Excerpt

My brothers, my sisters, we are into some times here because this very scene is taking place right now: this very crime, this very deceit, this very mischief, and all these thoughts are already put in the Book of Revelation – every move they are going to make. The Book of Daniel says, “And he looked towards the pleasant land, and he began to go towards the pleasant land.” And Paul said, “He is sitting in the temple being worshipped as God.” And John is saying there, “And everyone who doesn’t bow down to the image is going to be killed. You can’t buy or sell except you have the mark of the Beast.” It is already written in the Bible there, that those are the plans they are coming with.

Until we were even warned by the Prophet. He said, “According to my revelation; according to Revelation 13:16, this last Day Bride will suffer persecution before She goes in the Rapture.” He said, “They will close down places like these here. And after a short, powerful demonstration, this persecuted, hunted group will go to be with the Lord Jesus Christ.” He said, “And somewhere between the binding of the tares and the revealing of the antichrist, the Rapture will take place and does take place.” He said, “And the binding of the tares – that is the World Council of Churches, the Ecumenical Move that is binding them together right now. Satan is uniting man under his plan. But while that union is going on, there is another Union going on – God and His Bride are being united.” [Page 73 to 74]

[#592 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

*...Peace unto My lovely Bride
Shalom, Shalom! for a new day has been broken;
From this sick and dying world
To God's Life and immortality,
All we can hear from His Throne
Is "Good Morning! Good Morning!
To My Bride."*

Praise His Mighty Name. The Light is come; It's showing us where we are going. The Bible says, "If you walk in the Light as He is in the Light, the Blood of His Son, cleanseth you from all sin." [1st John 1:7 -Ed.] Because this is the condemnation – that Light is come. There shall be Light at Evening Time. It's such a great thing to have Light but it is such a great responsibility to whom God has given the Light.

May today when the Light would shine, may It shine deep into our hearts, as Paul said, "To give us the Light of the knowledge of the Glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ." Because He Himself is this Light. He is the Light of the world. In Him is Life and His Life is the Light of men. [St. John 1:4 -Ed.] This was His purpose for dying on Calvary – that the God Who was in Christ, God with us, would come in us; God above us, God with us, to make a way that it might be God in us; that in that day, that you will know, as I was in the Father and the Father in Me, so I in you and you in Me. This is the final stage: "I will dwell in you and I will walk in you and I will be Your God and you shall be My people.”

God is working His way into your life, into places in your life. If He has called you and if you recognize what His objective is, what He’s trying to achieve, what is a resistance to Him, what is an obstacle in His way, then we, knowing what He is trying to achieve, what His purpose is, then we want to be in cooperation with Him this morning; then we want to move self-will out of the way.

That was the veil between the Holy place and the Holy of Holies. It had to be rent in twain. That was the barrier of the enmity that He had to slay. That’s why even He Himself prayed, “Not My will, but Thy will be done. I come not to do My Own will, but to do the will of Him that sent Me. My meat [desire -Ed.] is to do His will and to finish His work.”

That’s why we are called – there is a work to be finished. “Rise up and finish the job! Refuse to be compromised! Keep your eyes fixed on the prize.” God spoke that Supernaturally by dream, visiting in the subconscious in 2004. And here we are, still striving to do this job and to finish it. We must have the Mind of Christ. The Bride has the Mind of Christ and She knows what He wants done with the Word.

We have been given the Word. It’s printed in tape and book form, It is translated into languages, It’s sent across the face of the earth, we have access to It and we have It, but that is not what It is given for. After we’ve received It: “Thy Word have I hid in my heart.” [Psalms 119:11 -Ed.] It cannot stay in the Book. It cannot stay on the CDs. That is going to be burnt in the Tribulation. But the Bride in whom tabernacles that Word, It is veiled, that Word will take a people out of this earth. We have received a Kingdom that cannot be removed.

The work of the Holy Spirit has been teaching us what was spoken; that Word, coming into us. If faith could find its bedding ground, no circumstances would be considered. There would be a people with holy faith and holy works going forth in a holy union to create this promise. This is the results of the Word – preparing for this great Hour.

That is what happens when this Word begins to become Spirit. But for this Word to become Spirit... Remember when this Word drops in here, [Bro. Vin indicates the heart -Ed.] the fowls of the air come after It. If here is not prepared, the things in your own life, the cares of this life, the deceitfulness of riches in this Age, worldly pleasure, chokes It. But if faith could find its bedding ground, that's a different thing. The Seed of promise will have a place to grow. The promise cannot be produced until the Seed of promise finds a place to grow.

Jesus taught us, each man's heart is a certain type of soil. The man with the stony heart could be here this morning. The heart that is full of weeds and these things could be here this morning. The place where the Word falls and It doesn't go deep and It lacks moisture in that life, It is not going to grow.

They had their time of rejoicing. They rejoiced when they just came into the Message: "Hallelujah! Glory to God," and a couple months after, you'll see them, because It didn't have any root to grow. It just dried up because It lacked moisture. Because that life never went on after water baptism, to find Spirit baptism where that heart could be a watered garden.

May God help us as we try our best, the best that we can, to yield and submit. It's a 'submitting' thing. It's not a 'trying to know' thing. That knowing comes by submitting. The person who is trying to know without submitting, doesn't really come to the knowledge of this. When you recognize that is the Truth, you go to submitting; you go to submitting. That's the real thing, friends. The woman's victory is in her submission to her husband. This applies to Christ and the Church. This is a great Mystery concerning Christ and the Church.

Not just in the natural life; that's the shadow. But this is a great mystery concerning Christ and the Church.

Let's bow our hearts.

No matter what it is you have need of, physical healing today, that promise... God has promises of healing, God has promises of full Redemption, God has promise of total deliverance, God has promise of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, the New Birth, but no matter what promise it is, it is a Seed; It must find a place to grow. Take It into your heart today. Expect to receive from Him whatsoever you have need of.

The person who cannot tell what they have need of, is a person who is not being tutored by the Holy Spirit, because very quickly the Holy Spirit teaches you what is priority in your life and what is not priority. This is a person who is interested in desiring to please God, God could bring this knowledge to them.

Beloved Jesus, we bow our hearts in Your Presence. We are so thankful Father, for the opportunity once again to come through these doors; to assemble ourselves in Your Presence. We've come this morning offering the fruits of our lips, giving praise and thanks unto You, creating an atmosphere, Lord, getting ready to hear what You would say. This is the time in the service where all that we have done, was in preparation for, Lord, God, if we understood what we were doing in the part that has gone by, it was getting us ready to hear what the Spirit has to say to us, otherwise, we have come, got excited in our little program, done our little thing and then our service was over. It just shows we didn't understand why we came into Your house today.

We have gathered, dear God, knowing that Seven Angels have appeared in these last days. We've seen the Son of Man coming in a Cloud as promised in the Bible. We've heard Seven Thunders, the Lion roaring, uttering Its Voices. The Seven-sealed Book being opened, a Message of preparation, separating a people from all unbelief: "Come out of her, My people"; pronouncing judgment upon Babylon – it's fallen, it's fallen, but calling us, dear God, to the Marriage of the Lamb, to come into oneness, to be united with You, to go in with the Bridegroom in this Hour.

Gracious Father, may as we stand here in Your Presence, we realize in this great Message of Redemption and grace that has come to us on the wings of the Seventh Dove, Lord, it is a Message of Your promise, Father, to take us to a new world, just like that dove came at evening time to Noah, on the first day of the week, flying, "holy, holy, holy," coming with that olive leaf as evidence of a new world, ministering something to those who were raised up above the judgment, were about to enter into a new world, a new civilization.

God, we want to understand why we are here, we want to understand what is happening; we want to understand, Lord, what is required of us. It's such a shaking time as we have heard the Spirit speaking so expressly, as we've seen the Light moving in the pages of the Bible, pointing out the time and the season, showing us the events; showing us the promises. We see the prophecies becoming history. Oh God, it has even alerted us that much more to lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily besets us.

Today we ask You for deeper sincerity, oh God. Blot out all our transgressions. Blot out all our sin, dear God. Lord God, remove all hypocrisy and pretense. Circumcise us; cut away everything that is not of You that could hinder us, dear God. Give us a tender heart before You, Lord. Give us an attentive heart because You said, "It's better to hearken than to offer the fat of rams. Obedience is better than sacrifice because stubbornness," Lord, "and rebellion is like witchcraft and idolatry."

We don't want to just, Lord, hear what the Spirit is saying and then see something in our hearts that is trying to put up a resistance to receive it. God, what a dangerous thing that is. We see what happened to the incomplete obedience of one who heard the Word of the prophet, one who was anointed by the prophet; one who couldn't kill everything. We saw how he was rejected and an evil spirit came upon him, oh God, and you raised up another in his place. We see in that great time of trial and testing when he needed to hear from God when all the enemy was coming in, there was no dream, no vision, no prophecy; nothing. That channel of communication was cut off and he descended back into witchcraft.

God, we see what has happened to the Age, we see what has happened to the Pentecostal Age also, even when You showed it in the vision as a witch dancing to rock and roll music, oh God, people who once, Lord, rejoiced in Heavenly Places.

Help us today Father, that dear God, we could hear the Word with deepness of sincerity and we could examine ourselves in the Light that You have sent to us.

Help me, dear God, standing here, Father, not just to say anything, not just to say what comes in my mind but, dear God, even having the responsibility and knowing the Hour, and knowing the needs of the flock which you have made me a shepherd over, and seeing, Lord, where many who have struggled down through these years to get the breakthrough, they come to church faithfully, but they don't have the victory. They've heard these things so many times but it has not dropped into the place where it has become a revelation to them. They just can't seem to maintain the victory; they slip back. It seems like the Water in the rock box is just going out.

Put the Honey in that life, Father, oh God, that they will be able to retain God in their knowledge. Because when we see an Age given over to a reprobate mind and the bondage of a strong delusion to believe the lie and be damned by it because they didn't have the love for the Truth, we do not want to be complacent. We want to know the importance and the grace, the extent of grace, to be able to sit in a place where we could hear the Spirit of Truth speak out of the Scripture and the Message of the Hour, placing us in the time and season positionally; showing us what we are and what You have made us in Christ. What grace that is, Father. It means more to us than the whole world.

Help us today, Father, that we could please You. We know that without faith it is impossible to please God. We tried to please You in so many other ways except having faith – a faith that will look away from this world and look away to Jesus Christ; a faith that would put ourselves in complete obedience to Your will and full surrender to You, Lord. May You grant it, Father.

Meet every need, dear God. Help Your children, Father. Send down the blessings that they have need of today. Those who might be sick in their body, weary in their minds, struggling in battles, oh God, those under depression and oppression of the enemy, to rise up into this realm of Perfect Faith and Perfect Love, where this great revelation of what You have made us in Christ, of seeing our names in the Book and having an open channel of communication that You have given to us by inspiration, giving us access to You, where we could come and live, where the veil falls behind us and shuts us in that Secret Place, where we could live in Your Presence; where even that dry rod budded and brought forth. So let it be with this great Power of Transformation, that can work in our lives. May You grant it, Father.

Bless the Word that You've put upon the heart of Your servant. Help me to be so yielded and surrendered, so directed by the Holy Spirit, that, Lord God, I could be a yielded vessel, it could be expressed just the way that, Lord, You intended it to be, where it could have meaning and value and be of benefit to Your children.

Remember Your children all throughout this region and across the face of the earth, Father. God, we know sometimes that being at a distance, so much could be lost, but we ask that nothing will be lost. We ask, dear God, that everyone that is in need will receive from You. And may You bless them all, knowing the love we have for them and the desire to be true and faithful, to speak the Truth to them, Father, that not one would come up lost. May You grant it, Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ we pray, amen.

Praise His Mighty Name. God bless you. I would like to turn to the Book of Revelation, Chapter 2. I want to stay with the title, “THE GRAFTING IN OF ISRAEL”. This will be PART 7, I think. I am continuing out of 1st Kings 21, but I want to expand a little bit this morning and strike some places because I’m beginning to catch, as we follow the way that God is trying to direct us.

Sometimes you don’t know what is the next step and how to go but you try to be obedient and then you see something break in a certain place and you are grateful to know that He guides us with His eye and we’ll follow till we die and we’ll understand it better by and by. We don’t try to reason out everything, we try to be obedient to follow and then we see God’s wisdom for passing us in the places He is passing us and for doing it in the way He is doing it, and then we see His Love and longsuffering, His grace and mercy towards us. It certainly encourages us.

A message to the Thyatirean Age. After Pergamos was Thyatira. ‘Thyatira’ means, ‘dominant female’. ‘Pergamos’ means, ‘married’. I believe that we have had in this Hour of temptation, in these last couple of years, I believe, we’ve had a uniting of church and State, that has not been too visible, because the whole move of this harlot is to hide what she is doing, so that she can keep people seeing the world that she is projecting to them and not the real world.

I believe that all these two trillion dollars that came out here that they don’t have to bail out the State, is to give the Catholic Church full control in the United States of America. Because that is what the sixth vision said: "This woman would have full control over this nation and lead it to its destruction," which is the seventh vision. I believe that is what is happening. And I don't believe we have to wait until we see the bomb comes, to say, "Oh my! It really happened." I believe we who are alive can see these things, if we have the Holy Ghost.

If they are married, then it means to say, the Roman Catholic Church is the dominant power in the earth today. If you know a more dominant power in the earth today, I will like you to share it with me. But from where I stand and where I am seeing, through the eyes of a Prophet who has spoken to us, I believe, that woman has drunken the kings of the earth and the inhabitants of the earth with the cup in her hand.

If you could point to show me a nation or a government that is not drunk, I will gladly appreciate to see it, by the grace of God. But I believe she has drunken the kings of the earth and the nations of the earth. Because if she is going for Israel now, I believe the Gentiles are finished. If we are looking for the Rapture, the Shout has come and gathered us and the Voice has brought us into Union with Christ, then Joseph must dismiss His Wife. She can't be His girlfriend; She has to be His Wife. Amen?

So, I want some reality in the Word from where I am standing. I want to not be speaking from an imaginary place with a confused mind; I want to speak with an understanding of what has happened for the last forty-five years, from the going of the Prophet. I want to speak from there, believing that in this Hour, 2010, (amen) the world is not in 1963 or in 1960 when John Kennedy was now being elected. I believe we are far from that, because we are not little children here. I am not a little boy standing here this morning. I believe I'm matured in the Word. I believe the Book is opened to me, by God's grace. I believe it is the Voice of many waters going forth in the earth in this Hour.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

This is not just for the Dark Ages, if you understand the Bible. Because the One Who is standing there is alive and is That, this very morning. His eyes are like a flame of fire, here now, because that is what He was in the Lord's Day. Seven Stars in His right hand – that is what He was in the Lord's Day. A sharp Sword out of His mouth – that is what He was in the Lord's Day. And in every Age He is revealing Himself in one of those sevenfold manifestations because all Seven Ages are represented in this Bride. And if you read with understanding, you will see that.

...who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

His feet were not like brass, if you put Him back in that Age, but His feet are like brass when He comes in judgment. 'Brass' is 'judgment'.

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

He mentioned 'works' here twice.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

That Jezebel doctrine was in a local church back there in the first Age when John was writing these things. But that Jezebel woman is controlling the world today. Because Elijah came and called us out of the influence of that Jezebel woman, of that Jezebel system, when he repaired the altar at the Evening Sacrifice and turned the hearts of the children back to the faith of the fathers. That was not in the Thyatirean Age back there but that is here because that pagan Rome became Papal Rome in Nicaea. And that Papal Rome has conquered the world today. Amen?

Did Elijah come in this Day? That's right. Did he call a remnant according to the election of grace, separated from that Jezebel system? Are their hearts turned back? That's right. Did he preach Jezebel Religion? [1961-0319 - Ed.] Did that happen and he identified that history was repeating now in this Age, when the Catholic Church became the power behind the U.S? Alright, so then you understand. You know we are not trying to make up something here.

²¹ And I gave her [a] space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

²² Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

So he was not just talking to them back there because it is here they are. Because the judgment came by the mouth of His prophet, Elijah, that she will be fed to the dogs, and in Revelation 18, that she would be burnt with fire, with the atomic bomb. Is that right?

...I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

²³ And I will kill her children with death...

That's the last plague, so that is now.

...and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

²⁴ But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira...

We are not in the Thyatira local church now, because these were seven local churches, but we are in the Age now; we are in the Age. It is a repeat: another Pergamos is bringing forth another Thyatira. And when that other Thyatira comes out, the church now, will use the power of the State to kill again, and there will be another persecution like it was in pagan Rome. It will be a repeat performance of all diabolical, cunning and cruelty.

Since September 11th 2001, they have passed those laws that they can confiscate you, take your properties, all these things and shut you down, and that is what is coming. And to bring that, then the church must have the power of the State, then she must own the State, and that is what has happened. Do you understand? That is how the beast that came out of the earth, now speaks with the voice of the Dragon. Because the image was made, so she could have a vehicle to work through, so she is not seen because she is doing these things covertly.

²³ ...I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

Remember in Revelation 22:12, He said, "Behold, I come quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every man according to his works." That is in this Day when He came with the White Wig, eyes like a flame of fire and feet like brass between Son of God and Son of David. That's when He comes there, and every man in this Hour will receive their works. Because He said, "Fill her cup double. As she has given to people, give her to drink." See? "They want Jerusalem, I'll make it a cup of trembling. I'll give them to drink." You see? Watch!

²⁴ But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira...

He's talking to two groups here. Did you catch that?

...unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine...

There is a people He has separated from that system that don't have that doctrine. We don't have that doctrine. We are restored to the original Apostolic doctrine. We have been called out of the lie, into the Truth. We have a thinking man's filter, a holy man's taste. We don't have that Jezebel doctrine.

...and which have not known the depths of Satan...

You know what 'the depths of Satan' is, right? Nicolaitanism: first stage. Balaamism: second stage. The Jezebel doctrine: third stage, where you come down to church joining, and you are looking for salvation in the church and your name is on the church book.

Where we are talking from, is a name in the Book that is opened in the Angel's hand. We are not dealing with a church book here because this church has no book, and this church has nobody's name on a book inside of here. And this salvation that we are preaching is not in this church; it is in the Word and that Word is in the Bride. Amen. This is a gathering, mixed with the public, mixed with your family, mixed with your friends, mixed with your visitors and your 'tanty' [aunt -Ed.]; mixed with unbelievers and make-believers. This has people with the Holy Ghost and people without the Holy Ghost in this gathering here; wise and foolish.

²⁴ But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

'Till I come' is Revelation 10, 1st Thessalonians 4; that's the Mystery of the Seventh Seal.

²⁶ And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end...

Not they, who came out in the Exodus under the prophet; came through the water of baptism and perished in the wilderness – not them. Not they, who listened to the ten spies and said, “We can’t take the land” – not them. All of them drank from the rock and ate manna. But they, who crossed Jordan and got circumcised and came under the Headship of the Captain – those.

...keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

²⁷ And he shall rule them with a rod of iron...

This is somebody who is coming in, to the Throne of David. This is somebody coming to: “You will sit with Me in My Throne.” [Revelation 3:21 –Ed.] But to come to the Throne, you have to come through the Marriage – He that hath the Key of David. That is somebody who puts the veil on His shoulder and transfers all their rights to Him. Because you could only come into the house of David by marriage. Do you understand that?

Ruth came in by marriage. Marriage lifted up the Gentile, the Moabite, who could not come into the congregation of Israel for 400 years. Marriage, from the One born in Bethlehem, the One of the tribe of Judah, the Kinsman Redeemer, the Lord of the Harvest, that One brought her in at Harvest Time when Naomi came back in the homeland, between the Second Woe and the Third Woe. Do you understand?

...as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

²⁸ And I will give him the morning star.

That couldn’t be back in that time; that is at Daybreak – when the day is breaking; when the Bright and Morning Star comes. There had to be a Prophet here to point out the Morning Star and say, “Shalom. He’s saying, ‘Good morning!’” It has to be now, between His Priesthood and His Kingship, when you are coming into the Throne to reign with Him.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

He that hath an ear, let him hear: In this Hour, He is going to kill Jezebel. In this Hour, He is going to kill Jezebel's children. In this Hour, He is searching the reins and the hearts. In this Hour, He is giving every man according to their works – in this Thyatira.

Gracious Father, it shakes us on the inside just to read, and read with understanding what we are reading, in the realization of the application in this very present Hour. God, let Your Light shine in our hearts and may it crystallize our thinking, that we can have the Mind of Christ and know how to live and how to walk Father. In Jesus' Name we pray, amen.

God bless you. You may have your seats.

I have two little subjects here with this GRAFTING IN OF ISRAEL. Now these things, when you come this weekend: Friday, Saturday and Sunday, I'll pick up, because there is no way I'll be able to even, maybe, get one-tenth. I'm in 1st Kings 21, which we are going to get to, but I had to read this so it broadens your scope to see this Jezebel, her daughters, the move, what is happening; God's judgment. Because this is the place in the New Testament where God brings the woman, in Elijah's time, over into the New Testament. Do you understand that?

She is called 'that woman Jezebel'. He was talking about the Catholic Church here. So when He calls her by that name, we go back to the place where He put judgment and said He will kill her and her children. We go back and see what she did back there to bring her death. And then, when we see her today doing what she did there, we see what is bringing her death in reality. Do you understand? I trust that you are getting that, by God's grace.

My first subject is: "I Am He Who Searcheth The Reins And The Hearts," and, "The Lord Hath Prepared His Throne For Judgment.” What a time we are living in!

God hath prepared His Throne for mercy. How did God prepare His Throne for mercy? By a Mediator going in with Blood and sprinkling Seven Drops of Blood. Mercy could be given because that Blood satisfied the just demands of the law.

The Mercy Seat was a golden lid upon the Ark, and inside the Ark was the law of God. The law of God is what condemns man, that no man, born of a woman, could have kept the law. And the law showed man, he was a sinner in need of Redemption but the law had no Redemption in it. The law could only condemn man; the law could not justify man. And then, no man has a nature that can fulfill the law.

That is why Israel on Mt. Sinai, when they said, “What God says, we will do,” that is where they forsook Grace for law. Because when God made the covenant with Abraham, it was a Grace covenant. And down through that time they had a Grace covenant. And when they came to Mt. Sinai, they choose law instead of Grace.

And the Prophet – you know the Message, how he brought the Pentecostal church in this Day. When Grace came by a Prophet, the original Word being restored, the Message of Grace, the Pentecostal church wanted denomination, which is a substitute. The Token was to come back at Evening Time and they rejected the real Lamb. Elijah was to restore the true Atonement and they wanted to hold on to a substitute.

Just like down through the Old Testament, they held on to the natural lamb; the blood of bulls and goats. But when Elijah came to John – “As John was sent to forerun the First Coming,” he introduced, not a lamb that will cover sin, (they had that for all those thousands of years,) but he introduced ‘the Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world’. But they rejected that to hold on to their Sadducee denomination and their Pharisee denomination, and they rejected the Messiah whom Elijah introduced.

Jesus was the Lamb that was born; that was why the Message came to shepherds. It didn't come to Caiaphas, it didn't come to the Sadducees; angels appeared to shepherds at His birth and said, "Go into the city of David," the great shepherd that they had there, "go there, in the city of David, in Bethlehem, (a sheep town,) you will find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes." And when they went in, He was born in a manger, in a stable, because lambs are not born in hospitals. They had no room in the inn. His birth, He was coming to be a sacrifice. Unto this end He was born, for this cause He came into the world, to lay down His life for us sinners.

So this was a great thing there. And when we see how God gave this great Message in that Day, they could not receive it; they refused it. And that was such a bad thing because they were scattered into all nations: "And Jerusalem will be trodden down until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled." [Luke 21:24 -Ed.] "And Israel's blindness will be in part until the fullness of the Gentiles," [Romans 11:25 -Ed.] and the Gentiles are still here.

Seven Gentile groups are in Glory and Seven Messengers. Paul, the first messenger to the Gentiles, he was the Light to the Gentiles and he was the one who laid the foundation for the Gentile church. Peter was the apostle to the circumcision; Paul was the apostle to the uncircumcision. You know the Scripture. And so here, the last few Seeds of the Gentile Bride are on the earth.

When the Seven-sealed Book was opened, he said, "Notice who this is being given to." All the rest are asleep in the grave already. "This is being given to the ones who are alive and remain unto the Coming of the Lord." And the Lord descended from Heaven with a Shout and Seven Thunders uttered their voices. And when that was happening, that was happening after the denominational Ages had run out, then the Son of Man was to be revealed again in the last days.

So this is what has happened and this is what is taking place. When you start to understand this you realize, seven messengers, seven groups are in Glory; that is the complete Pyramid. Jesus a little higher up – that is the Headstone. Just the part, the little flange that connects the Head and the Body is right here – these few Seeds. By and through the members of them, God is going to finish this work. When this church comes to perfection, it will bring those seven messengers and those seven groups here. At the Last Trump the dead shall be raised incorruptible.

Here we are seeing, like Joseph's bride standing there and Joseph's brothers standing there. And we have come to that place. And we see Joseph already ministering things to them, but keeping His identity hidden from them still; yet mystifying them that they are seeing Supernatural things happening to them. Like a knowledge that He has about them and it baffles them, how could this Man know them in this way?

Yet His Bride is not yet dismissed. This pressure is building up inside of Him, but He is coming into a place where He cannot refrain Himself any longer. We see how He is being affected dealing with them, but He goes in the back and washes His face and comes back out and behaves normal again. His Wife is seeing how it is affecting Him, but His brothers, now, do not understand that He is being affected by seeing them, because to them, it's strangers meeting each other. Do you understand? So this is a great thing.

They are dealing with the Father. They are not dealing with Him; they are dealing with the Father. They are dealing with Jehovah. Jacob is their father. You know, they are dealing with that. But This here is the Saviour. This is the Saviour Who was sent ahead to save a posterity, that they would not be destroyed. So it is a great thing happening, and when we look, we are going to see how this unfolds.

Now, I want to read something out of The Thyatirean Age here. The Prophet is opening something for us here in verse 23 [Revelation 2:23 -Ed.] where I'm taking this subject from.

[Thyatirean Church Age - Church Ages Book, Cpt.6 - A Final Warning - para. 238 -Ed.]

“And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am He Which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.”

That is a very powerful statement. For God to give... Could you imagine how many people... If somebody were to say, “Give me a ballpark figure. How many people actually, from Adam to this generation, lived on Planet Earth? Give me a figure, in all the years, six thousand years, of people that ever lived on the earth.” I don't think there is one human being who could come up with a figure. Yet all these people have to come up in a resurrection, and there are only two.

Remember, many didn't come up in that resurrection when Jesus rose. That was just the overcomers in the Old Testament, which was the Bride type. And they are still not going to come up in this one here, when the dead in Christ... Because he said, “And the dead in Christ shall rise first, and the rest of the dead lived not for a thousand years.” So after the Millennium, then there will be a general Resurrection when all the dead come up. And that is from quite back there.

If God has to give to every man according to their works, He has to be keeping record. God doesn't speak an idle word. God has shown in this Day that He has files of people, to tell them who they are; where they came from. We saw it, over and over and over in this Day: “Lady, I see you getting younger before me. Twenty-five years ago, such and such.” In some places he said, when the Spirit came, he went back generations; two or three hundred years he would go back sometimes, on interviews.

We have seen in this Day when God came down, even what they were praying for right there in the service. He said, "Weren't you just praying, 'Let that man call me'? And you were praying for your husband; he's in an insane asylum? If those things are right, raise your hands let the people see." It never missed, out of the hundreds of thousands of times.

Even what the woman forgot, he said, "In the war, (under the Second Woe), your husband was in France with the allied nations, and you were in the car with a curly-haired man that was not your husband. And the train nearly ran over you all." Maybe the train line was already rooted up; there were no trains passing there anymore – new route. Like how we scrapped the train line here and we have buses now. But it doesn't change. Do you know why? That day, and that time, and that place, and in that hour...

Today you have a camera; it focuses on somebody to take the picture. There are settings on that camera that tells you the day, that tells you the month, that tells you the year, that tells you the time of the day: the hour, the minute and the seconds, and it would be printed on that picture. If man could invent a camera to take that, what about God's camera, friend? Do you understand? What about God's record?

So, here He's saying, "I am He which searcheth the reins and the hearts." In Psalm 139, He said, "Before the members were formed, it was written in My Book." God knows everything your hands would have done before you had a hand; before your body was even formed.

In the Book of Revelation here, it is fact that in the Seven Church Ages, God spoke out in every Age, the condition of the Age, the condition of the people who failed in that Age, the condition of the overcomers in that Age, and they weren't born in the earth as yet. And 2000 years afterwards when God looked back, He put every messenger's name there. Is that right? When John was writing this, there wasn't anybody named Martin Luther. When John was writing this, there wasn't any nation named the United States of America, much more Trinidad. Could you imagine that?

Then we realize that God has a record on everybody. Now, it's not God's thing to show His records when He doesn't need to. Like Marilyn Monroe, she died... Everybody up to this day says she died of an overdose. A Prophet said, "She didn't die of an overdose, she died of a heart attack." He said, "I saw her in the vision, and she was trying to grasp for the telephone when the heart attack hit her."

Then one day the children were watching 'River Of No Return' [A movie -Ed.]; he came into the house. They said, "Daddy, come and sit down and watch this. This is the place you were fishing, where you talked about, that you went and fished by the 'River of no Return'. Look, they made a picture of it." He sat down with them and started to watch it. He said, "That is the woman I saw in the vision," Marilyn Monroe. See?

Hollywood had a record they were playing back. The woman was already dead and they were playing back what Hollywood had filmed of her. They, by their scientific cameras, their technology and science, kept that picture. Up to today they still have it.

The one that science couldn't film, present tense, God showed him right there. Because like Elisha, he could see in the bed chamber; he saw right into her bedroom. The same God Who could have seen into her bedroom, sees into the Kremlin, [The Government of the Russian Federation -Ed.] and the Pentagon, [Headquarters building of the United States Department of Defense -Ed.] and into the Mossad headquarters [Responsible for intelligence collection and covert operations -Ed.] and everywhere. That same God saw into every man's heart who came on that platform there. Are you understanding?

*...all the churches shall know that I am
he...*

This is not an idle Word. Every word that proceedeth out of His mouth will not return unto Him void, but will accomplish the purpose. God does not speak idle words. Because on the Day of Judgment, every Age, every church that rose up, every person who lived in that Age, will see on God's great, big screen...

Now we have high definition. We used to have black and white. We used to have still movies that didn't have any voice. Now they have gone into Blu Ray. Do you understand? Could you imagine how high definition God's Own is?

When that Word starts to come forth in high definition and gets so graphic, and gets so minute, and gets so precise, and gets down between the soul and spirit, and bone and marrow, and uncovers a man's thoughts and intents in the Bible – which we are going to get to...

He said, "Thou hast found me out?"

He said, "Yes, I have found you out because you didn't kill alone, you have come to possess too. I have found you out!"

Whoa! That is what I'm talking about. They knew that God knew what they were doing, though they were smiling and having cocktails in the back, that they fooled the whole world. Naboth got killed, and Jezebel and Ahab looked like they were never involved.

You see, they got bold now. After 2001 when they fooled the world, and then went into Afghanistan to control the pipelines there, from those rich oilfields, and they said, "No, no, no." Then they control the opium trade and the heroin trade. That is what they are controlling. Those are billion-dollar industries. That is the place all the heroin comes from. About 90% of the world's heroin comes from right there. That is revenue friends. Trinidad, with our natural gas, cannot get revenue like that.

When they went into Iraq, they said, “No, no, no, we are going for freedom. This is Iraqi freedom. We are going here to bring democracy.” See? It’s nothing about democracy; it is the carving out and re-shaping of a new world. They are taking new control of trade zones. She is going to rule the world, because she will control the wealth of the world, and Nimrod is fighting war for resources.

You don’t get resources given to you. That’s why in the corporate world they call it, ‘corporate takeover’. They talk about, ‘hostile market environment’. You see? Why? It’s war. Marketing strategy to capture more shares of the market to shift the balance of power to control the economics of a certain place; to get a big loan and then go into mega farms and swallow up all the small farmers and put them out of business. It’s changing the world.

It is happening around people and they can’t see it, because they don’t understand the Bible. But you see, here, we are in a time here, all of this is happening so skillfully. Because he said, “And the fourth Beast devoured the whole earth and broke it up in pieces.” [Daniel 7:23 –Ed.] In other words, she divided it up into trade zones. She destroys ‘wonderfully’.

How do you destroy ‘wonderfully’? Because the prince of the power of the air, through advertisement... Why do people pay millions and millions of dollars, with a World Cup going on, for thirty seconds, for forty-five seconds of advertisements? See, you do not know that kind of world. When you live in a little village and you walk around with little toy stories in your mind, you are not really relating in the 21st Century.

The only way to relate consciously here, the Seven Seals have to be revealed to you. And you are watching the world now, because your eyes are anointed with Eyesalve and you are looking through God’s seeing.

Because from the 'seeing Age', where the Prophet brought us into, and then with the coming of those Angels, the Intelligence, the Headship came down on the Body, and now the Bride has the Mind of Christ, because the Secret in the back-part of God's Mind is put into the heart of the Bride.

That is why when you recognize what the Bride is in 2010, if your thing didn't get updated over the years and you are back in a little 1975 or in the 1980's concept of the Bride, all that evolved around you for all these years, the world changed, and you are still seeing the Message the same way as when you came in years ago.

You watch the preaching today compared to what we used to hear when we came into the Message. That is as far as the east is from the west, you know. Because people are still coming and realizing they don't know the Message yet after thirty or forty years. They realize they don't know the Message yet. Because you really can't know the Message except God reveals It to you. Because the Message is Christ. Christ is the Mystery of God revealed. Christ is revealed in His Own Word; the identified Christ of all Ages.

The Son of Man being revealed is Christ. He is those Seals; the Mighty God being unveiled. It's something there to bring us into... Because This is designed, when it is revealed, there is no prevailing power like That. It makes you a Super Race. And that is where you don't just quote it; you look in your life to see, when you start to come into that kind of faith, you know it is being revealed. Outside of that, you are fighting up with this, you are getting misdirected by that and misdirected by this, and then claiming you have revelation.

You might have revelation that the Baptist church is not the Bride and that the Catholic Church is the whore. See? You might have a revelation that the Message people, the Bride is coming out of there. But that is still not it, what we are talking about, because the foolish virgins are inside of there too. It got down to a place where only She, on the earth right now, has the Holy Ghost, the real Holy Ghost. Only She has the Token, nobody else. Only She has two natures in one body. Only She could be reborn here, right now. And after them, 144,000 are going to get it. And those are the exclusive groups. Outside of that, who is getting Eternal Life, is coming outside of the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Do you understand?

The New Birth, what is happening to people, this is God directly coming into your life – Christ walking into your life: “I will come in and sup with you.”

This here is something special. That is why when you come to an Age like that and you understand these things realistically, you don't play with That. You don't take That for... You don't go along thinking you have That and you haven't really let Him in. He doesn't open the door from the outside; there is no handle outside. He is knocking on it, “Behold, I stand at the door and knock.” It is you who have to open it from the inside and let Him in. You have to want Him in. You have to see the need of having Him in. You have to know when He comes in, He is going to come in and control that life. He is not going to let you do what you want to do. Now, that is why a lot of people don't let Him in; they are not ready to let Him control their lives. Do you understand that?

*...all the churches shall know that I am he
which searcheth the reins and the hearts:*

Now, let's catch that, a next step; go down a little deeper. Why does He reveal Himself to the Thyatirean Age in this way? Was there some reason for revealing Himself in a particular revelation to each Age?

Let me ask you another question. In the Old Testament, why did He reveal one way to Abel, a further unfolding to Enoch, another revelation to Abraham; another revelation to Moses? Was there a reason for this? When He came down through Paradise, at the end of the New Testament, were they not confessing and saying, “Sarah, come. Isn’t that the Man Who came there?” Didn’t Daniel come and say, “Isn’t that the Rock cut out without hands?” They were confessing the revelation that was given to them.

Now, this is a plan, this is a pattern – how the City is built. Was Israel put in tribal order? Could they have camped anywhere they wanted to camp? Could they have marched anywhere they wanted to march? Is this City a City Whose Builder and Maker is God? Did it take a Divine Architect by a Divine plan to build this house? Was it necessary for certain ones to come in certain Ages? That is right.

There is a Word allotted to every Age and there is a portion of the Book, predestinated Seeds, predestinated to that Word that is allotted for that Age. And they had to operate that Word and that Word had to be interpreted in them for them to overcome in that Age. Because in every Age is, “He that hath an ear to hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.”

No, you have to go there. So, you have to realize, “If I am in this Age, do I know how He revealed Himself in this Age? Do I know the promise in this Age? Could I live my life loose, not knowing what the promises are for my Age? Do I understand, my Age is the Age of the short, quick work, when He will finish the work in righteousness? Do I understand, in my Age here, I will see the Hour of Temptation that will try every man on the earth? Do I understand that in my Age: ‘Behold, I come quickly’; He is going to come quickly? Do I understand in my Age, I will see Him rejected and see Lucifer being exalted in the church, and I will have to go beyond the camp and have such a passion in my heart to put my life in jeopardy, anointed with the desire of my rejected King, who I know is going to come into power at Harvest Time? Could I live this Age out and not understand my King is rejected, and I am trying to live in a city and in a world that my King is not part of, and looking for my future in there and be in the Message?”

No, you might be in this building, you might have on clothes and look like a Message believer, but that kind of clothes doesn't make you see the Word. That kind of clothes makes you look like a Christian to people who don't have the Holy Ghost because the Kingdom of God is not the wearing of apparel. That Robe of the Holy Spirit, that white Robe...

Remember, the man was with the overcoat when the car hit him and threw him up in the desert. And when they looked, they could not find the man. Then they came to find out that an old man with an overcoat had died there. The souls under the altar that we came through under Things That Are To Be, are still in the old nature, had a testimony, believed the Word of God, but didn't have the testimony of Jesus.

In other words, they believed a fundamental Word. They didn't have the present tense prophecy becoming history in their own lives, to show that they were the manifestation of the Word in that Age; they were living out their part of the Book there. That is the family, you know. That is the Father's Spiritual Genes that makes up the House.

He said, "I'll give to every man according to his works." [Revelation 22:12 -Ed.] Some people have dead works. He said, "Oh, living Church, Living Presence, Living Word; Living God." Then you have 'works' which is faith expressed. Because some people in their Age caught something. Faith is revelation. Something is revealed, something is opened up to them, and then that separates them like Abraham - a call of God. He went out looking for a City Whose Builder and Maker is God. While he was living in this life, a vision of Another World, Another City, opened up to him and he knew that laid beyond this life. So, in this life, he confessed he was a pilgrim and stranger, not looking for any future in this world, but living for that world to come.

Moses was in a world, and he was about to receive a great name and come into great political power and dominion, and be part of a great kingdom, and a call came to him. When he saw the day and he saw that nation judged, and he saw his time in the fourth generation for the promise of God, and Joseph, the saviour saying, “God will surely visit you and you shall surely go out of here,” and understanding that is why all those Seeds couldn’t die in the Dark Ages; a little blade had to spring up to come back. Jesus said, “The corn of wheat will fall in the ground and die; it will bring forth much corn. A Harvest is coming.” [John 12:24 -Ed.]

“God will surely visit you when you are going out. And carry my bones out with you when you are going. Don’t bury me in Egypt!” Amen. Hallelujah!

That is how they lived, and all of them were shadows. We in this Age, how are we living? Look at the purpose and conviction and revelation, how they were governed and influenced and motivated and inspired, and that gave them strength to separate from the world and walk in this line of the Word with this expectation, having confidence in the unfailing promise of God that was being revealed to them.

What about us when we are seeing all the End Time signs; everything spoken of in the Bible: a day like Noah, a day like Sodom, Israel back in their homeland, it is even at the doors, Joseph’s brothers being gathered, the Hour of Temptation; all these things; the Seven-sealed Book opened. Is that right? Two Woes are already past; behold the Third Woe cometh quickly. How do we live? How do we live? Where are we walking? What kind of atmosphere are we in?

Convinced Then Concerned. You see, when he preached these things, he identified what was going to happen to believers when this revelation drops home. He Cares. Do You Care? [1963-0721 -Ed.] What was he saying? Is Your Life Worthy Of The Gospel [1963-0630E -Ed.] or would you do like they did in Russia and turn It down, and like they did in London and turn It down and don’t want any revival? And this one was going into communism, and this one was going into immorality and did like America and turned It down? Is your life worthy of It?

He said, "Look at Paul. He said, 'I count all things dung that I might have this excellency of this knowledge. And whether in life or in death, Christ will be magnified in me. For me to die is gain and for me to live is Christ.'" These people didn't want church, they didn't want religion, they didn't want big organizations; they didn't want special things in their natural birth.

Moses didn't want the favor of man and a great name and these things from the system. No! Moses esteemed the reproach of Christ greater riches. If he could esteem the reproach of Christ greater riches before the Exodus, before this Exodus, there has to be people again like Moses who will be walking with Jesus 1400 years after this civilization passes away, in Another World.

Moses caught that revelation and he had faith to overcome honor, glory, power; influence, and he went down. Faith made him do that: Faith of the hour, faith of the promise, faith of who he was, faith of the time and season; faith of the unfailing Word of God. What is the difference there? Conviction. Conviction. This was not an intellectual understanding about the thing. No, no, no. Conviction! It is written: "By faith."

This is where you, as a believer, as an individual, you don't try to live your life trying to impress people and one another. That is a waste of time. That is lost to begin with. When you are so taken up with God: "Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in His wonderful face, and the things of this earth, this cosmos, will grow strangely dim." Amen.

You want to be changed into what you behold. You are not trying to please this one, impress this one, sound 'reveled' to this one, kind of show this one you know the Scripture too and you could add on a piece to what they are saying. Not that nonsense. No, sir! When you hear the Word of God, you want to throw up your hands and surrender, and say, “Oh God, have Thine Own way, Lord. All that Thou sayest, give me grace to walk in it.”

*...all the churches shall know that I am
he, [all the churches shall know that I am
he] which searcheth the reins and hearts:*

What is the first thing the Angel told the Prophet when He came to him? “Your thoughts, your thoughts, your thoughts, they speak louder in Heaven than your words on earth.”

What did the Angel tell Daniel? “From the first day you set down on your knees to pray about this, that was heard and answered already, and I’m here to confirm that.” [Daniel 10:12 -Ed.]

There is something about this in the Word. And God is saying... Now, we are going to get deep on this. This is deep you know, because everything that begins with a thought... A word is a thought expressed: “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” [John 1:1 -Ed.] He said, “Theology carries you there.” He said, “But revelation carries you beyond theology, because before there was a word there was a thought, and we are going back to Spirit now, when it was in the Mind of God.”

Aren’t you thankful that we had one who could go beyond the theology in this Day? Otherwise we would have stood quoting, quoting, quoting, quoting, and be like the Jehovah’s Witnesses: “God doesn’t know everything. He was saying, ‘Adam, where art thou?’ He didn’t know where Adam was.”

Could you imagine that nonsense that people are talking? That little, small garden, God created the universe and God didn’t know where that was? God said, “Before your body was even formed, I knew everything. I wrote that and put it in My Book already.” See? But that is educated man – foolishness to God. Religious people get trapped in that nonsense.

This Age is too proud. Let me tell you, if you are in error and you get a chance to see Truth, the first thing you should be doing is, "Father, I thank You. Oh God, if I was holding on to this, I would have been living a lie." Because He said, "You shall know the Truth." He didn't say, "You know all Truth." No. He said, "You shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free." Free from what? The lie that you were walking in: your own idea, your own concept, your own imagination; your own misconception. Let the Mind that was in Christ be in you.

I will search... I am staying right here for the time being.

I am he which searcheth...

I want you to get this understanding. When any individual comes to know that they are dealing with a God Who knows every thought, you can't get into hypocrisy. The reason you get into hypocrisy and pretense is when you are walking around thinking that what you are doing in your heart and mind, that person doesn't know and that person doesn't know, and God too doesn't know. No, they may not know, but God knows. God knows.

Remember Gehazi? He put away everything; came back, "Praise the Lord. Whoo!" He said, "I like how you shook Naaman there, you know." He said, "Boy, his face got red like a cherry. He expected you to come out, you know."

Elisha said, "Why all this talk? What are you trying? Are you trying to misdirect my mind from what you just went and did? You have come here, so nice and dandy, and you ran down behind the man, stopped him in that place and started to ask him, you know, to get the raiment and get the things." He said, "Didn't my Spirit go with you?"

In other words, "You were around me all these years; I know what you are vulnerable to. I know what potential you have, to do what you did. Did you think you were going to be around a revelation like this and I wouldn't know what you have the potential to do? Do you think because you are around, it doesn't have eyes on you?"

You hear a man talk the Word and know it takes the Spirit of God, in man, to do that. And when the Spirit of God is in man, are you trying to fool man with the Spirit of God in them? That is craziness!

Now, you might fool them for a time, but if they are the ones to answer for your soul, God will show them because they have to help you if you have to get help. That is why Saul had to go back and get Samuel. He couldn't go for Moses, he couldn't go for Elijah, he couldn't go for anybody else. He had to go for Samuel because Samuel was the one.

Oh, brother! Do you see why we can't be shallow in our experiences? God has given us an open Book in this Day, through the Message of the Hour, because God intends for us to go deeper and higher. Because there is no way to come into the promises, and no way to fulfill God's will, if you don't go deeper than a Pentecostal. If you don't go higher than a Pentecostal, you can't fulfill it. So, you have to be prepared to live...

If you are trying to live like a Pentecostal, God would have put you in the Pentecostal Age. But, if God didn't put you in that Age, and you want to live like a Lutheran, just justified, God would have put you in that Age if that is what He wanted for you. You can't come now and try to live that life and say, "Well, Luther lived that life and God accepted him, so He has to accept me too." No, no, no. To whom much is given, much is required. God doesn't require from you what He doesn't give to you, but what He gives you, He requires of you.

In this Age, He drew the Stature of a Perfect Man; He didn't draw it in Luther's Age. He said, "This is the 'man' who is going in the Rapture, here." In Luther's Age, the man was now coming out of Egypt. See?

It is a great thing when you can relate to the things of God. Because let me tell you, anyone of you who is holding down a job, and you got employed to do that job in whatever company you are in, you don't do your own thing on the job. You might be doing your own thing because the laws on the job are kind of loose and nobody knows what you are doing. But if you have a job description, and one day they pull that paper on you, and they find you are doing contrary things, you could get prosecuted for that. You could get fired from your job and even brought to court with a lawsuit and all, for breaking the terms of your contract. That is right. So, how much more when we are dealing with God?

You want to live your lives where you are conscious, what serving God is. Because when we look at the Word this way, there are so many Ages; there are so many people's names in the Book. Then God chose which one was going to be in which Age; which message they were going to hear. Then God planned that life: how He was going to glorify Himself in that Age by manifesting the Word for that Age in that person, how He was going to bring the revelation to them; which ministry He was going to put them down; where they were going to serve God in that Age.

We are in the Age here, right? But the Age is the whole earth from Africa, India, China, Europe, Russia, North America, South America, the Caribbean, but God still chose where He wanted you. That is right. You are in the Age. The church, in Africa this morning, is in the Age. The church in Europe is in the same Age; the church in New Zealand. We all have the same Message. One Messenger, one voice, went into the earth. We are in the Age. Because of where we are, there are certain types of problems we face.

Could you imagine if you are in Saudi Arabia or something, or you are in Iran, and trying to believe the Message? You will have to hide this morning. Do you think you could come out here making noise and "Glory to God,” and go outside and get a Coca-Cola or a Ginseng and walk about the compound, you know and...? Do you think so?

If you are in Kenya, with the Maasai and they up there, and you believe in the Message, do you think it is normal so? No, no, no. But God has you in this part of the world and you face certain things, and you have to overcome here. They have to overcome there. God is giving everyone the grace to overcome because the Message has that capability to empower us to overcome, because it is Christ's Life. He overcame the world already. It doesn't have that Jesus overcame some things. No! He overcame all things. Glory!

Now, let us go down a little further here. Catch this. God is looking at the heart. He said:

...all the churches shall know that I am He

Which searcheth the reins...

The 'reins' are the 'thoughts'.

... and [the] hearts...

God looketh on the heart. That has never changed.

The Prophet is opening this. He said:

That has never changed. Neither will it ever change.

So that means He is still searching the hearts here.

Here, as through all ages [Here, as through all ages] there are two groups, both proclaiming their revelation from God and their relationship to God.

There are only two kinds of religion. If you go back to the first two men, Cain and Abel, they went to worship God, one got the mark of the Beast and one got the Seal of God. When you come in the last days, it comes down to two sets of people again: one is going to have the mark of the Beast and one is going to have the Seal of God; one is looking for a religion based on works and one is getting it revealed by God, and God is still revealing.

It is the same, because there are only two vines, two trees, two families, two loins; two sowers: the Good Sower sows the good Seed; the evil sower sows the evil seed. The Wheat and the tares – let them grow together; those are the two families that came from those two loins.

So look: Here, as through all ages there are two groups, both proclaiming their revelation from God and their relationship to God.

“Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them which are His.”

... “The Lord searcheth the reins.”

He said: The word ‘search’ means to ‘track’ or [to] ‘follow up.’

Oh my, this is great! We are going into a barrel of honey here.

The word ‘search’...

“The Lord, searcheth the reins.”

The word ‘search’ means to ‘track’ or ‘follow up.’ [He said:] God tracks down our thoughts...

Haman sat down and planned mischief, and when he thought he was going to exterminate all those Jews, Mordecai told Hatach, he said, “Hear what is going on, they have a move on. You have to wake up Esther. Esther is the whole key to the people’s deliverance here.” He said, “Right now Haman is building gallows, and his wife and his counselors and they are having secret counsel, private meetings in the back and they have the day set; they have planned this, and they got the king to sign a certain decree too. Esther must go in!” Do you understand?

God tracked down Nebuchadnezzar’s thoughts too: “I have built this Babylon. I will conquer the world.”

See? And the Watchers had a counsel.

They said, “It is time for us to deal with Nebuchadnezzar; he is going a little too far. He had a few warnings and he is not taking heed to his warnings. He isn’t reading the signs at all; he needs to be taught a lesson.”

So, the Watchers sat down in Heaven, a counsel... Nothing happens to you here on earth before it is decided There. How many know that the Book of Job teaches you that?

Satan came up to God, he said, "Look at Job; that big hedge You have around him. You are boasting all over the place, "There isn't a man like Job in the earth." He said, "Do you expect to convince people of that?" He said, "Give me some leverage. Give me some leverage; move the hedge. Move the hedge and we will see how great he is great."

God said, "What do you want?"

He said, "Let me touch some of that property he has there."

God said, "Okay, property, but that is as far as you are going."

When he went, he didn't get through with the property. Job said, "Praise God. What can I do? I started with nothing." Job was calm under trial.

He said, "Those children, those children he has there, give them to me. I want a chance at them."

You see, that is why when you don't have revelation sometimes and you get into your Arminian self and you start to look at people, and you get critical and you are trying to make them look a certain way, sometimes you don't know what you are doing. You better make sure you don't have an evil intent with that. You better make sure it doesn't have an evil intent with that because God tracks down the thoughts.

So next thing, he came, he took the children. God said, "Ah ha!" He watched him.

Job said, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Praise God."

He said, "But that man had no love for those children. That man hardly cried. That man is hard. Do you see how callous that man is?"

The next one said, "It is punish God is punishing him."

Eliphaz, Bildad and Zophar, you know that: human wisdom, human tradition and human experience, and all three were wrong. Job, the same man, had to go and pray for them. The same man had to go and pray for them. We have gone through this many times, you know that. I've Heard But Now I See [1988-0920 -Ed.], The Patience Of The Lord And Malachi 4. [1991-0922a.m & p.m. - The Patience Of Malachi 4 And The End Of The Lord -Ed.]

Nebuchadnezzar, when he got his mail, he saw a tree cut down. He got confused so he went to Daniel, he said, "You interpreted my last dream; tell me what this means."

Daniel said, "Let me hear the dream." He started to tell him the dream. From the time he started talking, Daniel was watching the dream over him, as he was talking.

Daniel said, "This is a warning. You still have time. According to what I saw happening in the courts of the Watchers, they realize, you are getting yourself exalted. And when you get in that kind of self-exaltation, you are thinking that it is you, by your might and by your power, doing all these things. So, you need some humbling. But if you humble yourself and recognize this and fall back in line... Because right now, you are out of step, and this is a voice saying, 'Stay in line!'" He said, "If you get back in step, this might pass off."

A little while after he was walking around in the palace; he was overseeing everything. He said, "Praise God, I have built all of this." The Bible said, the same day it came upon him. He was given a space to repent, but he was not relating to the things of God and the spiritual advice from the channel by which he was seeking the advice. And things to help him in his life and balance him back up, where he didn't have to get the rod of chastisement to that measure, now he had to take it because he was not giving heed, and he was neglecting the admonition and the exhortation and the advice.

When you see God sends people to give you advice sometimes... Sometimes you don't get it in a dream; you walk into the church and you say, “Who told the pastor about me?” Then you get vex now, because you think somebody told. Then you get to find out, nobody said anything, but God is delivering to you, yours.

You can get yours awake, you can get it asleep, it doesn't make any difference. It is coming to you to keep you from chastisement, to keep you from getting out of compliance with God; to help you in your walk. What do you think it was? God was tracking down his thoughts.

Do you remember the Prophet? He said, “God said, ‘This what you are doing is not right. If you go and hunt it is okay, but when you just start to go and kill this for this friend of yours, kill this for this friend of yours; you are coming with four big deer in the back of your truck and you are carrying one for this brother and one for this brother...’ He said, ‘They are well off; they could buy that.’ He said, ‘You shouldn't do that. Stop doing that.’”

So, some years after, he was out there hunting... You know the story of how the blizzard came, God sent him back in the blizzard, then God told him to speak the blizzard out of existence, and God said, “Come, let us take a walk.” And while they were walking, all the deer started to come and the first thought he got was, “Bro. Evans' own, Bro. Beeler's own; this brother's own.”

God was tracking down the thoughts, you know. God was tracking down his thoughts. Then something struck him and he said, “Hey, I promised God that.” He remembered years ago, “God talked to me about that. Look, a situation is here.” Do you see that kind of sensitiveness: watching and observing your life? That is a sensitiveness. So, he said, “No, no, no, I can't do that; I promised God that time. And I know that experience because God talked to me in a kind of stern Voice that day when that Angel came. No, no, no. I'm done with this.”

While he was talking to himself in his own heart, the Voice said, “I see, I see it is in your book of remembrance. It is like the Spirit flipped your page back to that day in your diary, and in the book of your life, you remembered when I talked to you about that at that time, and you got real cognizant of the fact that this here and that are connected in your life, and how you behave in this, you could displease God or you could please God.” God was tracking down his thoughts.

Remember when he was planning, and saying, “These people, they are not believing me; I’m preaching so hard. When they come, it is the same thing over and over I have to go over and deal with, and it is a big discouragement. You see me, I’m done with all of this. I’m going off the field.”

The first thing that came, the court of the Watchers, like Nebuchadnezzar, they came and they sent a dream. Boom! He was like a ‘bum’ [a vagrant –Ed.] in the dream: “What is this dream? I’m like a bum? What is going on?” He was driving down the road and right on that very road he saw a big dump; he saw Fletcher. He said, “God is trying to tell me something.” See?

Then God told him, “Don’t call those children of Mine, Rickys and Rickettas. You get down in that and when you start to skin hides, you skin hides so much, you cut off a lot of flesh, not only the skin. And when you start to do that now, you are hurting them more than you need to.”

So, while he was driving, going along now, he was still persistent, you know: “This is how I will do it. I will tell Meda, we are going this way; we will go in the woods. When we go out there, I will say, you see me, I’m not going back. If I tell her that now, she would not want to go in there.”

God said, “Is that what you are thinking?” He said, “You are going to be a bum. Do you think she is going there? She isn’t going there at all.” See?

Now, what is it? This was not a one-week experience you know, this was some years ago, and ever so often it pops up; it lasts a little bit. But God is talking to you about that. He wants to get you out of that. You will wait one day for the ‘Boom’ to fall on you and crush you, and grind you into powder because you don’t want to fall and be broken on the Rock. So if you don’t want to fall and be broken on the Rock, the Rock will fall on you and grind you into powder, and finish you.

That is where some people... And when they go there now, they wonder: “I don’t know how I got in here!” Because they are living their lives so much in the flesh, they are not watching and they are not listening. God is giving them Word, service after service: “A Lamp unto your feet; a Light unto your pathway,” but you are not retaining it in your knowledge, because church to you is attendance. You just want people to see you in church.

God is giving you certain things to help you overcome tomorrow’s trials and to correct yesterday’s mistakes. And you are going along and not correcting yesterday’s mistakes and He said, “Sufficient is the evil for the day; take no thought for the morrow.” [Matthew 6:34 -Ed.] But you always want to live in the future and not take into consideration where you are failing God on a daily basis. God tracks down the hearts and minds.

I’m using some natural, small examples for you here until we come to the big Jezebel and Ahab. After 2001 they got bold. After they took Afghanistan, they got bold; they went into Iraq, they got bold – they got more bold. They have gotten so bold, now they feel that the whole world is asleep. Because they have drunken the kings of the earth and all the inhabitants, and they have put them to sleep, and they are carrying on.

They are talking ‘big’ threats: “In Iran, we are going to put sanctions on them. In North Korea...” They want to fight five wars at one time, because they are growing into power. They are getting everybody on board – New World Order; new thinking. Now they are going to settle up and take this by guile.

Now she has all the nations with her, saying, “Okay, what do you say? Condemn them?”

Everybody put a voice, “This Gaza crisis, we condemn it!”

I read for you, nation after nation after nation, they are all condemning it. That is what Jezebel wants right now: “Keep the media. Bombard it in their minds.” See? She is doing that but it is her behind it. Nobody is seeing her behind it, you know, but God is seeing her behind it, because God has already put in the Book of Revelation how she is going to work. But you see, none of them can read the Book of Revelation because that is a prophetic Spirit, and all of them are hawks and turkeys and crows and buzzards. If they were Eagles, they would have been in the Message. That Book is written for a prophetic class.

So, they came up with, “The computer is the Beast and you are going to get a tattoo in your forehead marked 666.” They came up with this kind of nonsense because they can’t interpret It. They are trying to figure out what it is. And then, some of them who know, they know that that is them, you know. “We are the only people on seven hills. We are the ones who are drunk with the Blood of Jesus Christ.” Then they are trying to throw up smokescreens to misdirect people, that that is them. But the Elect knows.

Remember, the Seventh Seal revelation is given specifically to a class of people in the last days. He whispers all these Secrets in their ear. He brought this Mind, this thinking, in a people in the last days, because by and through them, He is finishing the work.

“The Lord searcheth the reins.”

... God tracks down our thoughts (reins); He knows what is in our hearts. He sees our works which are a definite manifestation of what lies within us.

Remember those Sadducees and Pharisees? They said, “He is coming into Jerusalem. Let us not take Him yet, on the Day of the Passover, lest there be an uproar. We have to plan this carefully.” The Bible said they were taking counsel in subtlety to take Him. [Matthew 26:4 -Ed.]

So, while they were doing that, He came in and started to preach, “A certain man had a vineyard and he leased it out to tenants, and they killed the servants that he sent. Finally, the son came, and they said, ‘Aha! Here comes the heir. Let us kill him.’” And the Bible said, they all knew that He was speaking about them. Do you understand? He had their thoughts so tracked down, they didn’t realize...

You see, the thing with the Word of God is, if you don’t know, every man’s spirit is in this Bible. You can’t hide; this is the Book of Life. You are like an ostrich putting your head in the sand and your whole body is showing, and you are thinking you are trying to fool people in this Hour. In this Word, friends? You are making joke! This is a Mirror.

The Prophet preached and said, “There are three kinds of believers. Which one of those Johnny’s are you?” By the time he laid out those three kinds of believers and showed you their behavior, everybody is one of them. [1963-1124E - para. 275 -Ed.] There is no getting away from that.

What is that supposed to do? That is supposed to tell you, you are in bad business if you are not in the believers’ class. This is not the Age for pretense; this is the Age for truth.

He sees our works which are a definite manifestation of what lies within us. It is out of the heart that proceeds either righteousness or wickedness. Our motives, our purposes—all are known unto Him as He watches every action. And every action, every word shall be brought into judgment when the accounting...

Hear how he calls it.

...when the accounting for our lives is given.

Every man will have to give an account. That doesn’t mean ‘talk’, you know; that is a forensic term. That is a man doing... That is the day of reckoning in other words, when all of your debts are tallied and brought out. Every debt that is not put under the Blood, everything that you are owing, is brought up, and it says, “Here is what you have to pay; that account has to be settled now.”

Remember the message, The Day Of Reckoning? That Angel came down between the Second Woe and the Third Woe with the accounting ledger, and there are sections in that Book: who is on the debit side and who is on the credit side. “In Adam we all die; in Christ we are all made alive.” Every man with the New Birth, he is put on the other side of the Book because Christ paid his debt. He paid the debt He didn’t owe. Every man who that Blood is applied to, is free from debt; he is justified.

Debt in the Bible... Sin is represented by a debt that a man owes to God and must be settled, and the only thing to settle that, is the Blood of Jesus Christ. The ‘Goel’ [A next of kin –Ed.] had to come and pay the man’s price to take him out of debt because his debt put him into slavery.

When you have an evil habit that you can’t get away from, it is because you have a debt that isn’t settled yet. When you are fighting up to give up something that you can’t give up, and it is haunting you, and it is messing up your life, and you can’t move on from there, you have something that has to be settled; you have outstanding debts. And God brings every man’s day to settle.

That is why, when a man goes into that pool, what is he going there to do? He is going to settle debts: He is accepting the Blood, he is confessing all the sins, and his sins are being put on the Sin Bearer. And the righteousness... That is why he goes down there as a dead man, showing he reckons himself dead, and he rises up in the newness of Life. Why? Because he is showing he accepts the provision that had been made for him, in that a Sin Bearer was provided, an Atonement was provided – a propitiation.

That was the obstacle to his fellowship with God. That was the middle wall, and that is being torn down here, because he recognized that as long as that is there, he can't have any fellowship, because that breaks his fellowship with God. My! God is tracking down the thoughts of men.

Look how he was explaining this. He was... This is the same Jesus Who came back in the Son of Man, in human flesh, to explain to us what He meant when He said, "All the churches shall know I am He Which searcheth the reins and the hearts." And now, he was giving the explanation, which I am reading here for you and breaking down and showing you, giving you the illustrations, how He tracks down people's thoughts.

Do you remember how he tracked down the thoughts of those men who were planning to come and deceive him with the prayer cards? When they came there and their files came up, he said, "You all were planning this. You and this man sat down in this restaurant; green checkered tablecloth;" everything.

Do you remember when they wanted to challenge him on his doctrine? God tracked down their thoughts. He said, "Come by the window. They are setting a trap for you: Hank Carlson, this one here, that one here; all those 'Doctors of Divinity' and them here, are coming." He said, "Tell them they aren't getting that room."

He said, "You all are not getting that room, you know."

He said, "Ah, you missed it this time, Bro. Branham; we have already paid down for it."

He said, "Well, you go and check by the desk."

The man said, "I am sorry, we cancelled your reservation because somebody had it before. It was an oversight. We didn't realize, but they had booked the place before. But we have another room for you." Who! Well now they knew that their thoughts were tracked down.

Then, when he came, he stood up there. Bro. Hank Carlson went to introduce him, he said, "Gentlemen, you might disagree with Bro. Branham in his theology and his doctrine, but this man told me exactly everything that was going to happen in this meeting. He even told me who was sitting down where; he told me the color of the room; he told me all these things.”

Then he came now and said, “I am not disobedient to the Heavenly vision.” He said, “Now you wanted to come here to question me on my doctrine. I listened to you say you are Doctor So and So, you talked about how many degrees you have; you talked about what school you went to.” He said, “Now the Pillar of Fire is here. Praise God! If you want to challenge, come and stand here in the Presence of the Pillar of Fire.”

Whoo, brother! Nobody had a theology degree any more. Brother, everybody found a place to get rid of that right away in their minds. Tracking down their thoughts.

Ahab – they did the thing so secretly. We ended up there on Friday night. They wrote the letters saying, “You are going to do it this way: you are going to get two sons of Belial...” In other words, it was going to take the form of a public trial: The charges would be such and such, the witnesses must say such and such; it must appear this way. He said, “Then we are going to do our part to stir up the crowd, calling for swift justice.” He said, “Then they are going to find him guilty; they are going to take him out and stone him.”

Then, when it was done, she got a call: “It is done. Naboth is dead.” She made another call, video conference, to the White House right away, saying, “Go down and possess it; he is dead. You see, I told you, I was going to give it to you.”

“Praise God,” he came in there.

While he was doing that now, and they are doing all their video conferencing, God was having video conferencing with Elijah too. And the part that the world didn’t see, what they manipulated the masses and the public with, and manipulated the judicial system... Because her hand was inside the judicial system. Her hand was in the executive powers in the White House.

Her hand was in the noble and elders in the city. Her hand was in getting the kind of people who you could buy with money, to give false testimonies, giving them economic packages, and looking like she wasn't involved. But he was seeing all of that.

So, when they did that, they were laughing, and he went down smiling. And God is so good, the two men who would be the assassins to destroy his whole house and destroy her religion, were his bodyguards; not yet anointed, but they were right there on the spot to see the evil, how they carried it out; not knowing God was going to anoint that very man who Elijah taught before he got translated and who, under Elisha's ministry, it got carried out.

Do you think God is easy, friends? Do you think these people in the world with all their schemes, and they are controlling the media, and they are controlling television, and they are controlling the judiciary, and they are controlling the Senate... He said, "Wait until she 'worms' [insinuate one's way into -Ed.] her way into the White House and gets into the schools, and gets into the Cabinet, and gets into the Treasury, and gets into the Senate. They will pass laws in the Senate for same-sex marriages. They will have lawyers to put the terminology to it and develop the form for you to fill out: married, single or otherwise; male, female or transgender. Whoop! Men came up with this language.

'Relocation of Jews', 'Resettlement of Jews' – it was a language. But inside of that language, in those resolutions that were being passed, meant it was trainloads upon trainloads, picking up men, women and children in the middle of the night and carrying them to labor camps. It was looking like decency; looking like they were helping the society. It is the Age we are living in! It is the repeat of these things!

Long before Naboth was even brought to court, he was dead, on that paper. She said, "I will give it to you." All they did was just carry out what was on the paper.

What did he say? “In this nation, it is already in writing. They will shut you down.” Already in writing. Already in nice language.

I see they have something coming with Coke, ‘Dudus’ Coke. [Christopher Coke - Jamaican drug lord -Ed.] They said, “Well, the Caribbean governments, the next thing on their agenda is...” This thing that happened there in Jamaica... Because remember, ‘Dudus’ Coke is a ‘community leader’. [Bro. Vin chuckles -Ed.] That is what they call them in Trinidad – ‘community leaders’. It is nice, isn’t it? And all of us are living in the society and watching it and going along, and finding it is okay. One of these days it is going to come to the very place where all of us here too, will be ‘community leaders’.

We have a little community here too. And the kind of things I’m saying these days is... But I have no other way to say it. Some of you shouldn’t even have me to go this distance to say it that plainly for you. But in trying to save some of you, I have to say it that plainly. Because I’ve been saying these things for twenty-five years, thirty years, and they are watching me, and they are staring at me, and they are trying to figure me out, and they are scratching their heads, and then it is on top of them already, and they still haven’t woken up as yet.

Listen: There was no fear of God before the false vine and dearly shall they pay. Let all who name His Name, so live as becometh saints. We might fool the people but we will never fool the Lord.

Oh brother! When we can look and see the things that we are finding out, that God tracks down the thoughts of men. Maybe before the time is up, let me just try the last part of 1st Kings 21. Let us just go there quickly. Because that is the woman Jezebel now; we are coming over here. God is speaking to those people. God is speaking to those people here, in that Thyatirean Age. As I said, it is another Thyatirean Age.

Jezebel and the kings of the earth and the nations have conspired to kill and take the possession of the God-given inheritance of God's people. They have been able, so far, to cover up their crimes; they have the world confused. People say, "Do you think they really bombed that place? Do you think they really did that? Do you think they did that to put fear on the people and pass those laws? Do you think all this talk about 'peace' and 'security' is really a hidden agenda or something? Do you think they will really close down places like these? Do you think the Prophet was really right about that?"

He isn't just right, you know. He revealed it by Scriptures first; he saw it by vision. Remember, he didn't have to see you on the platform to see you under a vision, you know. He didn't see Marilyn Monroe on the platform, under vision. He didn't see Seven Angels coming from Eternity on the platform. He was in his bedroom seeing all of that. He was a seer.

Let's start from verse 7. Because verses 1 to 6, we see Ahab's effort at negotiations, trying to get Naboth to the bargaining table, and all the propositions that they put on the bargaining table, Naboth refused all. He was quoting the law.

I read it for you on Friday, from the office of the Chief Rabbinate, they said, "No, no. It is forbidden by law; you can't give any part of Israel to the Vatican."

Then also he said, "Well, we'll swap the thing."

I read for you also. Rome is making an effort to make a swap for the places they want by giving up places that once belonged to the Jews, so they are finding resistance. Then Jezebel came and met him at a stalemate – unsuccessful negotiation: the Middle East peace plans, railroaded, halted again. Since Carter's days, then it went to Reagan, from Reagan it went to Bush Sr. from Bush Sr. it went to Clinton, from Clinton it went to Bush Jr. and from Bush Jr. it came to Obama and there is still no peace plan. [Former U.S. Presidents -Ed.]

Now they have, as I showed you there, a Muslim President, a Catholic Vice President, and a Jewish Chief of Staff. Jew, Muslim and Christian, (what they want in Jerusalem,) inside the White House, working together to bring this about.

⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name...

Now mind you, I'm going to hit this here in a fraction and close the service, because I'm going to leave that for the weekend. If I go into this here, that will take three hours. That is not a joke; that is three hours. Because, watch and see where I'm going with this. The Bible said, "Hands swift to shed innocent blood." That is what they are doing. Feet running full of mischief – the six things God hates.

'The inquisition for blood' is where I'm going; when innocent blood is shed in the land. Woe! That is the first time God came down. He said, "The voice of the blood cries in my ears." Do you understand? What they are going to do here friends, this is a scheme. They are making the whole world believe that Jerusalem doesn't belong to the Jews. And they have the majority. They have...

This is to show you how Governments are really of the Devil, and everyone has one of Lucifer's princes over the nations. All the kingdoms of the world belong to the Devil. Every one of them rose up and condemned them, and every one of them drew their Embassies out when Israel occupied the East part of Jerusalem. And they said, "You are occupying that illegally!"

In other words, "We are the gods here on the earth. We don't worry about what God said belongs to you. We are the gods here now. This Bible – no man knows if that is right, so we took all of that out of the schools, and in our United Nations, we don't have any prayer in the Name of Jesus Christ. We pray here—every man prays: who wants to pray to Buddha, pray to Allah, pray to Confucius, pray to Jesus; pray to... This is what goes on inside of here.”

In America that is law too, in the schools; they took down all these things. “We brought in same-sex marriages, we brought in everything. We don't care what God said about homosexuality and these things.” We say, ‘God said, He made man and woman.’” He said, “We change man into woman. We've already unlocked the way to shoot a man with hormones and build him like a woman when we are done, and make him win a beauty contest too. And a man who is going to marry a man, does not know he was a former man. We have them in sports in South Africa winning races too, because of hybrid food. We wrecked the whole thing to bring it the way we want it.”

Scientists of the Devil, led the world to destruction in the days of Noah and are leading the world to destruction here again. Why? Those sons of Cain scoffed at prophet Noah's message and they didn't see the flashing red light that that great and dreadful Day of the Lord was going to come. And all of them who were eating and drinking and progressing in their science and technology, knew it not when the prophet and his group were shut away. And the wrath came and they went into a nuclear winter; they went into an ecological crisis in the earth. They had destroyed the earth with their science. Look what is going on with the Gulf crisis. All their science and all their wisdom came to naught.

Do you know what God said? Do you know how many sins are heaped up there, friends? Let me show you the irony of that. You killed 5 million in Iraq... Bro. Collin sent that to me today, that it is 5 million people, (that was the last count,) they killed in Iraq over these years, saying they were going for freedom and they went for oil.

Then, here in their own country, in the Gulf of Mexico, have all of that oil, more oil than they need; they didn't have to go and kill anybody. Then, all that oil is coming out now and nobody can stop it. Oil is only coming out and coming out. Watch the media, they say, "It is an oil spill." This is like a woman hemorrhaging profusely! And they couldn't stop the thing, until the whole Gulf got red and the sea became like blood, and they showed all the species dying, while they were politicking in Washington and while they are still trying to steal.

That is why I showed you those things the other night, to let you see how evil today, in this scientific world, stands up there so refined and cultured and polished, and what comes out their mouths are poison acids. It is the lie, mesmerizing and... The god of this evil Age is blinding the minds of the people, seducing the public and diverting their attention away from the plan of God and the Word of God for the Age. If you go and tell them God sent a Prophet, he is Malachi 4:5, none of them believe it.

Watch here. Do you see what we are getting down to here? All those thoughts are tracked down; all their thoughts. This is what we are getting to in this Age, how they manipulate the system.

I remember when I was preaching there, when Colin Powell [Former American politician -Ed.] went before the United Nations and lied, deliberately lied, and deceived them to go to war. It is the way they say it. Hear this: Satan knows God's ways, you know. It is just that you find the Things of God in the Message.

You heard Bro. Branham talking and saying, "And one of these days she will turn at the west and she will come back here, and there will be a revival. Praise God," and he goes on talking like that. He wasn't screaming that out, you know; he dropped... He said, "Wait until those Seven Thunders utter their Voices there, you are going to see." He was talking like that. It is when you get microscopic you realize, “Look at what he was saying!” And sometimes the things that he screamed out and the things he talked like in a conversational tone, you thought now, that would have come out kind of loud and emphatic!

Well, when they were talking that there... He said, “You know, all these unoccupied lands that they are in there and...” He was going along like that, but he said it. Now, when he said it, that goes into print, that goes in the media, that goes in the newspapers; that goes in magazines; that goes into everything. When you get a transcript of all what he said, it is right there. They are occupying territory that they are not supposed to, illegally.

But you had to say that because, you know, you were out in the Middle East, you were giving your speech from Cairo. There were Jews there listening to hear what you were saying; you just came into power. They wanted to see what this new President was bringing to the table; you went straight to address the Arab world. It is the first time we got a President coming to address the whole of the Arab world and talk about the Middle East peace plan.

When that was being done now, that meant you were going to take away those people’s sovereignty to give this to these people. And then you are going and equate these Palestinians now, just like this so you... And then you are saying, “I’m a Christian.” Are you a Christian? You are a heathen, because that is not a Christian spirit in you going against the Bible. That is the Serpent in the Garden of Eden – that is the same thing. That is a lying spirit. You see?

Could you imagine when you come and have to deal with some of these face to face, as you get some of these polished people standing up there with all that intellectual jargon, and all this kind of highfalutin law terms, and all these things? And they are talking there and making it sound like, “It is a great move for humanity, to help humanity and help the world, and we are going to make it a better place.”

You say, “Wait! Hear this! They are going to make the world a better place. Oh my God, the saviours have arrived. Look at them. They believe in same-sex marriages, they believe in abortion; they believe in all these things. Look, they are coming to save the world. These are our ‘messiahs!’”

That is why he preached messages like The Voice of God In The Last Days. [1963-0120m -Ed.] See, that is why when you come back to the Message, that One Who appeared in that White Wig there, that is the Supreme Authority. There is no higher Authority than Him. That is the God Who... That is the Supreme Court. When he opened the Book and he set up the court and he said, “The rock is thrown up; judgment will start in the earth,” that there isn’t coming back friends.

That is why all these things are happening for man to see, the whole systems are falling through: they have to print more money – deceiving their own people. He said, “A vulture; Satan is a vulture and he is feeding on his own kingdom; blinding and deceiving the very people they say they want to help.” And by the time they are finished with this, it will have no middle class: rich and poor, bond or free; great and small. They have no love for people here, friends. This is enslavement. This is enslavement. This is the ‘haves and the have nots’.

Do you know something? All that they have confidence in, the bomb shelters and the underground cities and these things up in the mountains, Revelation 6 says, “And when they hid... They went in to hide in the dens and the caves.” That is their bomb shelters which they made underground, where they could run their whole operation from, in case of invasion and nuclear strikes or something.

They’ve already made that in advance, to move the people quickly into that, because, “All this ‘end time’ thing could happen. We could get hit with an asteroid;

we could get hit with different things.” See? “We are deploying weapons into space; we could shoot it out before it gets into earth’s atmosphere. We’ve put...”

That is billion-dollar research, you know, because they believe that danger exists, you know. They believe that wiped out the dinosaurs and these things and it is coming back. Because they are reading some of those things in the Book of Revelation, and they are trying to find that race, that civilization out there, and beam out, “Is anybody out there?” Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI) – Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence: “Is anybody out there? We are a friendly people.” Do you know why? Revelation 19 – the real people will come out of Heaven. An army will come out of Heaven. So they have the ‘Star Wars’ program: “Maybe we are getting an alien invasion.” So they put...

The Bible says, “On that day they will say, ‘Hide us from the wrath and the face of the Lamb, for who is able to stand.’” [Revelation 6:16-17 –Ed.] And It says, “And the great men...” Men who were in the Gulf wars, men who were in World War II, old war veterans and everything who really saw death and destruction, when they see this kind of shaking coming like that, they will start to buckle because they never saw that kind of thing in any war – that kind of disaster.

When you get 1500 miles long, 300 miles wide, going 40 miles deep, causing a tidal wave plumb into the State of Kentucky, millions are going to die. This is not 200,000 here in this place, you know. [Banda Aceh, Indonesia: earthquake and tsunami - December, 2004 –Ed.] This is changing the landmass. This is affecting people in all parts of the world. This is the Islands disappearing.

Do you think the fireworks now start? This is a thriller and there are some subtle anticlimaxes. Did you see when the Prophet came and Angels appeared and all these discernments and different things, and seven truckloads of wheelchairs? That was like an anticlimax.

Then the Music Sheet came down again and he went saying, “A Bride is being called out from a people all around the world.” And then you see the same-sex marriages, all these different things started to come: the wars, the reshaping of the world, the deception; now they are going for the Jews. When you see that, we are coming up to another climax here again. It is coming up to another climax here now. The Bride must go to bring on the Sixth Seal. That is why in these times we capitalize on this; we capitalize on this.

Let’s read. We’re going to read and close.

The same man they were going to kill, she was working with people in that man’s city. That is exactly what is playing out right now, you know. Don’t read Scripture like a newspaper. Why does the Bible need to tell us, she was writing the letters in Ahab’s name? Why does the Bible need to tell us, she was using Ahab’s official seal? Why is the Bible telling us that? It was covert.

Only the President of the United States, who is endowed with the executive powers because of the office of the presidency, the Commander in Chief of the Armed forces of the United States, can do these things.

He was married to this woman because his kingdom was bankrupted, and it was a political maneuver to secure his kingdom because he needed Jezebel’s wealth. When he did that, that was the midnight hour for them. I’m quoting. I’m sorry I don’t take the time to read it, about the Thyatirean Age. You should know these things. It was a political maneuver to secure his kingdom, because his kingdom was falling. Because, as an Israelite, he had no right going to a pagan.

That was the thing they ran from, in Europe, for freedom of religion. Now, it has come back and it is the authority behind. Then watch, she now, is using the executive powers. Do you remember he [the Pope -Ed.] was seated in the Oval office? Did you think Mr. Bush said, "Let's go and talk in my office"? No! That is not that. That is not that. That doesn't mean that. Where he goes, that is a throne, and when he went in and he sat there, that was established.

Just like Joshua and they, "The place your feet..." When he got off and kissed that ground, that was not just like an emotional thing, like Chanderpaul does when he makes 100 runs. [Shivnarine Chanderpaul - Guyanese cricketer -Ed.] That is claiming territory. Do you see when you make a covenant, you shake hands; you have a handshake? Bro. Branham explained, he said, "In Japan they throw salt on you." In other places they do different things. In some places they say, "Let us go and have a meal." So, this is what this is. This is what these things are.

God is telling us this because this is a prophecy for the last days. That is why I read Revelation 2, because God is showing us this woman who died in 2nd Kings 9, It was really talking about something in the New Testament. That is why she ended up there. This is not a piece of Jewish history, here; this is a Mystery of prophecy for the last days.

We are talking about tracking down the thoughts, right? He said that in that Age. He was telling the two sets of people, two vines, both calling themselves 'the church', both talking about their relationship to God, (is that right?) both talking about their revelation from God and their relationship to God, but God is laying it down there clearly.

When Elijah came, what did he do? He showed to us the right religion and he showed us the wrong religion. He said, “Who is on the Lord’s side? If God be God, serve God; if Baal be God, serve Baal.” [1st Kings 18:21 -Ed.] In other words, when Elijah had finished sounding, in the days of his sounding, you knew the right religion and you knew the wrong religion, because he killed that other thing and put the wrath of God upon it.

So, that was a... He wasn’t just sent to preach; he was sent to separate God’s people and curse that thing. That was what he was sent for. That was why he said, “Flee denomination like you flee the plague; it is the mark of the Beast!” See? “Come out of her My people.” God separated the thing. He said, “Because Babylon is fallen. Strong is the Lord that judgeth her; her sins are come into Heaven.” [Revelation 18 -Ed.] That is the church in the last days, and then that is what God is going to feed to the fowls of the air and the beasts of the field, in the Supper of the great God.

This is the setting that is bringing it there. Now, this is what we are trying to get to – this is the setting. In other words, it didn’t have that until they went for Naboth’s inheritance. That is the finish. That is the finish. God is finished with them. That is the finish.

That is why, when He calls the Bride to the Marriage and says, “Blessed are they that are called to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb; the Marriage of the Lamb is come and His Wife hath made Herself ready,” which is the Rapture, the going, He announced, “She is fallen.” And in the same Revelation 19, when the Bride goes up, she is fed; she is fed to the fowls of the air and the beasts of the field. That is exactly... Go on your Fourth Seal [1963-0321 -Ed.] and see, he explained that to show what is coming in this Hour for the system. So, catch it very, very clearly.

This is an Hour, you don’t want to hang around any denomination – number 1. This is an Hour, you don’t want to be confused about what is right and wrong – number 2. This is an Hour, number 3, you don't want to be going around without the Holy Ghost. And this is an Hour, number 4, know He is tracking down every man's thoughts. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." If you have a filthy mind, you are in trouble; if you are devising mischief in your heart, you are in trouble. I'm not talking about mind battles – Satan is throwing all kinds of things. You have enough grace to shoo those buzzards off your sacrifice.

⁹ And she wrote in the letters...

It told us she wrote the letters, but look at what she wrote in the letters now.

⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles...

These were the influential people who were recognized, who had influence; who were holding high offices. The elders were the magistrates. They were the ones in the gate, where you had to bring your case to the magistrate in the gate. They were the judges. That is why Boaz had to go to the elders in the gate for the redemption of Ruth, and for the land to be released and come back to the original owner, and these things.

⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim [you] a fast, and set Naboth on high...

I told you, that was a technical term: talking about bringing him to trial. And to bring him to trial, you had to accuse him, and to get the accusation to stick, you had to get witnesses. Because it must be done in a court to appear to be justice; that a crime was committed, and the court had no other privilege other than to set a precedent and deal with this matter, so that any future offenders, who want to attempt doing this, they'll realize, the court is going to deal with this very strongly; the court would not tolerate this in the land. This was a setup, you know.

Now, you know when you go into court sometimes, the man stands up this way and he is scratching his hand here. That is a sign, because they are 'lodge members'. They are 'Masons' [A fraternity -Ed.] or something. They are 'Knights of Columbus'. [A Catholic fraternal organization -Ed.] They belong to a secret order together. [Bro. Vin laughs -Ed.] So, from the time the judge sees that sign, he knows that sign. You see? He will find some technical terms now, or try to show that the court is a merciful court and with a strong warning. The judge is going to be lenient today, but "Don't let it happen again," and set you free.

Then he has a reporter who would write up that in the newspapers, because they have their people there, to write in the media. And they come and they write and say, "What a merciful judge, but he gave such a strong warning after." And you are reading that gullibly because you don't have a filter. When you have a filter, and you have eyes and you are trained to see, and you know spirits, and you know the society in the last days and that hell is being created on the earth, and you know the locust... And 'locust' is not a term you just use in singing; you understand it. You see?

*⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying,

Now, this is the plan she devised. This is her thoughts that God was tracking down here, you know.

...and set Naboth on high among the people:

¹⁰ And set two men...

In other words, she didn't say, "Go and get an assassin and shoot him in the night." No! That will be like a murder. "We have to make this appear to be justice. We have to make it look fair. We have to get public confidence behind this." You see? "We have to make it look like this man brought this upon himself because he is a man who is getting too aggressive, and he is doing things, and he is not considering other people's rights and privileges also, and making us look like hardliners.” You know, they are quick to pre-empt and strike and do different things, and make themselves look a certain way.

So, she was giving the plan.

...set two men, sons...

Why? In the mouth of two or three witnesses, everything is established to be the truth.

...before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king.

They got everybody right there: some for God and some were for the king. Some for the king and some confused about God. That is church and State. Those are the two parts of society.

...And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.

Now, watch the plot, okay? This was to steal the inheritance, you know. She was devising the scheme. She was con... It was a conspiracy because she was working with the elders and nobles. It was taking the form of a public trial. It involved witnesses; it involved incriminating evidence. Then she had the judges now, who were going to prosecute this case and bring down the verdict and the penalty.

They wanted a death penalty. They wanted ‘justice served’. And they had the masses stirred up, calling for this. And they were printing this, and they were showing on the news, all the demonstrators in different cities saying, “Naboth should die!” You know, “He should die!” And everybody’s hand was in the verdict. So, when the judges gave that verdict, it was already popular with a lot of the public.

Now, observe how she was able to steal the man’s inheritance. Observe this! The reason the Bible gave you that explanation, he wants you to observe how a religious power, drunken with the blood of the prophets, (if you read 1st Kings 19, It tells you that,) how she is working in the judicial system. There was a trial and a verdict, and judges, and witnesses; a tribunal – a commission of enquiry to get certain people to investigate this, like they did UDeCOTT [Urban Development Corporation of Trinidad and Tobago -Ed.] and all these different things, and then they come up with the verdict. This was something happening...

Now, you are reading the Bible and you know it was Jezebel doing it, because the Spirit was showing it to you. But, if you were living in the city, you were not seeing that, you know. God was showing you what was going on behind the scenes.

Nobody knew it was her who wrote the letter. Nobody knew it was her who sealed the instructions. She didn't leave them to do it, you know. She said, "Do it this way." Because when it is done, it must appear to be justice. In other words, "You all are not skillful in killing and stealing like me. This has been my job for the last 2000 years."

This is covetousness. There is no war without covetousness. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's property. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife. [Exodus 20:17 -Ed.] Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's land." Covet! Achan coveted the thing. David coveted the woman. Ahab and Jezebel coveted Jerusalem.

'Covet' is a big word in these last days behind people who are talking civilization and virtue, and morality in government and morality in politics – a bunch of devils. That is the worst kind – those who pretend, and inside, their heart is full of wickedness, and they are using the power of an office to manipulate people, to achieve personal ambitions. They all will have to stand before the real Judgment one of these days, just like this woman. It shows this woman realized her thoughts were known, and Ahab knew his thoughts were known. And they knew their conspiracy was known.

Everybody else in the nation was fooled. The media publicized the trial: "Day 1 in the trial... Day 2 in the trial... Day 3 in the trial... And Abu Bakr [Yasin Abu Bakr, the Jamaat al Muslimeen leader -Ed.] is in court, and so on and so on. And all the Muslims went out there.” You know how they do it in the newspapers. “And the Dole Chadee [A drug lord and convicted murderer -Ed.] trial.” You know the trial, right?

Well, this was Naboth’s trial – a righteous man. She manipulated the judicial system; that is what the Bible is showing you there. She publicized the trial, she swayed the people; she called for swift justice. Watch how she was able to steal the thing. It took the form of a special commission.

That is why, when you read a lot of newspapers, half of the time you will get carried away if you don’t have discernment. You don’t realize: “No, that...” You see, you have to know the Word first to know other things. When you don’t know the Word, you will start to believe all kinds of things. Because the only way to know truth and error, the Word has to test it, and it must be able to go through the Word to be truth. “If it doesn’t fit into this revelation and brings this revelation to light, it is a wrong revelation,” he said. It must be according to the Word.

So watch! It was taking the form of a special commission of inquiry, given a mandate to investigate the accusations of Naboth’s breach of law. He had a breach of law. This was what the trial was about. The witnesses’ evidence is to say, “He blasphemed the king; he blasphemed God.”

They said, “Where did it happen? When did it happen? How did it happen?”

They said, “Well, I don’t know. I wasn’t, you know... I just heard him say that.”

That is not evidence in a court. So, these people were saying place and time, and they had people now, verifying that. That was a setup.

These people are going to lose their inheritance by a setup that involves Ahab and Jezebel. If in the end you see them in Jerusalem, you know it is a setup. And if you see the United Nations flag flying, you know it is the elders and the nobles carrying out Jezebel's will.

I already proved to you that this is happening between the Second Woe and the Third Woe, in the days when Elijah came and repaired the Altar at the Evening Sacrifice. And this is happening after he has turned the hearts of the children back to the faith of the fathers, and before the Translation, that this is happening.

So, that is a pretty good description. Are we between the Second War and the Third War? Has Elijah come and repaired the altar? Are our hearts turned back to the Faith of the fathers? Are we living before the Translation? Is there right now, a plot by Jezebel to take the God-given people's inheritance, and are they working a lot of schemes? Well, this is exactly what is happening in this very time. So, this alone tells you...

When God goes over in the New Testament now, God is saying... Now here, God is not saying, "I'm tracking down your thoughts," but He has a story showing their thoughts got tracked down. But when He went to the next Age over here, He said, "I searcheth." That is how He revealed himself in that Age, "I searcheth." And that Age came after what? Church and State – Pergamos.

Has there been a bailing out in this great economic recession that hit the world? Was that there in Genesis? Are Joseph's brothers gathered back and are beginning to get some experiences to sensitize them that their time of deliverance is at hand? Is Joseph's Bride seeing that Joseph must now dismiss Her to the Palace? Then all of that you see together at the same time too. Have you seen all the nations come and condemn Israel? That is right. She has drunken the nations and the kings of the earth. She is ruling in every one of them.

The righteous are being killed and robbed of their God-given inheritance in a political scheme, and that scheme involves the State and the church. Who are the great perpetrators of this evil here? The State and the church. She cannot do this without executive powers.

Do you want to kind of see what was in those letters? “If you don’t comply with this, we have the new F-16’s that Syria put in a request for, and we are contemplating selling it to them, and they will have the capability to launch missiles from a certain distance. And you, Egypt, if you don’t go along with this...” In other words, she could get the people in his region... That is what they did in the past. When they were fighting the Gulf War, they were making pacts with Syria; they were making pacts with Egypt.

Israel said, “But we are supposed to be your allies.”

They said, “Don’t be afraid. The planes we gave to them and the missiles we gave to them don’t have the capability like the ones we gave to you.”

They are giving all of them economic packages. Why? They want to land troops in their ports. They want to have refueling planes in their countries. They want to put up a system where they could monitor. That is why they give them economic packages. That is why when they were fighting the war in Afghanistan, they made all the deals with the Pakistani government. And when they were going to fight the war in Iraq, they were making deals with Kuwait and Saudi Arabia and all these other places too.

If you don’t understand that, it is so the world goes and that is how the world goes on. You see? They want to pass through your yard to hit the neighbor from behind, otherwise they will have to go all around the block and they will see them coming from a distance.

So, they say, “Hear what! We will pay for this. Anything that gets damaged here, we will give you a thing. [Compensation –Ed.] We will build a new hospital, we will do this and that, we will build a new highway; you will get elected in the next term. So, if you sign this deal, you will have another five years coming in your government, and we are backing you. We will bring you to Washington, we will give you a big state dinner, give you public international recognition and make everybody in your country happy.”

This is how they make the deals. Do you want Bible for that? Israel was going through, and Moab said, “You can’t pass through our land.” Esau said, “You can’t pass through here.” And when the time came, God said, “Remember, they didn’t let you pass through there?” And God dealt with them.

Then when Moab saw them coming, and they already took Og and Sihon, he ran to get Balaam: “Curse these people, because if they pass through here, too much of their influence, they will... My kingdom will be insecure if they come through this country and start to influence things here.” He said, “I will go out of power for sure.” Because those two governments had fallen in those places already.

Didn’t Ahab send for Jehoshaphat to go to the war when he tried to take away the piece of land from the Syrians? That is the Bible! Read your Bible! Sometimes we wonder how you are in this church and you can’t read the Bible right as yet. This ministry teaches you how to read your Bible.

Jezebel was able to achieve her goal, (now watch this,) because she had success in her evil scheme. Because she was able to manipulate the masses, and she was able to let loose her power through the elders and the nobles without being seen.

Hitler was bound in the river Euphrates by a Concordat. Arafat [Yasser Arafat - Former Palestinian political leader -Ed.] was bound by a certain agreement, when the Palestinians got the homeland, the Vatican would be in control to establish the state. They made deals for this already.

She was working through the elders and the nobles. She was using the executive powers of Ahab. She was using the executive seal. She was contacting these people in high places. In other words, she has principalities and powers, she has rulers of the darkness; she has spiritual wickedness in high places. Do you understand? She has them in high places. When she wants a favor done, she could get that.

To kill this man... In other words, for them to take Jerusalem, they can't get a low man who doesn't have any power in Israel. How could you take a nation... If you buy out some person in some deadbeat party or something, you know, some man who has his own little thing and is trying to start something, and you get ahold of him and say you will take the nation in Trinidad, you can't do it. You have to get somebody from high up. You have to get somebody from high up.

She has her hand in every country. So, they have the United Nations Security Council. When these people get a mandate and say, "Go in there, investigate; see what is happening," they come with a commission. Then the United Nations gather, and then they give an address and they say, "New resolution."

Like when Israel occupied that place, that is what they did. So, they came to the United Nations and they said, "Okay, this new resolution, turn down that law that they passed claiming that. And we will all pull out our embassies and then none of us recognizes it. If we don't recognize it, tell me how are they going to get aid? Who are they going to trade with? Who is going to make their region secured? Who is going to allow them to do certain things? Who is going to allow them to travel also? Which nation?" Do you understand?

Then, we will block up the nation in the... We blocked up the Sinai desert, we blocked up the Suez Canal; we blocked up the Persian Gulf. How are they going to come out? They would fly around their own airspace, and from the time they go into international airspace, we will say, no, we don't want this in international airspace. And if you are in international airspace and you run out of gas, you will have to find a place to land. Where are you going to land, to refuel?" So, immediately you have now, to comply and go right back and do the bidding of the United Nations Security Council.

Then they'll say, "The United Nations Security Council passed a resolution and made certain recommendations according to the roadmap for the peace plan for the Middle East." And you'll read some of that in the newspapers, and then you'll see a handshake and something nice there. Then they'll say, "And Mr. Netanyahu [Benjamin Netanyahu - Prime Minister of Israel - Ed.] and Mr. Perez [Shimon Perez - Former President of Israel -Ed.] and they have begun to see the bigger picture since the Secretary of State, Mrs. Clinton, went there, and now they are cooperating to freeze the settlements. And now they are allowing goods to go through in the Gulf, and the United Nations inspectors are making sure that no other materials go forth." It sounds nice to everybody!

You need to see a little more behind there to understand why this is being done and why this is being encountered. It is to contain a power, to keep the leverage and the balance of power over a nation, so you could exert and exercise your will upon a nation, who is trying to claim something Biblically and say, God gave this to them. Let me tell you, they are being shut down by the United Nations for claiming something Biblically.

What do you think is going to happen to you, the Israel of God, who is trying to claim things here? Do you think you are going to be supported by the 'united denominations'? They are a people with a promise; you are a people with a promise. Israel types the Church. What do you think it will come down to?

My young brothers and sisters, may God in His grace, (let the musicians come for me,) put these things in your hearts, so that you can see.

Look at the value of those contacts. Do you see the value of the contacts Ahab and Jezebel had? Those were contacts they cultivated and developed over the years. How do you think drugs come through the port? They could have the big ports, they could have televisions, they could have radar, they could have patrol boats, fast patrol boats; all you need is the one security guard who is on duty, on a shift. You promise him that his daughter would get her education paid for by a University in Miami, and they would get a little Condo out there, and different things, and everything will pass. This is how it is. This is how it is.

He said:

¹¹ And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them...

The elders and the nobles, the inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel said unto them.

...and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

In other words, these are obedient servants of the Vatican. Do you know that some people feel it is an honor and a privilege to do something for the Pope, or to do something for the President of the United States? Do you know the kind of economic package that can follow that? Do you know the kind of blessing that can come on your family because of that?

¹² They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

¹³ And there came in two men...

Just exactly what she said.

...children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God...

There are those kinds of men; they will do anything for a price. They can be bought to go in a court and lie, and sink somebody. I want you to see how none of these escapes, because blood has a voice, and there is a God that makes inquest for blood. The root of that Truth was when God came down in Genesis 4, outside of Adam and their inheritance there.

When God came down to Cain, He said, “Where is your brother?”

He said, “My brother? Why are You asking me that? I don’t understand your question. Am I supposed to be watching over him? Am I his keeper? I have my vocation here. I raise farm crops; he minds [takes care of; rear -Ed.] sheep. I didn’t know I was supposed to be watching over him.”

He started to get technical with God.

God said, “But your brother’s blood is crying.”

“My brother’s blood? What do You mean? I don’t understand what You are saying.”

He said, “It is crying unto Me.” God had told him before, “Sin lieth at the door.” He had a warning. God had seen the jealousy in his heart, and God knew that it was going to build up and get him into trouble. Let me tell you, God had their thoughts so tracked down.

... Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

¹⁴ [And then] Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

They called that hotline. They alone knew the secure channel that could not be monitored. “The goose is fried” – code. “You know what happened. Naboth is dead.”

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

¹⁶ And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead...

Now, look how the two of them weren’t on the scene, but they were getting the news. Today, do you know what happens? They are in the White House, and they have a satellite over the place, and they are watching it on a screen, and they are watching the bomb doing this. [Bro. Vin demonstrates –Ed.] Boom! And it is gone. Flip a next channel, and they are gone.

In a private room, they have their special channel, receiving information from that satellite, and that satellite is monitoring the thing. Just like how they are monitoring the World Cup and putting the World Cup around the world in everybody's house, they have there, a dedicated satellite for that, that is bringing that vision of the thing right inside of there. So, they don't need phone calls anymore to say that this and that happened; they have a channel.

She said, "Go and take possession, now." The next thing you hear, the Minister of Information came out, the Press Secretary, and all the news reporters were gathered there, in the White House. They said, "The President is about to take a little trip to the Middle East, and he wants to make a stop in Jerusalem to see how the peace plan is coming along." And Air Force One was parked on the tarmac.

They went into Air Force One, they flew down there, they came off the plane, they greeted him, and they carried him on the scene. And they had the security personnel around him, Bidkar and Jehu, and they were driving in the big limousine and they were with the President. He pulled up and he came out, and he was on the Temple Mount walking. He kind of smiled in his heart that the world didn't know what was going on. All the newspapers: TIME magazine, Newsweek, National Geographic, you know, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Financial Times; all the big newspapers around the world, even The Express and The Guardian [Local newspapers –Ed.] were pulling off of that too; on the Internet; everything was there.

The trial took place: "So and so is the verdict. The United Nations Security Council judged the matter, put it down, and this is the new resolution that is going to be enforced, and now progress is going to be made." And while he was walking there, a man was standing there in the shadows waiting for him. Then, when he was outside now, with the cameras, they said to the press, "Okay, you cannot cross this line. Stay back here!" He was kind of smiling now, and now you could see the gloating. This man walked out and said, he said...

That was Genesis 4 repeating. That was Genesis 4 repeating. God came down in the Garden, a murder just took place, innocent blood just got shed, the culprit was hiding, the guilty one was hiding, and came out and was talking to God face to face, and asked Him, "Well, am I my brother's keeper?" Like if he didn't even know what God was talking about. That was the same thing. Genesis 4, is the root of this truth.

1st Kings 21, is the last days, because this is the beast that came out of the earth and the Beast that came out of the sea – Ahab and Jezebel. This is what the End Time finishes with. This is after the last Prophet. This is when the fowls of the air and the beasts of the earth are going to eat them. This is a shadow of the End Time, Revelation 19 – that there. So, you have the two right here, when God has come down.

This weekend I will show you, when Elijah came in this Day, God, for the first time in 2000 years since the ministry of Jesus Christ, showed the gift again to the church, that nothing is hidden: not in the Vatican, not in space, not in the White House; nowhere. Nothing is hidden. The only thing He doesn't see is what is under the Blood of Jesus Christ, and that is already forgiven. Not even God could find that because that is in the sea of God's forgetfulness.

When he stood and spoke; for him to put judgment on Ahab and Jezebel, he had to see their cups being full. He had to see their cups getting full because that is a, 'THUS SAITH THE LORD'. That is not 'thus saith Bro. Branham'; that is, 'THUS SAITH THE LORD'. He was the voice of God in the last days.

My brothers, my sisters, we are into some times here because this very scene is taking place right now: this very crime, this very deceit, this very mischief, and all these thoughts are already put in the Book of Revelation – every move they are going to make. The Book of Daniel says, “And he looked towards the pleasant land, and he began to go towards the pleasant land.” And Paul said, “He is sitting in the temple being worshipped as God.” And John is saying there, “And everyone who doesn’t bow down to the image is going to be killed. You can’t buy or sell except you have the mark of the Beast.” It is already written in the Bible there, that those are the plans they are coming with.

Until we were even warned by the Prophet. He said, “According to my revelation; according to Revelation 13:16, this last Day Bride will suffer persecution before She goes in the Rapture.” He said, “They will close down places like these here. And after a short, powerful demonstration, this persecuted, hunted group will go to be with the Lord Jesus Christ.” He said, “And somewhere between the binding of the tares and the revealing of the antichrist, the Rapture will take place and does take place.” He said, “And the binding of the tares – that is the World Council of Churches, the Ecumenical Move that is binding them together right now. Satan is uniting man under his plan. But while that union is going on, there is another Union going on – God and His Bride are being united.”

That woman with that spirit represented a system in the last days – a dominant female – the worst thing you can find. The Bible ends up with two women: Babylon, Mystery Babylon – that woman Jezebel, and Jerusalem. One falls and is burnt with fire and stoned with hailstones, 100 pounds each. Same thing they used to do to a prostitute in the Old Testament: they stoned them with stones and burnt them with fire. And the same God, under the Seventh Vial, is stoning the adulterous church by the last plague. And Jerusalem,

She is being exalted to the very Throne, to sit and reign with Christ upon the face of the earth, and Her Light shall be seen roundabout.

You, today, are sitting maybe in Trinidad here, in a little place called Longdenville, down in a little valley here, but the Word you are hearing is a Word not coming from the earth but from Heaven.

You say, "What are you saying?" Hebrews 12, He speaketh from Heaven and everything that will be shaken is being shaken, and only those things which cannot be shaken, may remain. That is why this world is shaking until there are no more Gentile nations and Gentile powers standing there with some authority. They all gave their power to the Beast. But when Christ and the Bride, the King and that City comes down upon the earth, that Rock cut without hands smites every nation and grinds it into powder and that Mountain grows into a great Kingdom that fills the earth.

Kings and kingdoms, friends, will all pass away, but there is a place of Refuge this afternoon – that is in the Name: "The Name of the Lord is a mighty tower that the righteous can run into and be saved."

Let us just sing that song, Jesus, Jesus. [#64 - Songs That Live -Ed.] Time is filled with swift transition, naught of earth unmoved can stand. Build your hopes on things eternal.

[#474 - Songs That Live -Ed.] What a time!

[#64 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

Jesus, Jesus...

There's just something about that Name.

Master, Saviour...

Oh, like the fragrance after the rain.

Oh, sing that lovely Name. Call it with grace and reverence because there is salvation in that Name; there is power in that Name. Demons tremble when you come in that Name.

Oh, let all Heaven and earth proclaim;

...and earth proclaim;

Oh, kings and kingdoms

Kings and kingdoms will all pass away,

There is no hope in this world. Do like Abraham: see a City Whose Maker and Builder is God. Confess you are a pilgrim and stranger here today, and live for that World to come, my friend. Oh, let us sing it with our hands raised to Him. His Presence is here amongst us. The very King of that City is here – the Divine Architect, the One Who built that City; Who reigns supreme in that Throne.

There's just something about...

All power in Heaven and earth is given unto Him.

Oh, Saviour...

Hallelujah!

...Jesus,

Like the fragrance after the rain.

Oh, these showers of Former and Latter Rain are coming down. The Sweet Fragrance is the Holy Spirit. It falls upon your life; falls upon the trees and the roses.

...and earth proclaim;

Oh, kings and kingdoms...

...and kingdoms will all pass away,

But there's something about that Name.

Let us bow our hearts in His Presence. Are you convinced that God searcheth the reins, (those are the thoughts), searcheth the hearts; that God tracks down these things? When God communicates His Word to you, those are His thoughts. A word is a thought expressed. That is coming from the Mind of Christ. Christ communicating His thoughts by expressing His Words, the Scriptures to you; revealing His will to you.

His Word is a Lamp unto your feet and a Light unto your pathway. His Word that shows to us His plan for this Age – the things that He has allotted to be done; the things that He is working, (“My Father worketh everyday and I worketh hitherto,”) to finish His work; to bring it to its fulfillment; to bring it to its completion.

Isn't that why He called us – to make us co-workers with Him in this great work? Is He trying to bring His Mind into us so that we can see what He wants done with this Word? But before that Word can come in, and become the Mind that governs and controls us, and influences us to show we are walking under His Headship... As the Rapture draws near, the Word from the Head is coming down into the Body. This is a sign that the Rapture is at hand.

When we see that Word coming down from God, and we can look and see how we have travelled the road, we can see where we are, we can see how clear the modern events are, we can see the history that is repeating itself; we can see the spirit that is upon the nations of the world.

They didn't have a love for the Truth, so they have been given a strong delusion to believe the lie and be damned by it. But God knows their every thought. God knows their thoughts; God knows our thoughts – we to whom He has given this Word; we to whom He has entrusted with this responsibility.

You take it into consideration today. You consider it deeply. You get your thinking enlightened. Do you see how that evil system, that evil power is working behind the scenes? Do you see how God, by His foreknowledge, expressed... That is what the Spirit of prophecy is – showing you things to come. 'Things to come' is God's foreknowledge being made known. Because He is the Lord Who is, Who was and Who is to come.

Those cherubims had eyes in front and eyes behind and eyes within: they knew things, what was, what is, and what is to come. That is what that Eagle Anointing is. That is what was on that Prophet. He could look back into Eternity when God wasn't even God, and look over into the future and see into the future Home of the Heavenly Bridegroom and the earthly Bride – a Message that spans from Eternity to Eternity; Seven Angels coming from Eternity dropping down into time, to lift a people up into Eternity.

The man that is redeemed by that Blood and will be in that Eternal Church Age at the end of the Seven Seals, that will be brought out into the Eighth Day, into a Holy Convocation, where a baptism of Fire will make them put on their Eden beauty again; where they will go beyond time, the time element. Because 'eight' speaks of 'a new beginning'.

Is that what the New Birth is? An Eternal Order! Is that what this theophany is that we are being influenced by, this Eternal Life inside of us? Do these things mean that? Is that a people being taken up in this great Mystery for the going away of the Church?

We have seen the Mystery of His Coming, but when the Bridegroom came, He left with the Bride. They heard He was coming, they heard the Midnight Cry, but then there was a going. They, who trimmed their lamps, went in with Him. Is that what has happened? Those who had their Robes went into the Marriage Supper.

Are you just going along casually, thinking, "Well, these things, you know, it is just coming to church and just listening to the preacher, and it is not so necessary to understand what is being said, as long as we are just here in the Assembly, involved in the program"? Don't be caught there friends. It calls for you to go a little deeper than that, now.

I pray today that the grace of God, that He is showing unto us, it is because He desires to help us, is that He wants to re-awaken us; he wants to stir us. He doesn't want us to be caught in a slumber. Doesn't the Scriptures say, "Awake, thou that sleepest, and Christ shall give thee Light. And be not unwise but understanding what the will of the Lord is. Walk circumspectly not as fools but redeeming the time"? [Ephesians 5 -Ed.] Doesn't It say, "Awake out of sleep; it is high time you awake. Put on the breastplate of faith and love, the armor of Light"? Doesn't It say, "We are not of them who are of the night, who are drunken in the night but we are of them who are of the day, who are sober.

And when they begin to say, “Peace and safety”... Is that what they are trying to bring to the world – peace; security?

No matter where you look, no matter how you turn, everything is pointing out to you, the Hour has arrived upon us, God will hear a sincere prayer.

Maybe some of you are not even walking where you need to be walking, in this Hour. But like Samson who had his eyes put out, the enemy made sport of him after the eyes went. There was no real victory after the eyes went. But when that new crop had grown out, and those Philistines were moving in to make sport and bring a real humiliation; clamp down upon him, there was going to be a real victory then. It was quick, it was short; it was powerful. But what was done temporarily, was now being manifested in the fullness of its power. He killed more in that hour than he did in all the days before.

Could you imagine what it is going to be like with a Bride around the world, part of that new crop that has grown out? Could you cry, “Just once more”? Is there a cry in your heart? Do you want to see that revival in your life? When you look in your heart, is your heart on fire? Is your soul on fire for God? Is there a cry for reaching out in the Spirit? Is there a fervent desire to please God? Is there a passion to know His Word in your life, or are you just lukewarm, are you just formal; are you just powerless? Can you see what you ought to be in this Hour?

When you hear a Word like this today, how do you think it should affect you when you hear it? Has it affected you? Do you know the state of your conscience? Is your conscience pricked? Do you feel convicted enough to want to lay aside everything?

I’m so sorry if you don’t feel anything. Maybe next service I’ll try again a little harder. But the Bible tells us, in this Hour, some consciences will be seared as with a hot iron; there is no real desire for the things of God.

Esau was found in that place. He was so taken up and obsessed with the morsel of meat, but Jacob, oh, he couldn't wait to get his hands upon that birthright. He was fighting from within the womb; he wanted to get ahold of it. He couldn't envision himself living without it. May God give us a desire like that. This is what we need, friends. This is what we need, in this Hour.

We want to call Bro. Melville to come and pray, while your hearts are humbled before God. We just trust that there is a depth of conviction. See what your thoughts have been. Leave this service knowing, God is tracking down every one of our thoughts, and what is done in secret will be brought out in the light; what is done in darkness will be brought out in the light. It will be shouted on the rooftop. There is nothing covered that will not be exposed.

[Bro. Anthony Melville prays -Ed.]

Amen. Praise His Mighty Name.

So, remember Friday, Saturday and Sunday, we'll have no service in the week. But like the last time what we did, we had the church opened. So, if during the week, you want to come up and have a little time of prayer in the day time, in the evening time; if you are around, you are nearby, you want to come over and spend a little time in prayer, the church will be opened, by God's grace. You just come, you can pray and go; you can pray and stay around. There will be practice, different things. Everything is being done. Even a lot of work concerning the convention that is coming up. And we certainly want full participation.

These services are important at this time and we certainly would like God to give us all that He has for us, so that we can be in the right atmosphere, that when all the delegates from different parts of the world will come in amongst us, you know, we really can know they are coming into a real atmosphere created by the Holy Spirit through prayer, consecration; dedication.

Seeing we are the hosts, we certainly would like to have things in such a way that the Lord can impart the blessings, that people who are making long journeys to be here and great sacrifices to be here, can really receive something and take something back, in this very late Hour.

So, all the things that have to be done, you know, to finish up everything, as far as with the transport; the accommodation, everyt in any area, let us try to attend to it; all the outstanding pledges and everything that is to be done. Let us try and do it in a way so that we can certainly have everything in decency and in order, by God's grace.

So, turn around and greet each other. Greet your brother and sister. You know, let them know, "I'll be praying for you; I appreciate you." Amen. This is important to our unity.
