlie comes to the rescue. Made in the days of the "jitney", "tin lizzie" and "flivver" jokes, it points out in hilarious fashion the tremendous changes that have come about in the years that have passed. (1915, Essanay).

starring "Bronco Billy" Anderson with a special guest appearance by Charlie Chaplin

Entering a dance hall, G. M. Anderson strikes up a conversation with a girl and winds up fighting her escort. Injured in the melee, he is befriended by a society girl. Later, Anderson and Lee Willard break into a house and start to crack the wall safe. Hearing a suspicious noise, Anderson checks the bedrooms and discovers that he is in his benefactor's house. Telling Willard to forget the safe, Anderson scuffles with his partner, accidentally shooting him. The noise awakens the girl, who catches Anderson in the act. He returns the jewelry and just before the police arrive, she takes his gun and tells him to leave. He pens a note promising to reform as the police take her into custody. Charlie Chaplin is prominently featured in the opening dance hall sequence.

TRIPLE TROUBLE

(Edna Purviance, Wesley Ruggles and Leo White are also in the cast.)
During 1915 his year with Essanay, Chaplin completed fourteen subjects. "Triple Trouble" is a fifteenth, edited from sequences from two of these productions: "Police" (prior to the release of that subject) and "Work"—and also from a never-finished feature, "Life". In 1918, this assembly was made possible by the shooting of new scenes (in which Chaplin, obviously, did not appear), by using double to bridge the gaps that otherwise would have been left in the action, some skillful cutting, and subtitles slanted at that wartime year. For such a hodgepodge, "Triple Trouble" came off surprisingly well. (1918, Essanay).

810-381, 8mm. silent version, about 300-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs., regularly $11.98

THE TRAMP

This is the first film by Chaplin in which pathos was evident and the first one to end on a note of sadness. It is generally regarded as the first Chaplin classic. Here is the original film, the title of which became almost synonymous with the character that Chaplin created. (1915, Essanay).

KEYSTONE PERIOD

Chaplin came to the movies late in 1913 when he was signed by Mack Sennett to appear in Keystone Comedies. This was the period in which Charlie's comedy character was taking form, and his style developing from his days in pantomime. Starting out at the tremendous salary of $150.00 a week and as an unknown to movie audiences, he became so popular in this single year that he was signed by Essanay at $1250.00 a week in December, 1914.

FLYING ELEPHANTS

Starring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy with Tony Sanford

One of the earliest of the Laurel & Hardy comedies produced by Hal Roach, it presents Stan and Ollie at a time when they had not technically reached starring status, nor had their screen characters developed to the point where they played "themselves." Here they give practically solo performances, appearing together only briefly in the closing scenes.

But this comedy of stone age man definitely has its moments, and it is one that every true Laurel and Hardy fan will wish to have in his collection.

"Flying Elephants" was the final production with Laurel and Hardy to be distributed under Hal Roach's contract of many years with Pathe. Although it had been filmed in the spring, Pathe held back release until the late fall of 1927, by which time several of their later comedies had already been placed in distribution by M-G-M.

810-660, Standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet, 1-lb. $12.98

860-308, Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $14.98

MR. LAUREL & MR. HARDY

Following the withdrawal of this work by John McCabe by Doubleday & Company as their stock of the third or fourth printing was exhausted several years ago, we received more demand for copies than for almost any item we have ever offered. We tried to prevail on Doubleday to place it back in print, and scores of our customers wrote them. Well, Doubleday hasn't reprinted the volume—it's being reissued by Grosset & Dunlap—and at some saving under the price of the original edition. And, at long last, for those of you who have been yearning—here's your chance. Introduction by Dick Van Dyke. Illustrated with photographs.

THE FILMS OF LAUREL & HARDY

By William K. Everson

No comedians, says William K. Everson, have ever brought more laughter to the world than Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy. No one who reads this engaging text will be inclined to doubt him. Mr. Everson has given this book an added dimension with his deft word-pictures of the action (and what action) in the films, his fascinating analyses of the team's comedy methods, and his critical evaluations of each film.

MOVIE NIGHT (1929)

with EUGENIA GILBERT, SPEC O'DONNELL and EDITH FELLOWS

"Movie Night" is a funny and accurate reflection of movie-going at the time. It deals with the Chases and their faithful attendance at the Monday night movies, more for the regular prize drawings than for interest in the picture. The story unfolds with a series of side-splitting happenings leading up to the climax when the family throws the entire theatre into bedlam. Hal Roach/Blackhawk Films Release.

MIDSUMMER MUSH (1933)

with BETTY MACK

This is one of the funniest comedies we've ever come across, and one of the top subjects ever made by Charley Chase! In this one Charley is a scoutmaster setting out with his troop of scouts from Broadway and 42nd Street for a period of summer camping.

Even if you're a parent, you can't imagine the complications of leaving the city with a group of young scouts, the distraction of traffic, of bicycling, of pitching camp by the side of the lake; the dramatic impact of being propelled in the middle of the night from a hammock into the lake. And Betty Mack and a group of her girl friends are camping nearby. Recommended without reservation! A Hal Roach/Blackhawk Films Release.

NATURE IN THE WRONG (1933)

with MURIEL EVANS

Issued just as the Tarzan craze was sweeping the country in 1933. Charley is in love with Muriel and wants to marry her. Ronnie is also a real contender and has the inside track with Muriel's mother because of his "blue blood". Charley thus sets out to reconstruct his family tree—but Ronnie gets in the act and causes a document to reach Charley that states he is a direct descendant of Tarzan, the Ape Man. Muriel thinks this is great—and Charley sets out to practice up on his inherited powers—dressed in a leopard skin.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE (1936)

with ROSINA LAWRENCE, DARLA HOOD and RALPH MEEKER

It seems that the Chases attend the theatre every week for "Bank Night"—and of course Charley rushes home from the office and the family rushes through dinner so they can be sure to get in without standing in line. The big event is not the film—it's the drawing at the end of the first evening show—and in this one coincidence is strained to the breaking point with the Chase's little girl going on stage to pick the lucky number—then calling out Charley's number!

THE NICKEL NURSER (1932)

with BILLY GILBERT and THELMA TODD

This is one of the funniest of the Charley Chase comedies, with Charley cast as the efficiency expert brought into the home of a wealthy tycoon to attempt to teach his three daughters the value of money and the virtue of economy. One of the daughters is Thelma Todd, but by a combination of circumstances, she appears on the scene as Greta, the maid, while the real Greta, a sexy-acting blonde with a Garbo-like voice, who is actually the wife of Billy Gilbert, the butler, doubles as the third sister.

640-52, 16mm. optical sound version, about 750-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98
830-60, 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 375-feet, 1-lb. $24.98

NOW WE'LL TELL ONE (1933)

with MURIEL EVANS

Here is one of the very funny Charley Chase comedies of 1933 in which Charley, as the bashful young man, is transformed into an aggressive go-getter because of an electric belt developed by a wacky inventor. Crammed with action and laughs, this fast moving two-reeler will have you with it all the way as Charley, acting as the absolutely confident suitor, chases Muriel only to be caught without the magic belt in its climactic moments. Guaranteed to please!

640-48, 16mm. optical sound version, 800-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

ON THE WRONG TREK (1936)

starring CHARLEY CHASE with a short, surprise guest appearance by LAUREL & HARDY

Charley, his wife and his mother-in-law motor to California during his vacation. On the road they stop to inspect what they believe to be an accident. Instead, their car is stolen and their clothes changed for others not so good. Continuing in an old, broken down car, they run out of gas. While trying to drain the gas out of a stranger's car, they inadvertantly push it over a cliff. Refused admission into California because of their disreputable car and clothes, they return home. When Charley returns to the office, he finds a new boss—the stranger whose car he pushed off the cliff!

This is a particularly interesting comedy today—in addition to being one of the better of those with Chase—because of the various cars of thirty to forty years ago which it shows. In addition, every fan of Stan and Ollie will rejoice at their appearance!

640-55, 16mm. optical sound version, about 750-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98
830-126, Standard 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 375-feet, 1-lb. $24.98

PUBLIC GHOST NO. 1 (1935)

with CHARLEY CHASE, JOYCE COMPTON, EDWIN MAXWELL, CLARENCE WILSON

Clarence is a wealthy industrialist, Joyce is his daughter, Charley gets his fortune told and guess whose picture do you suppose is on his fortune card?

Charley becomes a salesman for the Elite House Haunting Corporation and his first client is a real estate agent who sold a mansion to Mr. Wilson and wishes to get it back for the former owner—who'll double the price at which he sold it!

From here to the screaming climax you get a ringside seat for a house being haunted.

LITTLE MOTHER (1929)

A combination of pathos and comedy makes an entertaining story centered about the trials and tribulations of three small children whose mother has "gone to heaven". One of the last silent "Our Gang" subjects, this has Wheezer and Beezer being cared for by their sister—a "little mother" who cooks, mends and washes necks for the whole family, with amusing sequences arising from the boys' consumption of dried apples washed down with water—a dose of baking soda accidently mixed with soap powder as a cure for their resulting swollen tummies—their misadventures when they go in search of their "mama" and the ultimate rewarding of their unquestioning faith that she would come back to them. Pete, the dog, and Joe, the fat boy of the Little Rascals, appear prominently in the film.

810-291, Standard 8mm. version, 400-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98

SATURDAY'S LESSON (1929)

The gang has been assigned individual responsibilities for Saturday—Joe to chop wood—Farina to beat carpets—Mary Ann to clean up the back yard—but the lure of the neighborhood park is greater, and the gang all ends up under the trees on that lazy summer day. A sandwich man dressed as the devil tires of his tramp along the sidewalks and stretches out on the other side of the big tree, only to hear members of the gang discuss the possibility of the "Old Devil Man" getting them if they do not do their assigned work. So our costumed devil decides to do his "good turn" for the day, drops a smoke bomb in front of the gang and hops out to warn them that if they do not do their assigned tasks, he'll be after them. Recommended.

ROBERT BENCHLEY COMEDIES

CRIME CONTROL

One of the best of the Robert Benchley comedies of the period with Benchley cast as a police captain giving a lecture on crime. (1941).

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Benchley at his best in a little narrative about the family with two daughters—one of marriageable age—the other in high school. The former has lots of eligible males on her trail—and when the daughter does say "yes", dad is the last to know. (1941).

630-52, 16mm. optical sound version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98
830-54, 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $12.98

HOW TO TAKE A VACATION

Bob as Joe Doakes breaks the news to his wife one evening that he'd like to take a vacation in the north woods with a couple of the business men who are his luncheon pals—only he really doesn't say so—it's her intuition that tells her.

So we then see Joe and the boys heading for the little cabin on the lake. When they arrive, it starts to rain. They're as hungry as a moose and are all talking about the man-kind-of-food they'll be getting in the north country—and what does their Indian guide feed them? Beans! 1941).

630-53, 16mm. optical sound version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

KEEPING IN SHAPE

Here we have Benchley as our lecturer on physical fitness and Benchley and Joe Doakes, the victim of this physical fitness campaign which is divided into three parts: Gym work, diet and the care of the teeth. And who could better demonstrate its value than Joe Doakes. Great! A Blackhawk Films/NTA Release. (1942).

630-56, 16mm. optical sound version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98
830-14, 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 175-feet, 11-ozs. $12.98

NOTHING BUT NERVES

Bob is a lecturer whose subject is "nerves", explaining to his audience how little things can have big effects on an individual. Our lecturer points this all out, but at the same time a bulb in the lecturer's desk lamp is "bugging" him, and our little story ends up with our lecturer also being "nothing but nerves". (1941).

630-54, 16mm. optical sound version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98
830-53, 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $12.98

THE MAC'S ANGLE

A companion film to the Benchley subject, "The Trouble With Husbands", announced in the last issue of the Blackhawk Bulletin. This one pictures a husband's gripes about "some women"—not women generally, you understand. For instance, the wife, who, on the day the husband decides to do a little work at home, spends the whole morning on the phone so he can't possibly make any business calls—or the wife who, when they're entertaining at home suggests that the husband tell their guests a funny story he has recently told her—and then proceeds to frequently interrupt his narrative so that she, in effect, ends up telling it herself. A really good one! (1942).

630-57, 16mm. optical sound version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE TROUBLE WITH HUSBANDS

This is almost certainly to be one of the most popular of the Robert Benchley comedies—with wives. It pictures the shortcoming of the average husband as portrayed by Joe Doakes—the husband who doesn't get ready for dinner until dinner is ready—and the home handyman whose damage to the house and himself hardly makes putting up a shelf in the kitchen worthwhile. (1940).

630-49, 16mm. optical sound version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

WAITING FOR BABY

Here Bob, as Joe Doakes, expectant father, is putting in time "Waiting For Baby" Our film takes Bob through this day in his office, at a bar, in the hospital waiting room—all in most hilarious fashion. Great comedy—and highly recommended! (1941).

630-50, 16mm. optical sound version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98
830-63, 8mm. magnetic sound version, about 175-feet, 11-ozs. $12.98

THE WITNESS

On an evening at home both Bob (as Joe Doakes) and his wife are reading—Bob giving his attention to the evening paper. He is obviously reading a news report of some trial, and his words and gestures as he warms to the subject gain his wife's attention. Bob explains that he'd be no tongue-tied, colorless witness if he ever had to testify and our film dissolves into Bob's dream of glory in the courtroom. (1942).

TOMMY BURNS VS. BILL SQUIRES

Here's a sports collector's item if there ever was one—the world's championship heavyweight fight of July 4, 1907, held at Colma, California. Interesting also because of the setting, the crowds, the cameramen and the many famous personalities in the sports world who are also pictured.

THE IMAGINATIVE GEORGES MELIES

(1903)

Although a magicion by profession, George Melies became the first man to harness the camera's potential for telling a story. His stage experience as quite evident in the multitude of films which he produced between 1896 and 1912.

Melies' mastery of trick photography and his choice of fantastical fantasies for subjects antedated "The Great Train Robbery" in demonstrating the narrative powers of motion pictures. By the time Edison's classic appeared in 1903, Melies had already shown the story-telling possibilities of the motion picture in numerous short films.

Filled with imagination and ingenuity, three of those which Melies produced in 1903 make up this Blackhawk offering. They are: "Bob Kick, the Mischevious id", "The Oracle of Delphi" and "The Lesson, or, The Living Statue"—all copied by Blackhawk from the 35mm. paper po sitives in the Library of Congress.

..... FILMS OF MELIES .....

The primitive works of George Melies of France—the professional magician, theatre proprietor and director—in whose hands the motion picture camera was first used for such unique camera tricks as stop photography, double exposures, super-imposition, fade-ins and fade-outs and dissolves, were without a question the first truly creative films.

LA COMEDIE ET MAGIQUE DE MELIES

Outstandingly good examples of the ingenuity of Melies are the two 1903 films which make up this Blackhawk presentation—"The Witch's Revenge" and "The Inn Where No Man Rests"

COLLECTOR'S ITEMS

THIS WAS NEW YORK—1900

Taken from paper prints in the archives of the Library of Congress, this film embodies the essence of some turn-of-the-century life in New York City, with a wide range of subject matter providing a nostalgic recreation of an earlier era in the life of the great metropolis. A fascinating study of the people and places of the time.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR

Here, copied from the 35mm. paper positives in The Library of Congress, is a compilation of authentic motion picture sequences that made up the primitive coverage of the Spanish-American War by the pioneer Edison and Biograph Companies. We feel that this film on "The Spanish-American War" has meaning for what it is historically, and value for today as well.

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES AND THE CAMPAIGN OF 1916

Adapted from a Republican campaign film of 1916 called "A Reunited Party", this subject is of considerable historical interest because it is the first known use of the medium of the motion picture in an American political campaign. The basic appeal of the film today is not partisan—it would have been equally as interesting if it had been a Democratic campaign prroduction. Rather, its appeal is its primitive try at using the motion picture to influence public opinion, and the famous political figures such as Teddy Roosevelt and William Howard Taft, whom it pictures.

THE RUINS OF SAN FRANCISCO, 1906

FOLLIES, FOIBLES AND FASHIONS, 1903-1905

This group was copied from 35mm. paper positives in The Library of Congress and presents very representative examples of a subject area in which Biograph excelled at the particular time. Extremely daring in their day, these units, produced primarily for viewing on the coin-operated Matoscopes in the Main Street arcades across the country, are amusing and entertaining examples of the "Follies, Foibles and Fashions" of a long-ago era.

ON A GOOD OLD FIVE CENT TROLLEY RIDE

An entertaining Edison offering of 1905, this was produced as a comedy for one of the early "split reel" programs for the store shows and has a particular appeal for trolley fans. Coupled with this is a Biograph film of 1905, "A Trip To Salt Lake City", and a comedy of this early period built around the theme of polygamy, with the setting an open section sleeping car of the day.

860-124, Super 8 version, about 175-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98

PANORAMIC IMPRESSIONS OF OLD NEW YORK (1903-1905)

As 1899 faded into the 20th century, New York City was growing by leaps and bounds. All over the city, the landscape was changing—old buildings were demolished to make way for new and giant skyscrapers. The growing city was captured by early motion picture cameras in scenes taken from the top of the newly erected New York Times Building which overlooked Times Square—east of 6th Avenue was the new Hippodrome—New York's skyline seemed to change almost daily.

810-633, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-253, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $7.98

TITANIC!

The Titanic was a ship which sank April 15, 1912, on her maiden voyage from Southampton, after striking an iceberg northeast of New York City. 1,517 lost their lives and 706 persons were rescued. Its sinking was the greatest peacetime maritime disaster.

There were no formal newsreel organizations in 1912, but many production companies did offer special events on an individual basis. Whether all scenes of the Titanic in this film are authentic, or are of a sister ship, has not been fully determined.

This production is substantially as it was when shown in the theatres of the world immediately after the disaster.

Silent Comedies

A BEDROOM SCANDAL (1921)

starring Monte Banks

This film starts out as a polite situation comedy with Monte the director of an exclusive gown shop and ends up as an action-filled slapstick comedy with a great chase. An excellent example of the comedies for which Monte Banks was to become famous!

THE CAKE EATER (1924)

with Will Rogers

Will is cowboy at a ranch inherited by two spinsters from the East who come out to take over more direct control over the property and bring with them a "poor relation", Marie Mosquini. Of course, to them Will epitomizes everything they've ever heard about the romantic west, and they set out to win him by way of the kitchen with Will being invited to teas, and fed all sorts of fancy things. The only thing that keeps Will and the crew on hand is the regular wages and, perhaps, Marie. This is a rather delightful Will Rogers comedy of the period. We're sure you'll enjoy it!

ADD LISTING OF CAST

CINDERELLA CINDERS (1920)

starring Alice Howell

Filmed in 1920 at Emerald Studios in Chicago, "Cinderella Cinders" is the story of Alice, cook in a short order cafe, being fired as a result of too much monkey business and ending up as cook for a wealthy north side family who are expecting to entertain Count and Countess DeBunco. Only the DeBuncos are imposters—and wanted by the police besides—and when they do not appear, Alice and the butler are drafted to be their doubles. What that leads to, you should see! An excellent comedy!

810-447, 8mm. silent version, about 400-feet on 2-reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
860-219 Super 8 version, about 450-feet, 1-lb. $13.98
620-166, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE CHEF (1921)

starring Billy Franey

Billy Franey appeared in a wide range of silent movies for a great many different production companies—from short independent comedies for the lowliest "Poverty Row" producer to major features for such companies as M-G-M. "The Chef" has its setting in a restaurant (of sorts) which Sennett would have labeled a "hash house". In such a setting, there are all sorts of opportunities for slapstick comedy, and the producers took full advantage of them!

810-422, standard 8mm. version, about 175-feet, 11-ozs. $5.98

A CURE FOR POKERITIS (1912)

with John Bunny and Flora Finch

John Bunny was the movies' first great comedy favorite—but few of his many films survive today. This one has the appealing Bunny in the role of a poker-playing husband who promises his irate wife (Flora Finch) that he will quit. But once again he conspires with a poker-playing buddy to get out of the house. Mama finds out and she and her friends stage a riot and the poker players wind up on probation—to their wives!

810-327, 8mm. silent version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
620-129, 16mm. silent version, about 450-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

DON'T BE FOOLISH (early 1920's)

starring Billy West

Billy West was one of the earliest and most successful of the many Chaplin imitators and his films, until well after World War I, were patterned after those of Chaplin. But early in the 1920's, West abandoned his Chaplin imitations and was seen in several different series of light, and sometimes quite diverting, comedies for various independent companies. "Don't Be Foolish" is one of these. We definitely recommend this film.

810-438, standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet, 14-ozs. $11.98

DRY AND THIRSTY

(Gayety, 1920)

starring
BILLY BLETCHER
with VERA REYNOLDS

A spoof of prohibition from the days when the United States went dry! Starting out on the beach and a rendezvous with bootleggers—only to find someone else had already gotten to the cache—and then a visit to a bar, a prop of the police department, to get those guilty of drinking! But Billy isn't slowed down for long by anyone, and this fast-moving independent comedy has one outstandingly executed sequence of traffic direction in a hotel corridor where the thirsty public arrives and departs with replenishment from a suite maintained by a bootlegger who is set up to do things big.

Vera Reynolds, Billy's leading lady, was on the way to fame via a contract with Cecil B. DeMille not long after this comedy was released.

So, this little offering has many things to recommend it. It is presented much as it was when it first appeared on theatre screen in March, 1920!

810-591, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-170, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $7.98

DON'T PARK THERE (1924)

starring Will Rogers

Will, a ranch hand, goes into town to buy some horse liniment. He gets pretty mixed up in the automobile traffic and decides to "join the crowd." With no driving lessons, Will takes the long way back to the ranch—by way of California, Seattle, New Orleans, Texas and Salt Lake City.

810-600, standard 8mm. version, about 325-feet, 11-ozs. $11.98
860-184, Super 8 version about 375-feet, 11-ozs. $13.98

EVERETT TRUE BREAKS INTO THE MOVIES (1916)

starring Bobbie Bolder

Filmed on a low budget, Everett True Breaks Into The Movies took advantage of the ABC studio and its wide variety of sets, giving viewers of today an insight into early movie making. Perhaps more revealing, it shows the actual studio entrance, casting room and offices used by ABC executives. Looking back, we tend to remember the movie's early days as a time of large studios, magnificent sets and glamorous stars. But reality was a bit different.

This film is a comedy of the time over-shadowed in present day interest by the historical aspects of film making in Chicago more than a half century ago.

THE EGYPTIAN MUMMY (1914)

starring Billy Quirk and Constance Talmadge

The Egyptian Mummy, while basically a comedy, does have a relationship to science fiction. Connie's father, a professor, has developed a miraculous liquid that brings the dead back to life, including mummies. After failing to commit suicide, because of being a failure in life, Billy reads an ad in the paper offering $5,000 for a mummy, takes advantage of the situation by enrolling the services of a bum in the park, and there the fun begins.

FOX TROT FINESSE (1915)

starring Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew

Sidney is a most put-upon husband, boxed in between a wife who likes to do that new dance, the fox trot, from breakfast until midnight, and a hatchet-faced mother-in-law who looks upon him as something lower than a worm. The mother-in-law returns to her home, to get a little rest, Sidney decides that an "injured foot" will keep him off the dance floor. But Sidney's wife decides she needs her mother back to help take care of Sidney, and as a result, Sidney makes a quick recovery and just "loves to dance!"

620-148, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

HALF A MAN (1925)

starring Stan Laurel with Blanche Payson

Stan Laurel was featured or starred in several different series of comedies for a variety of producers for the decade beginning about the time of World War I. "Half A Man" was the last film in a series which F. B. O. distributed in the mid-1920's, just a year or so before he teamed up with Oliver Hardy. Stan appears as a far different character from the one he was to develop for his appearances with Ollie. This is a particularly interesting comedy of the period for that very reason.

810-496, standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $11.98
620-177, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

HEROIC AMBROSE (1920)

starring Mack Swain

Mack Swain signed to do a series of Poppy Comedies with Lottie Cruze, using his "Ambrose" characterization. The full story behind the failure of the Poppy Comedies has been lost in the pages of history, but the series was never completed.

As so few of the Poppy Comedies were made and distributed, Blackhawk is extremely pleased to present "Heroic Ambrose", representative of both Mack Swain and the bathing beauty comedies so prevalent in the period immediately following World War I.

810-592, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. ..... $ 6.98
860-168, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. ..... $ 7.98

HIS WIFE'S NEW LID (1915)

starring Billie Reeves

Billie Reeves was a member of the famous Karno's Pantomime Company that brought both Charlie Chaplin and Stan Laurel to America. In this one, Billie is not only a very jealous husband but one who frowns upon his wife's "excessive expenditures" for new hats. But Billie gets a bit out of hand, and it looks like his wife may have taught him a lesson. An unusually interesting period comedy.

620-167, 16mm. silent version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

HOP TO IT (1925)

starring Bobby Ray with Oliver "Babe" Hardy

Hop To It offers a vivid example of the vicissitudes of fame. Its star, Bobby Ray, is forgotten today while Oliver Hardy, then perennially a supporting player, became within a few years after this film was made, along with Stan Laurel, one of the most beloved comedians of the films. This film offers other elements of interest today. Its production values seem quite elaborate for a low budget film. It has plenty of action, and is a comedy from the 1920's which we feel sure you'll enjoy!

810-526, standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet, 1-lb. $11.98
620-188, 16mm. silent version, about 700-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE IRON MULE (1925)

starring Al St. John

Here is one of the classics of silent comedy that for years we've been hoping we could bring to you in a really good quality version. This film of the mid-1920's was a rather sophisticated approach to comedy, having as its basis the spoof of early railroading, and its principal prop, a substantially full scale model of the famous DeWitt Clinton locomotive and train.

810-554, Std. 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. ..... $ 6.98
860-84, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. ..... $ 7.98

MADAME SANS JANE

Featuring Fay Wray, Glenn Tryon, and James Finlayson.

Fay and Glenn are in love, but Fay's father, Jimmy, is 100% opposed. So, he decides to take his daughter to Europe; and as in 1926 it was customary for a young girl traveling abroad to have a companion of her own sex, Jimmy goes in search of one. Glenn decides to impersonate a companion of the appropriate character, and gets the job. It is fairly obviously where this is leading, and our comedy, as it develops, makes the most of it!

860-223, Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 14-oz. $13.98

ONE WET NIGHT (1924)

Starring Neely Edwards, Alice Howell and Bert Roach

Neely Edwards came from vaudeville to the screen in Harry and ack Cohn's Hall Room Boys series. Alice Howell's career spanned Keystone, L-KO, Century and Reelcraft Comedies. Bert Roach won a reputation with Sennett and Al Christie.

Most of the comedies distributed in the twenties by Universal were of the situation type and, as such, left something to be desired. For the most part, slapstick had gone out of vogue. But in One Wet Night, William H. Watson skillfully combined the two to produce this hilarious comedy — one we're sure you'll enjoy!

OUTBOUND (1924)

A Cameo Comedy with Sid Smith and Cliff Bowers

Here's a rare example of one of the many series of comedies distributed by Educational Film Exchanges in the 1920's — rare because so many of the original negatives were destroyed in a laboratory vault fire many years ago, and very little record remains of many of them.

This one is somewhat typical of many of the comedies in this series — it is filled with action — much of it with one of the boys "asleep" on his bed suspended upon a beam extending back from a heavy track winding its way through the curving and up-and-down roads of Hollywood's Griffith Park. How did it get that way? The track backed into the bed in turning around — how else?

SMITHY (1924)

Starring Stan Laurel

In this one reeler, Stan is just out of the service at the close of the war (World War I), and in the process of searching for a job gets mistaken for the new construction superintendent. STICK AROUND (1925)

starring Bobby Ray with Oliver "Babe" Hardy, Hazel Newman and Harry McCoy

Bobby and Ollie are paper hangers—Ollie is the boss—Bobby is the goof (with a brain like an emergency brake—he seldom used it). The new job is for repairing the walls in Harry McCoy's sanitarium and the boys get into situations such as you would expect with two crazy paper hangers and interested inmates.

'TWAS HENRY'S FAULT (1919)

With Elinor Field and Harry Depp

The present generation may never have heard of the "Flivver" and "tin lizzie" jokes of the years starting just before World War I and extending well into the 1920's — jokes aimed at Henry Ford's ubiquitous Model T. But the Henry in "Twas Henry's Fault" refers to none other than Mr. Ford — and this title comedy somehow reflects both the ridicule and respect that were heaped on his famous product in the early days of mass production when the Model T seemed to be just everywhere.

A TWO-CYLINDER COURTSHIP

With Billie Rhodes and Jay Belasco

Billie Rhodes is cast as a tomboy "farmerette" who has great mechanical aptitudes and is more interested in repairing her "two-cylinder" automobile than in her sweetheart, Jay Belasco. The appearance and antics of various vintage automobiles are of special interest.

810-341, 8mm. silent version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $5.98
620-142, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet 2-lbs. $24.98

Snub Pollard Comedies

THE BIG IDEA
(Hal Roach 1924)
Starring Snub Pollard, with Blanche Mehaffey and Glenn Tryon

Horses were still very much in evidence on American streets in 1924 when this Snub Pollard comedy was produced. And, up to his usual tricks, Snub is Ignatius the Inventor, who, while he has a real sixth sense about some things, is minus the first five. But Snub's inventing in "The Big Idea" is an automated street sweeper which turns out to be about the size of a garage rather than the compact units which we know today. And, it has tendencies to operate somewhat like a vacuum cleaner. You can appreciate, therefore, the kind of complications that might result from Snub's demonstration of the monster before a reviewing stand filled with the city council and the leading civic leaders of the community. We can tell you that the results won't disapppoint you. It's Snub at his inventing best!

DRINK HEARTY (1920)

starring Snub Pollard

A clever prohibition comedy made during the first year of prohibition in the United States. Drink Hearty is a fine example of the reason for Snub Pollard's popularity with comedy fans, and an outstanding ballet of comic timing.

IT'S A GIFT (1923)

with Snub Pollard

Snub Pollard first gained the spotlight in the movies as a featured player in the early Hal Roach Comedies which starred Harold Lloyd. When, in the early 1920's, Lloyd switched to feature productions, Roach inaugurated a series of one-reelers starring Snub. Pollard's comedies were long on gadgetry, and "It's a Gift" is certainly typical of them.

THE YOKEL
(1926)

During his ten years ith Hal Roach, Snub made hundreds of comedy, both in a supporting role with Harold Lloyd, and starring on his own. The story line has Snub as a country boy going to visit snobbish relatives in the city. Word arrives at almost the same time that Snub has struck it rich in oil. There are gold-diggers in evidence, and one sultry number starts to give Snub a real orkover. Then ord arrives that it's a mistake—and the gold-diggers head for other directions. .....D. W. GRIFFITH PRODUCTIONS.....

AMERICA

featuring Neil Hamilton, Carol Dempster and Lionel Barrymore

This story of the Revolutionary War was adopted from one written by Robert W. Chambers. It was produced by D. W. Griffith at the Griffith Studio at Mamaroneck, N. Y., with outside sequences filmed on the Shirley and Westover Plantations along the James River in Virginia, and in Williamsburg—a decade before Williamsburg's restoration. It is presented in 8mm. form substantially as it was at the time of its initial release. (1924).

810-405, Standard 8mm. version, 2400-feet on 12 reels, 5-lbs. $74.98

BROKEN BLOSSOMS

with Lillian Gish, Richard Barthelmess and Donald Crisp

Released in the spring of 1919, "Broken Blossoms", the last of D. W. Griffith's supremely great films, is as tender and sensitive a production as "Intolerance" and "The Birth of a Nation" are spectacular, and Griffith's skill for using the camera to bare the hearts and emotions of his characters is at the best in this story.

For all its tenderness and exquisite romance, "Broken Blossoms" is an ugly story, asking eloquently for understanding between people of different races and beliefs. (1919).

810-378, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 1400-feet, 3-lbs. $44.98

HEARTS OF THE WORLD

with Lillian and Dorothy Gish, Robert Harron, Kate Bruce, George Seigmann, Erich Von Stroheim, Noel Coward, Ben Alexander

In 1917, the British Government asked D. W. Griffith to make a propaganda picture on behalf of the Allied War effort. "Hearts of the World" was the result. Filmed in both France and England, and completed in the United States, it proved to be one of Griffith's most popular films. And it brought to Lillian and Dorothy Gish and to Erich Von Stroheim, added impetus to their careers. (1917).

810-412, Standard 8mm. version, about 2000-feet on 10 reels, 4-lbs. $64.98

INTOLERANCE

with Lillian Gish, Mae Marsh, Robert Harron, Miriam Cooper, Constance Talmadge, Eric Von Stroheim and Bessie Love

D. W. Griffith in four separate stories, attacked intolerance and bigotry through the ages, bringing the epic to the screen with film techniques far advanced for the times. (1916).

860-17, Super 8 version, about 2900-feet, 6-lbs. $92.98

JUDITH OF BETHULIA

with Blanche Sweet, Henry B. Walthall, Mae Marsh, Robert Harron and Lillian Gish

This was Griffith's first feature-length production, it cost about $36,000. This Biblical spectacle was a forerunner of "Intolerance" which Griffith was to make only three years later. It is being presented by Blackhawk in the original form in which it was placed in distribution on Nov. 24, 1913.

ORPHANS OF THE STORM

starring Lillian and Dorothy Gish

"Orphans of the Storm" was very nearly D. W. Griffith's last great picture although he was to produce and direct ten more silent films before the coming of the talkies. It is a mixture of what was, in 1921, a well known play, "The Two Orphans" and Dickens' story of the French Revolution from "A Tale of Two Cities". (1921).

810-357, Standard 8mm. version, 2400-feet on 12 reels, 5-lbs. $79.98

WAY DOWN EAST

with Lillian Gish, Richard Barthelmess, Lowell Sherman and Burr McIntosh

An old stage melodrama, written by Lottie Blair Parker of Otsego, New York (first presented on the stage in 1898), and purchased by D. W. Griffith from William A. Brady for $175,000—a price which in those days made all Hollywood scream—"Way Down East" was undoubtedly one of the most commercially successful of all the Griffith films. The picture, which cost $1,004,662 to make, opened in New York in August, 1920.

THE COWARD

with Frank Keenan and Charles Ray

From an era when movie-makers are said to have ended every film with a love scene. The Coward doesn't even really have a romance. The Coward is a Civil War production putting the stress on realism in what was very much an age of innocence, during the First World War. This film only serves to amplify the legend of producer Thomas H. Ince. (1915).

with Ralph Lewis, Jean Arthur and Hugh Allen

The story of a railroad engineer nearing retirement, his involvement in a wreck and consignment to a spot of crossing flagman. And of his daughter with whom an ambitious young fireman and a highway engineer are both in love. Here is the great Lon Chaney feature of 1923 complete and substantially as it was when it was first released. While Chaney had first attracted more than casual attention in "The Miracle Man" in which he appeared at Paramount in 1919, it was unquestionably his performance in "The Hunchback" and in "The Phantom of the Opera", which followed at Universal in 1925, that laid the groundwork for his highly successful career at M-G-M for the remainder of the silent era. But marriage to Harrison doesn't have all of the romance of Harlan's books. (1922).

THE SOCIAL SECRETARY

starring Norma Talmadge with Gladden James, Erich Von Stroheim

"The Social Secretary" is one of the several feature pictures made by Norma Talmadge for Triangle in 1915 and 1916 after her departure from Vitagraph, where she had been one of the lesser stars for that pioneer company. We feel that it is a choice example of a feature picture from that early period and frankly, there are a few things about it that even surprised us. (1916).

STRONGHEART

featuring Henry B. Walthall, Lionel Barrymore, Blanche Sweet, Antonio Moreno and Alan Hale

In 1913, the imposing theatrical organization of Klaw and Erlanger had the idea of filming five reel productions of a number of their greatest stage successes. "Strongheart" was one of these productions and while its heritage from the stage is very apparent, it presents much reflecting the manners, customs and dress of the time. It has as its background college life at Columbia in New York. Released by Klaw and Erlanger in 1914 as a five reel feature, it was re-edited by Biograph in 1916 and reissued. It is offered here in that form. (1914).

VANITY FAIR

Starring Helen Gardner with Charles Kent, Mrs. B. F. Clinton, Rose E. Tapley, John Bunny, Tefft Johnson, Leo Delaney, William Shea, Alec B. Francis, Harry Northrup, Katte Price, W. V. Ranous and Flora Finch

Thackeray's Vanity Fair was released December 19, 1911. Helen Gardner, an earnest, sincere, beautiful and idealistic woman who had been trained in both dancing and pantomime was the star. In Blackhawk's release of Vitagraph's Vanity Fair, part of the last scene is missing. According to the story-ized version in "The Motion Picture Story Magazine", January 1912, by Montanye Perry, who presumably worked from the scenario, Becky poisoned herself—of course a non-Thackerayean ending. (1911)

The story of a Southerner transplanted to Wyoming, in the 1870's. The Virginian placed a heavy emphasis upon a man's code of honor and its effect on the lives of those around him. This version of the Virginian is effectively done against magnificent Western backgrounds.

IN THE DAYS OF THE THUNDERING HERD

(Selig, 1914)

starring Tom Mix with Bessie Eyton

Tom is cast as the pony express rider who forsakes the pony express business to accompany this sweetheart, Sally Madison (Bessie Eyton) into the far west to join her father. The long, winding line of prairie schooners is seen on the trail and making camp for the night.

Then, the stealthy approach of the Indian girl who makes known to her people the presence of the white men. Then comes the Indian attack in which they encircle the encampment until only two whites — Tom and his sweetheart— are left alive. Then see the Indian torture of Tom, and his escape with his sweetheart—only to be recaptured. There are running fights, encounters between the Indians and other wagon trains, a buffalo stampede and amazing equestrian feats by Tom which a reviewer of the day said "would probably never be repeated again in moving pictures." It all ends happily, however. Our abridged version, much as it appeared in the 1920's, gives considerable flavor of the early and major work of that famous Western star, Tom Mix.

810-495, Standard 8mm. version, about 500-feet, 2-lbs. $19.98

860-296, Super 8 verson, about 550-feet, 2 lbs. $22.98

. . DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS FEATURES . .

AMERICAN ARISTOCRACY

starring Douglas Fairbanks and Jewel Carmen

"American Aristocracy" was Doug's tenth film in the series he made for Triangle in the period from late 1915 to early 1917, and is one that offers considerable to today's viewers from the standpoint of the manners and points-of-view of a half century ago, not to mention the sport roadsters, seaplanes and motor cruisers of the day. (1917).

810-362, Standard 8mm. version, 900-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

620-155, 16mm. version, 1800-feet on 5 reels, 6-lbs. $99.98

THE AMERICANO

with Douglas Fairbanks and Alma Rubens

This film features Douglas Fairbanks at his smiling best. It's the story of a Yankee engineer who goes to a revolt-ridden Caribbean country because of a smile from the Presidente's daughter. The revolt is no match for Doug's wits and vigor and he ends up with the country in the palm of his hand—and the daughter as well. (1916).

810-152, Standard 8mm. version, 825-feet on 4 reels, 2-lbs. $23.98

THE BLACK PIRATE

starring Douglas Fairbanks

Douglas Fairbanks became one of the most popular stars of the screen in action-filled light comedies in the early years of the feature picture, but it is his series of historical adventure films of the 1920's for which he is best remembered today. (1920).

810-401, Standard 8mm. version, 1500-feet on 8 reels, 4-lbs. $49.98

FLIRTING WITH FATE

with Douglas Fairbanks

"Flirting With Fate", Douglas Fairbanks' seventh film, hit the screens of the country's growing number of movie palaces in the summer of 1916. In less than a year, so sensational had been Fairbanks' rise to popularity, he was one of the top stars of the screen. (The original 35mm. negative was available for the preparation of our pre-print material. Prints are excellent.) (1916).

810-285, Standard 8mm. version, 900-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPERS

with Douglas Fairbanks

This film is typical of Fairbanks in the years before the costume pictures. And, it is rated as being the picture that established Fairbanks in the movies. The film is action almost from the start, and is one we can unconditionally recommend to every collector. (1916).

810-275, Standard 8mm. version, 800-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

620-87, 16mm. version, 1600-feet on 5 reels, 6-lbs. $99.98

THE MATRIMANIAC

starring Douglas Fairbanks with Constance Talmadge

This Douglas Fairbanks feature picture of 1916 is one of the last of the long series he made for Triangle after coming to the screen in 1915. It is an excellent farce comedy, at many spots coming very close to slapstick. Triangle released this subject as a five reel feature, although, in footage, it is barely four reels in length. For your convenience, and for economy, we have redivided the subject onto four reels—without making any eliminations—and we highly recommend it to you. Prints are of excellent quality. (1916).

810-348, Standard 8mm. version, 650-feet, 2-lbs. $23.98

620-163, 16mm. silent version, 1300-feet, 4-lbs. $79.98

REGGIE MIXES IN

starring Douglas Fairbanks with Bessie Love and Alma Rubens

This was Douglas Fairbanks' sixth film, and cast him as a wealthy young man with few responsibilities. He gets involved with life on the other side of the tracks and falls in love with Bessie Love. The elements of the underworld are out to get Doug but the Fairbanks' athletic prowess and never-say-die approach puts Doug on top. (1916).

810-509, Standard 8mm. version, about 800-feet, 2-lbs. $23.98

620-184, 16mm. silent version, about 1600-feet, 5-lbs. $99.98

....WM. S. HART FEATURES....

THE DISCIPLE

with Dorothy Dalton and Robert McKim

Here's one of the off-beat Western roles that was somehow typical of Bill Hart—the Sky Pilot whose wife is lured away from her rather drab existence by the dashing and debonair operator of the town's saloon. However, there's nothing tame about the way Hart handles it. "The Disciple" was the first William S. Hart production made by Thomas H. Ince to be released as a Triangle Play in November, 1915.

810-279, Standard 8mm. version, 950-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

620-91, 16mm. version, 1900-feet on 5 reels, 6-lbs. $99.98

ON THE NIGHT STAGE

Bill Hart's first feature picture, produced by Thomas H. Ince in the winter of 1914-15 and released to the nickelodeons in the spring of 1915. "On the Night Stage" is presented in its original five reel form, with original main and text titles intact. Your print will look just as the film did when it flashed onto theatre screens across the country in the spring of 1915 as a "Mutual Master Picture". (1915).

810-240, Standard 8mm. version, 1000-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

620-57, 16mm. version, 2000-feet on 5 reels, 7-lbs. $99.98

THE RETURN of DRAW EGAN

One of the Thomas H. Ince productions of 1916 that was released by Triangle. Bill, an outlaw, takes a job as a town marshal because of a girl. Of course, his past catches up with him—and his struggle between the forces of good and of evil—and his love for the girl—make for a bang-up Western of the type that brought him fame. (1916).

810-196, Standard 8mm. version, 700-feet on 4 reels, 2-lbs. $23.98

THE SAGA OF Wm. S. HART

Here's a unique film that virtually spans Hart's motion picture career which ran from 1914 to 1925. It contains sequences from ten of his motion picture successes from 1914 to 1924, and vividly traces not only Hart's development as the greatest Western star in the history of the screen, but the maturing of the motion picture during the years immediately before and after World War I. (1914-1924).

810-157, Standard 8mm. version, 700-feet on 4 reels, 2-lbs. $23.98

620-17, 16mm. version, 1400-feet on 4 reels, 5 lbs. $79.98

THE SQUARE DEAL MAN

with MARY McIVOR

Here is a typical William S. Hart "good bad man" Western with Hart cast as the gambler, Jack O'Diamonds, who becomes involved in a midnight game of chance with ranch owner, Col. Ransome. The evening's climax comes when a disgruntled foreman fires a revolver through the window, fatally wounding the colonel, but causing Hart, who has just drawn his own gun, to think he is responsible.

Hart gets a death-bed confession from one of the confederates and ends up being very romantically attached to Miss Ransome! (1917).

810-485, Standard 8mm. version, about 850-feet, 2-lbs. $29.98

620-239, 16mm. silent version, about 1700-feet, 6-lbs. $99.98

THE TOLL GATE

"The Toll Gate" is one of William S. Hart's films made early in 1920, produced by his own company under his personal supervision, and originally distributed theatrically by Paramount-Artcraft, although reissued later in the 1920's as a Sandee Picture. Many individuals consider "The Toll Gate" to be one of Hart's best films. Certainly its story thread is razor sharp—characterization surprisingly realistic and vivid —and the finished result today is an outstanding offer for collectors. (1920).

810-288, Standard 8mm. version, 850-feet on 5 reels, 3-lbs. $29.98

620-99, 16mm. version, 1700-feet on 5 reels, 6-lbs. $99.98

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Many of the Silent Films of Standard 8mm.-Super 8-16mm.

MUTUAL PERIOD

In this period, during 1916-1917, Chaplin produced and directed a dozen two reel comedies for Mutual. As a group, these rank at the very top of any series of short comedy films ever produced. And it here that Chaplin came into his own. Every film of the twelve is a delight!

THE ADVENTURER

(Edna Purviance, Eric Campbell, Henry Bergman and Albert Austin
As an escaped convict eluding prison guards via the beach, Charlie happens on two drowning ladies. As a reward for their rescue, he becomes their house guest. There follows a series of hilarious sequences of which one with a wayward gob of ice cream is perhaps the tops! (1917, Mutual)

"The Count" is characterized by fast action, typical slapstick and some fine examples of Chaplin pantomime. Charlie catches his former boss in the act of impersonating a real count and all kinds of comedy situations evolve. Charlie's dance, at a ball, with Miss Moneybags is one of the film's highlights, and the first use of a moving camera to follow the dancers around the floor. (1916, Mutual).
810-332, standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet, 14-ozs., . $11.98

THE BANK (Essanay, 1915)

starring Charlie Chaplin with Edna Purviance

Charlie is the bank janitor. Reporting for work one morning, he is seen heading for the vault and working the vault combination with considerable dexterity—and results! Inside the vault he hangs his coat and then comes forth with his mop bucket. In ambling through the bank. Charlie brings havoc wherever he goes with the wet mop. Charlie then discovers a gift package with a note written by Edna which reads: "To Charles, with love, from Edna" and jumps to the conclusion that Edna loves him, not realizing that the gift was for the cashier. Charlie places a small bouquet on Edna's desk, only later to discover them carelessly tossed into the waste basket. Charlie then has a dream in which he is the hero, thwarting a bank robbery and rescuing Edna from the bank vault—only to awaken and find himself kissing the mop with Edna, nearby, in the arms of the cashier. Rated as one of the very best of the Essanay-Chaplins. Originally released to the theatres on August 16, 1965.

A NIGHT IN THE SHOW (1915)

Starring Charlie Chaplin

One of the very best of Chaplin's series of Essanay Comedies. Charlie is cast in a double role: as a gentleman who causes a considerable amount of disturbance in the orchestra, and as Mr. Rowdy, who does equally well in the gallery.

As the gentleman, Charlie causes many mishaps in the lobby, and when he finally gets into the theatre, changes his seat so many times that he is distinctly unpopular with his neighbors. As Mr. Rowdy, he is also up to all kinds of tricks, including the playing of the fire hose on the audience.

There is also considerable by-play between the gentleman, the orchestra and the various vaudeville acts on the program, which makes the comedy of even more interest in its picturing this once most popular variety of entertainment.

810-533, Standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet, 1-lb. $11.98
860-277, Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $13.98

STARRING PEARL WHITE

THE REPTILE UNDER THE FLOWERS (Pathe, 1914)

Crane Wilbur and Paul Panzer
One of the original "Perils of Pauline" with Pearl White,

Although ever so many chapters of the "Perils of Pauline" had appeared prior to "The Reptile Under the Flowers", and Pauline seemed set on a successful career before marriage, she and Harry were now making wedding plans. Koerner, feeling that Pauline's fortune is finally going to escape him, enlists the help of Balthazar. But there is some plotting with gypsies in which one is wounded, and the wife vows vengeance—not against Koerner but against Pauline — and plants a "viper" in a basket of flowers to be given to our heroine. But Harry sees the flowers moving, investigates, and destroys the reptile. But adventure still fascinates Pauline, and she plans for one final event before her marriage—the riding of a thoroughbred in the steeplechase handicap. Harry tries to dissuade her but, as always, Pauline persists There is plotting as usual, but for all the skullduggery, Pauline survives and it does appear that Pauline and Harry are finally headed for the altar.

THE DEATH RAY (1915)
(A Chapter from "The Exploits of Elaine", 1915)

with PEARL WHITE, CREIGHTON HALE and SHELDON LEWIS

An early example of the science-fiction type of subject. Although pretty elementary science-fiction, this film is a vivid example of the great strides being made in the movie industry at the time—particularly when compared to "The Perils of Pauline" which preceded it.

810-207, Standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet, 14-ozs. $11.98

OTHER SERIALS

AT THE MERCY OF THE FLAMES (1919)

(A Chapter from "The Woman in Grey", 1919)
starring Arline Pretty and Henry G. Sell

The seventh installment of this production, this chapter is presented in its entirety, and has some thrilling action in a mansion fitted with secret doors—automobile chases—the mad pursuit of an open trolley car—and the capture and binding of a beautiful blonde heroine in a building deliberately set on fire. A typical and exciting "cliff-hanger".

810-336, Standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-138, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet on 2 reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

CLIFF-HANGING MOMENTS FROM THE SERIALS with William Duncan, Edith Johnson, Arline Pretty, Henry G. Sell, Eddie Polo

Scenes from "The Steel Trail" (1923), a fifteen chapter serial which had William Duncan cast as a hard-punching construction engineer, are from one of Universal's primitive coming attraction trailers of the period. Edge-of-the-seat suspense is created in the climactic segment from "Burning Strands", chapter nine of "A Woman in Grey" (1919). The excerpt from "Captain Kidd" (1922), in which Eddie Polo played the role of a wealthy man who had been shanghaied aboard the ship, the Albatross, has Eddie and the boat's crew in a desperate battle with the notorious pirate, Captain Kidd, and his band of cutthroats.

810-428, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-27, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. ..... $ 7.98
620-106, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE PURPLE DAGGER (1915)
Chapter Two of "The Trail of the Octopus"

starring Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber

Subjects dealing with the supernatural were in vogue during the 1919-1921 period and "The Trail of the Octopus" leaned quite heavily in that direction. As the noted criminologist Carter Holmes, Ben Wilson attempted to foil the evil plot of the mysterious "Monsieur X", on Seal Island, which, of course, deeply involved Neva Gerber. Chapters One and Two left the hero and heroine in deadly peril. But we've been able to add on the opening sequences from Chapter Three, "Face To Face", to bring this excellent example of the silent "Cliff-Hanger" to its conclusion.

810-594, Standard 8mm. version, about 425-feet, 1-lb. $12.98
860-136, Super 8 version, about 475-feet, 2-lbs. $14.98
620-136, 16mm. silent version, about 850-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

EXCERPTS FROM "THE LURE OF THE CIRCUS" (1919)

with Eddie Polo, Molly Malone, Eileen Sedgewick and Charles Hill Mailes

With a circus background as well as the atmosphere of a booming oil field, the highlights revolve around Eddie Polo as "Eddie Somers", the hero, part owner of the Great Western Circus and a trapeze artist of some repute, who finds himself the middle-man in one near disastrous situation after another as he fights not only for his share of the circus against almost insurmountable odds, but takes on enemies of his father who seek to ruin the elder man's good luck in an oil field venture.

In the production of "The Lure of the Circus" the Sells-Floto facilities were used as the circus background in the opening chapters, while Barnum & Bailey provided settings for the closing episodes.

810-361, Standard 8mm. version, about 825-feet on 4 reels, 2-lbs. $24.98
620-159, 16mm. silent version, about 1650-feet on 4 reels, 5-lbs. $99.98

THE RELAY

(Seventh in the First Series of "The Collegians", 1927)
starring George Lewis, Dorothy Gulliver, Eddie Phillips, Churchill Ross, Hayden Stevenson

Covers the college careers of the principals at "Good Old Calford"—no true resemblance to college life then or now, but certainly a reflection on the "flaming youth" of the "Roaring Twenties".

810-531, Standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $11.98
620-192, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet, 3-lbs. $34.98

THE VEILED PRIESTESS (1915)
Chapter Four of "The Ventures of Marguerite"

starring Marguerite Courtot

During the ten year period Kalem existed, it operated on a minimum investment. The company made pictures around the world, but owned no permanent studio facilities. Nonetheless, Kalem produced thousands of short films and earned fortunes for its founders.

Kalem came close to the serial realm with "The Ventures of Marguerite", starring petite Marguerite Courtot. According to the story line, "The Ventures" were fifteen dangers Marguerite faced prior to marrying her hero, and constituted the continuing plot.

The hero follows her on a dangerous trail that eventually leads to an abandoned sewer and rescues her just in time by administering the "life current".

THE PIRATE'S TREASURE (1914)
(A Chapter from "The Perils of Pauline")

THE TRAGIC PLUNGE (1914)
One of the Original "Perils of Pauline"

starring PEARL WHITE

This unusually good chapter is longer than most and has a story thread that's easier to follow than most. The story has to do with a woman spy, Miss de Yagow, who is out to capture inside information on U. S. submarines. As the story progresses, Pauline is invited aboard the submarine which is then sunk by a bomb to the harbor bottom. Of course Pauline escapes and the submarine is saved. A real thriller!

THROUGH AIR AND FIRE (1914)
One of the Original "Perils of Pauline"

starring Pearl White with Crane Wilbur and Paul Panzer

Here is the first chapter of the serial that started it all! In this first episode, Pauline is left, by the passing of her guardian, with her fortune in the hands of the shady Koerner, who has one prime purpose in life—to do away with Pauline and get the forture for himself. He does this in a variety of ways which become "The Perils"—and in this first chapter, Pauline is cast loose in a balloon high above the Hudson River and the Jersey Palisades and—rescued from this peril—is kidnapped, taken to an abandoned house, and left to burn to death in the fire set by her abductor.

But her betrothed, Harry (Crane Wilbur) is equal to all of this and begins the first of his many rescues that, week after week, saved Pauline for the perils that lay ahead!

STARRING HELEN HOLMES

IN DANGER'S PATH starring Helen Holmes

THE LEAP FROM THE WATER TOWER (1915)

One of the famous "Hazards of Helen" with Helen Holmes

The longest serial film in the era of the silents, produced by Kalem from 1914 to 1917, running a total of 119 almost weekly episodes. While all of those films dealt with railroading, the activities of the "telegraph operator at the station down the line" were often rather superficially set against this background. But this episode is no routine chapter, for it deals almost as much with locomotives and trains as it does with the players. The action sequences in this film were photographed in the vicinity of Cajon Pass in California, while the major railroad yard scenes were taken at San Bernardino.

810-493, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. ..... $ 6.98
860-50, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. ..... $ 7.98
620-173, 16mm. silent version, 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE OPEN TRACK starring Helen Holmes

Helen Holmes, as the telegraph operator at the station, outwits a gang of counterfeiters. There's a wild chase in an Atlantic-type locomotive, and plenty of action in touring cars of the 1914 era in Los Angeles' Griffith Park. For railroad fans, old auto enthusiasts and film collectors generally, this Kalem production of 1914 should be a welcome addition to your library.

CIRCUS TRAINS TO MILWAUKEE 1966-1967

Photographed by Jim Boyd

Here in a single film is pictorial coverage of the 1966 Circus Train from Baraboo, Wisconsin, to Milwaukee, behind the Burlington's famous Mikado-type locomotive, No. 4960, and the 1967 Circus Train over the same run behind the ex-Grand Trunk Western Pacific-type locomotive, No. 5629.

There are scenes of the locomotives, taking water, assembling the train, run-by shots enroute and arrival at the Milwaukee lakefront. On more circus aspects of the operation, you'll see the circus wagons being loaded in Baraboo and the start of unloading in Milwaukee.

THE CIRCUS WAKES UP

The fascination of a circus is always with most of us. This film takes a somewhat different approach in that it shows us behind-the-scenes of a circus rehearsal before the season's tour begins. Though it is filmed with the youngsters in mind, adults will be equally pleased.

810-15, Standard 8mm. version, about 150-feet, 11-ozs. $5.98

THE HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS—1930-1935

From out of the past rolls the colorful, loaded train of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, bringing memories for oldsters who have seen the greatest show on earth, have thrilled as gaudy circus posters went up in their towns and who waited on the lots for the heaped up, sprawling circus to come to life . . . and a bit of Americana for youngsters who may never thrill to the blare of the bands, the breath-taking performances under the canvas, the smell of the sawdust, or succumb to the lure of the circus.

Down the years, very little authentic motion picture footage of circuses was photographed professionally, and this good amateur footage made during 1930-1935 is perhaps among the few motion picture records of the great era.

810-414, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-10, Super 8mm. version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $7.98

THE MILWAUKEE CIRCUS PARADE, 1964

All the color and flavor of the old-time circus parade heralding "the greatest show on earth"—one of America's oldest entertainment spectaculars fast fading from the scene, is caught in this color film shot during the gigantic 1964 Fourth of July Parade in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Pictures twenty-four of the historic circus wagons, almost all from the Circus World Museum of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin at Baraboo—fully restored and repainted in all their original splendor.

THE LITTLEST ANGEL

To the gates of Heaven came a small and very lonely little angel who, though he tried hard to look and act like a good angel should, just couldn't seem to stay out of trouble. Then one day, the kindly old Understanding Angel granted the littlest Angel's wish and from that day on, the cherub's conduct and appearance were above reproach. Finally, came the time when Jesus was to be born. All the angels of Paradise busied themselves with the preparation of their costly gifts. Yet, it was the gift of the Littlest Angel that was chosen to shine as an inspiration for all men.

WESTERN SHORTS

AN ARIZONA WOOING (1915)

with TOM MIX

A one reel western produced by Selig. "An Arizona Wooing" went into release through General Film Company in May, 1915. It is presented with main and subtitles used in its reissues by Exclusive Features in the early 1920's. Mix plays the role of a cowboy unpopular with local ranchers because he is raising sheep on a cattle ranch, and is equally disliked by "Mexican Joe" who is vying with him for the love of a girl.

810-370, Standard 8mm. version, 200-feet, 12-ozs. $6.98
860-113, Super 8, about 225-feet, 12-ozs. $7.98
620-158 16mm. silent version, 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

ALKALI IKE'S AUTO (1911)

starring AUGUSTUS CARNEY

Filmed at the Essanay western studio at Niles, California, "Alkali Ike's Automobile" was the first of a lengthy series of Ike Comedies and made the diminuative Augustus Carney world famous. When he went to Paris in 1913, he was mobbed by adoring fans.

Carney's rural humor caught the eye of Carl Laemmle, who was forever raiding other companies for talent. Joining Universal in 1914, Alkali Ike became Universal Ike only to clash with Harry Edwards, his new director. Leaving Universal, Carney's star vanished into the obscurity of bit roles and he disappeared from the screen.

Essanay re-issued this first Ike film as "Alkali Ike's Auto" in November, 1914, and it outgrossed its first release. Historically, "Alkali Ike's Auto" is of more than passing interest and is presented here substantially the same as when it was initially released in May, 1911, and reissued in November, 1914.

810-574, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98

BRONCHO BILLY AND THE GREASER (1914)

with G. M. ANDERSON

The first Western star, Anderson directed and starred in over 350 "Broncho Billy" films, as well as many dramas, but by 1916 his realistic and vigorous portrayal of the old west had been overshadowed by a newcomer, William S. Hart.

Typical of the films that Anderson made in creating his cowboy hero, "Broncho Billy And The Greaser" had the advantage of several years of character development and much as the film was originally seen by audiences at the time of its initial release, October 10, 1914.

810-360, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-173, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. $7.98

GIRL OF THE RANCHO

620-246, 16mm. silent version, about 350-feet, 1-lb., 12-ozs. $24.98

THE FOUR GUN BANDIT (1919)

starring PETE MORRISON and MAGDA LANE

In keeping with our policy of heeding requests from our friends and customers for bringing out examples of the work of the Western and comedy stars who achieved popularity somewhat less than a Hart or Mix, or a Chaplin or Lloyd, we're happy to offer "The Four Gun Bandit".

Pete Morrison came to the movies in 1908. About the time of World War I, he began being featured and starring in a long line of two-reel Westerns, serials and features at Universal—and for other companies. "The Four Gun Bandit" is an altogether enjoyable example of a two-reel Western of this post-World War I period. Aimed at the remaining nickelodeons and for the Western houses, it has all the entertainment elements then considered necessary for that type of theatre.

810-431, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 350-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-168, 16mm. silent version, about 700-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY

Written, directed, photographed and edited by Edwin S. Porter

The Great Train Robbery is generally credited with being the first story motion picture. Here, for the first time, the unfolding of a story was captured through the lens of a moving motion picture camera.

The original of The Great Train Robbery has been gone for many years—probably worn out as a result of countless printings, but Blackhawk's new version is authentic—and complete! This film is available in either black & white or in part-color. These "color" scenes were laboriously done by hand to heighten the effect of gunfire, and costumes in some interiors. In the color version, a bit over one-third of the footage represented by scenes is printed in Eastman Color. (A Thomas A. Edison picture, 1903).

810-528, Standard 8mm. B&W version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
860-5, Super 8 B&W version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $ 7.98

870-8 Super 8 part color version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

THE GRIT OF THE GIRL TELEGRAPHER (1912)

featuring ANNA Q. NILSSON, HAL CLEMENTS, GUY COMBS, HENRY HALLEM

Betty is the girl telegrapher. Her fiance is Rowe, the railroad detective. Rowe leaves Oreland for a day elsewhere when a telegram comes in from the Superintendent indicating that "Smoke Up" Smith, a notorious "car thief" has been spotted on the train bound for Oreland. Betty is alert, picks him out of the crowd and gets assistance in taking him captive. He escapes from the baggage room, hijacking a locomotive, and Betty and the engineer take after him in another locomotive. There's some thrilling action between locomotive — and Rowe to the rescue! Real rail thriller!

810-653, standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
860-212, super 8 version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $ 7.98
620-241, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

HENESSEY OF THE MOUNTED (1921)

starring GEORGE OVEY with ALICE ARBY

This film has George in a dual role, both as a mountie and as an outlaw, and is quite acceptably done for an independant release. Today, it provides an interesting look at a popular comic of the World War I era who is all but forgotten.

810-501, standard 8mm. version, about 225-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
860-255, super 8 version, about 250-feet, 11-ozs. $ 7.98
620-260, 16mm. silent version, about 450-feet, 2-lbs. $22.98

KNIGHT OF THE TRAIL (1915)

starring WILLIAM S. HART

This is one of Bill Hart's action-packed two reelers—with Bill cast as Jim Treen, supposedly Canyon City's most eligible bachelor, but in reality the local stage bandit. When fiancee Molly discovers Jim's "altar ego" she breaks the engagement and promises to marry Carey, the mining promoter. But Carey proves to be the cad, and Hart the hero.

810-277, Standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-89, 16mm. silent version, about 700-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

LOCAL COLOR (1916)

starring TOM MIX with VICTORIA FORDE

Here is a one reel Tom Mix film from the Selig era that is a Western that is long on comedy. The word at the ranch is that a young woman writer is coming out from the east to get some "local color" for a new book. The boys decide that they should cooperate, so they organize all sorts of activity that would seem typical of a lawless West to make sure their visitor gets plenty of what she's looking for.

They even trick her into a fake wedding with Tom—but Tom and his cowboy friends have really been taken on that for the fake minister turns out to be a real one! Complete and of generally good quality.

810-462, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
620-170, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE RUSE (1915)

with WILLIAM S. HART

In this Thomas H. Ince-produced two reeler, Hart is a prospector who has just struck it rich, and goes to the big town to make a deal. He gets involved with a crooked promoter, and with the promoter's secretary—but nobody puts anything over on Bill—not on your tintype! He's a tough customer—in the big town and in the wide open spaces!

810-226, Standard 8mm. version, about 300-feet, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-43, 16mm. silent version, about 600-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE BATTLE (1911)

with BLANCHE SWEET and CHARLES WEST

Here is one of the significant early Griffith films, and a very definite forerunner of "The Birth of a Nation". Filmed in 1911, a cast of tremendous size provides the pageantry and the battle scenes, many of which would not have appeared out of place in that masterpiece which came along four years later.

810-349, Standard 8mm. version, 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
620-150, 16mm. silent version, 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE BATTLE AT ELDERBUSH GULCH (1913)

with LILLIAN GISH, MAE MARSH, LIONEL BARRYMORE and ROBERT HARRON

"The Battle at Elderbush Gulch" was the "master's" try at a Western, and in its two reels he came out with a build-up of suspense and tension perhaps not rivaled in a film of this type until John Ford's "Stagecoach" some twenty-six years later.

810-328, Standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
860-91, Super 8 version, about 450-feet, 2-lbs. $13.98
620-130, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98
640-31, 16mm. sound version with organ accompaniment, about 800-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES (1912)

with MARY PICKFORD, CLAIRE McDOWELL, DOROTHY BERNARD and CHARLES WEST

Since neither cast nor credits were listed in Biograph films, Mary Pickford in 1912 was known to her movie public only by any of her various nicknames. Billed as a "psychological tragedy", this is a classic tale of infidelity, jealousy and three women alone in the desert. The finding of a lost baby boy brings about peace—illustrates the vagaries of "the female of the species".

810-330, Standard 8mm. version, about 225-feet on 1 reel, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
620-132, 16mm. silent version, about 450-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

D. W. GRIFFITH SHORT FILMS

"LITTLE MARY"—AMERICA'S SWEETHEART

Excerpts from five Mary Pickford/Biograph Films

In June of 1909, young Gladys Smith applied for work at the Biograph Studio. As Mary Pickford, the 16-year-old girl had acquired an impressive list of credits in her 11-years on the stage. But stage roles for the young ingenue were scarce in the spring of 1909 when D. W. Griffith gave her her first bit role in films. Mary Pickford was on her way to becoming "America's Sweetheart".

Excerpts from five of her Biograph films are included in our compilation. These are "All On Account of the Milk" (1910), "An Arcadian Maid" (1910), "Never Again" (1910), "The New York Hat" (1912), and "The Mender of Nets" (1912).

810-512, Standard 8mm. version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. $ 6.98
860-127, Super 8 version, about 250-feet, 14-ozs. $ 7.98
620-214, 16mm. silent version, about 450-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE LONEDALE OPERATOR (1911)

with BLANCHE SWEET

One of the earliest productions that Biograph made on the West Coast. It offers many innovations, for its time, in production techniques. For rail fans, it has some excellent shots of Santa Fe American-type locomotive No. 9, a unit built in the 1870's and which was scrapped by the Santa Fe in Topeka in 1914. And it has quite a bit of the flavor of railroading of the day.

810-167, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
620-25, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE RENUNCIATION, or DIVIDED LOVE (1909)

with MARY PICKFORD, JAMES KIRKWOOD, HARRY SALTER and BILLY QUIRK

One of the early Griffith films for Biograph—and one of Mary Pickford's early appearances, too! This is the story of the rivalry of two chums (a term of the period) for the affections of Mary, a new arrival at the mining camp. But how, when this rivalry almost breaks up their friendship, they find that Mary's heart belongs to a city dude and they aren't even in the running. A close-up of Biograph's trade paper announcement of the original release of "The Renunciation" is included in the opening introduction.

810-354, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. $ 6.98
620-147, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

THE UNWELCOME GUEST (1913)

with MARY PICKFORD

Mary is cast as an orphan girl placed with a family whose members have hearts of stone. Only poor Grandpa, who is the "unwelcome guest", shares Mary's beggarly treatment at the hands of the family, but Grandpa and Mary find happiness after all when Grandpa finds a lot of money that had been hidden away by his late wife.

DRAMATIC SHORTS

ARTFUL KATE (1911)

starring MARY PICKFORD with OWEN MOORE
directed by THOMAS H. INCE

A collector's item and a rare museum piece, ARTFUL KATE is a valuable souvenir of a nearly unknown period in the career of the most important actress in film history. For while Pickford Biographs are relatively plentiful, her IMP's and Majestics are almost non-existent.

THE COST OF HIGH LIVING (1916)

with WILLIAM DUNCAN and CORINNE GRIFFITH

William Duncan was a very popular player in outdoor, adventure films and serials in the years spanning World War I, and Corrine Griffith was an ingenue who became one of the brightest romantic stars of the screen during the 1920's. The Cost of High Living is a one reel film made early in their careers—a light comedy—turned out by Vitagraph at a time when that pioneer company was attempting to produce an extensive number of one and two reel subjects for the nickelodeon trade while also attempting to compete with the many new production companies specializing in features. It's a very pleasant period piece with two great names from the silents!

THE CRAZY RAY (1923)

Produced and directed by Rene Clair

The story line covers the awakening of the watchman on the top desk of the Eiffel Tower and his discovery that Paris is silent, not a trace of movement anywhere. Taking the elevator to the ground, he finds Paris virtually deserted, and then discovers a few assorted humans in suspended states of animation. The CRAZY RAY is fascinating science-fiction, and we recommend it without qualification.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE (1911)

starring JAMES CRUZE

Robert Louis Stevenson's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde has been a favorite literary work for movie makers almost from the movies' beginning and this presentation by Blackhawk is the first known picturization of the story done in 1911 by Thanhouser and starring James Cruze. It was made for the only movie trade that existed in those days—the nickelodeons—and is a simplified adaptation of the story, and yet considering those primitive times, the result is surprisingly effective.

FLO'S DISCIPLINE (1912)

Florence Lawrence entered films with Vitagraph and moved to Biograph about the same time that D. W. Griffith began directing. Miss Lawrence mysteriously disappeared from the Biograph studio and rumors from St. Louis indicated that she was dead. On April 2, 1910, Laemmle put the rumors to rest by publicly telling the world that "The Biograph Girl" was alive and signed by his company was now on "IMP".

Florence Lawrence later left IMP for Lubin, but returned to Universal in 1912 under the Victor banner to make a popular series of light-hearted comedies with Owen Moore. Flo's Discipline is one of these

HIS WIFE'S SECRET (1915)

with G. M. ANDERSON, MARGUERITE CLAYTON, LEE WILLARD

"Broncho Billy" Anderson is a non-"Broncho Billy" film . . . in the role of a burglar who steals into the apartment of a wealthy couple and becomes involved in a domestic fracas. An effective and mature presentation for its time, this is one of the outstanding Essanay subjects of the period.

starring PEARL WHITE and CHESTER BARNETT

It deals with a jewel necklace in the custody of a guest at their home turning up missing from the wall safe. (Pearl, addicted to walking in her sleep, has removed it from the safe and dropped it into a spot in a hollow tree on their property.) Pearl's husband, Chester, assumes responsibility, mortgages the home to repay their friend for the loss, and a year later, when the mortgage becomes due, finds himself unable to make the payment. However, the tension of this situation apparently has its effect on Pearl, for that night she retraces the path of a year before, and is discovered by her husband with the jewels in her hands—yet almost in a trance. Naturally, everything ends happily for everyone concerned.

Highly representative of the films which established Johnson's popularity with feminine audiences. The PREACHER AND THE GOSSIPS shows the power and force of the talent which won Arthur V. Johnson acclaim from a host of fans. It is presented here much as it appeared at the time of its initial release on March 16, 1912.

RICHARD THE LION-HEARTED (1912)

An Italian "Cines" Production imported by George Kleine

This was adapted from the climax of Sir Walter Scott's famous novel, "The Talisman". starring NORMA TALMADGE

With a circus background, most of the action takes place in New York City, for Norma has married the son of a wealthy and socially prominent family—all of them very unsympathetic to having a circus performer who "has appeared in tights" as one of their group. Sawdust and Salome is an extremely interesting film of the day.

THE TRUE GLORY

This is Blackhawk's 8mm. production of "The True Glory", edited from the sound film of the same name. An official motion picture production of the governments of Great Britain and the United States, this surveys the entire final World War II campaign on the European Western Front, called "The Crusade in Europe" by General Dwight Eisenhower. The seven chapters of "The True Glory" vividly picture the many land, air and sea battles and emphasize the miracles of comradeship and cooperation which came out of the various campaigns. The full impact of the meaning of the film's title is felt in the final chapter when the familiar prayer of Sir Francis Drake is presented.

THE GREAT WAR
(WORLD WAR I)
CHAPTER I—THE WAR CLOUDS BREAK

The first chapter of "The Great War" is devoted to background personalities and events of the period—the pomp, pageantry and parades that were the order of the day in Europe—the visit of King George and Queen Mary of England to Germany and the king's first cousin, Kaiser Wilhelm II, German Emperor and King of Prussia. (Nicholas II, czar of all the Russians, is also related to the Kaiser.)

But there are two camps—the Triple Alliance headed by the Kaiser and taking in Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy; and the Triple Entente made up of France, Great Britain and Russia. And, on June 24, 1914, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary, is assassinated.

Imperial Germany had become a power at sea—had developed the modern submarine—and its gun crews on surface vessels had been precisely trained. All Europe was like dry tinder—ready to explode—and the murder of the Archduke provided the spark. The attack on the west began with Germany's advance through little Belgium and in fourteen days the German armies had swept 250-miles.

810-560, standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 14-ozs. $6.98

860-104, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 14-ozs. $7.98

THE GREAT WAR
CHAPTER II—1914-1917, STALEMATE AND U. S. NEUTRALITY

Britain sends her small army to help invaded Belgium—six weeks after the collapse of Belgium, the Germans attack on the Marne—to within 18-miles of Paris—the famous taxicabs of Paris rush every available soldier to the defense—refugees with their meager belongings trudge to the rear areas.

In the United States, there is peace and neutrality—Germany declares unrestricted submarine warfare—in the Lusitania disaster, almost 1,200 of the passengers and crew lose their lives—U. S. sentiment begins to swing away from Germany, but there remains strong support for isolation—there is division in the nation's capitol. Wilson faces the growing revulsion against Prussian militarism. Ex-President Roosevelt speaks out for action and asks for a break with the isolationists of the past—the President faces his decision—his advisers urge intervention—the Secretaries of State, War and Navy agree—America declares war—ten million Americans register for the draft—Mr. Wilson pulls the first number!

THE GREAT WAR
CHAPTER III—1917: YEAR OF CRISIS

The American Expeditionary Force begins to move "over there." Inadequate weapon stocks at home force draftees to train with wooden cannon. U. S. Admiral Sims develops the convoy system for Atlantic crossings. The 1st Division disembarks on June 28, 1917, and begins its rail trip to French training locations. Disastrous attacks by the Germans in the early spring of 1917 have led to spot mutinies in the French army. In both the French and British Armies, casualties exceed replacement abilities. In the rainy fall of 1917, the trenches run in an unbroken line from Switzerland to the English Channel. Lenin overthrows Kerensky's provisional government in Russia. A million German troops are released from the eastern front, and the German High Command prepares a western front attack. March 21, 1918, is the date. The attack continues into April. German and Allied losses mount—over half a million men are killed or wounded. Stubborn British defenses finally blunt the German attacks. On April 29, Ludendorff calls off the greatest offensive Germany had ever launched and mounting American manpower begins to weigh on the Allied side.

860-106, Super 8 version, about 350-feet, 1-lb. $13.98

THE GREAT WAR
CHAPTER IV—THE YANKS ENTER

In this final chapter of "The Great War", the action begins in late May of 1918 when the French retreat at Chemin des Dames ridge—but the U. S. Marines move forward. U. S. youth and vitality encouraged the French. The airplane was a new weapon of war, and General Billy Mitchell commanded the greatest concentration of air power ever assembled. The air aces were Von Richthofen of Germany, Fonck of France, Mannock of Britain, Bishop of Canada, and Rickenbacker of the United States.

The Americans got their first real combat experience at Seicheprey and Cantigny. Losses are heavy—but the Big Parade is under way. Chateau-Thierry was the new milestone, Belleau Wood and Vaux were captured. French morale jumps. Pershing was cautious—estimating that the war might end by the fall of 1919 "with eighty U. S. divisions." The Germans failed at Amiens. August 8, 1918 was their "black day." Allied victories at Saint-Mihiet and the Meuse-Argonne net thousands of prisoners. And then on Nov 11, 1918, the Armistice. Crowds throughout the Allied world give vent to an overwhelming emotional release. The A. E. F. starts home. And, at home, the heroes parade and the "War To End War" is over!

ADOLPH HITLER
CHAPTER I—HIS RISE TO POWER

Our film, the first chapter in a series of four, traces Adolph Hitler's early years from Brunau-Am-Inn, Austria, where he was born in 1889, as a choir boy in a Benedictine Monastery, troubles with his father, his desire to become an artist, problems with his teachers, his quitting school at age 16 to become a loafer, a flophouse bum. Then came World War I which brought Hitler an escape from years of frustration. He reveled in carnage—was awarded the Iron Cross for bravery.

CHAPTER II—WAR COMES TO EUROPE

Hitler was dictator of Germany. Books were burned—the Jews, A helpless minority, were persecuted—the trade unions were smashed—Germany enjoyed good times. In 1936, a small Nazi force marched into the industrialized Rhineland . . . and met no resistance although the French and British were then strong enough to crush the Germans. Hitler met Italy's dictator, Mussolini, and together they decided to embark upon daring military adventures—and share the spoils of war.

But Denmark, Norway and Holland must be conquered first, and Hitler unleased mechanized warfare upon them. Then the Nazi Panzer Divisions pushed into Belgium, where they were challenged for the first time by French and British troops. The war was now engulfing all of Europe.

BENITO MUSSOLINI
CHAPTER ONE—THE FIRST OF THE MODERN DICTATORS

In 1925, Mussolini declared himself the dictator of Italy, consolidated his power, began a program of turning hospitals into baby factories, took personal charge of the campaign to increase agricultural output, and, his power secure, subordinated personal freedom to the needs of the Fascist state.

CHAPTER TWO—TWENTIETH CENTURY CAESAR

By 1934, Italy had become a militarized police state governed by Benito Mussolini's will. Elections were a sham. Early in 1934, Mussolini had his first meeting with Adolph Hitler, the man who ruled Nazi Germany. Less than a month later, Hitler engineered the assassination of Austria's Chancellor Dollfuss and an enraged Mussolini sent four divisions to the Austrian border. He warned Germany "hands off Austria" and was bitterly disappointed that England and France failed to follow his lead. This chapter continues through World War II until Mussolini's death.

BIOGRAPHY OF JOSEPH STALIN

JOSEPH STALIN
CHAPTER ONE—HIS RISE TO POWER

In the days of Czar Nicholas most of the wealth and all of the political power in Russia rested in the hands of the Czar and a small ruling class, and the masses lived primitively, millions of them in degrading poverty. It was from such people that Joseph Stalin came. Our film covers briefly his early years when he studied to become a priest, how he became a revolutionary and a follower of Lenin and his ambition for world domination.

JOSEPH STALIN
CHAPTER TWO—THE ALMOST ABSOLUTE DICTATOR

If there is any lingering question today about the nature of Communism, the brutal career of Joseph Stalin should provide the answer. Stalin's cynical nature allowed him to sign a pact with Hitler, an even more ruthless dictator, in 1939, thereby opening the floodgates to the terrible conflict of World War II. This action and others just as vile, will be unfolded to you in this Blackhawk release.

CHAPTER I—POLITICIAN AND PRESIDENT

This film shows the life of Teddy Roosevelt from his marriage and early career as a politician and soldier. He was elected Vice President in 1900 and became President after the assassination of McKinley in 1901. As Teddy covered the country in 1904 with an exhaustive schedule of speeches he was convinced that the American people would consign him to political oblivion.

CHAPTER II—THE PATRIOT

After being elected by a landslide vote in 1904, Teddy declined to run for a third term as President. In the eyes of the American people he remained a popular hero. Mr. Roosevelt was convinced that Wilson was making a tragic mistake in trying to remain neutral in the First World War. He was proven right. His youngest son was killed in action over France. Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep on January 6, 1919.

DILLINGER, PUBLIC ENEMY No. ONE

Edited from newsreel footage from the early 1930's, this film traces the exploits of John Dillinger in bank robberies and prison escapes criss-crossing the midwest and ending at the Biograph Theatre in Chicago. This is not a dramatized or fictionized treatment of the subject—but strictly a documentary account. A trap was set to capture Dillinger as he left the theatre. As agents closed in, Dillinger reached for his gun. But it was too late. Dillinger fell, with three bullets in his body. Public Enemy No. 1 was dead, but the legend lived. Like Jesse James before him, Dillinger was considered to be a Robin Hood. He robbed banks instead of people; a psychological factor in his favor. A creation of his turbulent times, Dillinger is regarded as the symbol of the modern outlaw.

NOT SO LONG AGO
(1945-1950)
THE YEARS BETWEEN WORLD WAR II AND KOREA
CHAPTER I
PEACE! IT'S WONDERFUL!

This four chapter production opens with Task Force 38 launching its second strike of the day over Tokyo. Then the message: "Pirate Leader, Pirate Leader, this is Pirate Base! Cease fire! Cease fire! Return to home plate! The war is over!" August 14, 1945 — not so long ago.

You'll see President Truman reporting on Japan's unconditional surrender, V-J Day, the housewife's hassle with the rationing system which finally ended, price tags — which never were the same again, "Fill 'er up!", Kilroys coming home, the war brides, the displaced persons, graduation day as eleven million Americans went through the separation mill, veterans again in Quonset huts — at college, reconversion, planes and tanks becoming consumer goods, new cars were hard to get, the black market, nylons were back, the "New Look!"

CHAPTER II
THE COMMUNIST THREAT

In this second chapter of "Not So Long Ago," is pictured the time when a number of public figures passed from the scene—Henry Ford, Orville Wright, Babe Ruth, Fiorello LaGuardia. We see the Mayor of New York clowning with Abbott and Costello, chasing fire engines and reading the comics over the radio during a newspaper strike. Then, revolution on the sport scene as Branch Rickey brought the first Negro player into the major leagues—Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers. At Fulton, Missouri, Winston Churchill warned the world of "The Iron Curtain." And the brand new United Nations was trying to cope with the "Cold War." There was anxiety about communism. Anti-communist feeling burst into violence at a scheduled concert of singer Paul Robeson. Hollywood's elite came to Washington in an epidemic of charge and counter charge. Gary Cooper was a friendly witness—Ronald Reagan, head of the Screen Actors Guild—offered a stout defense. Unfriendly witnesses, known as the Hollywood Ten, were sentenced for contempt. Bigger news exploded when Alger Hiss was accused of disloyalty. Shirley Temple married John Agar; Rita Hayworth married Aly Khan; Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini were romantically linked; Princess Elizabeth married the Duke of Edinburgh. Starving Europe was threatened by Communist domination and turned to America to stave off collapse.

NOT SO LONG AGO—CHAPTER III
THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE CAMPAIGN OF 1948

World leadership passed to Washington when the big news broke of a revolutionary plan to rescue Europe with American billions for relief and economic aid. In a war without bullets, an old soldier took over—Secretary of State George Marshall. General Eisenhower, in reporting on any possible interest in the Presidency, said: "I have consistently declined to consider such a contingency." And, President by accident, Harry Truman, was out to win the office on his own. The Republicans nominated Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Everybody expected Dewey to win. All the polls showed Dewey with a considerable lead. But Harry Truman paid no attention to the polls. On the evening of the election, everything pointed to Dewey as the winner. But the next morning, when the California totals came in, it was Harry Truman, winner on his own.

MEXICO

NARROW GAUGE IN MEXICO

Our trip begins at San Lazaro Station in the east end of Mexico City where we board the early morning train for Puebla, a circuitous 193-mile route east. We travel through Los Reyes, Amecameca, Ozumba, Nepantla, and on to Cuautla.

Our return follows a diminutive narrow gauge freight. At Amecameca we spot an 1899 Baldwin-built narrow gauge 4-6-0 owned by the San Rafael Paper Co., and this old timer is badly leaking steam. Back in Mexico City our arrival coincides with that of our narrow gauge freight.

RAILROAD STORIES

THE BLOCK SIGNAL with Ralph Lewis, Jean Arthur, Hugh Allen

A railroad thriller from the silent days of 1926 that will have more of a bang for a railroad fan today than when it was first released. It is the story of a railroad engineer nearing retirement, his involvement in a wreck and consignment to the spot of crossing flagman. And of his daughter with whom an ambitious young fireman and a highway engineer are both in love. But, the story is incidental for rail buffs because of the extensive amount of Santa Fe motive power and trains of the 1926 period that are shown.

INTERURBANS TROLLEYS & ELEVATEDS

THE CEDAR RAPIDS & IOWA CITY RY.

During its later days as an interurban, the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City Railway operated ten cars. Two of these cars—No. 119 and No. 120—appear in our film. You'll see good run-by shots of both of these cars at different points along the line from Cedar Rapids to Iowa City. These were photographed in 1953 shortly before the change-over to diesel.

The sound versions are particularly effective for they carry the clicks of the rail joints, the acceleration and deceleration of the traction motors. The whine of the trolley wheels, the blast of the air horns.

Great silent comedies produced by

MACK SENNETT

TEDDY AT THE THROTTLE

with Gloria Swanson, Wallact Beery, Bobby Vernon

One of the great Sennett comedies of the period—elaborately produced—and with many of the type of situations that made Sennett famous. The heroine is chained to the railroad track—and rescued by the hero in the nick of time. Chases in automobiles—close calls with speeding trains! (1916).

810-194, Std. 8mm. silent version, about 375-feet, 14-ozs. $11.98
860-40, Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $13.98
620-19, 16mm. silent version, about 750-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

ALL NIGHT LONG

with Harry Langdon, Vernon Dent and Natalie Kingston

One of the very best of the Langdon comedies produced by Mack Sennett. It's the story of two "buddies" in France during World War I. Vernon Dent is the sergeant—and Harry's "pal". But poor, little, timid Harry walks away with the girl. (1924).

810-352, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 350-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-146, 16mm. silent version, about 700-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

BECAUSE HE LOVED HER

with Sam Bernard, Mae Busch and Ford Sterling

A zany Mack Sennett-Keystone comedy with Sam Bernard as the chef and Mae Busch as the cashier. Their romance causes complications, as does a mix-up in the pastry with poison substituted for bourbon in a pie baked for the boss. The film includes an action-filled sequence with The Keystone Cops. (1916).

810-186, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 300-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98

BOOBS IN THE WOOD

with Harry Langdon

Timid Harry is a lumberjack, pursued by the daughter of the lumber camp superintendent. A jealous foreman ties Harry to a log on the runway down the mountain and the situation develops into a riot of violence. One of Langdon's best. (1924).

810-87, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 400-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98

THE DANGER GIRL

starring Gloria Swanson and Bobby Vernon

"The Danger Girl" is somewhat a "society" comedy—by Sennett standards—and is set against a background of the famous Los Angeles hotels of the World War I period. It has plenty of action with fast roadsters, and is a Triangle-Keystone Comedy with far more than average interest today.

810-524, Standard 8mm. version, about 350-feet, 1-lb. $11.98
860-125, Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 1-lb. $13.98
620-213, 16mm. silent version, about 700-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

THE DAREDEVIL

Starring Ben Turpin with Madeline Hurlock

In this Mack Sennett comedy of 1923, an abridgement of the original two-reeler, Ben is the hero, Madeline the vamp and Harry Gribbon the director. The whole story line deals with a movie studio devoted to the production of comedies and Ben goes from a William Tell sort of role where his coonskin cap is furrowed, into a huge studio water tank where he is anchored, with the water rising. At this point, sounds of an authentic fire alarm reach the company, and director, cameraman, crew and cast chase the horse-drawn fire equipment—leaving Ben to his fate. Naturally, Ben escapes, and arrives at the scene of the real fire in time to stage a spectacular and heroic finish! (1923).

810-32, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 135-feet, 11-ozs. $5.98
620-164, 16mm. silent version, about 275-feet, 2-lbs. $22.98

THE DESPERATE SCOUNDREL

with Ford Sterling, Minta Durfee, The Keystone Cops

Here we have all of the elements of a typical Keystone Comedy—a black-hearted villain, an ill-fated heroine tied to the laundry mangle, vintage automobiles, racing trolleys, fast trains and the Keystone Cops. (1916).

810-245, Standard 8mm. silent version, 300-feet on 2-reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
860-15, Super 8 version, about 325-feet, 1-lb. $13.98
620-63, 16mm. silent version, 600-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

DOLLARS AND SENSE

with Ora Carew, Mal St. Clair, The Keystone Cops

An unusual Triangle-Keystone Comedy with Ora Carew in a dual role, technically rather well carried off. Mal St. Clair, who became one of the top directors of the 1920's, is cast as an English heir; "Baldy" Belmont as Ora's rural lover; Nick Cogley as the father; Blanche Payson as his wife and Joseph Callahan as a scheming lawyer. (1917).

810-339, Standard 8mm. silent version, about 375-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-140, 16mm. silent version, about 750-feet, on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

FATTY'S CHANCE ACQUAINTANCE

with Fatty Arbuckle, Minta Durfee & Frank Hayes

In the world of Keystone, all married men and women were wolves and flirts. In this "never-never" land, everyone enjoyed being a bit indiscreet, for all was forgiven by the end of the reel. An excellent example of this plot mixture is FATTY'S CHANCE ACQUAINTANCE, presented here exactly as released on March 8, 1915.

810-584, Standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 11-ozs. ..... $ 6.98

FATTY'S MAGIC PANTS

starring Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle with Minta Durfee and Harry McCoy

Harry and Fatty are rivals for the favor of Minta. There is a strictly full dress Grand Benefit Dance scheduled—Harry has the clothes—Fatty doesn't. Fatty steals Harry's suit (although too small) and Harry pursues the culprit. This is only the beginning and we promise you'll have a ball at the ball.

810-577, standard 8mm. version, about 200-feet, 8-ozs. $6.98
860-159, Super 8 version, about 225-feet, 9-ozs. $7.98
620-226, 16mm. silent version, about 400-feet, 1-lb., 12-ozs. $24.98

THE FEATHERED NEST

with Louise Fazenda and Charley Murray

Louise is the rustic belle, Charley is the village dandy who rooms with her father, Newman Haye. Louise also has a faithful young farmer as a suitor. In addition to being the village dandy, Charley is also the telegraph operator, so when a telegram comes indicating that Louise is to inherit the vast wealth of an uncle, he starts in pursuit, too. An elopement almost takes place, headed off by her father and the hired man.

The next sequence is headed: "Newman Haye in Clover"—and Louise and her father are seen in their new mansion, paid for by her inherited funds. The two boys are still chasing, and the final sequence is a whirlwind finish at the beach, with the dramatic rescue of Louise's young ward (whom she got along with the dough) and Charley ignominously tossed to the waves. Fast action throughout! (1916).

810-350, Standard 8mm. version, about 400-feet on 2-reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
620-153, 16mm. silent version, about 800-feet on 2-reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

A HAREM KNIGHT

with Ben Turpin and Madeline Hurlock

Ben is cast as Rooney St. Clair, European playboy and swordsman, who gets involved in a Persian affair and winds up on the receiving end of a little sword play. It also has the Sennett Girls. (1925).

810-111, Standard 8mm. version, about 300-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. $11.98
860-12, Super 8mm. version, about 375-feet, 11-ozs. $13.98

THE HOLLYWOOD KID

with Charlie Murray, Louise Carver, Vernon Dent, Andy Clyde and Mack Sennett

The Hollywood Kid is one of Sennett's most famous with the studio lion perched atop his office desk and production rolling along amid pandemonium. Our version is an abridgement of the original two reel comedy, and its one reel length is jam-packed with action and laughs. (1924).

810-426, Standard 8mm, silent version, about 150-feet, 11-ozs. $5.98
620-113, 16mm. silent version, about 300-feet, 2-lbs. $22.98

THE HOME BREAKERS

with Mack Swain, Chester Conklin, Alice Davenport, Minta Durfee and Slim Summerville

Monkey business in and out of the village bank with the bank clerk (Chester Conklin) having an affair with the bank president's wife (Alice Davenport) and the bank president (Mack Swain) doing a bit of carrying on with the bank clerk's wife (Minta Durfee). All of this goes on before the eyes of the bank janitor (Slim Summerville) who, in the end, is bribed by the bank president to keep what he knows to himself. But Slim does have good motives, too, which lead to a series of events necessitating the dynamiting of the bank vault, which assures this comedy ending with an appropriate Keystone finish! (1915).

620-65, 16mm. silent version, about 750-feet on 2 reels, 3-lbs. $39.98

LITTLE BILLY'S TRIUMPH

with Paul Jacobs

Robert Thornby, a new Keystone director, created the character "Little Billy". The result was "Little Billy's Triumph". Because of its success, Sennett planned a series of Kid Comedies, eight years before Hal Roach hit upon the immensely popular "Our Gang" concept. (1914).

MABEL AND FATTY VIEWING THE WORLD'S FAIR AT SAN FRANCISCO

with Mabel Normand and Fatty Arbuckle

Many hilarious situations with Mabel and Fatty. Also a fine view of San Francisco in 1914 and 1915, and of the Panama-Pacific Exposition of that year. A real collector's item. (1915).

Fields is in top form as the purveyor of village gossip and solver of countless individual problems—from both his customers and innumerable "strays" and passers-by. The action begins when a local gangster enters O'Hare's barber shop and forces Fields to change his identity by shaving off his mustache and cutting his hair. CHRISTIE COMEDIES

DANGEROUS FEMALES

starring MARIE DRESSLER and POLLY MORAN

"Dangerous Females" is one of the first talking comedies produced by Al Christie for release by Paramount after the rush to sound by all the major companies in 1929. It is, in our opinion, one of the most enjoyable comedies from the first decade of sound even though, like most films of the period, it bears more resemblance to the stage than to motion picture form.

It is the story of the Widow Bascum (Marie Dressler) and Miss Tibby Cram (Polly Moran) who live together in a small New England village. It is a cold winter night. The radio flashes word of a desperate convict who has escaped—but the evangelist is also due in the village. Is the stranger who knocks on the door the convict—or the evangelist. Does Marie take the proper course in plying him with peach brandy to hang onto him until the sheriff arrives—or has she guessed wrong. Is he the evangelist? And the sheriff is a deacon in the church? Not a dull moment. Highly recommended. (1929).

FARO NELL

with LOUISE FAZENDA and JACK LUDEN

Here is a quote from a 1929 issue of Photoplay Magazine in which the two-reel talking short subject, "Faro Nell", was classed as one of the best pictures of the month—the first time Photoplay had singled out a short comedy for that award:

> "It takes something hot in the way of a two-reel talking comedy to break into this fast company of best pictures, and this Louise Fazenda howl is the bright baby. "Faro Nell" is a scream—an airtight, perfectly acted burlesque of the old-time Western thriller. Louise, in long yellow curls, is a panic. This is just what we've long wanted—a two-reel talkie we could bellow at."

"Faro Nell", in its complete original form is now available from Blackhawk in both 16mm. optical sound and 8mm. magnetic sound editions—and still one of the funniest talking comedies!

640-30. 16mm. optical sound version, 800-feet. 3-lbs. $39.98

830-10. 8mm. magnetic sound version, 400-feet on 2 reels, 14-ozs. ... $24.98

NERVE TONIC (1924)

Nerve Tonic quickly turns into the spoof to end all spoofs on the hidden passage-sliding trap door melodrama of the period, complete with dire villany and harried heroine. It's all beautifully executed and is both a very fast moving and quite funny comedy.

810-616 Standard 8mm. version, about 375-feet. 14-ozs. $11.98
860-193 Super 8 version, about 400-feet, 14ozs. $13.98
620-253 16mm. silent version, about 750-feet, 3-lbs. $39.98

BLACKHAWK'S NEWSREEL

THE FIRST TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILROAD

The Union Pacific Railroad has just completed a motion picture which will be widely circulated in 16mm. form, a film reconstructing the story of the first transcontinental railroad from its beginnings in the 1860's and its progressive growth up to today. The Union Pacific has granted to Blackhawk Films the privilege of editing a version of this production for distribution in standard 8mm. and super 8 format and its preparation now has the highest priority here. Hopefully, this may be ready to announce in our early summer Bulletin No. 196. If we do not make it by that time, it will definitely be announced in the mid-summer issue No. 197. Watch for the announcement!

EARLY NEWSREELS

The average collector has quite a moderate interest in the story of the early movie newsreels — but very little definite information. We have had enough correspondence about these early reels to make us decide to attempt to offer some representative examples if, as and when the opportunity presented itself. It now appears that the time is nearing when this will be possible. And, in that connection, we've done some research as to when and how the early newsreels developed.

The first moving picture newsreel appeared in 1911 with the introduction of Pathe Weekly, issued weekly By mid-1914 this was supplemented by the twice-weekly Pathe's Daily News. Then, in the spring of 1915, Pathe News replaced both of the former reels on a two-issues-a-week basis.

The next newsreel to appear on the scene was the Universal Animated Weekly, going into distribution starting early in 1912 on a once-a-week basis.

Two years passed before the Hearst organization entered newsreel production with the launching of the Hearst-Selig News Pictorial on a twice-weekly basis early in 1914. This was followed by the once-a-week Mutual Weekly (not Hearst produced) which was introduced early in 1915.

In January, 1916, Hearst shifted distribution from Selig to Vitagraph and the Hearst-Selig News Pictorial became Hearst-Vitagraph News. To replace the Hearst-Selig reel, Selig immediately inaugurated the Selig-Tribune, twice weekly. And, it issue No. 21 of the Selig-Tribune, released March 13, 1916, which Blackhawk will be bringing to you in the near future. This particular edition is of considerable interest today, having been made just a year before the entry of the United States into World War I. It pictures many things related to the war in Europe, and many fascinating items of things happening in the United States. It also offers titles with alternate German and Italian texts which we believe were for the benefit of foreign-born movie patrons in the United States rather than the export market. Watch for it soon!

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU, BLACKHAWK FILMS? — YOUR VERSION OF THAT LAUREL & HARDY FILM ISN'T THE SAME AS IT WAS IN THE THEATRES!

We get too many letters along this line, and it takes more than a simple paragraph to tell the story. And, we'll agree, a silent version of a Laurel & Hardy comedy offered by us may not be identical with the one you saw a bit over forty years ago—but it still can be complete. The reason for this discrepancy is that in the silent days, no really adequate copyng films were available to make fine grain master positives from which duplicate negatives could be made for the printing of release positives. Because of this, it was the practice of almost all production companies to shoot at least two different camera negatives—sometimes more—so that there would be an original negative for the domestic market, an original for the European market, and possibly one or more for other foreign markets. And, it was not unusual for a third or fourth negative to be partially original camera footage, partially duplicate footage.

You can appreciate that two or more different cameras would not be taking from the exact location or, in silent days, at exactly the same speed, for cameras then were hand cranked. Thus, when the various "original" negatives were edited, there would be variations in scene length, instances where a medium shot in one would cut to a close-up, and back—but in the other hold at the medium shot. Sometimes, a bit of action appearing in one negative would be missing from another.

There are variations for sub-titles, too, for a negative intended for European distribution would have English sub-titles, and usually words and phrases in the British idiom rather than the American. Translations into French, German, Italian, etc., would be based on the English sub-titles.

Forty years later, sections of one negative have been lost or decomposed, and a present-day "orgnal" negative may be a composite of several of these separate "originals." Thus, one of these subjects today while "complete" and "original" may not be identical to the version of the same film which you saw in the theatre in the closing days of the silents.

Does this clarify the situation a bit?

FASHIONS IN LOVE

Lillian Gish with Bobby Harron, and Sidney Drew and Jane Gorman (Mrs. Sidney Drew). Wm. S. Hart demonstrates the western hero's romatic technique in a scene with Bessie Love. Excerpts from other great Paramount picturesfrom the silent era include the fiery Pola Negri and Charles DeRoche. Rudolph Valentino with Doris Kenyon, Clara Bow and Antonio Moreno, Mae West and Cary Grant in a bit from "She Done Him Wrong".

HOLLYWOOD EXTRA GIRL

with CECIL B. DeMILLE, ANN SHERIDAN, CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

Of considerable interest to film historians and collectors, this film is a study of Cecil B. DeMille made during the production of his famous 1935 production, "The Crusaders". It pictures the cast of this spectacular production and DeMille in the process of directing one major scene. But the slim thread that carries the story up to a focus on DeMille is the struggle for success in the movies in the days of their greatness.

630-25. 16mm. optical sound version, about 350-feet, 2-lbs., ... $22.98

LUCKY STARS (1936)

with Lynn Overman and Gladys Swarthout

From the days when the movies were the great entertainment medium, and Hollywood was the world center for glamour and the capital of Make Believe. A sequence from this feature is then incorporated in this film.

Kennedy's presidential campaign, as Attorney General, seeking nomination for the Senate, urging strong anti-gun laws. The chaos after the shot was fired, at the Los Angeles Receiving Hospital, coffin placed on plane in Los Angeles, funeral, eulogy by brother Edward Kennedy, train bearing Senator Kennedy's body to Washington, D.C., and interment. THE EYES HAVE IT

(1928)

Starring BEN TURPIN

One of the films from that obscure period in Ben's career between the time he left Sennett in the late 1920's and the coming of the talkies. Made for Weiss Brothers Artclass pictures. "The Eyes Have It" bears more resemblance to Ben's Vogue comedies of a decade earlier than to his work for Sennett.

Ben is cast as the henpecked husband whose mother-in-law is coming for a mohth's visit. When he finally does succeed in getting out of the house and on the way for an afternoon's fishing. Ben gets hung up on a passing truck with a barking dog in hot pursuit nipping at his heels. Finally making it to the lake, Ben no more than gets started when he is given a ticket for fishing in a "no fishing" area. And his mother-in-law and his wife are out to find him.

But his good turn for the the day is saving a girl who has gone into the lake from a capsized row-boat, then being taken to her apartment to dry off, and having his mother-in-law catch up with him there! Our film ends with the resulting action!

THE HOOSE-GOW

starring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy with Tiny Sanford, Jimmy Finlayson

One of thte earliest of the Laurel and Hardy talking comedies with the original recording done on disc by the Victor Talking Machine Company. Set in the days of prohibition, it shows our boys among the occupants of the paddy-wagon being delivered to the penitentiary because they were 'watching a raid!" The argument that they were innocent obviously hadn't had any influence on the judge—and it didn't make a dent on the prison guard, Tiny Sanford either.

The boys are assigned to a work crew and are so fouled up that when the lunch signal is given they're the last ones there—and other members of the crew tell them their places are at the other table—so they move in. But they have appropriated Sanford's place and when he returns, and blows his top, they find themselves going without lunch. Propositioning the cook, they're told he'll feed them if they will bring in some firewood. Figuring the more wood, the more food, they fell a nearby tree which supports a lookout for a guard—and dump him right in the middle of the dining table. We next see the boys back on work location as the governor's car arrives with the governor (Jimmy Finlayson) and two female companions. While the governor is inspecting the layout, Ollie's pick—aimed at Stan—goes through the radiator of the official car—with water spurting out like a fountain. The boys are advised to get some rice from the cook to put in the radiator—and this stops the flow of water. But when the car is started, the radiator cap stream of gooey rice that soon leads to a stream of gooey rice that soons leads to a real rice throwing finale!

A MISSION OF STATE

(1916)

from the Kalem series, "Grant, Police Reporter" with GEORGE LARKIN and OLLIE KIRKBY

George Larkin was one of the silent screen's earliest daredevils and the prototype of the dashing screen hero, whose physical agility was his greatest asset. Early movie fans appreciated the exploits of this daring young man.

"A Mission of State," produced in the early winter of 1916-1917, was thus made on the eve of U. S. involvement in World War I. As such, it is an early and rather primitive spy thriller, but one which, in its day, may well have been as thrilling to movie audiences of that day as our thrilling and action-filled spy films of the 1960's. It has to do with Larkin trailing a missing portfolio in the hands of Ollie Kirkby, being taken prisoner and being left to die in a torture chamber while Ollie, and her accomplice, Robert Ellis (who also directed the film), make their get away. But police reporter, Grant (Larkin), manages to escape and overtake the guilty ones, retrieve the portfolio and thus protect the secrets that it holds. A lot of story and action for a single reel.

THE SHERIFF OF STONE GULCH

(1913)

Starring Ruth Roland With Marshall Neilan

Although destined to become the second greatest of the fabulous Serial Queens, Ruth Roland's screen career began modestly in 1911 at Kalem's Santa Monica studio. In her 3½-years with Kalem, she made over 200 films, attracting a considerable following at the box office. "The Sheriff of Stone Gulch" is one of these. And, in addition to playing the villain, Marshall Neilan also directed.

The story line has the hero (Richard Coburn) mistakenly arrested as a hold-up man. Escaping, he sets out to find the real culprit, and follows the trail to Neilan's cabin where he gets confirmation of Neilan being the real hold-up man. With Ruth's help, Neilan is brought in with the evidence.

"The Sheriff of Stone Gulch' 'is a fast-moving example of Ruth's early work and an excellent sample of the one-reel Western, a genre in which Kalem was a leader during 1911-1914.

THE STRANGE AND DANGEROUS CREATURES OF THE AMAZON

Photographed by James R. Simon

The Amazon flows from west to east across the South American continent, roughly paralleling and quite close to the Equator. It traverses one of the least civilized and most tropical areas of the world. And, in the jungles along its banks live some of the most colorful, strange and dangerous creatures to be found anywhere. You'll see the Amazon drake, lavadeira, emu, snake bird (seriema), blue and gold macaw, wooly monkey, ouacari (red faced monkey), squirrel monkey and parrot, plumed marmoset, spider monkey, emerald green tree boa, naca and boa constrictor.

LOVE, LOOT AND CRASH

(1915)

A Mack Sennett-Keystone Comedy featuring Joseph Swickard, Dora Rogers, Charles Parrott (Charley Chase) and Fritz Schade and The Keystone Cops

Dora and her father are lost in the kitchen, for they have just fired their cook. An ad for a new one in the newspaper attracts two crooks, one of which is Fritz Schade. He is to dress like a woman, applying for the cook's job, and at the first opportunity, loot the house, with his pal standing by outside in a model T for the getaway. Things go well for a while until the cop on the beat stops in the kitchen for a cup of coffee, as is his custom. Fritz locks the cop in the basement, picks up what things of value are at hand on his way out, and off goes the model T. Charley is Dora's sweetheart and appears briefly on thte scene. The crooks, seeing Dora, kidnap her in the Model T. The cop in the basement gets loose, a general alarm goes in to headquarters, and an assortment of Keystone cops heads out in pursuit. There's all of the auto action you associate with a Keystone cop sequence in the last third of this reel. It all ends on a pier with the cooks in the water followed by two of the policemen—with everything under control!

NOT SO LONG AGO
CHAPTER IV, THE TRUMAN
VICTORY AND A LOST PEACE

The final chapter of "Not So Long Ago" opens with the Truman victory of Nov. 2, 1948, an upset if there ever was one. Then, the Electoral College dinner in January, with Harry Truman the star performer. And there were signs and portents in the sky — or things that whoshed through the air at incredible speeds. The Air Force called them Unidentified Flying Objects. And there was something in the air besides saucers — television! Caesar and Coca: "Garroway at Large"; Faye Emerson; Kukla, Fran and Ollie; and Uncle Milty, the man who owned Tuesday night. Dr. Albert Einstein warned of the hydrogen bomb. And, while automobiles had been scarce, now we had them to burn in auto races! Then, on a June weekend in 1950, President Truman was called back to Washington from a weekend at Independence. It was a major crisis — in a distant place called Korea. Somewhere far, far away the peace had been lost and we had to go and bring it back!

CHAPTER III
THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE CAMPAIGN OF 1948
(1945—1950)

The Years Between World War II And Korea

World leadership passed to Washington when the big news broke of a revolutionary plan to rescue Europe with American billions for relief and economic aid. In a War without bullets, an old soldier took over — Secretary George Marshall. General Eisenhower, in reporting on any possible interest in the Presidency, said: "I have consistently declined to consider a contingency." And President-by-accident, Harry Truman, was out to win the office on his own. The Republicans nominated Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Everybody expected Dewey to win. All the polls showed Dewey with a comfortable lead. But Harry Truman paid no attention to the polls. On the evening of the election, everything pointed to Dewey as the winner. But the next morning, when the California totals came in, it was Harry Truman, winner on his own!

NOT SO LONG AGO
CHAPTER II
THE COMMUNIST THREAT

In this second chapter of "Not So Long Ago", is pictured the time when a number of public figures passed from the scene—Henry Ford, Orville Wright, Babe Ruth, Fiorello LaGuardia. We see the Mayor of New York clowning with Abbott and Costello, chasing fire engines and reading the comics over the radio during a newspaper strike. Then, revolution on the sport scene as Branch Rickey brought the first Negro player into the major leagues — Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers. At Fulton, Missouri, Winston Churchill warned the world of "The Iron Curtain." And the brand new United Nations was trying to cope with the "Cold War." There was anxiety about communism. Anti-communist feeling burst into violence at a scheduled concert of singer Paul Robeson. Hollywood's elite came to Washington in an epidemic of charge and counter charge. Gary Cooper was a friendly witness — Ronald Reagan, head of the Screen Actors Guild — offered a stout defense. Unfriendly witnesses, known as the Hollywood Ten, were sentenced for contempt. Bigger news exploded when Alger Hiss was accused to disloyalty. Shirley Temple married John Agar; Rita Hayworth married Aly Khan; Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini were romantically linked; Princess Elizabeth married the Duke of Edinburg. Starving Europe was threatened by Communist domination and turned to America to stave off collapse.

NOT SO LONG AGO
CHAPTER I
PEACE! IT'S WONDERFUL!

This four chapter production opens with Task Force 38 launching its second strike of the day over Tokyo. Then the message: "Pirate Leader, Pirate Leader, this is Pirate Base! Cease fire; Cease fire; Return to home plate! The War is over!" August 14, 1945—no so long ago.

You'll see President Truman reporting on Japan's unconditional surrender, V-J Day, the housewife's hassle with the rationing system which finally ended, price tags — which never were the same again, "Fill 'er up!" Kilroys coming home, the war brides, the displaced persons, graduation day as eleven million Americans went through the separation mill, veterans again in Quonset huts — at college, reconversion, planes and tanks becoming consumer goods, new cars were hard to get, the black market, nylons were back, the "New Look!"

THE BUSTLING NARROW GAUGE

All of the scenes in this film were photographed in the wartime years of 1942 and 1945, the last period of extensive general activity on the narrow gauge lines of the Rio Grande. This was a decade prior to the mass descent of tourists on the Rio Grande's Silverton Branch.

In "The Bustling Narrow Gauge" you'll see the San Juan as it prepares for its westbound trip from Alamosa, and over the mixed gauge to Antonio. Then a major sequence of a westbound freight approaching Cumbres pass with 47-cars (1648 tons) and going around the big loop on the east side of the pass. Scenes of the westbound San Juan at Cumbres, and the eastbound San Juan coming up the 4% grade and around Windy Point.

You'll see activity at Ridgeway and on Crestes Butte branch which moved extensive tonnage in coal and other minerals during the war. The final sequence is a run of the tri-weekly freight on the Silverton Branch.

Should Husbands Dance? is a fine example of of Al Christie at his best, with delightful Dorothy Devore heading the cast. The story involves Neal Burns in some dance practice with a beautiful young woman (Dorothy Devore) who is not his wife. This is all good clean fun, but when his wife hears about it, things become complicated and it isn't until the comedy reaches its finale, and the wife hears all the reasons why, that everything is completely cleared up.

NOTICE

In the past, Blackhawk has placed holds on used prints for our customers when they so requested. This was to make sure that they received the prints they wanted as soon as they were on hand. (Many times several months or even years pass before a print would become available). WE WILL BE UNABLE TO CONTINUE THIS PRACTICE. In the future, because of the mountains of paperwork involved to continually notify persons when a print is available and because the person who asked for a hold often no longer wants the print, or we cannot contact him because of an address change . . . we will honor orders for used prints only on a first come first served basis.

It should again be pointed out, that although we may list a film as being available, we may have only one print in stock. Therefore, when you order a used print, we cannot guarantee it will still be in stock when your order is received. We therefore suggest, that you give us alternate titles should your first selection be no longer available. We will always ship in your order of selection.

ALMOST NEW BLACKHAWK RELEASES

In making available the very extensive line of short subjects we are releasing under our contract with National Television Association, Inc., and Hal Roach Studios, it is necessary, prior to the release of any subject, to make up to several prints which are used for checking and preview purposes—prints which we can refer to in writing our original catalog descriptions—for information as to casts—etc., etc. Normally, these prints will probably not be screened more than six or eight times, and, for all practical purposes will be as good as new—far superior to the average used print. It will be our policy therefore, from time to time, to make these prints available at savings of about 30% to 35% from the cost of new prints, and our list of titles, below, is the first group to be offered. Limitations of use are the same as for new prints.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION STORY
by Roy E. Aitken as told to Al P. Nelson

In "The Birth of a Nation Story", Roy E. Aitken and Al P. Nelson describe in detail the production, promotion and distribution of the film that changed the motion picture from a cheap amusement to a respected art form and proved the potential of the feature length film. Told is the story of the naive, groping motion picture industry—then in its technical swaddling clothes—portraying a segment of Americana that has previously been slighted. Contains 96 8½x11 pages, over 100 illustrations. Cloth bound.

WORLD OF LAUGHTER by Kalton C. Lahue

What was the world's zaniest police force — the one you wouldn't dare call if you were in trouble? The Keystone Cops of course—the brain children of Mack Sennett. Not many years ago, at practically any movie theatre in the United States, you could have seen Sennett's special brand of comedy. But there were many others.

This is a history of the major producers of comedy films, their productions, actors and directors. There is an appendix which lists all of the silent films made by Billy Bevan, Chaplin, Keaton, Langdon, Stan Laurel, Laurel & Hardy, Harold Lloyd, "Our Gang", Snub Pollard, Semon and Turpin.
62-89, 240-pages, 3-lbs. $4.95

CONTINUED NEXT WEEK by Kalton C. Lahue

A massive amount of research into the history of the silent movie serials from their beginning in about 1914 to the late 1920's is reflected in the 152-page text of "Continued Next Week"—giving a wealth of general information about the stars who appeared in these early chapter plays, and the companies, producers and the directors who made them. The book is illustrated with many photographs. The 123 pages of appendix material cover every silent serial produced, together with the stars, production company, featured players and the directors, and in most cases in this concise listing, a complete list of chapters and chapter titles is included along with release date information.

SILENT STAR by Colleen Moore

In 1917, Colleen Moore (who was born Kathleen Morrison) went to work in Hollywood for D. W. Griffith as a "pay-off" for a business favor which her uncle, a newspaperman, had done for Griffith. She was 15. Her whole girlhood, and many later years, went into making movies. With Clara Bow, she was the epitome of the movie flapper in the 1920's. Most of her friends have been movie people, the real and famous stars, such as Mary Pickford, John Gilbert, Tom Mix, Greta Garbo. She knew the early Hollywood scandals at close hand, and remembers the people concerned more kindly than some movie historians do. Hollywood in its great days was hard work, bonanza money, big and crazy parties, dazzling glamour, broken marriages. It's all here.

PROJECTION LAMPS

Shipping weight: one lamp, 12-ounces; each additional lamp, 4-ounces

Blackhawk Films carries the entire Sylvania line of projector lamps. These are indicated by (SYL) after the Blackhawk part number. Blackhawk lamps, designated (BLK), are manufactured for us by one of Japan's top Electrical Companies. Both Sylvania and Blackhawk lamps carry 120 volt rating. Where Sylvania does not make a specified lamp, we carry either Westinghouse (WGH) or General Electric (GE) lamps for your convenience. The average life of projection lamps is from 10 to 25 hours. Lamps with unusually long expected life are designated.

treated will run through the projector much more steadily than a "green" untreated print. Polishing both sides of the film channel at the film gate of your projector with this Filmagic Cloth will also give further protection to your films and make for steadier projection of new prints.

BLACKHAWK RECORD DEPARTMENT

MUSICAL MOODS FROM THE SILENT FILMS

selected and played (piano) by ARTHUR KLEINER — Musical Director of the Museum of Modern Art Film Library

"Silent films were never shown in silence." To the pianists and organists of the early movie houses, the studio composers provided various handbooks which enabled them, as it were, to compose their own scores for almost any film—themes marked "misterioso", "storm", "passion", "most impassioned ecstacy", "lurking villain", and "flirtatious vamp" did duty for appropriate passages in hundreds of movies. In this twelve-inch long-playing record, you will find such motifs as "The Covered Wagon" threatening; "A Fool There Was", Theda Bara theme; "Underworld", fright; and many more too numerous to mention.

61-68, 1-lb. $4.95

MUSIC FOR SILENT COMEDIES

Played and arranged by Arthur Kleiner

Up until Kleiner's retirement he played daily at the Museum of Modern Art. He was the only full-time pianist for silent films in the world. He knows each film and times it to the music. A must for the film collector.

SOUNDS OF THE NICKELODEON

The Nickelodeon was the forerunner of today's juke boxes. There were many types but there was one thought in all the manufacturers' minds—to simulate, as closely as possible, the sound of live musicians. Recordings on this disc were made through use of the Link Nickelodeon and one of the early Wurlitzer instruments. All of the instruments employed xylophones or marimba attachments. Many of them had voice pipes. While a music critic would certainly never embrace the sound of a nickelodeon, the sound entertained the public. We trust your foot will start tapping as you listen to the sounds of bygone years. This recording was produced at the Musical Museum in Deansboro, New York.

8" x 10" GLOSSY

MOVIE STAR PORTRAITS

from the GEORGE JESSEL COLLECTION

These 8"x10" pictures are genuine photographs—most of them glossies—a few mat finished—that were made more or less contemporaneously with the peak years of the respective star's popularity. Most of them are in mint condition—some in what might be classed as very good used condition.

Most of the so-called portrait stills in this group are actually posed star portraits—a few may be close-ups of the star as represented in a still photographed to publicize a particular film—or taken in connection with some news event. Quantities vary, and are limited to present stock.

WHAT BLACKHAWK'S CUSTOMERS SAY:

On a recent order I was amazed at how quickly I got it. I thank your for your promptness. I do business with a lot of other film companies but it usually takes 3 to 4 weeks before I get my order. I, however, got my order from you in only 6 days. Never have I seen a more extensive selection of films. I for one consider your corporation the movie collector's greatest friend.

HOW TO OPEN A BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT

Open account billing is now available to individuals in the United States (Alaska and Hawaii are excepted) on the payment of a fee of $2.00 and the submission of satisfactory credit information. (Payment of the $2.00 fee is not required when application is accompanied by an order for $10.00 or more.) On this basis, upon the opening of a Blackhawk charge account, you will be provided with an account number which should appear on all orders from you. Payment for orders shipped and billed during a month are due in Davenport not later than the 15th of the month following. As an example, orders which are shipped and billed to you in December must be paid in full not later than January 15, etc., etc. A Blackhawk charge account will be a particular convenience to our regular customers in that it eliminates the pre-figuring of remittance for postage, and the writing of several checks or the securing of several money orders during a single month.

Fill in completely (type or print) the BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT APPLICATION below, sign and return to us with the $2.00 charge account fee or an order of $10.00 or more. ($2.00 fee, if sent, will be refunded in the event an account is not opened by us.) We'll immediately confirm receipt and let you know as soon as the account is open—and your account number.

On orders totaling $200.01 to $250.00 ..... $25.00
On orders totaling $250.01 to $300.00 ..... $30.00
On orders totaling $300.01 to $350.00 ..... $35.00

The amount of your time payment charge and the amount of your monthly payment is determined by the unpaid balance remaining after we have deducted your down payment from the total of your purchase. Thus, the larger you can make your down payment, the lower will be your time payment charges and the smaller will be your monthly payments.

B. Time Payment Charges.

Time payment charges are based on the unpaid balance remaining after the deduction of your down payment from the total of your purchase. Here they are scheduled:

On unpaid balances totaling $ 25.00 to $ 50.00 .. $ 5.00
On unpaid balances totaling $ 50.01 to $100.00 .. $10.00
On unpaid balances totaling $100.01 to $150.00 .. $15.00
On unpaid balances totaling $150.01 to $200.00 .. $20.00
On unpaid balances totaling $200.01 to $250.00 .. $25.00
On unpaid balances totaling $250.01 to $300.00 .. $30.00
On unpaid balances totaling $300.01 to $350.00 .. $35.00

C. Monthly Payments.

As is explained above, the size of your monthly payment is based upon the unpaid balance (including the time payment charge) remaining after deducting your payment from the total of your purchase. Here is the schedule:

On unpaid balances totaling $ 25.00 to $ 50.00 .. $ 5.00
On unpaid balances totaling $ 50.01 to $100.00 .. $10.00
On unpaid balances totaling $100.01 to $150.00 .. $15.00
On unpaid balances totaling $150.01 to $200.00 .. $20.00
On unpaid balances totaling $200.01 to $250.00 .. $25.00
On unpaid balances totaling $250.01 to $300.00 .. $30.00
On unpaid balances totaling $300.01 to $350.00 .. $35.00

D. Add-On Orders.

We're always glad to add additional purchases to time payment accounts already outstanding. The additional time payment charge will be based on the amount added to the time payment contract. The charge itself will be determined from schedule B up above.
The amount payable monthly, when an add-on is made, will be based on the total amount still due including the unpaid balance on the add-on. When these two are combined, the total will fall into one of the brackets indicated in C.

E. Our Action.

We've provided this information so that you will know exactly the amount you will owe. However, to help you further, we prepare a time payment schedule for you at the time we ship the merchandise. We show you the exact amount due and the dates on which the amount should be received here in Davenport. So don't let the details bother you. We'll do the figuring.

PARCEL POST CHARGES

Effective October 19, 1968

Shipping weights are given on all mailable merchandise so that you can remit approximate postage charges with your order. Just add up shipping weights on all items to be shipped by Parcel Post and figure total pounds (16 ounces to a pound).

A phone call to your local post office will get you information as to your zone from Davenport, or you can estimate it on the basis of distance as given in the table below. Alaska, Hawaii and territories of the United States are in the 8th zone from Davenport. APO/PPO Charges are the same as for the APO/PPO POST OFFICE (i.e. San Francisco or New York).

Then, having determined the total shipping weight of your order and the zone in which you are located from Davenport, refer to the table below to determine the amount of postage to include when placing your cash order. (There is no need to figure this in advance on C.O.D. or Time Payment orders as actual postage charges will be billed to you.) We will send credit voucher for any overpayment of postage which may be applied on your next order.

POSTAGE CHARGES

Blackhawk Films' prices do not include postage. Shipping weights are now given with each item and you can compute the approximate total weight and postage charges by referring to the postage table given below. While weights of a single shipment to virtually all post offices in continental United States are limited to 20 pounds, shipments to the states of Alaska and Hawaii may run as heavy as 70 pounds. These two states are in the eighth zone, and Blackhawk customers can approximate the correct postage to remit by figuring 18c per pound for each pound above twenty. The same formula applies to all U. S. Territories and Protectorates.

Some larger and heavier items, because of size and weight, are not mailable and will thus be shipped to you by express or freight, you paying the transportation charges on delivery. In general, shipments of size and weight requiring express or freight transportation will not be forwarded on a C.O.D. basis.

SALES TAX ON IOWA SHIPMENTS

Customers ordering films for shipment to points in Iowa must also add 3% for the State Sales Tax.

C. O. D. SHIPMENTS

Except where noted, Blackhawk will gladly make shipments of merchandise on a C.O.D. basis to any point in the United States. However, on C.O.D. shipments, the purchaser pays all transportation charges, insurance and C.O.D. fees, and money order fees, in addition to the cost of the merchandise. Because of the weight involved, we will not forward projectors on a C.O.D. basis unless a deposit of $25.00 is enclosed to guarantee transportation charges.

RIGHTS of USE on MOTION PICTURES

Use of new 16mm. and 8mm. motion picture prints sold by Blackhawk is limited to home and non-theatrical showing—theatrical and television rights are specifically reserved. Productions of Hal Roach Studios, Inc., and National Telefilm Associates, Inc., are distributed by Blackhawk on license under copyright for nontheatrical and home use only, and in the limited territories set forth on the pages carrying the major listings of these particular groups of subjects. The copyright status, if any, of other subjects in countries and territories outside of the United States, is unknown and purchasers acquiring and exhibiting such prints do so at their own risk.

No specific license for use, either express or implied, is made for any used 16mm. or 8mm. prints offered herein, except in the case of used copies of subjects on which new prints are also offered by Blackhawk, in which case the same right of use, and the same limitations of use, apply to the used prints as to new prints of the same subject.

No authority or license is granted for the public performance of any copyrighted music which may be included in or as a part of any of the films offered herein unless the person, firm or corporation proposing to reproduce such music as part of the picture is duly authorized where such authorization is needed, by the copyright owner of any such music, to perform the same publicly.

SHIPMENTS OUTSIDE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

Shipments made to Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Fleet Post Offices, Army Post Offices and other overseas locations move through the regular United States Postal System. We are glad to handle such shipments on exactly the same basis as shipments made within continental United States with the exception that no C.O.D.'s will be made outside continental United States.

Where shipments are made to countries other than the United States, payment may be made by letter of credit, by international money order or in any negotiable currency.

Where, on any type of payment, you wish to know the exact cost of your merchandise we will be glad to send a proforma invoice—and hold the wanted items—so that a precise amount may be determined. Where checks, money orders or other remittances are made in currencies other than those of the United States, we will immediately clear these funds through our bank. Your order will be suspended until our bank has notified us of the actual credit resulting from this clearance. This usually takes a matter of a week or ten days.

On shipments to overseas destinations other than those served directly by the United States Postal System, a surcharge of 10% is made to cover postage, and the preparation of necessary customs forms.

Blackhawk cannot guaranttee safe delivery on foreign shipments. If you want your shipment insured we can do it for you at an additional charge. Ask for details.

MAY WE SEND A COPY OF THE CURRENT EDITION OF THE BLACKHAWK BULLETIN TO SOME OF YOUR FRIENDS INTERESTED IN MOVIES AND COLOR SLIDES!

Every day we get letters and cards from our friends asking us to forward a copy of the Blackhawk Bulletin to certain of their friends—or to put a friend's name on our mailing list. This happens frequently enough that the thought has occurred to us that we ought to make it easier for you to relay this information to us, for it's your enthusiasm for what we have to offer and your loyalty that has made possible the broader range of subjects we're able to bring you.

So . . . here we have space just waiting for the name and addresses of your friends. Fill in one or all and include this portion of the page with your next order. We'll see to it that the current Blackhawk Bulletin gets into the mail to them at once!

RETURNS:

Should you for any reason desire to return items to Blackhawk for credit or for any other reason, YOU MUST RETURN ALL PAPERS INCLUDING YOUR ORIGINAL ORDER. Because of the thousands of orders we handle, we do not keep copies of all orders, nor a list of the items you purchased. Unless you return the papers listed above, we are not in a position to handle your request without undue delay.

BLACKHAWK'S GUARANTEE

We want you to be satisfied with what you buy from Blackhawk. If after receiving an item you are disappointed in any way, return it to us transportation prepaid, in its original condition, and within ten days after you receive it, and we'll allow you full credit on some other purchase, issue you a credit memo which you may later apply on some other selection, or give you a full refund.

OUT OF STOCK ITEMS

Where items are temporarily out of stock, we will create a back order, retain sufficient funds to cover shipment and send the item as quickly as our new stock is received. If there is a delay beyond two weeks, we will notify you, giving you any information we may have.

When an item is permanently out of stock (as may be the case with used 16mm. and used 8mm. films where we cannot obtain an additional supply), we will send you a credit memo as a refund. We follow the practice of issuing credit memos in such instances because most customers ordering used or discontinued material prefer to make another selection. If we return a check, this means that the customer who wants to select another item must then either pay for the cashing of our check and for the writing of another personal check, or must pay for a money order. This can be both inconvenient and expensive. To make alternative selections easy, therefore, we use the credit memorandum system.

If you would prefer a cash refund (and if you are ordering used items, discontinued items and/or close-out items), just tell us on your order and we will send our bank check rather than a credit memorandum.

BLACKHAWK'S LAY-AWAY PLAN

Blackhawk's Lay-Away Plan costs you not a penny more than Blackhawk's regular cash price—you pay 10% of the cost of the merchandise with your order, the balance within 90 days at your convenience. As soon as the balance is paid, Blackhawk ships the merchandise! And, Lay-Away is an easy way for you to get those limited availability bargains and sale items, for the moment we get your order, it is physically pulled and set aside for you! Remember—no interest or carrying charge on Lay-Away!

Here is comprehensive and spectacular coverage of the big game country of Kenya, Tanzania and Urganda in East Africa — some of the best we've ever seen. You'll see great shots—including some in action and in close-up—of such major species as crocodiles, elephants, giraffes, hippopotamuses, leopards, lions, black and white rhinoceroses—and of such other varieties as baboons, flying bats, caracals, cheetahs, ealands, gazelles, Coke's hartebeest, hyenas, impalas, jackals, ostriches, topis, wart hogs, waterbucks, wildebeast and zebras.
