THE WAY PREPARED FOR THE KINGS OF THE EAST

TRINIDAD

SUNDAY 21ST SEPTEMBER 2014

BRO. VIN A. DAYAL

*The Dove flew into my heart
I know that He did.*

Oh, I may be troubled
I may be troubled, confused and shattered
...and shattered

Oh, I may be scarred
I may be scarred
But I will never give up,
Hallelujah!

He has promised deliverance
From all, all my bondage
He would not deny [I believe Him.]
What He has promised.

[Do you believe?]

Jesus has provided all my needs

Whenever I call... You can call Him right now, this very moment. His ear is attentive. Hallelujah!

CHORUS

Oh, the Dove flew

The Dove flew

Open that heart. Let that Dove come in this morning. Amen!

Hallelujah!

He has led me through the storms

I firmly believe

Hallelujah!

The Lord has raised me up

The Lord has raised me up so high

To believe what He has done

...for me

I'm an eagle

I'm an eagle to soar above the troubled waters

He has fluttered His wings in my heart

The Dove flew into my heart I firmly believe

The Dove flew into my heart I firmly believe

The Dove flew into my heart I know that He did

One more time

The Dove flew into my heart. That's the abiding place of the Dove, in the heart. Hallelujah!

He has led me, down through these years.

Oh, Eagles following the Dove, from faith to Perfect Love.

The Lord has raised me up so high

To believe what He has done for me

I'm an eagle to soar above the troubled waters

He has fluttered His wings...

Do you feel it? Is it real to you? Make it personalized.

Oh, I firmly believe,

I know that He did.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! He said, "I felt led to go another way." Hallelujah! And going up in that trail, he said, "There He was, That little, snow-white Dove, the One that I looked for all these years. I know my troubles are ended." The Dove coming for confirmation of Divine Healing. Amen! Coming for Perfect Healing in this Hour. This Dove that has descended between the Sixth and Seventh Trumpets, we just—He led us in that trail. Hallelujah!

He led us in that trail to find a secret passage between the Gentile Prophet and the Jewish prophets. Hallelujah! A hidden trail, a secret trial, in there you eat the Book. The olive leaf in the mouth of the Dove. Amen! Hallelujah! Glory be to... What was it for? "Me, an old man, God healed me? I'll ride this trail once more!" Hallelujah!

There's a Message coming forth. He said, "Father, I pray you'll let the Dove lead." He said, "The next day I saw an eagle fly." Oh, may that Eagle fly today. Glory to be God! A Bride of Jesus Christ, God's Eagles between a Gentile Eagle and two Jewish Eagles. A cluster of Eagles. Where the carcass is, there will those Eagles be gathered. He tore up the nest. He threw them out of the nest. He woke them up to let them know they are not chickens, amen! He led them to discover the Law of Faith inside of them, He took away their amnesia, He gave them skill and understanding that they came from a pedigree of Eagles all the way back to the great Jehovah Eagle. Hallelujah! Glory be to God in the Highest.

A snow-white Dove flew into my heart. Amen! Let's just sing that little chorus before we go in prayer.

[#996 A Day In September - Songs That Live -Ed.]

*A snow-white Dove
Flew into my heart
Saying don't worry My child
All is well.*

Oh, a snow-white Dove.

*A snow-white Dove
Flew into my heart
Saying don't worry My child
All is well.*

One more time.

*A snow-white Dove
Flew into my heart
Saying don't worry My child
All is well*

Thank You, Lord. As we bow our hearts in His Presence all through this Region, all the way up into Canada where we are gathered in this great Divine Presence, this great Jehovah Shalom, the Lord is our peace, that Seventh Dove; this Jehovah Shammah, the Lord who is present; this Jehovah Tsidkenu, we are the speckled bird with the Blood of the male. Hallelujah! We live and fly in His righteousness. He is the great Jehovah Raah leading us (hallelujah) oh, in those Bloody footprints.

We are so thankful today that we could be gathered here under the great Leadership of the Holy Spirit. We feel we are up on the mountain top. He showed him that Seventh Mountain. He led him to go up in a symbol of that. Up in there was a promise of Perfect Healing. Will thou be made whole? A total deliverance. That Seventh Dove has come down in Revelation 10 with the Thunders. Out of His mouth came a Word to give us a change, a Rapturing Faith to change us, that this mortal shall put on immortality. It has already been brought to light in this Hour. We behold the Glory, we see the pathway He is leading us. We are being changed from glory unto glory, from faith unto faith. We are coming into a Rapturing Faith to be changed, getting ready, preparation for dimensional travel. That's what these things are. Because our origin was from Him. We were a Gene in His loins. He put us here; we were considered in Redemption. Not just—we did not just come for salvation, Redemption. Foolish virgins are going to be saved, those who do good works are going to be saved. All these people are saved people. But His very Own attributes, we are ordained, predestinated to be conformed into His Own Image and likeness, called unto Eternal glory. Blessed be His wonderful Name.

Such love, Elective love, God's Elective love. That's why you can look in the Bible and it's a mirror to you. You see yourself in the Word. Out of sixty-six Books are so many things: history, literature, songs, visions, prophecies. But yet in there you see you. In the midst of all that, you see you. Praise His wonderful Name.

That's the Dove leading you, this Spirit of Truth, this great Logos, the Pillar of Fire, the Angel of God that leads us into the place He has prepared for us. What a way to journey, to journey into our inheritance, to journey into full, complete Redemption, where all things come back under our feet. The Dove leading us into a New World.

If you have a special need today, believe Him. In moments like these when your heart could get quiet in His Presence, on a day like today where it has significance. We didn't have the Dove Meetings, but the Dove is here. He is meeting with you today. What a Dove meeting, you in His Presence leading you.

Father, we are so thankful today. How grateful we are in our hearts, dear God, to come into Your Divine Presence to worship You in Spirit and Truth; to feel the streams of love bathing down into our souls, the joy bells on the inside ringing out, oh God, bringing such stimulation as we feel the inspiration of the Holy Spirit quickening our faith, quickening our thoughts, the mind of Christ coming in, the Spirit bringing the Truth back to our remembrance, opening it up, Lord, applying it to this Hour. It has become a Lamp unto our feet and a Light unto our pathway so we can be led in a plain path. We are so grateful for this.

You did say the Spirit of Truth was going to come. The world will not see You. There was no world to see You. They were dead. Oh God, the Life had left them. Every system, the crow was eating it out, Lord God. They had come to a place of annihilation, but the dove, Noah's eyes were on the dove. Noah's heart, his faith was on the dove. He knew that was a faithful, loyal messenger. He knew she would find what he needed, oh God, to know and understand about the world he was preparing to enter into.

So we feel, dear God, in this Hour. This world is again falling apart. The wrath of God has come. Spiritual death has already struck them. Every system is dead. "Thus saith the Lord," Your Prophet had said, "it shall never rise again." The rock has been thrown up, Lord. Mercy has been spurned. Oh God, a people are sealed in the Ark. How we thank You for that, Father; sealed in Christ. Hallelujah! And that rain that falls, showers of former and latter rain, is raising us up, the very Word, oh God, in this Hour lifting a Bride into a Rapturing Faith, is bringing judgment to a world, judging them, Lord, for their unbelief.

And, so, we thank You, dear God, today. We feel so humbled to be in Your Presence to partake of this great grace that has been brought to us as the Revelation of Jesus Christ. So good to be in an assembly, Lord, with such a fine caliber of people, precious believers, Elected, called out, separated, set apart; a people under preparation, oh God, to leave this world, and Lord in simplicity overlooked, even in this little island seventy miles by forty miles, overlooked, dear God, happening right in this little village up here and people don't even know the reality of what it is. Yet the God of creation is here, yet the Mighty God Who spoke the universe into existence.

Oh God, may You quicken our faith that we can see, Father, past these three dimensions and see, oh God, You, the Mighty God unveiled; the One Who changed our lives many years ago; the One Who called us, separated us; the One Who quickened us and made our change irreversible. We thank You, Father.

We thank You for believers of like precious faith, dear God, churches You raised up here. What a mighty people here. All the way up into Canada. People You called to walk in this marvelous Light. We who were not a people, we know now we are the people of God. This is the Lord's doing. It is marvelous in our eyes. Blessed be Your wonderful Name.

How we pray and ask today that You will touch, God, the weary, Father; quicken them. Bring healing to the sick, oh God. Give the faith sufficient for these things. Bring the peace in the heart and the mind of those who are troubled and tossed to and fro. Let that anchor, Lord, that soul, Father, be tied to the Absolute, the haven of rest, the unshakable, unchangeable Word, Lord. A Kingdom that cannot be removed. That is what we have received in this Hour. While this world shakes and falls apart, Lord, but if you abide in this Word and this Word abide in us, we can ask what we will. And we are asking and believing that we have received even now as we utter words in prayer, with faith, Father, that You are faithful Who promised.

And, so, we thank You for this, Lord. Break Thou the Bread of Life to us today. Feed our hungry souls. Send down Your Holy Spirit, Father, in such streams of grace. Fill every heart to overflowing that brings might and power in the inner man, strength, peace, confidence in the hearts of Your children. Will You do it, Lord? Would You send down the special blessing today. You know I am depending on You. I'm looking to You, Father, for leadership, for direction. How the Dove is moving in our hearts, Lord, Genesis and Revelation, and Daniel. Oh God, these great Books, the first Book, the last Book. These mysterious Books that prophesied for this Hour, that show the secret of our lives in journey and in death and where we go after we die. And in this Hour how we are going up, Father, like Enoch, like Elijah without seeing death, dear God.

Come, Father, Lord, into Your Word and come into our hearts and so fill us today. Let it be such an impartation of this great grace that we leave quickened and changed, oh God, empowered, lifted up, dear God, to walk in victory and live in the power of Your Spirit in this Hour.

We thank You, Father. We thank You, Lord. We believe, Father. We confess all our shortcomings and failures, everything, oh God, that Lord we may have overlooked, we bring it up before You, saying, Lord, sprinkle us like that dove was sprinkled, Lord, Lord with the blood of the mate (hallelujah), that we can fly in this Hour, holy, holy; this Final Voice in the Final Age going forth in this Hour, in grace in power, in judgment. Oh, God have Your way, Father.

We commit all things in Your mighty hands today, thanking You in advance for what You will do. Get glory to Your mighty Name. Show Yourself alive once more. Manifest Your Great Presence. We thank You, Lord, for the Glory of God in the Name of Jesus Christ, amen, amen.

Praise His Mighty Name. Do you love Him? Are you glad to be in His house today, amen?

I'd like to invite your attention as we go to Revelation, the Book of Revelation Chapter 6, verse 16 and...

I want to speak a little bit on “THE WAY BEING PREPARED FOR THE KINGS OF THE EAST”. I'm in Daniel, but I want to lay some background so... The Mystery between the Sixth and Seventh Vials, what a great thing it is. And for a little subject I have “The Iron Curtain And The Bamboo Curtain Unite Against The Purple Curtain”. There are three curtains there: the Iron Curtain, the Bamboo Curtain and the Purple Curtain. Amen. The Iron Curtain – Russia, Communism. Amen. The Bamboo Curtain – China; such a great, massive power on the earth in this Hour. And then, the Purple Curtain, she has conquered the world. She is the one prophesied to rule. But these others are prophesied to bring her destruction. They may have ambitions and aspirations to rule too, but they are not really called to rule the earth. They are called to destroy this power that pollutes the earth.

God in His great wisdom, the way God does things, it is such a great Hour, friends. You want to walk close, you want to be yielded, you want to be submitted to this great God.

I'm so thankful for the Holy Spirit, the Message of the Hour. It never ceases to just get more real every day. All the things that He had shown us down through these years, it just got brighter and brighter, it got clearer and clearer. Truly, He said the whole Book is opening wide before your wondering eyes until we are edified and purified by His Spirit and being made ready for His great and glorious Coming.

Revelation 6, verse 7.

We are going to the Fourth Seal because the Fourth Seal gathers up the first three. So the first one was religion, the second one was politics, military power being let loose upon the earth, religious conquest; then military conquest and then economic conquest; industrial wars, economic wars, religious wars, political wars, it is all Death riding his different horses. But then it comes to globalization where the powers are united. This is a uniting time. And while all that uniting is taking place in the world, he said, "I want to show you another uniting." Hallelujah! God and man being united. The Head appeared in the sky to unite with a Body because this is the Hour of the Marriage.

So if you see those unitings and you believe in that, that is only testifying of the uniting that will remain. All those unitings will be annihilated, but this uniting will remain for all Eternity. The Headstone and the Pyramid, the Lamb and His Wife, a Pyramid City having the Glory of God. What a great thing. Praise His Mighty Name.

Verse 7: [Revelation 6 -Ed.]

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast [or, fourth living creature] say, Come and see.

I heard that Voice. I heard that Voice. That Seal is opened to me. You heard that voice and you went and saw? That is John saying that. John said, "I heard it," and John said, "I went and saw." You see, Scripture today is not just reading the page—reading the words of a page. This is the John in the last days, the Eagle Age, the Fourth Gospel, the fourth living creature, that's the Eagle. That's the prophetic Hour. The Book of Revelation, Genesis and Daniel are prophetic Books for a prophetic class of people. People with microscopic vision to see the Genes, (Genes-is) in Genesis; everything in seed form. But yet you see the whole Book of Revelation there. Babylon begins in Genesis, Babylon ends in Revelation. Then in Daniel in the middle of the Bible, Babylon was a world power. You see, it is there in the Book. And this is the great thing about the Word and the opening of these Seals.

And he looked, and behold a pale horse...

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death,

Now, he is revealed. Now, his name—this one who is riding, killing people with religious death; killing people with hot war, in hot wars; military power – physical death. Biological, chemical and nuclear weapons of mass destruction. That's the sword. That's what 'sword' means in the Bible. What does that do? Take peace from the earth. Weapons – the sword for war; to kill, to destroy economies, to destroy nations, to destroy armies; to put terror into their hearts. Nuclear puts terror in people hearts because they know they could be vaporized. You'll only see a big mushroom come up in your country. You know after that is radiation; nothing will live. Biological; you don't even see that. Ebola scare, everybody under panic, because you can't even see that without a microscope yet it is so lethal and deadly. You are talking with somebody, and laughing, and they just sneeze, and the next thing is, you are dying. That's right. What a thing, friends. The Age that we are living in.

... and Hell followed with him.

Hell followed him. Hell could only follow him when Revelation 9 takes place; when the pit is open and the king and his armies come out. They are coming for bodies. But in the Eagle Age, the greatest Light that ever shone has shone; it is Evening Time. And when they reject this, then death could ride, because the rejection of the Word makes a way for the devil to become incarnate. And to reject the Word is death.

When Egypt rejected Moses' message and they went under the blood, everything died. When the world rejected Noah's message, the elect went into the ark, everything else died. That's death, friends. That's the Hour, because we had one like Moses, we had one like Elijah, and we had one like the Son of Man. When they rejected Jesus' Message, Titus came with the sword and annihilated them, and scattered them into the world; burned the temple and destroyed everything. For two thousand years, they were out there. They just got back here, recently. See? Naomi coming back in, but Ruth coming in for redemption at the same time.

... And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth,

It is given by God, by permission because God uses wars as judgment.

... to kill with sword,

All these wars that we had over these last few years: war in Afghanistan, war in Iraq, war in... All of this is smart wars. These people didn't come and attack them. They created a condition to have justification to invade other people. It's smart. It is a deceiving Age. This is the Age. This did not happen in a past Age, this is happening before our eyes. This is the modern events fulfilling Revelation and Daniel. The fourth Beast will do what? Devour the whole earth and break it up in pieces. It is good to read it, but it is better to see it. Because anybody literate could read it. But when you could see it; your eyes anointed with Eyesalve. That prophetic vision came to the Church in the last days. The Spirit of Truth coming after the Son of Man to bring back His Words to our remembrance and teach us further on what He has taught. Because He is the Messenger of the Book of Revelation and Daniel. Daniel heard the Thunders, John heard the Thunders; they sealed up the Book. This one came with the opened Book. This one came with the opened Book; he heard the Thunders. You understand?

So we are a people who received a Prophet with an opened Book. When this one sounds, "Seal not up these things anymore." In his sounding, the Mystery is finished. When Daniel was finished, He said, "Seal it up." When John saw and was about to write, He sealed it up. But they had to wait until the Seventh Angel: "... in the days of the voice of the Seventh Angel."

Friends, that's why we are here. We are not here because Bro. Vin preaches and we have a church. We are not here in Trinidad because Bro. Branham was in the States; preached a message, and some books and some tapes came here and we say, "We believe Bro. Branham." No, no, no. This is the Word of God before the foundation of the world; before Adam was here, before you were here, before I was here, before Bro. Branham was here, before Moses and Elijah were here, when He was El Ellah Elohim, all of this was settled already. And He put us in this Age between the Gentile Prophet and the Jewish prophets when all—this whole Book is coming to pass. So an End Time people – seven messengers are in the grave, but an End Time people: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed. An End Time people with Rapturing Faith to draw the others. This is why we are here. This is why we are here. You know He is here.

You heard more in five minutes of reading the Scriptures here already, if you could connect all those things together.

... to kill with the sword,

That's military power on the earth. How they killed Gaddafi; how they lied and they burst up that place and devoured that nation. How they stripped him naked and they beat him, and they kicked him in the street, and they dragged him and everything else. And then they sent it around the world. And, they are saying, "Don't mess with us."

That is the Beast with iron teeth in the Book of Daniel. A man who was trying to unite nations in Africa. "No, no, no. You don't have any plans for Africa. We will have the plans for Africa. We will take over Africa. That is where all the resources are. We will control the diamonds, we will control the oil, we will control the coltan, we will control these things. We will keep them in poverty. That is slave labor." You see?

Colonial powers in the earth. You went to school and you learned—read history. You are supposed to know history. You read the Message and you know world history and Church history. It is a great thing. So, that tells you, this did not start today, friends; this started from the beginning of the world. Nimrod built the first Babylon. Nimrod gathered the whole world. Nimrod forced them into worship. We went through this. Now we are in Daniel. I am just going further to show you another phase of it, because those two are repeating here in this third one. Just like the first Exodus and the second Exodus are gathered up in the third Exodus, well those Babylons are gathered up in this Babylon.

And with hunger. America, Europe, they say even in Trinidad now, obesity—eating all kinds of things. And there are millions dying, and they are keeping them that way. Haiti, there is a kind of dirt they take and even eat dirt, just trying to survive. Countries in Africa, (see?) India, people on the streets, dying. Then in China, they are eating dogs and snakes, all kinds of things. People are eating bats and all kinds of different things. Yet you see all this Mc Donald's this, all the restaurants. Eating and drinking in the last days; but famine. They control it. They have power over the earth to kill with hunger. They create famine. They keep the goods and they hoard it. They keep it at a price where you can't buy it. They falsify the balances by deceit. They fix the prices. They do the trade, because they control the wealth; they control the stock.

... and with death,

That's pestilence. They make diseases. They manufacture which kind of disease for which country they want to kill. They have diseases for different kinds of races of people, and all kinds of different things too. They have different kinds of diseases that will attack different parts of your body. Do you understand what I am saying? Disease by design. They call it bioengineering. They call it genetic engineering; it's what they call it. Biotechnology is what they call it.

World War I, killed fifteen million people. After World War I was finished, almost, they said, close to a hundred million people died of Influenza worldwide. So, all the poison gas and all the different grenades and the different things, and all the wars—they burned up all the forests under the first Woe, first birth pain, pestilence killed so much more times than that, silently and quickly. You understand?

What kind of world are we living in? What kind of people we ought to be. Could you imagine if we have a prosperity message here, blinding people, talking about 'God loves a cheerful giver', (see?) just getting taken up with sports and activities and things like what the worldly church likes. But God brought a Message to show to us, we are in Satan's Eden.

This is an Eden of death. This is the extreme opposite to God's Eden of Life. Everything here gets sick and dies. Though everything looks pretty and nice, it is not original; it is perverted. Because death is life perverted. You see? Religion is the Word of God perverted to make man-made religion, hybrid religion, Jezebel religion. Impersonation of Christianity. Children of wisdom, worldly wisdom. They have no faith, living off of medication, living in the doctor's office; the doctor, you know, pumping all kinds of medicine and he does not know what he is pumping into them. And then they are religious at the same time, saying, "Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, Jesus," in church and no revelation.

But where the children of faith are, where there is revelation, there is prevailing power. Because there is no prevailing power as the revelation of the Word. There is vision, there is understanding, there are people who could recognize the devil at every one of his tricks. There is overcoming power, it's what we have today. There is faith to cast out devils. That's right. Because this is an Age of supernatural devils; you'd better have a Supernatural Gospel. You'd better have Supernatural faith.

... and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

May the Lord bless the reading of His Word. You may have your seat. Praise His wonderful Name.

A uniting time, the uniting of the powers here. Religious deception – the white horse. From the time... That which started as a saying in the first Age, ends up as the ecumenical move with the Beast ruling the whole world. That which started off as a saying – if you understand your Church Ages book; “... and in them was found the deeds of the Nicolaitans.” Not the doctrines, the deeds. The deeds became doctrine in the Pergamos Age, but in the first Age, Ephesus, Paul said, “You preach another Gospel. As the Serpent beguiled Eve, so will these come.” He told the Galatians church, message church... All Sadducees were already deceived, because they were blind, they couldn’t see Elijah, they couldn’t see Jesus, and then they did not recognize the Holy Ghost had come.

Just like denomination today. They couldn’t see Elijah at the end of the New Testament, they couldn’t see the Son of Man revealed and they can’t see the loosing of the Holy Ghost in the last days. They think they have the Holy Ghost and are living anyhow, manifesting all kinds of emotions and calling it the gifts of the Spirit; off the Word completely, don’t even know how to dress, baptized wrong and everything; believing in a false doctrine; have women preachers.

And the church is Message churches now. Inside of them you have a lot of unconverted men holding the people in foodless pastures, preaching condemnation, and holding them under fear and binding them to their person. And it’s a political control inside the church over the people. People can’t do a thing: “What are you going there for? Why are you doing that?” It’s only interrogation and investigation over people’s lives.

I’m preaching about thirty-eight years or more now and you never find me in that. I don’t want to know many of the things. God did not send me to live your life for you. And God did not send me to control your life for you. God sent me to teach you the Word; that you can know, align with the Word, you can be cleansed by the Word, and the Word can find a resting place in you, and the Word can work in you by the Spirit, and you'll become a living epistle.

That's why many times people say, "Well I don't know what to do. You'll have to make a decision for me – whatever you say."

I say, "No."

You see, that is like you want to glorify me. But that, the thing is, it is your faith, you have to overcome. And you have to know this God, and you have to know that Voice in your heart. I can't make decisions for you. You have to make your decision. I can give you... That's why I reach far as giving you counsel and giving you advice, and watch you and watch you. And then I see, many times people shirk back out from It – they can't take the Word. You see? No. The Word brings faith, and without faith it is impossible to please God.

So, if you are receiving the Word the right way, It is giving you faith. And faith is the revelation of God's will. That's how—you cannot know the will of God outside of faith. Faith is what makes known the will of God to you. Faith is when the will of God is revealed to you. You see? So, this is a great thing. This is something, isn't it?

You know, we have been having some services here in the church; we are trying to talk a little bit, so I just want to calm myself. This preaching thing, you know, too much of Word already. You see, sometimes you get there in the Spirit and the Word just starts to come out and you go flying. But I find myself in a situation, I don't know...

I looked there just now and I saw the saints in Canada. I was watching Bro. Burkhard [Bro. Burkhard Kraas -Ed.] He has been trying to help me, because we are at a spot here, and him and Sis. Doris [Sis. Doris Kraas -Ed.] are most likely going to go with me into Vilnius, Lithuania and Moscow. And I don't want to go. I am watching him there. “Burkhard, I don’t want to go.” I mean, we are doing our best. I am just going through the procedure so far, but in my heart it is like...

I got up this morning... I studied until close to... I left the office some minutes to five—some minutes to four I left. Then I went there, at five, I still can’t fall asleep. The mind is too alert, and you know. I maybe sleep for a couple of hours. And I get up, and it is like in little bits and pieces. And I was telling my wife; I said, “Girl,” I said, “oh gosh, when I think I have to travel, go in this place, sit down, you know... I am looking for a quiet time. I want a quiet time.”

But these people went ahead and they booked a hall in a hotel and rented a villa and advertised for all these ministers in different parts of Eastern Europe and these places to come. Because they wanted what we had here with them. Many of these men couldn’t be here, so they have this and... This is something by itself, you know.

Now in one way, I would like to be there to preach some of these things, but then in another way, you get there... Because I preach this for you here, it does not mean anything for you here. If I go into Moscow and start to talk about Mr. Putin and the kings of the east and what they are doing, that is their news; that is their activity. That is what is happening in Ukraine. These brothers were here. That is what is happening right there in that region, you know.

But I am preaching here, you know, I am trying to keep it Abel, ‘Abelized’ a little bit – you know, Abel country, what we are doing; where we are trying to go and so on. Then we go outside, we walk on the compound and we relax.

And outside there in Donetsk where those brothers are, you know, one of the brothers who died recently, it is because they were shelling the place, you know. And he ran outside to tell one of the neighbors who was coming out. They thought, well, maybe things were over and he tried to warn them, and said, “No, you all get back in the house.” Some shrapnel hit the house, flew, and hit him, and he died. This is the brother who used to help us get our visa when we go there. He is the one who used to apply for the invitations and so on. And so, you know, you see... And we had about three pastors here from Donetsk here, you know.

And so, you know, in their region this is the Word and these are the things that can really have value to them. I would like to maybe do that, but then I have the next side of me. So, I’m just going, kind of one foot, like the Lord has to pull me or push me or something. So, we will see how this goes. If I have to go, then that means I will leave here maybe Sunday night, if that could work out. And if I don’t have to go, well I would be glad I am here. So it doesn’t matter what, I could just be home. But when I know what that is going to take friends, you know....

Russia is not like America; it is not like Canada. If I go there, maybe I will get a certain amount of comfort and I can relax and...

Remember, I have been preaching since the beginning of the year. We went out there: Philippines, Indonesia, China; we came back; went to Australia; come back, you know. Then I am preaching all the services. And then to take out now to go there to have sessions twice a day with ministers and different things, you know. And then when that finishes, they want to go and have a sauna. And this is one hundred and twenty degrees heat inside this room, and then it is ice cold freezing water on top of you going through this thing here, you know, which I enjoy it sometimes, but I can’t see myself right now wanting to go through this, because all of that would be like torture, you know.

So, I am just trusting by God’s grace that something just works out. I say, “Lord, You know I belong to You.

You have rights of ownership over me.” You know, He said, “When you come out of the field and you come in the house, do I say, ‘Go and attend to yourself?’ He said, “No. You go and gird yourself and come and serve me. And then I’ll appoint a time for you.” I live my life like that because these are Scriptures opened to me to understand His rights of ownership over us.

So that’s why, you know—that’s why He told Paul, “My grace is sufficient for you. Let’s not talk about this. Don’t bring up this conversation any more about you’re sick and you’re sick and different things.” And then Paul said, “Then I will glory in my infirmities. When I am weak, I am strong. His strength is made perfect in my weakness.”

He has to teach me, because sometimes God, you know, deals with people a certain way. It is not like, you know, a kind of Pentecostal understanding of God. We understand that earth is the testing ground. You don’t choose what you want to do, you get orders and you pack them out. We are prisoners. He wants preeminence. He purchased a people to have preeminence. He wants empty vessels. You see. This is not convenience – “I serve God when it is convenient to me.” This is, He wants His work done, you know. And the King’s business requires haste. But I just trust the King has a little mercy, you know.

Well, let’s talk about the Word a little bit this morning. “THE WAY BEING PREPARED FOR THE KINGS OF THE EAST”.

I’m in Daniel, but I’m reading a little background here, so I want to go to Revelation 16 now. Revelation 6, 7 and 8 – that is the Seal. This is the Vial. Seal is Redemption, Vial is judgment. And the Message will be a little deep this morning; maybe in one or two places I’ll try my best to make it as simple as I can. I have been enjoying talking to you, coming down, breaking down things for the young ones. And I just feel that’s where I wanted to be, and that’s why I want to stay home because I've been enjoying preaching to the younger ones; and you know, seeing them being blessed and catching the faith and being provoked to walk a little closer and that is what my heart's desire was.

So, this is an Hour where you see these big industrialized powers – extermination for possession and expansion. They are killing to possess the resources of people so they can expand their borders and they can increase their influence in different parts of the world, because they are no longer thinking like a little State. They are thinking like an empire. The same way a man and his company—he has a small company looking for good workers. He gets four or five good workers who could produce and maybe cause his company to grow. Well, these people are looking for countries; they are not looking for one or two people, they are looking for countries – smaller countries to become tributary to them, you know. So, that is why they call 'here' the Organization of American States; all of this whole Caribbean.

The number of casinos they have opened, the amount of pressure, the number of hotels they have opened because, why? When they come down for the nightlife and these things, they want a place where, you know, they can just do what they want. They have to go on the beach naked, they have to just sit and sunbathe and all these different things. You see? This is the kind of life.

And so, they want to turn 'here' into tourist destinations. They want to make the people's children around here—people walking around with a waiter and they are passing and they kind of almost close their eyes and put it there for the lady who came down here to sunbathe, you know. You go up to clean the room there, there are problems, because these places are little 'banana' Republics. They don't have any army, they don't have any navy, they don't have any air force. They don't have these things here. See?

And then when they come down as somebody who comes from a superpower and they come in here—these little economies here; they are depending on the US dollar because that is 6.49 (how much it is) to 1. So, they could charge eighty dollars US for a room that isn't really twenty dollars US. But because it is tourism, you know, they jack up that price. That's why when you go to stay in Tobago or some place, you get a local price. They don't get any local price, they get the tourist price because that is how they make their revenue and these things.

Now all these things are fixed, you know. This is not a man fixing anything, you know. Because if this is not fixed there, nobody is coming here. Because to come here, you have to get flights to land there. If you don't even have the size of an airport to land a big plane there, nothing can come. And people are not coming [with] three or four connections to end up in a place and when they reach, they can't find a taxi at 10 o'clock in the night. And they are not coming to go to bed at 8 o'clock in the evening when these little places shut down. They want nightlife. Do you understand?

So sometimes, you know, you look at the world and you don't understand the world, you look at the region and you don't understand the region; but that's why some of this preaching educates you in a way too, so it broadens your scope, so it makes the Word relevant. Otherwise, you are in one of these little places; you are just religious, you just want to go to church and talk about Jesus in a way that you can't see the Word coming to pass; what is prophesied.

Sometimes, we walk around here and we get so much of the local indoctrination that makes us think that we are proud to be a Trinidadian, and Trinidadian this, and Trinidadian this, the Red Steel, and put on your red, and the Soca Warriors, and... They don't win anything. [Red Steel and Soca Warriors are the Trinidad and Tobago Cricket and Football teams' local names –Ed.] Do you understand what I am saying? But this is really for national pride, but in the world-realm when FIFA came down and they did their thing there, you know... That's why corruption is in this place so full, because there is no real patriotism; all of this is just talk.

Look at how many years, look at how many resources were discovered and look at the standard of living of people still. Yet it is better than many other places. You see, because certain places, even though they are small, they have strategic importance. And this island has strategic importance. Geopolitics, they call it; (see?) because of the location. That's why we are the most southerly of the Caribbean chain of islands. We are right between—we here can fly into South America, we can fly into the United States, we can fly into England, we can fly into Canada and can fly into Europe. Do you understand? So, only because of the location where we are and because of the resource oil, then the big ships and the tankers and they, that deal in this commodity... Here is a transshipment port. Because we are right close to Central America that links North and South America and then we... So our strategic importance puts us in a better position than many of the other Caribbean islands. You see?

And that's why God—now all of this is part of God's working, okay, because here has to have a little of everything. That's why here has the human trafficking. That's why all of this thing in the court they have these Colombian women there in prostitution, and they want to deport them and so on, because they have local men bringing these people in through the back door. These are what you call—they give it a more glamourized name, they call it sex workers for the sex trade. And then they traffic people. Because it is one of the only commodities you could use it over and over and over and over and it doesn't finish. The big bag of cocaine runs out, the bag of marijuana runs out. You understand what I am saying? So the drug trade or the arms and they get outdated. But a woman, they use her over and over and over and over. And by the time she is a little too old for that kind of trade, they just move her off and they get a younger stock.

And that is why a lot of destinations, when people are coming in here, like we do the Carnival, the Carnival is really sex tourism, you know, behind culture. That is why every year it is becoming more ridiculous until the people are almost naked. And they are advertising all these naked people in the paper from quite [since] in March, and as soon as Carnival is finished, they start to tell you what they are bringing out next year. And because of the internet now that is going everywhere. So when people see this now, and they see how the bands and what the women are looking like and what the designers are doing, well, everybody wants to be down here for that time. Because all these parties and all these big fetes until they wet down people and everybody is kind of wet and... Anything to kind of bring the revelry and the crave for flesh and... And then the music, the soca music and things excite the passions in the people to make them savage and full of revelry.

What, you think it's culture? Some of you are ashamed. You don't even see things. You see, it is how you look. It is how you look. It is when you look, what do you see?

The Word teaches you this. It is the Word that teaches you this. It is Word that taught me this. Because there is nothing new under the sun. Because if you go in Genesis, Joseph is being sold. The Ishmaelites, he was part of a stock. When they reached Egypt, Cairo, and they came out and they opened up the stock and they brought them out, Potiphar came around and he watched this little boy. And the man is boasting, "He could [speak] two languages, three languages, you know. And he is wise. He has administrative skills and so on. Watch the boy's teeth." And they open the boy's mouth and they check all the boy's teeth, no cavity, okay. Looks healthy, check him, here, put certain stress points. He did not buckle and fall, you know. "Take a little run here and come back quickly." He is not blowing.

He says, "Okay, good investment. I want him. I will pay you so much for him."

Then they put him in the field to work. Then another day he passes now and he realizes, everything this boy does is prospering.

He said, "How is this working so?"

The man said, "That fellow," he said, "he has some kind of administrative skills." He said, "I am moving him from here. Promotion. I am putting him in the house in charge of the affairs."

You see?

When you read the Word, just that thing about human trafficking; Joseph was being human trafficked. That was the seed that's in Genesis. When you go to Revelation 18, it tells you that she deals in the souls of men. That's why you see when you watch all these big world cups that passed and they were paying so much money for this player and money for this player, that's a market. The players are the commodity.

Say, "What kind of skills do you have?"

He said, "I could juggle a ball on my head. I could do this."

He said, "Yes, those are tricks. That is good for a little circus." He said, "Let me see you run for ninety minutes. Let me see if you are able to handle some tough defenders." He said, "No, you are not ready yet. We can't invest our money in him." You see? "You get homesick here. Two weeks you are up here you are calling mommy and daddy and... No, no, no. We don't have time for that." You see?

You want to settle down and marry right away.

He said, “No, no, no, no. We did not come here to make you social. We come here to put you out to play for ninety minutes. We want to pack a stadium here. We want to sell jerseys. We want to sell all kinds of paraphernalia. This is an investment. This is a business. What do you think it is? Glamor life? You sit in your living room and watch plenty of European cup football and then you come up here to kind of just party?” He said, “No, no, no, forget that. You came up here to play. There are certain people who will come and knock on the door in the morning and ring that bell and they don’t see you on the pitch five in the morning getting warmed up and so on and it’s cold and you say, “It’s too cold. Well, I find it cold.”

He said, “Well, you should have known all of that when you signed that contract. The money caught your eye?”

Before they know it, they break their spirit and they make them over. They get obedient. They realize that’s the slave master. He pulled the chain. When he rattles the chain, you fall in line. It happens in your industry. They say there is new management and they are coming, and they call it micro—they say, “You all had managers before, but we are the micro-managers.” He said, “Too many people here are overpaid and they are under-producing, so this is not working here at all.” He said, “We have to restructure here. They don’t have qualifications for this job. Some political thing, you know, ‘curry favor’ put this man inside of here because the last man, he liked the fellow’s sister or something, so he gets a job and fits him in.” He said, “That is not working here at all.”

They strip that down after a while. You don’t have that. You understand? That is the real world, friends.

That is why you are in things, and some of you who are working in the industry, some of you are doing work in different places, and then sometimes get exposed to where people have no real consideration, where to them, you know, they don't want to know how you feel. They know this is work time and you are sitting on the job. And then you get a threat. First, you get a little warning. Then the second time you get a threat. Then they call you in the office and they tell you, "I realize that you don't like your job. We have quite a few other applicants that want this job. This is your last warning. You will collect your salary on Friday and go. We tried to give you an opportunity; we opened a door for you."

This is an Hour here you could be a slave still in your mind or you can come to the place where Godliness with contentment is great gain. What makes people want to live in a certain place is the influence and the impact of society upon their mind. They want to live a little high on the high end. Because for years they are watching that life that they call successful life and they are trying to live there. That is not any successful life. That is a successful life? You see? And that's why we have to come down to get a reality check and realize the Word.

You see that is a next world, you know. That's when your mind is trapped in the virtual world. When your thinking gets filtered and you get a holy man's taste, you are coming to the world now and you understand what the world is. You understand you are a pilgrim and stranger and here you are passing through here on your way to that Fair City. And you begin to understand your place and you take your place in God's economy.

And saints, this may rub you the wrong way sometimes, but it's not intentional. I am just talking and trying to show you if you know your Age, if you know your Time, if you know your Season, if you understand the world; and that's why some of this preaching I go down these kinds of lines and kind of show you, because a lot of you go after certain things in life and then you end up with no faith because you bypassed God's program to lean on your own understanding and walk by sight, so you end up with no faith. You may have more money than somebody else, but you feel that security, so you could pay for a doctor bill, you could do for this here, you could buy what you want to eat, and you kind of feel good about that. But in the end when the Squeeze comes and that money gets devalued and you don't have anything, you are going to see how much of an unbeliever you are. You are not really living an overcoming life. You have no expectations because you are just relying on a piece of paper with a print on it marked twenty, or fifty or a hundred and kind of—you have a few of these papers in your pocket. It's best that you have faith in your heart. It's best that you have wisdom in your soul and then you are rich. Do you understand?

And you don't evaluate people by clothes and money and food and these things. You evaluate a man by what comes out of the man, what you are seeing there. He could be a rich crook. He could be a poor gentleman. That's right. The tree is known by the fruit. It is not whether the tree is fifty feet tall or it is eight feet tall. It is what it is bearing.

That is why when you look you have to have values, you have to have discernment, you have to know what pleases you. And that is why many believers many times get trapped into that. You find you are going to live healthier, you are going to live happier, and the joy of the Lord will be your strength when you don't have a lot of things to give you worries. That's right. You are worrying over this and you are worrying over that and you are worrying over this.

Who put you there? You put yourself there. You have too much baggage to leave behind when you are getting ready to go. That is what happened to Lot's wife; she got into the soft life. That is what happened to Lot; he got too much political thinking. When the Angel said, "Go here," he couldn't take orders.

He said, "No, let me go in that cave over there."

You don't want to live your life that way. Be wise. If this Message did not bring this kind of wisdom, and you are telling me, you are in this Message and "Bro. Branham says, and Bro. Branham..." Ah! You are a sounding brass and tinkling cymbal. Because that is not the Message. The Message came to enlighten you. The Message came to wake you up. The Message came to teach you what life is. The Message came and taught you purpose in life, purpose on the earth, the Hour you are living in, what God is doing. And God doesn't change His mind. If God says, "I am doing this in this Age," and you want to carry God in another direction, you want God to bless you in another channel, and God said, "No, this is how... I called you. Come out of her, My people, come out from among them. Come out here and walk with Me here."

You say, "But it doesn't have anything here. Look how Moses brought us here in the desert. We were better here in Egypt. No watermelon here, no onion, no garlic, no this here. I would have been in the doctor's office. I had my appointment."

Moses said, "Look and live. Watch here. Look and live. Everybody will be healed right now."

Enemy comes against them. War. Amalek. God said, "Don't worry about them at all. They already—because I am bringing you out. I sent My Angel to bring you into what? The place I prepared for you. Amalek is just a road bump. That is a bump in the road. That is an obstacle that you are going to bypass and move on. He is not stopping you anywhere, anywhere." God...

Then when God had enough of it, He said, "I will blot Amalek's name out from under Heaven for what he is trying to do to My people, because when he comes against My people, Amalek comes against Me!"

That's where I want to live. I want to live "leaning on the everlasting arms. What have I to dread, what have I had to fear. I have blessed peace with my Lord so near." [#312 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

He's the comforter of my soul. He is my satisfying portion. Thou the Spring of all comfort, more than life to me. Whom have I on earth beside Thee and who in Heaven but Thee. [#34 - Songs That Live -Ed.] That's right. That is what you what, friends.

I have anchored my soul in the Haven of Rest. I will sail the wild seas no more; The tempest may sweep o'er the wild, stormy deep, But in Jesus, In Jesus, I'm safe evermore. [#151 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

On Christ the Solid Rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand. [#126 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

See, when you get down in the Word, when you can find God's provided way, when you could live under the Headship and the Leadership of the Holy Spirit, when you only have to say a whisper of prayer. It is always better to live closer to God than with all kinds of men in the world. I am just content to serve God to walk with Him. He is my joy. I could be by myself with Him and I am happy. I am happy. I'm overflowing.

Last night I sat down until my neck couldn't raise up any more. I stayed up from about twelve o'clock until about four o'clock the next morning I'm there. But it is my soul I am feeding. It is not like I'm studying with a headache to get something to preach. No, it is my soul I am feeding. And all through that, I'm saying, "Lord, I thank You, God, for Your Word." I got up this morning and I started to see something else, I said, "Lord, Your Word." I'm happy.

Look, I came to preach but I'm sensitive to the Spirit, that's why I want to talk to you a little bit. Because, some of the things I am going into, five people in here or six may understand what I am saying. So that's why I am trying to stop here a little bit and kind of talk and build a little faith and reach out for somebody else. Because when you go into Vials and Seals and these kinds of things here, you know, people hear it, but the thing is, who can grasp it? The things that I am going into, you have to know what is going on in the world today. Who is following what is happening in the world today? Who understands why these wars and things are coming out here? You see? But the thing is, all of this is in the Word. Just like this in here is the Word too. But this is in the Spiritual realm where the Bride part is. Out there is the political part: what Russia and they are doing, what the United States and they are doing. They are nations in prophecy too. All of that makes up the End Time scene in the last days. They are fulfilling their prophecy. We are fulfilling ours. When we see how it is moving together, it brings a faith, it brings an expectation, you know God is speaking, God is revealing. You can look and see the time. Because when you know where they are, you can understand where you are.

You could imagine if you see them setting down the mark here and you here?

You'll say, "Oh God, we missed the Rapture!"

You don't want to live like that. When you see, as I said, using the terms recently, Daniel was seeing the image being set up. That was not set up in a day, friends. They had to find the location, they found the right place, because all the peoples of the kingdom, and they have people from all over the world that they conquered and they came to Babylon. They are under Babylon headship. Babylon, one-world government, one-world economy, one-world religion, and then they had a time now to inaugurate this thing fully where everybody, from the sound of the music, had to start to fall and bow and worship and these things. And then they have laws passed that if you do not do that, you shall be killed and these things.

And when you see how that is set up in the season when they start to set up that... Like us seeing all this that we went through here with Pope Francis and all these different things, and we went back to Pope Paul when the moon blacked out, when that was the open door to the antichrist, that was the falling away, that was the apostasy that started there, and a Prophet saw that and he had drawn that on the wall and the Pillar of Fire came and drew it over. He had drawn it by vision. Then God threw it in the Heavens when the Pope did that. Then he came to the church and brought the message Shalom. And then fifty years after, they came to commemorate that and did something unprecedented: brought a Muslim and a Rabbi and went there and stood there and then went to the wall that they put up there, a security barrier against the Palestinians and they, and he walked, he stopped the thing and walked out there and prayed there and gave that recognition and importance just like the one in Jerusalem, the western wall, to send a message to the world. See?

So that's why when you see these things and you hear the Word... When the invasion of locusts was going on, what did Joel say? "Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain."

You see, many people do not watch and see where they need to be when certain things are happening. He said, "Bring a fast; sanctify yourself, bring a fast, cry out to God, get close," because that invasion of locusts is coming. He said, "When they pass through the land, it will be like a desert." And that is now. That is now. You see?

So that's why in the world today sometimes we get in these prophetic things, if you can't keep the Word in remembrance and retain the teaching, or revisit the things you are taught to better understand what is happening. Because remember, you have to teach that over and over you know. That is like you saying, "This bus is leaving here at San Fernando wharf. It is going to go straight into Port-of-Spain by city gate." And you already said what the destination of it is. And then every time you check on the bus, they say, “It is now in Marbella.”

You say, “Well, by the next few minutes it’s going to be here in Claxton Bay.” Then you could estimate where it is in Couva. When it reaches Chaguanas, something happens and you say, “Here is the bus in Chaguanas.” And you see half of that has already been fulfilled. From the time you see they turn on the east-west corridor and are heading into Port-of-Spain, you know the thing is coming down to its complete fulfillment.

And that is how the Word is. From the time you see Elijah come with the Message and start to call a people out, you say, “Where is She now? Where is the Bride now?” She begins to wake up and recognize Her part of the Word. It makes a cycle and comes back around. She is moving now to a certain channel. She is prophesying among the nations. Then it comes to a place now She is coming into Rapturing Faith. She is coming close to a sin-free Church. It’s the same way. It’s the same way.

What was Jehu doing? He was standing here in the chariot watching Ahab and Jezebel kill and going to possess Naboth’s vineyard. Then he is anointed. Then he is going forth to root out the thing. And then you actually are seeing now how the people—Elijah’s prophecy that the dogs will lick Ahab’s blood and eat Jezebel’s flesh; you actually see how that progression of that part of the Word is going.

Well, so these things are. And that’s why you have to—when you are not retaining the Word, and you say Jehu, asking people, “Jehu, who is Jehu again? Am, what is he really about again? You see? That’s when you are not understanding the picture. A lot of other things come into your mind and clog the picture. Well, every time you keep seeing that, your expectation is rising because you keep watching yourself too and seeing where you need to be in this Hour.

And the thing is, don't get under any pressure trying to understand this in service while it is being preached. As much you can hear, hear. As much as you could retain, retain. As much as you can pray in your heart while the Word is coming forth, say, "Lord, teach me. Write it in my heart." Because the Spirit of God comes back around, brings it—what does the Holy Ghost do? Bring it back to remembrance. Then teach you further on it. And leads you and guides you into all of it. So is not—your dependence is not here. Here is, I am just giving you the ingredients. Your communication with the Holy Spirit, your desiring that Inside Teacher to teach you. I am just the outside teacher, but the Holy Ghost will make this plain. And the benefits of an outside teacher is: that could be broken down, that could be connected, that could be put together so you start to see a picture. And when you see that picture comes and it drops in your heart, then God knows, okay, so it is in there now. So He comes now and starts to open it up now and starts to bring things relevant to you so you can benefit from what He has given unto you.

And so, many times what happens is that people get under a pressure, "I don't understand this, I don't understand this," and they are trying to understand everything right there. Don't fight up.

That's why some women can't get pregnant. You know that? They're too tense. "I want to have a baby. I want to have a baby. Oh God, I want to have a baby!" You don't get a baby by worrying and being tense. Get relaxed. Say, "Honey, I love you. You are such a wonderful husband. I'm so glad, you know." And don't even start to think about it and start to talk and say, "You know when we have our baby, it will be so nice. Think of yourself as a dad, sometimes. Could you imagine, I'm in the kitchen trying to prepare the meal and you're rocking the baby, honey," and the two of them enjoying that and laughing and so on. Next thing you know, the baby comes. You see? When she goes to the doctor, he says, "Okay." He starts to explain all kinds of genetics, "Okay. It's a cycle (this). It's so, so and so and your hormones..." He confuses the poor woman here; she kind of gets tense now, "You have to keep this here. You have to watch this. You have to check this. You have to..." It doesn't come like that.

Ask the people with ten and twelve children inside of here. Ask those with five, six and seven children inside of here. It doesn't come like that. Sometimes it comes and then you are kind of a little shocked. "It came too quickly. Oh gosh!" You get under pressure. You say, "How would you take care of this? How would you 'mind' [take care of -Ed.] this child here. Look, this one came too close to the first one here. What is going on here?" You see?

And it is so with the Word. For the Word, the seed of the Word to conceive in you, to bring forth this Life, you can't be under tension; "Oh God, I don't understand this. I think I have to go and buy a concordance. I think I have to go and get this over here. I think I have to go and get a commentary. I think I have to go and get this over here." You are working up yourself. You are getting stressed out. Revelation doesn't come that way.

What was the king doing? Meditating. Remember we were teaching that right. There is a God in Heaven Who reveals secrets. And how did God reveal a secret to the king? He was meditating on, "what will be in the latter time". And 'boom' it came. And when the interpretation came to Daniel, Daniel said, "You were on your bed. You were thinking about what was going to befall you in the latter time. And you went to sleep and a dream came to you." This is how it is.

Just relax in God's Presence. Just trust Him. Because remember, God wants to give the Revelation.

God knows you have no prevailing power unless He gives you the Revelation. God knows the Word is not a Lamp unto your feet, and a Light unto your pathway, until It is revealed to you. God knows you don't even have faith until It is quickened to you. So, God knows His job. He knows His job. And God doesn't want any barren Church. You understand? God doesn't want any barren Church. The Bible said, "We shall not be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of Jesus Christ."

Let's go to Revelation 16, verses 12 to 16. So, I took the little time there to talk to you a little bit and relax you, and bring you down a little bit from that lofty place we started off with. You see, the Word is simple, you know, and sometimes maybe I put out quite a lot, but I—it is my way of preaching too, and then it's something you always have to go back to. You don't hear it once and then get it. You have to go back to it, because these things take months and months, and years and it is the same Truth opening further and further and—because you stay with It.

Verse 12; this is the sixth Vial here. And this is something important. Now the reason I am... You heard my title: "THE WAY BEING PREPARED FOR THE KINGS OF THE EAST". And, The Iron Curtain And The Bamboo Curtain Unites Against The Purple Curtain. Because this is something I'm seeing and watching happening in the world. And just like I said they're setting up the image, Daniel was seeing them setting up the image; Daniel was seeing the kings diverting the river bed, too. Are you catching that? Well, Daniel saw Babylon; we are seeing Mystery Babylon. End Time Daniels are seeing Mystery Babylon. Are you catching that? So Daniel knew what was going to happen to Babylon by the revelations God gave him.

Do you know what is going to happen to Mystery Babylon? How do you know that? The same Jeremiah who prophesied... Catch this. The same Jeremiah who prophesied, “Babylon will rule the world.” God said, “I have given them every nation. Put your neck under the yoke.” Men were prophesying and saying, “In two years we’re coming out.” God told Jeremiah, “Make one of iron. Tell them to marry and live. They are not coming out until seventy years.” Hananiah tried to make a show, and God took him off the earth the same year for contradicting Jeremiah. Because God’s Word was going forth and God wanted it to go forth unobstructed. And especially by Israelites who were playing so much politics, handling the Word of God deceitfully to make it look nice for the people and mislead the people.

You see, God takes things seriously, you know. When God has an anointed vessel bringing that Word, laying it straight and you find, “I don’t think so,” and then you come with a different thought to deviate from that and you’re not checking the continuity of the Spirit and are not watching the line of the Word and you’re just contradicting that because you find, “Well, if it was me, I wouldn’t do it like that,” you could get into real trouble with God, you know. No, that’s right. That’s Bible. I gave you the Scripture right there. This is not to put down anything, I’m trying to show you how Satan—this is the way Satan works.

Remember when Paul was trying to deliver the man? (Look the Scripture came to me like that.) And the mayor and then Bar-Jesus, Simon Bar-Jesus; Paul said, “Thou child of the devil. You will be blind for a season. Why dost thou pervert the right ways of God?” Because he was contradicting what Paul was saying. Because he had this man under control. But though he was seeing the man being loosed and the man seeing Truth, he was trying to bring the man back in the cage he had him in, under his influence. Because that man was a big Mayor. Maybe that man was a key for him. Because the man was in the upper echelons of society, had good political office and these things, so he wanted to hold that man under his control.

So, verse 12:

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

And then verses 13 to 16 are in parenthesis; between the Sixth and Seventh Vial. So, let's continue to read.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

Now all these things are in the Bible in the Old Testament. The kings of the east are in the Book of Daniel. The unclean spirit coming out of the mouth, is in 1st Kings 22, in the time of Micaiah. You understand? So what you are reading here is Old Testament things put there. Daniel, Kings, they are put inside of there. Now, this is a... Again, this is a thing with the Bible. Now remember, the Bible is God's thoughts. You are just reading Scripture like that and you are not familiar with what you are reading. Then the next thing is like, you are seeing God making a connection between something in Daniel and something in Kings and bringing it between the Sixth and Seventh Vial right for this Hour. You understand? What is it that God is saying? That history is going to repeat in the last days.

Hmm. I see so many things I want to say right there. That will just carry me off again. So, let me finish reading.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth...

Did you catch something there? Verse 12 is talking about the kings of the east. Verse 14 is talking about the kings of the earth. The kings of the east are kings of the same earth too, because they did not come from Mars, but they are not in the same alliance. Maybe they could have been before.

You say, "What are you getting at?" I am getting to my subject. Because a new alliance is being formed between Russia and China and Iran and India and all these places. And they are trading no more in the US dollar and these things. And it is the merging of a new block, trade block here. And it is not one or two dollars. They make historic things, over four hundred billion dollars agreement and different things.

Now, when you see this now, you and I may not fully understand all the ramifications that go with that. But the economists in the world and the ministers of finance and the ministers of national security and the ministers of foreign policy and foreign affairs in countries, big countries like Germany and France and England and the United States and they; when they see that happening, that sends up flags. Because they know that is going to bring pressure in the world in the stock market and these things. That is going to weaken certain people.

Because when you shift currency and you are using your own currency now and you by-pass the general way where the people whose currency the trade is being done isn't profiting, and then they are aligned with the Roman power and she controls a lot of the stock.

And these people realize, since you all are putting pressure on us and since you all are demonizing us and since you all are doing all these things, well, we don't really have to get along with you." Because you got them angry. "And then, since you are dominant and you are seeing you alone are the superpower and you are giving everybody orders and saying they should do this and do that and do that and you are invading who you want. And because you control the media, if we do something then you have that day and night in the news, messing up people's minds and showing that we are trying to destabilize the world and make it unsafe and do different things. "

Because America wants to control the world. America is the military might of the Vatican. You think America is—how do you see the Bible in this Age? That's why the Seals opened. When we say 'Seals' – "Shut up the Words, Daniel." Third Pull, "Open the Word, Malachi 4." Open what is shut up. The opening of the Word. And what is the opening of the Word? The Mysteries revealed. Because how was it shut up? In symbol form. Who shut it up? A prophet. Then they were going to come through—all through the church Ages; no prophet. One in the first Age and one in the last Age. So you have to wait until in the last Age when that Spirit comes to reveal. This one is not coming to reform, this one is coming to reveal. That is why that kind of Anointing opens the Word, reveals the Word, ties the Word together, and makes it plain. That doesn't just come and read back things, because that's the Spirit and the Bride; that same Spirit. What the Spirit said through the Prophet is being said through the Bride. It's just reiterated.

Micaiah was only saying back what Elijah said, because he saw the Hour. See?

*¹⁴ For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the
kings of the earth...*

See? Under the Sixth Vial we were talking about the kings of the East. See, the Vial is poured where? On the great river Euphrates. What happened when it was poured there?

¹² ... and the water was dried up,

Now all of this is prophetic language, this is 'symbol'.

*... that the way of the kings of the east
might be prepared.*

What for? A way being prepared for the kings of the east? What are they going to do? What are they raised up to do? God has the fall of Babylon in mind. God already prophesied, 'Babylon is fallen, is fallen. Strong is the Lord that judged her'. When He came as Kinsman Avenger, when He came as Judge, Supreme Judge, did we see Him with a White Wig? Did He open the Seven Seals? When He opened that First Seal and that first rider went forth; white horse, red horse. That is those same four stages of the same worm. How many know that? That is locust, palmerworm, cankerworm and caterpillar – those four horses. Read the Seals book. Roman bugs are always against the Jews and always against the Church! Who killed sixty-eight million? The Romans. Who destroyed Jerusalem? The Romans. That is right. Who is going to rule the world in the last days? The Romans!

Roman Catholic – from Pagan Rome, it became what? Papal Rome, and had more success. And what are we living in? The revived Roman Empire! Which kingdom is to come after her? The One from Heaven. And in the days of those ten toes, the God of Heaven will do what? While they are setting up an image, the God of Heaven will set up His Kingdom.

You get that? While they are setting up the image, God is setting up His Kingdom in the hearts of his believers! What does Hebrews 12 say? "We have received a Kingdom that cannot be removed!" The whole world is falling apart; everything that can be shaken will be shaken off, but a Word has come. What will that Word do? Change us, bring us into immortality; it's what that Word will do. Thy Word, have I hid in my heart. What is the secret? The Word is in the Bride and not even death can harm her. If the seed is planted, it will be watered; She will become an invincible army, a Super Race, a Super Church in the last days.

This is the Hour, this is the Hour. Is this what we are a part of? Is this what we are a part of? Is this what this church is all about? Then, this has to be a special kind of church. Could you be in something if you don't know it? Could it have an effect on you if you don't know it? Then only God makes that known. That is what God made known, because that is what was sealed up in the Book. That is what troubled Daniel.

When we were on the 'Nimrod' portion of it; of Babylon... We are in the 'Daniel' portion of Babylon. And then, the 'Nimrod' portion and the 'Daniel' portion (or I should say) the 'Nebuchadnezzar' portion, were gathered up in the 'man of sin' portion of Babylon. It is the same Babylon; three stages. And from Eber, to Daniel, to us. Of course! Because we are in the Mystery Babylon. Eber and they understood what Nimrod was doing. Daniel and they knew what Nimrod was doing. Jeremiah and they knew what Nimrod was doing. Jeremiah prophesied that Babylon will rule the whole world, because God gave Judah the last nation... He had already gathered the great and mighty Gentile nations and the last one he took was the Jews. He gathered all the Gentile nations already. He already conquered them: Hindus, Muslims, everybody; Pentecostals, Catholics, Baptists, everybody. Everybody is going back to Rome. The last one that they want is the Jews.

Daniel 9:27, made a covenant that Moses and Elijah will rise in Revelation 11 to call a people out. Is that right? Okay. But here on this side, there are some Gentiles, a remnant, according to the election of grace who are not going into that; the spiritual Daniels who understand and are looking and seeing them setting up the image. Well, the same way that Nebuchadnezzar was doing that there, Daniel was seeing the image being set up; a forced worship came together with it and a capital punishment for those who refused. This is some of the foundation for the doctrine of the Squeeze and persecution. This is where you get the Scriptures for that from. That is the beginning of the Gentile dispensation, and we are in the end of the Gentile dispensation. To understand the end of the Gentile dispensation you have to go back to the beginning of the Gentile dispensation.

So when we see the Euphrates here, the first time you read about Euphrates is in Genesis 2, and a river went out of Eden and broke up into four heads: Pison and Gihon and Hiddekel and Euphrates. The first two are not mentioned any more in the Bible. Daniel 10 – Hiddekel is mentioned. And Daniel—and then Euphrates is mentioned down through the Bible all the way here [where] we are reading it in Revelation.

So when you see something in Revelation, you go back and find what it is. When you read something—because why? Babylon was one of the wonders of the world. According to the history, there has never been a more beautiful city on earth than Babylon. It became a wonder of the world – the hanging gardens of Babylon. Jerusalem was something special in the time of Solomon. See? But even at the end of Solomon's reign, it started to get polluted because of all the idolatry that started to come in. Because Jerusalem is called what? Perfection of beauty. Joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion. See? And so, when you look there, Nimrod built Babel on the river of Euphrates, because being inspired by Lucifer who knew the mysteries in Heaven that out of the Heavenly Jerusalem came forth a river from the Throne. David wrote Psalm 46. Ezekiel 47, Ezekiel sees the vision of this great river flowing from the Throne. John, in Revelation 22, speaks of this river flowing from the Throne of God. There is a river. He that is athirst, let him come and drink. The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come and drink." Jesus said, "He that believeth in Me, as the Scripture saith, out of his innermost being shall flow rivers (plural) of Living Water (singular), which is the Holy Ghost.

Like He told the women at the well, if you are thirsting, look at what you have; but I'll give you water. I'll give you water, you will never thirst again. That's what the Bride has in this Hour. Out of Her comes that fountain. Her streams, (that's why it's being streamed into all the earth) makes glad the City of God, foursquare, where the delegates of God are upon the face of the earth. Makes glad the City of God. It brings joy. The river is clear as crystal proceeding from the Throne.

No polluted Word; clear as crystal, fresh, effervescent Quickening. That's right! The Spirit-filled Church in the last days. Eden was the first—was the garden. That was a mystery of the Bride: My Wife, My Sister, My Spouse. She is My Garden. And out of the garden came forth a river. A river went forth out of Eden that watered the garden. And medicinal trees were fresh. Fruit trees, shade trees were fresh. Everything, the lamb was drinking from it, the lion was drinking from it. Every beast, every power, every tree, everything, they lived by the river in the garden. A mystery of the first Church, amen, who was God's garden, (hallelujah!) that the King would come in and eat His pleasant fruits. Hallelujah! They were bearing nine fruits. Is that right? They were bearing nine gifts. Is that right? They were planted by the rivers of waters Psalm 1. Their leaves shall not wither. It was a mystery of the garden.

Paul said, "You are God's garden, you are God's husbandry," opening the mystery. And the garden, the Tree of Life is in the midst of the garden. You can't eat from that and die at all. And that Tree has been down in God's Church in every Age. You couldn't eat from Abraham, and die. You couldn't eat from Isaac, and die. You couldn't eat from Jacob when he was changed, and die. You couldn't eat from Joseph, and die. You couldn't eat from Moses, and die. You couldn't eat from Joshua, and die. You couldn't eat from Samuel, and die. They were anointed, they were the Word manifested. They were the mystery of Christ in their day.

Joseph was Christ, Abraham was Christ, Isaac was Christ. They all were Christ, the identified Christ of all Ages, the Tree of Life Himself. This is the great thing. You couldn't eat from Brother Branham, and die. You can't eat from the Bride, and die, because She is saying what he said. She is—the river is in the City. The Lamb is in the City. That's right. You see?

That's why it's such a great thing, that river Euphrates. Here we've come to Revelation. First in Revelation 9, we see the river Euphrates; four angels bound, to kill one-third part of the men. Then in Revelation 16, here, we see a Vial poured on the river to dry up the waters. The water, which was the waters of the Euphrates River, it brought so much wealth into Babylon. It gave Babylon security.

You know, in the old English castles and those places, they used to have a moat. Anybody know of the moat and the drawbridge? When they pull up the drawbridge, you come in and they have a big body of water, and you are on this side and the castle is on the next side. And so, anybody coming in—and that moat is deep. To cross that body of water, you are a sitting duck, if you are an army. Because those over that wall will finish you with those crossbows and kill you. It was security. Yet now the river—all those big boats, the merchant ships bringing their goods from afar could come right into the city and offload all their riches and their wealth and these things. You understand? It made Babylon the most prosperous, the most secure...

That's why when Belshazzar had the feast, he did that in contempt of the siege that was taking place at the time. Because he knew they had food there for five years or more, inside of there. They know those walls, they run chariot races on them. It was impregnable. They knew that river there was their security. And so, they felt so self-secured. So, what was a defense system, a security system, a system of wealth and power that made them secure, God started to give the kings of the east a way to dry up that water and get in the city. In other words, to penetrate their defense systems and come into the city and take the city under their control.

So, we look in here at this, Revelation 16, this great Euphrates.

... the water thereof was dried up,

You see, I explained that scenario so you can understand the water and the river, how it was built. Do you know if our Water dries up, we are dead too? What is the power of the Church? The Holy Ghost. And if Satan finds a way to divert the water, you'll starve, you'll die of thirst. No refreshing, no joy, everything is gone. When the Holy leaves your life, could you prosper? You are planted by the river so you could be fruitful, so you could prosper. A man is like a tree planted by the river, not stuck in. Joseph is a fruitful bough planted by the well, whose branches went over the wall. See? Watch how these things are fixed in the Word.

So the security of the Church is the Holy Ghost. The power of the Church is the Holy Ghost. The prosperity of the Church is the Holy Ghost. Without the Holy Ghost, there's no fruit, there are no virtues, there's no power, there's no Revelation. There's no quickening without the Holy Ghost in the Church. It is just politics, it is just a ritual, it is just a routine. You understand? Everything is just intellectual without the Holy Ghost. The beauty of the Church is the Holy Ghost in the Church. That's the life of the Church.

You want a church without the Spirit of God in it? Then you are part of the Church. You are—It is lively stones building up the House. And they are lively stones because why? The Spirit in them is quickening them. Spirit of God that—they were dead in sin and trespasses, quickened them and raised them up. And now they are living (they aren't dead), living stones coming to the Living Headstone Himself, Life connecting with Life. And our life is coming from the Living One Himself Who is The Tree of Life Himself, Who is the Water of Life Himself. Because remember, we are Jerusalem; this is Babylon. This is that system of the world. We are the economy of God. And remember one is a perversion of one.

So we are seeing here—to penetrate the Church, how did Lucifer penetrate God's church in Eden? He got them away from the Word. They leaned on their own understanding. They got away from the Holy Ghost. That's right. And she received a lie. "You shall not die." She received a perversion of the Word.

Well, that's why this is our power. We have to abide in the Word and the Word abide in us. There is no victory outside of that, friends. Religion is of the world. Religion is of the devil, organized religion. Why Am I Against Organized Religion? [\[62-1111E -Ed.\]](#) Why Are We Not A Denomination? [\[58-0927 -Ed.\]](#) Jezebel Religion [\[61-0319 -Ed.\]](#), Hybrid Religion. That's Lucifer; that's Babylon. 'Babylon' means, what? 'Confusion'.

So, John is catching a vision, but it is a Word vision. He is catching something in Daniel. Daniel actually saw Cyrus and Darius and they with their armies. He saw the alliance of armies around Babylon. Daniel, knowing the prophecy of what Jeremiah said, that God will stir up the Medes and the Persians. And he was looking out there and there were Medes and Persians.

At one time they weren't united. They got united under Cyrus. And Isaiah said "God will open the two-leaved gates for Cyrus." God said, "Cyrus doesn't know me but I am naming him and I called him." The History says, when Cyrus came and conquered, Daniel went and got the prophecy and showed him, "Look, you are inside of here hundreds of years before you came. Before you were born, our God said, 'Cyrus is coming. God will dry up the water.'" He said, "Look Jeremiah said God will dry up the water and stir up the heart of the Medes and the kings.

What did the third vision say in 1933? Watch the king of the north!

You say, "How come he said watch the king of the north and you say king of the east?"

North of Israel, but east of Babylon. When the prophecy is relating to Israel, it is being spoken because God is the God of, not Trinidad; God is the God of Israel.

You say, "God is not the God of Trinidad?"

Of course! He never said he was the God of Trinidad. He is the God of Israel. Trinidad is a heathen nation. God's people are the Jews. That is right. We are the wild, olive branch that got grafted in. We married in, like Rahab, the harlot, marrying Salmon and coming into Judah. We are like Tamar coming into Judah by marriage. We are like Ruth, marrying Boaz, the Gentile marrying the Lion of Judah and coming into Judah. We are like Abigail, marrying David; got loose from Nabal the fool – rich and increased with goods, to come in and marry. Coming to the Throne through union with the Second Husband. Coming into Redemption through union with the Second Husband like Ruth. Oh, yes! That's the Word, friends. That's the Word.

You see, that is the power of God, you know. It doesn't leave the Bible. That is like a light moving through the pieces of the sacrifice. That Spirit moves through the Bible. When you watch that Spirit at work, it makes you marvel to see how the Spirit of Wisdom and revelation in the Knowledge of Jesus Christ, to see... That Spirit proves the Bible is one thought. That Spirit proves the Bible is one Book. Not sixty-six; one! One God from Genesis to Revelation revealing One Person and His Plan. That Spirit magnifies that. And we did not know it like that until the Spiritual Einstein, a Prophet came in this Day, because theologians cannot tie the Word together.

You see, sometimes you do not know these Truths, and so, when you look at something, you cannot evaluate the value of it. But when you start to understand what that is, and what that means, and how that gives you a place to anchor your soul, to show how that Scripture holds that secret of God that He could hide it from the wisest theologian and yet come and do that. And then that becomes more magnified when God takes a nitwit piece of garbage off the street, a piece of driftwood. And then because He is a great sculpture, He could make something out of it, like a violin to play nice music out of it; bring the Presence of God down with such distinction to make the Word so clear.

So the drying up of the water is making a way for the kings of the east. Are you catching that? And the kings of the east became the conquerors of Babylon and broke the Babylonian power, because a way was prepared for them. And the way prepared was that they were able to penetrate their defenses because God was using them as an instrument to bring judgment on the Babylonian power. Because that Babylon power was a harlot with a cup making the nations mad, Jeremiah said, and drunken the nations. John said the same thing, because the same vision Jeremiah had, came back to John.

So then it tells us now, verse 14 [Revelation 16 -Ed.],

These unclean spirits coming out of the mouth of the dragon, the mouth of the Beast, the mouth of the false prophet. And we know that is that system and its hierarchy.

*¹⁴ For they are the spirits of devils,
working miracles, which go forth unto the
kings of the earth...*

So, in here we have the kings of the east and we have the kings of the earth. These are alliances. It is not a king of the earth or a king of the east. It is kings – plural. Kings are principalities and powers. So, this is an alliance. You see how it has the G-8 and G-20 and BRICS. BRICS is Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa. B-R-I-C-S. That is a new alliance. And I want to show you... I'm going slowly; maybe too slowly for how I want to go. That is why I wanted to stay home, you know, because I know—and one of the main reasons I am preaching this is because I know I am getting ready to leave, which I don't want to leave. But I said, in case I do have to go, let me get some of this out so you can see Daniel; what Daniel was seeing. Because if Daniel was seeing that, then we are seeing this.

Daniel saw the river dry up; Daniel saw the Babylon fall. Daniel knew Babylon was going to fall because before they went into Babylon God told them Babylon would fall. Because Jeremiah prophesied, Babylon will rule the earth, but then God will judge Babylon. Our Jeremiah, the Prophet in this Day, he prophesied Rome will control religion, politics, economics. She will rule the world, but then she will be judged. God will raise up Jehu to destroy that Jezebel.

So, it is twofold, and the two are going to happen. And Daniel and they were seeing that power become powerful on the earth until they set up the image and they forced the worship.

Well, we are here. She conquered all these Gentile nations already. She has no more Gentile nations to conquer. The ones that she can't get, it is having variance now, so they are pulling aside to form a new alliance.

Didn't the Bible say, God will put in the heart of the kings, who once gave their strength and power to the beast, to burn the harlot with fire and eat her flesh? Wasn't Jehu part of the kingdom that Jezebel was queen over and Ahab was king over? Weren't they the security of that very king? Wasn't he the captain of the army and then he became their destroyer? That is the Bible. This is not a story. It is a Mystery for the End Time. You take it in Genesis, we are taking it in Daniel, we are taking it over in Jezebel Religion with Jehu and them, we are taking it in the last days with Russia and them, and I'm showing you it is one plan. And I am saying, if we are standing here and saying, "Look at them in the earth here. Look at what they are doing here. Look at what they are doing here," what do you think Daniel was saying?

You say, "You feel you are an End Time Daniel." I sure am not any End Time Ahab. I am an End Time Daniel. Sure, I am a Micaiah. I am an Elisha. I am a Joel, seeing the locust invasion and blowing. I am a John who ate the Book and is prophesying. I am a Ruth coming into marriage. I am an Esther going into the Presence of the King. I am a mighty Gentile bringing a clean flesh drink for Him.

Now, who are you? Who are you? What are you? Where are you? You are with me. You are with me. We are together. We see our name in the Book. You aren't just coming to church here to hear me. God is showing you who you are by opening the Word. The Third Pull is the opening of the Word. You think that is the Second Pull? You think that is the First Pull?

Let me tell you how much he saw on that river and you will find out if this is not the Third Pull. I'm going to read something he said about that just now. When he preached Handwriting On The Wall and when they asked him on the Seals a question about which part in the Bible it says, 'Communism will destroy Catholicism'. And he was explaining that. And he just mentioned, he said, "Revelation 16." That's it. When God could take the same Word and teach you further on the same Truth, and then show you it is happening in the world today—and if you are seeing the Spirit that is moving, you know God, when He speaks in Revelation 18, "A Mighty Angel comes down from Heaven whose Glory lightens the earth," and then he had a Voice saying, "Come out of her My people." Why? "Her sins are come up into Heaven; strong is the Lord that judgeth her," this angel who had one of the Seven Vials. If I ask you who is that, you will tell me that is Revelation 10:1, that is Revelation 10:7, that is the Bride being called out of Babylon, and then She goes, and the Marriage of the Lamb is come.

What follows Revelation 18? Revelation 19. What is Revelation 19? The Marriage after She is called out. And you will tell me, "Well, that is the Message." Well, if that is so, then isn't the reason we are being called out is because God is getting ready to judge this woman? Isn't she controlling the world today? In Revelation 19, they were singing after the Bride is called out and come into marriage into union with Christ, the Head and the Body becoming one, they were singing, "Strong is the Lord that judgeth her. Thou hast revenge us of all the blood of the saints of the martyrs." Isn't that so? Well, that is in God's thoughts.

Isn't Russia on the earth? Isn't God reaping it with a sickle? Isn't Russia's symbol the sickle? The symbol of communism is a sickle. A sickle and a hammer. Is Russia a nuclear power? He has fire in his arrows to burn that city? Does Iran have fire? Does India have fire? Does Pakistan have fire? Does China have fire? Does North Korea have fire? I called some nuclear powers for you. They are in an alliance. They are communist inspired people.

You see, we live in an American/England world in Trinidad. All we know is America and England in Trinidad. Do you know why? The English people colonized us and America took over and influenced us. So we look up to England and America. And we live in that world. All our food, all our products, all our clothes, all our music, everything you like, it comes from there. All our education, all the people, our universities, that is what it is.

But the thing is... Now, I am just talking about this as Trinidadian in that sense, but I am not on that. I am not a Trinidadian, you know. Since I had my New Birth and came into Christ, I am a pilgrim and stranger. Here we have no continuing city. I belong to a City whose Builder and Maker is God. I am part of a City that doesn't have any grave, it has no hospital, it has no jail, it has no insane asylum, it has no night club, it has no same-sex marriage; it has no Carnival. I am in a City where they know they come from God, they know their pedigree, they have the character of God. They have Faith and Virtue and Knowledge and Temperance, Patience, Godliness, Brotherly Love; anointed with Divine Love, where there is Living Water clear as crystal, where the Lamb is the Light.

*¹⁴ For they are the spirits of devils,
working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world*

...

Whole world. Kings of the earth and of the whole world. To do what?

¹⁴ ... to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

A gathering time, a uniting time. What is the ecumenical move? Gathering the world. What does 'Oikoumene' mean? 'The inhabited earth'. What are they coming for? A one-world religion, a one-world economy. That's right. One-world government. What did we see the false prophet doing there in May, and then bringing the people to the Vatican, and then having these—having Muslims saying prayers in the Vatican, unprecedented? First Jesuit Pope. Lightning struck February 28th there. Of course.

So this is a prophecy. This will come to pass. Just like Revelation 6:7 and 8, the Fourth Seal, uniting of the powers, globalization, here they are being united too. It is showing you the same picture. Do you believe they have the power to kill with sword? Do you believe they are killing with sword? Do you realize plenty of people got killed with sword?

Wars are fought—the earth is filled with violence. War is organized violence. Like Mr. Bush, he was a violent man. Mr. Obama, they are violent men. You see they laugh. That's the media. That's the media. When he sits there and says, "I endorsed same-sex marriage." Mr. Bush said, "We will bomb them back to the Stone Age." Shock and awe. This is people loosing spirits on the earth.

You see, you see them as men. The same way you can't see God in flesh, you can't see the devil in flesh either. But all of them are princes. That's like you have the prince of Persia; you have the prince of America.

You see, they are showing you one world. I preached it for you over and over. Daniel 2 shows you one world. Daniel 7 shows you a next realm of the same world. They have the virtual world and the real world. The world is deceived because they do not know the world behind the virtual world. They are seeing the puppets. They are not seeing the puppet masters. I am tired of telling you these people who are sitting there have no power. You only get four years for a term. And if you get a second term that is eight years. What power do you have? Somebody is putting you in, somebody is controlling the thing. Somebody knows which direction they are carrying the thing. You can't have a child's mind in this Eagle Age. You can't have a child's mind if the Seven Sealed Book is opened. This is the last. This is the end.

You see, that is why I say, too much over the years you missed by chasing things in the world, that now you get it; it can't give you Revelation, and it can't give you power. It might give you some ease and comfort. But then after you do all of that now you just hope it doesn't devalue tomorrow. And then it comes down like that; it boils down like bhagi. And you have next to nothing. A few zeroes just went with the stroke of the pen because you trusted in uncertain riches. You labored for meat that perisheth. You don't do that. You walk with God, the Creator. Because we're going to a world where it wouldn't have that kind of economy that we are in here. And we already see where this economy is heading; unless you don't take the mark, you can't buy and sell. So you had better make sure you have faith, that you could move into the faith economy all now. And if you are in the faith economy all now, then you aren't watching how many zeroes you have. You are watching what is pulsating in your heart, you are watching your leadership, you're watching your quickening in your soul. That's right.

When you don't have that, then what do you have? You are in this economy, you are worried about this. Somebody now tells you, boy, "There are plenty of thieves in this neighborhood. I think they are selling some burglar proof things and some cameras to monitor." Well, the thief has already come in this house, steal your faith, steal your prayer life, steal all of this. What are you going to watch outside there? Somebody coming to thief your furniture? Oh God, have mercy!

He stole your vision, he stole your anointing, he stole all those things from you, and you are worried he comes and steals what? Your fridge? You aren't seeing Satan playing jokes with people. Walking with a big, big Bible and trying to put that religious look on your face and Satan is messing up your mind. You want to have reality in your soul. You want to have something on the inside that God is right here. Because God said, "Know ye not you are the temple. I will dwell in you. I will walk in you. You don't want Him right here? Where do you want Him? In Heaven? He wants to come in right here. He wants to talk from inside the Throne. Watch the next verse.

Revelation 16:15,

¹⁵ Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments,

He is not talking about your clothes in your wardrobe, okay? Your garments, clothed with the Word, the white Robe of the Holy Ghost.

... lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

Do you know what is your shame? And you know what shows your nakedness? When the trial comes, and fear comes, "Oh God, oh God I will die!" You see? He gave us the faith to master all circumstances. What is the tie post? What is the Rock that you are fastened to? The anchor that grips the solid Rock? You see people start to fall apart. Money, women, popularity, different things. Fall apart! The thief already came. That shows you're naked.

Did Adam and Eve go and make aprons? How did they come from not ashamed to shame? They lost their garments. What made them lose their garments? They ate from the wrong tree. What did that eating do? They dropped out of faith into human wisdom. You want to live by faith, you want to walk by faith. You want a...

Hear this. When you look in your heart and you see you are getting terrified over that, instead of you getting terrified and you get lost and carried away, say, "Why is this terrifying me? I am walking with God." You say, "Lord, teach me how to handle this. This shouldn't terrify me. You are my refuge. Lord, I put my life in your hands. Why is it bothering me so? Like I don't have what I claim to have. Lord, gave me a place where I will never be shaken in mind and troubled in spirit like this. Because I can't visualize a man with the Holy Ghost, which is God inside of me, is terrified like this. And this is not really going to take my life. This is a circumstance and I am worried and I am fearful and I..." No, no, no. This is the disciples without the Holy Ghost in the boat. Talking about Jesus all the time, following Jesus all around, but when they get in the storm now, and they see they will perish now, they start to panic. After they use all their human ability and they can't change their situation, they are like Jacob; tried all kinds of different schemes and nothing can work. When he gets ahold of God, he doesn't need that anymore. He walked right up to Esau like that.

He said, "Honey, you stay here. Children, you stay here."

And he goes there. He had love now, he was willing to face this because he knew something happened. He held on until a change came and God confirmed change had been wrought by giving him a new walk and a new name. This is what you want.

So sometimes crisis comes to take you deeper. A storm, when it shakes the tree, it only loosens up the earth to send the roots deeper, to hold a little stronger, you know. Because sometimes now, if the roots are just on the top, some little breeze comes, "Pops", it roots up the tree and then it drops at the side. And in two days' time the tree dries up and all the leaves fall off. And you say, "That little thing shook you up like that and you backslid. Look how you've dried up. Look, you aren't fellowshiping with anybody at all. All your leaves dried up and fell off. You haven't reached the stage of bearing fruit. You see.

You want to live with some depth, where your roots have some depth. And God has a way to carry you a little deeper, you know, by sending some little trials. That didn't come to kill you. That came to mature you. That came to bring stability in the life.

¹⁶ And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

The kings of the east; (as I say) Russia, China, all of them have great ambitions right now, you know. China realizes that she is the biggest producer in the world. She realizes she has 1.3 billion people. She and India have a billion, and the part of the world they are in there, that is almost like a third of the world's population. So when you see two nations have a third of the world's population, this is what the industrialized powers look and see as cheap labor. But these people now, they are so ingenious, especially in this computer Age; in this scientific Age. This is where all the mathematicians and all the different people, and the inventors and all these different things are coming out from.

So, like we go in China, you'll buy a Rolex [watch] for twenty dollars. And you can't tell the difference between that and the real one, because they're smart; they gave them the copy—the pattern to make one. So once the pattern... Because they can't make it without the pattern, you have to give them the pattern. By the time they figure out that pattern, and then they are the producer of it, because they have the materials to do it. You're just paying a price and giving them the design of what you want. Well after that there, they put one on the market; same box, same everything. You talking about... The two are so close. Except you walk around with something to check jewels, and open it up, and know exactly what's in there, you can't know.

Who buys a watch and does that? You take your warranty and say, “Ah ha,” and put it on your hand and it looks nice. And that is carrying time the same way. If it drops a second or two, it’s the same. You see?

So they have stolen a lot of the things, but that’s pay back. Because the smart people, thinking they are exploiting them, and they are wise over them, and using them as cheap labor; and they’re playing, “Yes boss. Yes boss. Yes boss. Yes boss,” and not knowing they are coming back to take over. You see? And when you realize they pulled the rug out from under you, you realize, “you sow to the flesh, you reap corruption”. You sow... What you sow, you are going to reap the same thing.

You see, there is a law with nations, there is a law with individuals, there is a law with families; there is a law with churches. God has laws in the universe you cannot change. Look at Babylon; she ruled the world and she said, “I’m a queen. I sit as a queen; I’m no widow.” Isaiah said, “You’re coming down in the dust, because God stirred up the spirit of the Medes, and they’re coming for you. And God will dry up the waters.” He said, “And this place will be judged by God. And God has a man named Cyrus coming...” Isaiah spoke all of that, hundreds of years before.

Now, God’s children know the prophecies. Prophets don’t talk to believers who are the Elect foreordained to hear the Word in the Age, and then take it lightly, friends. That’s the problem. People say, “They didn’t know that. They didn’t know that.” They lived knowing the prophecies.

Why was Simeon, an old man, expecting to see the Lord’s Christ? And why did God come to him? And why did the Angel appear to Zacharias? They were expecting this. Why was Joseph and Mary, reading Isaiah 7 and Isaiah 9 the night before, and the next day, as she was going to the well, down came the Angel? Because that's the unchanging God. While Bro. Branham was thinking about the Scripture there, like how Nebuchadnezzar was thinking about the last days, 'Boom', here comes the dream. Here is Bro. Branham thinking about the Scripture; "If somebody asks me about, 'If I say to this mountain,' what am I going to do?" And the Voice said, "That Scripture is true like all other Scriptures. Stand to your feet."

It's good to meditate on the things of God. It's good to... That's one of the secrets. But people have all kinds of things in their heads here. No time to spend in God's Presence. And then they take these things lightly. Let me tell you: you take the Word of God as your most valuable possession. People sit down there with temporal things and have contempt about the Word of God, and say, "He is saying that. He is saying that," you know. You're going to find out one of these days that this is the Truth, and nothing but the Truth. You will find out that, one of these days: how much this was the Truth.

So, watch. God... As I say, Russia and China want to be world powers. Iran wants to be a world power. This... The Islamization of Europe. Did you ever... I don't know if some of you study some of those things, to show: the colonial powers went out in the world. We are here in this part of the world because of the colonial powers.

Do you know how we reached here? They were watching in their fields and they needed cheap labor. And the people that they came and conquered and enslaved were dying fast under their hand, and couldn't take the hard work. So they decided to have something called, "foreign policy". And then they sourced cheap labor, and then it involved human trafficking. And we ended up here because of somebody's policy. Do you think it was your father and your mother or your great, great grandfathers and grandmothers back there who said, "I would like to go to Trinidad.” You are living in India and Africa; civilizations that have big, big rich history and nobody knows where Trinidad is. You think they want to come here? To that dot? No, it was the people who conquered—the British, who conquered a lot of these countries, where they call, ‘the Commonwealth’. Do you think the wealth is common?

You see how they educated us? They miseducated us, and we’re walking around with a paper, thinking we have education. They taught us the wrong history. They taught us all kinds of different things. They messed up our minds and everything, and they made us feel—put us in a jacket and a tie and made us feel like we’re a little, something special. And Santa Claus and Christmas and all kinds of different things, and they messed us up. Thank God for the Message. Thank God for the Word of God. Thank God for the revealed Word of the Hour. I’m trying to uneducate you from that education and re-educate you. And I have no certificate to give you but God is here to confirm that and give you the Holy Ghost, and give you faith, and raise you up to know who you are, and take your amnesia away.

This is what Babylon and they did. When they went and conquered Judah, they screened the people: “No, he has no place. Too much passage, too much care to carry him; he isn’t doing anything. Get the ones who know science. Get the engineers, get the doctors; get all the skilled ones. Get the smiths; we are going to use them there, in our weapons production – swords. We are going to be a stronger military force with all of these people who know metallurgy and these things. See? Bring their architects; look at what kind of buildings they built. I understand that men got patterns by the Spirit in visions to build this place that they have here. I understand that men were anointed to build this kind of... Look at that stone; how it’s cut. We don’t have men who could cut stones like that.” He said, "Bring those men down. Find them; we are going to make them strengthen our industries. We are going to make them teach this skill to our people. We are going to be a..."

This is what the lion does when he sees a big wildebeest. He eats. He doesn't make souse with the foot, eat it and eat the tail and leave the rest for the jackal, you know. He eats the tenderloin. He eats the sirloin. He eats the T-bone. When he is finished, he leaves the foot for souse and the tail for the hyenas. In other words, he takes all the richest and the best parts that are going to strengthen him and empower him.

That is why when they go into Iraq, they will kill a lot of people, destroy a lot of infrastructure to get control of the oil field; "Then we'll give you all back your politics but we'll hold on to the economics. You all fight and kill yourselves." You see?

Now, all of this new Isis and all kinds of things that they are talking about, are people they went and destroyed, give them some kind of puppet government, leave them to kill themselves and they control their resources, you know. And then they are telling the world, "We established democracy. They have their own government. They have such and such and such." And now a new kind of terrorism came because the few puppets inside of there, who are playing their games because they put them in a big house, and then they gave them visa for the States and thing...

I will get myself in trouble one of these days, you know. But I'm putting myself at risk to open your eyes – to open your eyes so that you will have faith in that Hour; that you will understand the Truth and know the prophecies.

This is... Let me read this. I must go to Daniel quickly. Give me a little space here. Let's read Daniel quickly. Daniel 5. Because if I don't go into Daniel 5, I'll defeat my purpose. Because I am bringing you to Daniel 5 to show you how that is where the fall of Babylon came – Daniel 5; the hand writing on the wall. Now, catch this here, now. There are some places here, I can't even get to this morning, to show you the truth of these things and to show you the inspiration of the Bible. But the few places I am catching, I trust that it enlightens you and will drive you in some of the Word too. Because in Daniel 5, while they diverted the river bed and they were coming in, you know, what was Daniel doing? He was interpreting the unknown language while the kings of the east were diverting the river bed; while the kings of the east had become a rising power in the earth. And that is how it came in and this is how it is going out. The beginning of the Gentile dispensation and the ending of the Gentile dispensation.

Daniel 5, verse 1:

to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.*

Not a thousand people, you know; a thousand of his lords. These are the men in the Judiciary; the joint chief of staff. These are the Senators, these are the professors. These are the elites, the lords, principalities here.

² Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine,

You see, they were drinking wine, they were partying. It was a—he made a great feast, not a small feast; a great feast because the feast had all the nobility of the country there: Chief of Justice, Minister of National Security, all these different people there, all the ladies. All the young Carib girls, all the young models on the face of Trinidad. Mind you, all these things that you are seeing, you have to see through that, you know. You have to understand what these things are, you know. You see, some people live in some kind of world. You know, it is hard to preach to them because they sit down and think that the world is, you know, what we see in the papers, they think that is what the world is. When I start to read what the prophet said, you will know just now because he is the one who opened up these things. He is the one who could have seen right into the party.

... [so] whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple...

When he said his father, that is really his grandfather if you know the history. Because in Jeremiah's prophecy he said, "Nebuchadnezzar, his son and his son's son." He said, "And when that time comes—that's when the time comes, I will serve them to nations. Right now I give all the nations to them, but they will rule until the grandson. And then I will serve them to other nations. God allots a 'time'. What is the prophecy in Daniel 2? He putteth up kings. And he does what? Take down kings. That's God, that's God. He lets kings go up and then He takes them down. And this hour coming, He is taking down all these kings and He Himself is coming on the Throne. And the kingdom of this world will become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ. Understand that. And His Wife, His Gentile Wife will be with Him. [If] you overcome, you will sit with Him in the Throne.

You see how bright your future is? You see how bright your future is? And some of you are like you can't walk in the Word, you can't give up anything for the Word. Look how bright your future is! You wish you could go to America; you can't even see Mr. Obama. But you know what is coming; you will be with Jesus ruling the whole world in this Hour coming here. That Stone already appeared many years ago. It set up the Kingdom in here first. And if that Kingdom is in you, it will be more real – what I'm saying. If that Kingdom is not in you, then that is a million miles down the road for you and you don't know what is going on.

... [he] commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple...

Now these... From the temple in Babylon—in Jerusalem they were now in the temple in Babylon. And now it is being taken out from there.

² ... that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

You see how the Bible is.

... his princes, his wives, and his concubines...

Those wives know, “Look, you are the first lady but I have about fifteen concubines here; you are for public appearances. You walk here, you drive in the limousine, you come out of the limousine, so and so, you walk around here, you know.” That’s how they move; this is for the media. But there is a next life. Don’t fool yourself, there is a next life. You just need to read a little bit and you will understand what goes on.

³ Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

So he sends for them, they bring them, then all of them drink in them now.

⁴ They drank wine, and [they] praised [their] gods of gold,

How do you think they praised the gods of gold? You think they are in a party and saying—the party got religious with all these concubines? This is flesh on display. You ever see when these women get out at these kinds of parties? The neckline is quite down here, the slit is quite up here. You ever see when they have the Oscar thing that they go to, and how they move out there, and everybody comes and makes a grand entrance. Have you seen what they are wearing? Special for that; everybody wants to make a fashion statement. The hard part of that sometimes; people see that and that wants to come through these doors. What do you expect from a man with a sharp sword? What do you expect from a man with a sharp sword? He says, "I think you are mixing up Babylon and Jerusalem, and you can't differentiate where the boundaries of one start and where it stops, and the other one starts. You see like they are all merged into one. It isn't merged."

They are praising their gods of gold; they are talking about the victories and their conquest and they are talking about their revenue and their prosperity. When you see big people (lords and they) get together and they start to praise their god: how successful they are in their profession, what new contract is opened up to them, what they are going to get there, what they are planning to do, where they are planning to buy over here, what they are going to do over here, you know. What you are working for, they give the shoeshine boy that tip. They give the person who is bringing their laundry in the hotel, that as a tip. And you hold on to that thinking, you know, that it's something. When you see some of the kind of hotel rooms that they stay in; you can't imagine there are such big rooms in a hotel. It's like three rooms in one. Sometimes these people rent the whole floor, inside of these big, big hotels. Sometimes three thousand dollars US, five thousand dollars US, a night for a room.

We were in South Africa one time, Bro. Beckett was showing me: one time Michael Jackson came and they had the place there. And they said, "One of those rooms is about three thousand dollars." He said, "Those fellows would take about two floors: ground floor and a next floor on top here. Security, everything and they're up there." When they have that kind of thing there, nobody is wearing clothes and things, you know. Because you can't go up there. All kinds of crazy business. Because this is the life.

Then we went to another place and the brother was telling me, "You see here," he said, "there is another world up here. These skyscrapers... They would be in the penthouse. You don't come on the ground floor to get there you know; you land in a helicopter and you come down there. They walk down into one of those big rooms; that is where a lot of the weapons sales would be. All these different things here. People selling here; weapons sales, this, that, that, that. The big diamonds—they do there. Then they do like this, and they go and you don't see them.

There is a world up there and there is another world down here. The man by the corner stands up here, "You want something?" And then 'Jean and Dinah' [A local calypso about an era of large-scale prostitution -Ed.] around the corner. And then somebody in a casino over here. Up there is a next world. The rich and the affluent; they come there and you don't see them. See? And you're walking there thinking this is the world.

That is why in this Age you have to understand Satan's Eden. You only see what they allow you to see. They control what you see. There are people on a sensor board; they say, "Okay. We made an agreement with this cable company. You are going to beam in here. These are the shows you are going to bring. We want Bewitched [An American fantasy show -Ed.]. We want five cartoons. This is a big menu. We want ESPN [Entertainment and Sport Programming Network -Ed.] sports 24 hours a day. We want this here. We want three hot pornographic channels. We want this over here. We want fashion shows.

You think somebody just goes and shoots things in a country? Minister of Communication, Cable Companies are offering, how many channels are you going to have? Certain countries you go into, you have five channels. Certain countries you go into, you have a hundred channels. In other words, they're dealing with the mind. They keep the mind of the people in a certain place.

They have all the rap and those video things. Men with their pants way down – the crutch of the pants down here, and the cap turned backwards. And they're out there, and they're by the streets. And all those girls with their hot pants and the tubes, and they at the back of the car. And the man, he has the gun stuck in the waist and, you know. And they have some of that because they are going—they are determined what you're going to eat, spiritually.

Then they put the Catholic program and two or three of these prosperity preachers on the religious channel. So they work out all your channels and then they tell you what you are going to have. Other than that, they give you a pay-per-view; so at the side now, you have to pay with a credit card if you want to see something outside of that. But that will only come in a certain kind of hotel. But for the people in the nation...

You thought you used to turn on a TV and just see anything? What concept do you have of the world? You go and find out. Find out how TV6—where they get... This is a contract. This is food, this is diet. People provide... This is a service that people, who are in the information business, provide.

They tell you, "Okay. You all have the fiber optics for a hundred channels. Your fiber optics wire here, you all only have... The exchange and the things that do this here, we could only transmit this. And then these stations sign off at twelve [o'clock] and everybody goes to sleep. The latest you might get is cricket in Australia or something, or you have special cable that has cricket or something, and you're watching that two [o'clock] in the morning and that kind of business. But this is designed to keep the people's minds where they want them. Where they term...

Okay, let me ask you this. Your school system; they offer a course. Do you think they invent the course that they're offering? No, these are courses that maybe a university has down here, and then this university patterns off of that university, and they have some kind of relationship; so they're offering some of those courses that those people have. Like all the British systems we have to do with – the GCE and the CXC – you think it is Trinidad that invented these courses? No, of course not. They have a syllabus. They have the education people who determine what you get educated in. How is it that we don't have a lot of things to educate people and balance the thing? Everybody: Spanish, French, English, History, this, Mathematics, Science. Right? Then eighty percent of the children don't really want that. They want to learn to do something but they are not providing them in schools. Why? This is to keep them there. This is to keep them there. All of this is a structure.

Read Ezekiel 17, you will understand. When the king took over, It says, "We're going to keep this tree." Like a horticulturist; if the tree is going to spread, they say, "No. This tree can't spread. We arranged that we want a tree like that; it is going to occupy so much space." So, every time it's going to grow, a man with a big, power saw, "Bzz, Bzz," he keeps that tree this size. Well trimmed, well pruned and leave it like that.

And you say, "This tree looks nice, doesn't it?"

"Yes. That tree could really grow and bear and spread out, and look really good, but this tree in this region here is designed to be just this big. So we're going to put all our hotels in Barbados. We're going to leave Trinidad for Carnival. We're going to start to change Grenada and start to put some casinos. We're going to put St. Kitts and Dominica—we'll give them a cricket match. We will build one or two stadiums there."

This is people restructuring a Region and determining where will have what. Because they are the investors.

You live here but nobody can go and build a stadium; they have to come in and put that money in. You have to borrow it from a bank.

You look like you are waking up. There are architects and engineers. They say, "No. We will put a small hotel here. We will let Tobago and they have their hotel Kariwak. Let these people have their little small hotel." Just like how they had before. So they came and put a Hyatt; then every big, major thing is Hyatt. First, they used to have the Hilton. She used to be the queen of hotels in Trinidad. But then she lost her queen status to Hyatt. Hyatt became the new queen. Crown Plaza and they used to be Holiday Inns but they kind of upgraded now. It's the same chain but they, kind of, just changed their name and changed some carpets and chandeliers and then made it a... No, that is what is going on.

That is why I like Third Exodus Assembly. We have the best cooking here, we have the best serving; we have the best hospitality. We don't have to go out there and be raped and get confused and be manipulated and get exploited. Invest in your own thing. Of course! Stand behind your own thing. Let your children grow up in an environment where they could be happy. Let young people come and get married and be established in the faith. And if they want to go on a honeymoon, go Grenada, go Barbados, go St Vincent, go Dominica, go St. Kitts, go Tobago. Of course. God raised up a church so that you could go by your family, you could be there; you are among believers. They could come down here.

You don't have to go up some place and you spend dotish [foolish -Ed.] money. People are just messy and you'd go and pick up all kinds of diseases. All kinds of people are sleeping in those sheets. Some of them have—the kind of sin they have, you think some bleach and soap powder could take out those germs? You need the Blood of Jesus Christ. Don't let advertisements mess up your mind and put you in the virtual world. This is time to face reality – living reality.

So they were praising their god of gold, silver and brass and iron. Brass and iron and wood and stone are many things to do with construction. Silver and gold are currencies. Are you catching that? Or do you think that while they were having this big party, somebody was watching a little statue, saying, “Oh, god of gold. Oh, statue of wood.” You think that is what was going on there? No, when It says that they were praising their god of gold and these things... Iron is what you go into warfare with. These are swords and things. This is the military people praising for the victory and the slaughter that they made, and how many troops they deployed, how in a short space of time they took that city, how many captives they brought; how much slave labor they enriched the country with.

This is what... Babylon was a lion, devouring. Rome is devouring the whole earth; breaking them up in pieces with iron teeth. When they are praising, they say, “Man, we took Iraq. Man, when we used the media and we messed up their mind, they didn't even know what hit them. They think we came with democracy. When we take off that suit and they see that it is battle fatigue camouflaged here, and we are armed to the teeth...” That is the thing they are rejoicing in. The victories; the manipulation.

They say, “Man, we went in there; they think that in Nigeria we went for oil fields.” I have something I want; I can't even go into it, this morning. I want to go and show you this Ebola all in the west coast, west Africa – all the western regions there, where they discovered all this oil and all this deposit that they have there.

You think Ebola is a disease? That is why I read Revelation 6. They are killing by pestilence. They are depopulating places. They are creating a state of emergency to go in and control things. They are plundering and devouring. Why? Because this other alliance is diverting water away and drying up the river. A lot of water they used to control, now that water is under the control of another alliance. They are creating another kind of wealth, and that is angering them. So, it is a lot of psychological and propaganda war going on in people's minds.

And the Chinese have moved far into Africa. Those countries that are developing and building up infrastructure, and helping people and taking them out of poverty and doing more for them, the same people, they were only taking diamonds and gold and coltan, and leaving them in dirt roads and galvanized houses. But the Chinese now, is still a dragon. They aren't doing that for friendship. They are doing that to get the resources, because that is empowering them now, to be able to compete on another level. And since they have the manpower they are carrying them in.

Look, they came in here and built up all these places in Trinidad. Now when you drive from Chaguanas to Longdenville it is only Chinese groceries, Chinese Restaurants; Chinese this, everywhere. Nothing against them. They are smart, but that is the triad of them coming in. Then they have money so some of them put up casinos and all the night games and the gambling that they have. What do you think, they are just working in fast food? Where is your mind? Don't you know the Bible? In this Age, do you think that is going on? What do you think, they ended up here by chance?

Let me tell you, let them fool the world but not my people in here. I'm trying to awaken you with truth. I'm trying to pull the mask off of these things and show you the god of this evil Age; to show you his methods; to show you his control, his manipulation.

You mean, you are going to read the Seals, you are telling me the Seals are opened to you and you don't see a next world. What are you seeing? If that is the world some people are seeing, we don't need any Seals; we are happy, no Rapture is coming, the world isn't evil. We'd go and eat some Chinese fast food and we'd go down the road and...

How come all these people got legitimized in the country? Who made them legal? How come they owned businesses so fast? Politics behind the scenes that you don't know anything about. Weren't they building a thirty million dollars church too, for the prophetess? Don't they have the Brian Lara stadium sitting down there for so long too. What country are you living in? What country are you living in?

In every country—the iron is in every country. Do you believe the iron is the powerful religion in Trinidad? How is it the president, from the time Francis became pope, he had access to the Vatican? And then following him, is the next one in St Vincent. What do you think? Do they get a free pass? Do you think I alone am restructuring? They are architects. You all wake up.

That is why the Word has to be a Lamp to our feet. It has to keep us in the real world. From the time the Word has you out from the real world, that is a veil coming on you and you are walking blind, you know. You don't know what is going on, you know. Your power is when you know what is going on, when you can see what is happening.

When the Seal opened—every time God opened a Seal, what was God saying? Come and see. Come and see. He said, “Watch what is going on in the religion. Watch what is going on in the military. Watch what is going on with economics. Watch what is going on here in the information. Watch what they are doing. That's what I am trying to show you this morning here. I'm showing you, things are happening. This is the value and the power of revelation.

So they were drinking and praising these gods of gold and silver (that is currency), brass, iron and wood (that is construction) and military and so on. They use the iron for swords and chariots. This is military equipment. This is your war machine. You don't go to war with a wood sword. Do you think you would go to war with a wood sword?

⁵ In the same hour...

Now while they are having this thing... Watch this, okay. Now this is Babylon. Now what is going on here? Catch what is happening here. God help me to bring this out. Catch what is happening here quickly. Now I can't bring out all – I won't have the time, but just give me some undivided attention and God help me not to deliberate too long but just to bring it to a place, you can catch some of these things.

Jeremiah had prophesied this destruction coming in, the same time he is preaching, talking about, "And you will go down there for seventy years and then I'll bring you back right here, and when you seek Me with all your heart, I will be found of you and give you an expected end." Yet in that same prophecy of Jeremiah, he is saying, God—Isaiah had already said it, and he is also prophesying out of that because now they know which power, because Isaiah 13 talked about the burden of Babylon. And Isaiah, over a hundred and something years already before is saying God is going to bring judgment on Babylon.

Well, two thousand years now, God told us the Vatican will burn with fire, since John saw that. A city on seven hills, drunk with the blood of the saints and the martyrs. That is coming, as sure as ever. But it will take two thousand years for the cup to be fully full, and then God says, "Now, okay, her sins have reached up into Heaven." When? When does He say that?

When that Seventh Angel with the Vial... And the Voice said, "Come out of her now, because strong is the Lord..." Why? Because Elijah is going to put judgment on that Jezebel. You understand?

You see, this is the thing about prophecy. You have to get in the Spirit of the Word to understand the prophecy. There is no idle Word in the Bible. Because remember, in the last days when this Messenger comes, he starts to show himself. He is in Genesis – he is Eliezer going out. What did Eliezar go and do? Bring a Bride out of Babylon. He went with the gifts, he went with the raiment. When Moses came, he brought them out of Egypt in an Exodus. When Jesus came, He brought them out of the religious system – Judaism. When John came, he came with the Spirit of Elijah. He was forerunning, he was doing a twofold; he was introducing them and he was saying, "The Lord is going to purge this place. His fan is in His hand."

When Jesus came, He said, "Titus is coming. Not one stone will remain standing here."

They all knew—they were watching the military realm, the political realm, and knew the sword was about to be let loose. Because Jesus, John, all of them knew they were messengers catching the Word and bringing it down and showing the people their Day and Hour.

He found the place where it is written, and said, "The Spirit of the Lord has anointed Me." This is how men who are sent of God know their place in the Bible, know where they stand, and they know what they are anointed to do and where to preach and point the faith of the people. That is how God's system is. Denomination, they have religion, they teach you theology, and you go and they indoctrinate people with theology, and they just keep them pacified, obeying some past hour; keeping them involved in routine and ritual, and saying, "Oh, you are a Baptist. The Baptist is the best church," and these things.

But watch in every Age. Watch Daniel and they catching revelation. Watch Jeremiah catching revelation. They were looking at the king of Babylon, "The lion has left the thicket. He is coming here for this country." Why? These men could look in the Word and see that military power rising; see the intent and the policy. Like Ezekiel 38 and 39, he said, "I will make Gog think an evil thought. I will put a hook in his jaw and I'm going to bring him down here." That is foreign policy. That evil thought means foreign policy.

When you understand and you look at things—you look at things in the world today... That is why if you have spiritual discernment, if you read the Message, you could know that is the spirit of a Prophet talking there. If you read that Awake or Jehovah's Witnesses or Seventh-day Adventists' book, you'll know that is a theologian spirit.

Well, it is the same way you could sit here and discern too, what kind of Spirit is speaking in this church. That is why it is important for you to know spirit; for you to know how to identify these things. Watch what the spirit does, and you will know what kind of spirit it is. Watch how the spirit moves, watch how that spirit operates. You see, when you miss that, you are just seeing a man preaching, you know. And you are thinking, "Well, I know that subject," or "I don't know that subject and I can't understand that. Well, I'm understanding some of this." No. But when you sit and you could watch the Spirit, and watch the Spirit moving, and watch the Spirit in the Word; watch the concept the Spirit is bringing out; watch the connection the Spirit is making in the Scripture; watch the application; watch the objective of the Spirit to prove which Hour we are in. How Daniel stood there and he saw the kings of the east coming. He saw the waters diverting away. He saw the condition of these people, the kind of character.

Daniel 5 carried us inside the feast, you know. You are in the feast and I am in the feast, right there. He told us who was gathered, he told us what they were doing, he told us... The history—background of that will even tell you why they did that there. Because remember, that is the same night—Belshazzar died that same night, because they came in the city. And that was a siege. Now all of this was doing what? Fulfilling Isaiah and Jeremiah's prophecies. All he said was, "God will stir up the spirit of the Medes. The burden of Babylon... God will make their arrows bright and they will bring an end to this place. He will dry up the river."

Jeremiah said, "And like horses they will come, and like caterpillars." Horses and caterpillars? What does that remind you of? Revelation 9; Joel. They were like horses. What was that? The Babylonian power. What was that in the river Euphrates? Papal Rome – Mystery Babylon power, devouring, changing the world.

What is the locust? Where do you find the locust in the Bible? (I don't mean in the Book of Revelation. We know it is there.) Where? Under the Trumpet, under the Woe. What is that? What is a Trumpet? Political disturbance, war. What is that? The Second Seal, military power, conquest. What are they conquering? Why do they want that country? Why are they warring with them? Why did they put those sanctions on them? Why? You have to think, then you understand what is happening on the earth. That is given for you to know your time.

Otherwise, when you watch out there, you are only reading papers and you are confused. CNN is saying this. BBC is saying this. TIME magazine is saying this. Newsweek is saying this here. The Guardian is saying this, this one over here is saying this. What does the Bible say? What does the Bible say? You have to go back to the Word; what is that? When you find out what the Bible is saying, then you understand, "Oh my! Look how misinformation is coming to divert the minds of the people; to blind them from what is really going on.” Because they don’t want you to see what that is. That is why they said, “We are going up there for democracy.” And the whole nation believed that. Because they said, “Our forefathers, and the flag,” and then they closed their eyes and then they put their hand here on their bosom. “Oh, yes, we are going up there,’ with the state of the union speech, “and America is going to defend the weak and the...” Jesus! God have mercy.

That’s Ahab, who has a Jezebel behind him, controlling him. And she loves blood and she is killing the people of God, and she and him have a conspiracy. And they are fooling the people, and they are handling the judicial system, to say, “Naboth did so and so,” and they put legal judgment on Naboth, and then they took control of his land. And that is a conspiracy. How are you seeing the world? You see?

So, that’s why today, in today’s world, God had to reveal who Jezebel, Babylon is. God had to reveal who Ahab is. God had to reveal what their intent was. God had to show Scriptures in the Bible how Jezebel moved behind the scene; how she wrote things in Ahab’s name, signed his letters, and put the king’s seal. When you get a passport, you get an official seal. It says, “So, and so, and so, and so. Approved by the United States Government,” so and so. What is that for? Is that what you believe? No, you hand them a passport. Or somebody says, “No, I will arrange that for you.” They say, “Here are your documents, you may leave.”

This is sometimes—people now... “They say, “Beyonce, we’ll make you an ambassador for the United Nations. You are going to go out there, you know, for the young people in this hour. Angelina Jolie, we are going to make you this here.” And, you know... And they take out the popular ones who they used, and they glamorized, and made affluent, and wealthy. And they get the biggest places to have the biggest concerts. And then they air that on all the so many channels and send it around the world. And after they influence them now, people by that image and that voice and all those moves... And then, they popularize that and then they start to produce look-alikes, and who want to dress like that and move like that and the sales go up and they are making their money through the manipulations.

Then they send them now to the nations, and they go out there as big ambassadors. Then they publicize that now in the big magazines and so on, and on the primetime news and so on. And what are they doing? They are setting up their idolatry and influencing people. And this time, people don't know they are puppets. They are puppets who sell their souls to the devil. And they are owned, they are property. Just like all the football players and them too. That doesn't have anything that you have to take with salt. If you can't understand that, then it shows how ignorant you are of what the thing really is, and what the world really is.

Because, this is the—they are the pied pipers of this day, leading millions of souls to hell. They are designed for that. They handpicked them from small, they groom these people. All of these presidents and these people, they are people who they take and groom them. What do you think, all these big schools they have: Presentation College – Catholic. St Mary's College – Catholics. Well now, they have Catholics and Protestants controlling everything. Because she was in Republicans and she was in Democrats. She was in Judah and she was in the tribes of Israel. She eventually controlled everything.

You see, when you know these principles of the Word, then you know Romanism is in everything and has control of everything. And that's why, get your thinking filtered. Get a holy man's taste. Wake up and see the world, because somebody is stealing your mind. Somebody is pulling you and sending seducing spirits to make you depart from the faith, and what? Filling your heart with fables and doctrines of devils. That's right. In the last days. In the last days.

I want to get to the part where the handwriting comes. So, watch here.

Verse 5:

⁵ In the same hour...

We are finishing up here.

⁵ In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand,

While they were praising all those gods and they were getting drunk; everybody was drunk and there was real vulgarity and revelry and drunkenness, and all those ladies were laughing, and who were hugging, and who were squeezing, and just carrying on there in contempt to the kings of the east – the Medes and the Persians. They were about—they didn't know Babylon had a couple more hours, and then Babylon is no longer in control. They didn't know the enemy was at the gate. They didn't know.

⁵ In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand,

While that was going on there, you heard, "Whoosh" and you saw a hand on a wall under the lamp by the candlestick and that hand started to write. And you see that... Isn't that strange? We come back to I-touch, I... Not a pen, you know; with the finger, and He is writing, He is writing on that wall. Remember the Prophet too, in the Second Ride where Reverend Orlando or whatever his name was, and he saw the big bag of apples and it rolled out and every one had a bite from it. That is Apple's sign, right? The apple with a bite out of it. And the voice said, "I will ride this trail once more!" There were no iPhones and iPads and Apple back there when the Prophet was doing that, in that first Ride. Apple has gone around the world. They put out iPhone 6 and iPhone 6 plus.

Everything you do today, they know. Let me tell you, you had better be careful. If you think nobody is seeing you, then if you have that device in your hands, they know everything about you. They know where you are, if you turn it off, and you are trying to play stylish, and you think you are stylish, and you are doing different things and nobody is around and you want to do your thing. Ha! You just wake up. Big brother, as they say, is watching you. And if big brother is watching you, in a surveillance society, how much more the All-seeing Eye in the Headstone that has come down, is seeing you?

And how many know everything that you do is being recorded? And how many know on the Day of Judgment, that becomes the basis of your condemnation? He says, "Is that you there? Is that you doing this here? Is that you over here? Is that you doing this here?" So you'd better... And how many know he said, "Angels are all around you, watching you, seeing the thoughts that go through your mind?" He said, "The reason you do what you do is because you are not conscious of that." He said, "But if you get sensitive, you will know that the Angels of God encamp round about you."

Remember Gehazi and Elisha? He said, "Lord, open the boy's eyes," and there were Angels all around them. We have been awakened to things in this Day, that we want to be conscious. We had a... The God we talk about, is the One Who said, "Brother, you were just praying for that a few minutes ago. Sister," he said, "He healed you. You were praying in your heart, 'Lord, have that man call me.'" He said, "Are those things true?" And right there, it proved He knew what they were exactly thinking and were going through, right there, at that very moment.

And when you say, “Well, I believe the Message,” what do you mean? Baptism in the Name of Jesus Christ? Or denomination is false? That is what you call believing the Message? You don’t believe the part where that God of the Message is here? And that God in the Message is in every one of us? And that God of the Message, anything you do and passes through you, is visible right there. Then you believe the Message. When you get there, then you believe the Message.

Now, catch this.

... [the] fingers of a man’s hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king’s palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

He was just with his thousand of lords carrying on, with all the concubines, having a great time, and all of a sudden, a deadly hush came in that place. And he saw that hand start to write, and they stood there. And that hand was writing on that wall. Look what happened to him.

⁶ Then the king’s countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

Jeremiah had prophesied that; that God will loose the joints, when he was prophesying their destruction. I don’t have time to go into all the Scriptures this morning, but to show how God will even give details like that in a prophecy. When Jeremiah prophesied, he didn’t say what will make the joint loose. He just said, “God will loose the joints of the kings.” And what happened there, was that he saw the Supernatural Hand of God writing in an unknown language.

And they saw the hand, they saw the writing, they saw words. Now catch this. They saw words on the wall like a man writing on a blackboard. The lamp was there and they saw it.

⁷ The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

If the king could cry out like that, to see that hand write in an unknown tongue, what ministers and believers should do when he said, "As certain as I stand on that platform, I will tell you a fold of it. This opened with a threefold Mystery. Under the Firstfold, Seven Thunders banging out there. He said, "And then, it unfolded into something else. I couldn't make it out. It flew past in unknown tongues, but it will make a cycle and come back around. What would we do? Call in the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers, and the magicians, to interpret that? We will call in the theologians and the people who hunt and fish to interpret that? What are we going to do? See? Now watch.

⁸ Then came in all the king's wise men: [All] but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

One was carrying about ten quotes, he said, "It is revealed." The next one came and brought; he said, "It is not revealed." Then, they come and say, "He said this over here," and they got book and page and everything else. We need something more than that. We surely need something more than that. You see?

Part of the Message was sealed up and part was opened. And he said, "Don't try to interpret it; it will be sent to you." It will be sent to you. You see the thing is, people could praise God for what He did in the past and what He will do in the future, and they can't see what is happening. That is always the problem.

...but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

⁹ Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished [or astonished].

Then in between there, (to save time) the queen, the king's mother; she said, "In the days of your father Nebuchadnezzar, there was a man, he was much younger then," she said, "but he revealed difficult things that it had in the kingdom. And the few times they had those things, when God opened those things, it was always the truth." She said, "And he still—he is retired now. He is an elderly man. He came into this country when he was a little boy. And from a young boy, we were astonished at the things he would say."

You say, "You're talking about yourself." Of course, but not as a human being, as the Holy Ghost. Because flesh and blood cannot reveal these things, it is the Holy Ghost. And that's where the Faith is! Prove it is wrong, if it is wrong. You can't prove it's wrong. And then I can't say I know it either. But what I can say: God is faithful to His promise. That's what I can say. The Holy Ghost. And that's the sovereignty of God. You see?

You see, that's why you have to separate man and Spirit. The Spirit is the Revealer. You say, "Bro. Branham revealed the Seals." No. The Lamb. But he was the vessel that the Shout came through. Because, the very first Seal, he was going with a lie, and down came the Holy Ghost. He said, "The Holy Ghost came down about twelve [o'clock] in the day," to prove the Holy Ghost is the revealer; to prove this is the One

Who could open... He said, "I sat night after night, and that Light was standing there in the study, revealing; going back and forth through the Bible." And that's why He gave that language; to prove those Trumpets are open, those Vials are open; what the Thunders really are. And tie that back to the Bible and prove he was seeing that all through the Bible. That is a work that a man can't do, friends. No man can do that work. No man— because you have to get where that Prophet was to do that. No, that's the truth. How else could you know it?

God Who sealed it up by the words he spake, has to give words to open what he spake. And that's why it's hard to understand, because it is in the language that he used; it is still being spoken. And that's why his words and the Bible come together and show the Light. But you try to get other words, you can't do it. But the mind that expressed Itself in that form is the One Who wrote the Bible. Because remember that 'Serpent's seed' [1958-0928E -Ed.], 'One God'; all those things were always in the Bible, you know. It was hidden in the Book. For two thousand years, they had the Bible and couldn't preach 'Serpent's seed'. They say, "Eve ate an apple." All these great teachers in the reformer Age said, "It's an apricot; it's an apple," and these things. When he came and started to show, it was sex. You see? And then when we start to see the things, then we realize how these things come out.

So then he came and interpreted it, right? So then I want to drop down here to 24. Then after he rebuked— he put a strong rebuke on Belshazzar the king. Can you imagine that? You see Daniel is an old man now, and he had Angelic visitation, he is beloved in Heaven, he had these things revealed, he had God's hand. He stood in the lion's den and the lion couldn't eat him, all these things. He had conviction, he stood there. He walked and saw this young playboy president, this perverted Belshazzar. You think he will say, "Oh king," and try to ‘butter’ him up? “I’m so glad to be in your presence, oh king.”

That’s like Elisha when he saw those three kings. He watched Jehoram. He said, “If it wasn’t for this man here, I wouldn’t even look at you. Why don’t you go and get your mother’s god and your father’s god? Why did you come to me? You see? That’s how they are. That’s how they are, because he knows the evil, how this man corrupted the nation. He might be wearing the best clothes, he might be driving the best car, but he corrupted a lot of people. He had no respect for God. He abused power. He never looked back at the kings; he walked in the counsel of Jezebel, and not as David and they walked.

You see, that is the thing, you know. You see, men of God today become speakers. They get there with nice flowery words and they like to make people feel nice and say a lot of sweet things where they don’t belong. And the place where they need to put the Word, they can’t do it. Because they are not living there to see what will help the people go forward or not. What will help the Church in this Hour. What will bring the Church through into the condition where the Church could have this revival and see these things manifested.

And he said: [Daniel 5:24 –Ed.]

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him;

Now you could imagine, nobody could drink anything anymore, you know. Women were crying, women were terrified, who were wiping off their makeup. Who were trying to pull down their dress, their tight dress, you know. Who were trying to get something to put over and cover up themselves. Because all those big joint chiefs of staff and everybody else there were shaking, you know. You think that’s a joke? Read Revelation 6: “And the captains and the mighty men and all of them say—they started to say, ‘Hide us from the wrath of the Lamb. Let the rocks fall on us.’” The same men who bombed people back to the Stone Age, sent drones out, killed out people, and then were hiding behind a media that was covering them up, saying, “Okay, we will have an investigation into it. We didn’t order any such strike. Maybe it’s some kind of renegade with drones and they are kind of using it here to make us look a certain way,” you know. Playing politics. Those same men.

Friends, let me tell you, the day that is coming. You see, if you are a Bible believer, you know the Word can’t fail. So what you read in the Word here... Now, this is the fall of Babylon coming here. What you are seeing here, this was prophecy. This history, these series of events were fulfilling Isaiah and Jeremiah’s prophecy concerning Babylon.

What did they prophesy? Kings—an alliance was going to be formed. Kings of the east were going to come. The leader will be named Cyrus. God was going to use something very special in this man, because nobody could penetrate Babylon. Nobody had a clue how they would even approach that city how they could get into that country. It was so tightly secured. It was so powerful. It was so advanced to every other nation. Yet, they say God gave Cyrus a dream and he dreamed the place is that water. Because do you know what God said through the prophet? “I will stir up the heart of the king of the Medes and the Persians. I will stir up their heart.”

How does God move the Church? He stirs us up too. And God stirred up Zerubbabel. And God stirred up the people by the prophesying of Haggai and Zechariah. And they got strong and they picked back up their tools and they began to work again and finished the building. Why? When God starts to stir you up; when God starts to energize you by His Holy Spirit; when God starts to make it clear; when God starts to quicken you and give you the faith, "It can be done! You can do it. Be strong, go and do it. I'll be with you, and finish this work!" God stirred them up.

Well, it was this way God was stirring him up and saying, "I am going to give the king of Babylon into your hand. I'm going to give this city into your hand."

What did Elisha say? Let me carry you in the Bible. It is coming. What did Elisha say? He was catching revelation in that season that Jehu must be anointed now.

He called one of his young ministers. He said, "Take this. You go to the summit. You will ask for Captain Jehu. Move aside in a room; don't do it in front of everybody. Carry him in a room and say 'I anoint you to be king over Israel.' Fulfill what God told Elijah the prophet." Do you understand? I would like to preach some of this in Moscow.

Now watch. Jehu began to get stirred up and began to realize. He said, "Bidkar, you and I were there. We were the man's escort." In other words, he had experience that he could look back on, that positioned him to observe certain things and see the schemes and see what the papers and the media were saying; blinding the people to what was really happening, and they were privy to it. He said, "The whoredoms of this woman who bewitched this nation. She came in here – this pagan, and killed out the prophets and set up her shrines." And he realized that God was raising him up to root that thing out.

When that Hour comes, watch how God stirs up the spirit of the people for the part of the Word. Watch how Bro. Branham, when they came and they tried to shut him down, he said, "Friends, I'm not washed in. They say I'm washed in, but remember, years ago I saw that hand come down and point to Joshua 1. And I was coming down to the Jordan. Well this here is the opening of the Seals to enter into that new land." He said, "I'm tired of trampling on this mountain. I'm heading down to Jordan. I see a vision breaking. I see a power going to bind that mamba, coming.” He said, “We are going into a greater ministry. What He had promised, is going to come here.” He said, “He is getting ready to crown the Ministry.” Watch how God was stirring him up.

He preached Is This The Sign Of The End, Sir? [1962-1230E -Ed.] and jumped into a car and drove two thousand miles, waiting for Seven Angels to appear. You talk about a man who was stirred up. He said, “What He told me on the river as a young boy. When you see—He said, “The time is going to come, your Message will forerun the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, as John was sent to forerun the first.” And then, God gave him revelations in there to see he is just like John. He is just like Elijah. The bald head, the woodsman terminology; he said, “I had scars; immoral women and these things.” He said, “All that shaped me for my Ministry.”

He started to look back at his life and find little things and realized, “Oh my God, I never looked at this before, I never looked at this before. I never observed this, I never applied that in my life this way before.” And it was all coming together. What was that? God, stirring up the man’s heart, to get him ready to connect with Seven Angels to bring the Message.

What did Paul and all of them preach about? Jesus with His mighty Angels being revealed in flaming Fire. The grace that is to come to us at the Appearing. The Chief Shepherd shall appear in the last days. All these things that the Apostles looked forward to. He started to realize, “Sirs, Is it This? Could this be the Mystery of those Thunders, open a Mystery, a power come into the Church?”

You know what it is to come down through forty-one years in the Message and see God bring that Word, word-by-word, so that you could preach some of the things you preach today? Stand in the Bible in a vision of the Word, and go down through there, from Genesis, down to this very present time; see that End Time Daniel there, watching Cyrus and they. And when that Hand comes down, all of that are events to bring—all this was being done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord through Jeremiah the prophet and Isaiah the prophet, that the burden of Babylon—and God was going to dry up this water, and God was going to do these things. But it didn't say how.

But now, when the history is being made, you see how Cyrus, a man getting a dream, a man named in the Bible, a man now... Let me tell you a little story about Cyrus.

Cyrus... This king, the king of the Medes, his name was Astyages and he had a daughter, and he had this dream. And this water comes out of his daughter until it floods the whole of Asia. So the interpreters and they came and they told him, like a king is going to rise here that is going to rule. And he felt insecure that somebody was going to rise up, like how Herod and all of them felt. Kings always want to control their power and control the kingdom.

So, the time came when his daughter was going to get married, and when she got married, she had this child. And when she had the baby, another dream came, and the dream now said, "Out of the daughter's womb is coming forth a great tree," I think it was. I have it there. I was just looking at the history of it. And when this came forth, it filled the whole land. And they said, "This son that is born here to your daughter, he is going to rise up and he is going to take this kingdom."

So, he took his most trusted servant and when the baby was born, he said, "Take this child, carry him to your house and kill him." Just like Jesus; He said, "Cyrus, My shepherd." Herod tried to kill Jesus, but the Angel watched over it. Why? Because the prophecy can't fail.

He said, "Take the child and flee. Herod wants to kill the child." He said, "You stay there. I will visit you and give you word and bring you back out." If I didn't preach this, this morning, I would have preached that to continue with the dreams.

But watch.

So, when that happens, the man is going with the child; when he sees the child, nice child, the man can't kill that child at all. So, he passed it on to another person, somebody under him, he said, "You kill it." The person couldn't kill the child at all. And that's how Cyrus lived.

And when Cyrus lived now, he was the son, because the daughter had married—the man played politics. When he married the daughter, he didn't marry her to a Mede because he didn't want anybody to come and take the kingdom, so he married her to a Persian. So when the child comes now, the child is royal ancestry too. You see? And the child is spared. So Cyrus now comes and becomes the Persian king. So, when he becomes the Persian king now, and he starts to rise, then he comes and conquers the Medes. He comes and conquers the Medes and he unites the two kingdoms together.

That is why it is the chest and two arms, a dual kingdom. Babylon was one, but the Medes and Persians are a dual kingdom. And when Cyrus unites the two now, here it is, he begins now to conquer. And Babylon forms an alliance with Lydia and a couple of other small nations there. Because this is a rising power. Like what we have in the world. What do you think Russia and them are doing? They pulled aside and are forming an alliance with China and them. They are getting sales for their oil, they are having trade, they are strengthening each other, because America now is controlling—they don't believe in that ideology, they are trying to demonize them, they want to put them under their thumb and control them.

NATO positioned itself there and is trying to set up in position and strengthen themselves for invasion and control of that oil field out there, and want to even invade Russia and these things. So they are now changing their alliances. This is happening in the world, whether its trade, whether its business.

You have a small business and your business is going to fall. Then, you realize now, this big business coming will monopolize a lot of the sales and everything here. It will dry you all up. You are getting a little bit of business right now. When that big one comes in here, invests more money, bigger business, they are going to start to get control of that industry. So you now and a smaller one come together, because you realize you wouldn't survive as an individual. So in unity, there is strength.

Well, when Babylon started to do that now, Lydia came and attacked the Medes and the Persians. And in the prophecy, remember? A bear with three ribs in the mouth? Cyrus smote them, and now the door was opened for Babylon. He was strong enough now. He had leverage and when he got that dream and he knew—he got an inspiration of how to dry up their wealth, how to divert a power that is flowing into them that is bringing prosperity and wealth to them. Because you see, all the years Russia never thought of themselves as a global supplier. They are only supplying for Europe.

Now the Chinese, they closed the biggest oil deal in all history, four hundred billion dollars. And then, they are doing joint military exercises and where they are positioned and everything, they are controlling all of Asia and big parts of Europe. And then now, with this, when they changed their currency now, all these small States that were once part of the Soviet Union, that went with the west, they are still dependent on Russia's oil. You see?

So now they could afford to say, “Okay, you are behaving bad? We’ll close the tap on you. Get American oil. Get oil from somewhere else. You see? In other words, they got leverage. Get the point that I’m making. When he gets this understanding how to divert this, how to be able to get the shift of the balance of power over Babylon; Russia is seeing now, we don’t have to be under the thumb of this nation that is saying they are the only superpower, when they they have about fourteen trillion dollars in debt. And they have all kinds of crimes and now they going into all kind of homosexuality and same-sex marriages, and they want to force that in different nations.

You see when they had the Sochi Winter Olympics? Putin said, “Come here, but behave yourselves.” He said, “This will not—we don’t stand for that here!” Because this is what the British—because most of those people in Washington and in London are a bunch of homosexuals and perverts. Read the Message. And Honeycombed with Communism and these things. All these different things, about what Hitler and all of them used. I’m coming to it. I have a quotation to read. How they take this and they use it on the people. They are bringing it back because they saw this man was advanced to his time. Because if he had gotten the bomb before us [them], he would have controlled the world.

But you see, these men don’t know the Bible. Even like Russia and China, their ambition is getting strong too, because they realize, we formed a powerful alliance, look at billions of people, two thirds of the world’s population. We are producing our own thing. We have the oil and we are wealthy people and then we aren’t bound to that financial system, and that is going to make that dollar even crash that much faster. So they already got off of that to protect themselves. But the thing is, because they don’t know the Bible, they are not going to be successful and become any world empire. They are not—Rome is going to rule the world. But they are being raised up as an instrument of judgment to the nation in the Plan of God.

It comes back to us again. There are always people in the church, full of ambition; they want to be this, they want to be that, they want to do this, but in God's Plan, He doesn't have that part for them. They take this woman, they make her a pastor. God doesn't have any plan for that. They take this man here preaching more politics and some social gospel, and then he puts a label on and says he is a prophet. You think God will decide to send vision and revelation because he puts a label on himself? No, that isn't coming... They are what—you are previously marked out by a design! You can't add one cubit to your stature! You are what you are! It is too late to try to discover you are somebody else. The Word opened, It shows who you are, take your place, line up, refuse to be shaken. Fulfill your part of the Word, the unity of the one God in the one Church. See what your gift is. Let your gift find its place. Take that ambition out, amen! Let God start to lead you in the channel of the Word.

Let the musicians come for me. I'm going to read a little quotation from Handwriting On The Wall [\[58-0108 - Ed.\]](#) and call—I was going to say, 'Call that George' [but] you can't... 'Call that Bro. Branham'. [Bro. Vin laughs. -Ed.]

So, are you catching what I'm saying? All those events were bringing to pass the fulfillment of the prophecy for the fall of Babylon; a chain of events that unfolded to bring about this. Look how God preserved the man's life from death, because before he was even born hundreds of years before, God was saying what the man's name was going to be, what country he was going to be raised up in. Look how they had designs to kill the man, and look how God protected the man.

Why are these experiences in the man's life? I could have died about three times already myself, too. Many of you have experiences like that too, maybe you don't look at yours. But the thing is, when your life starts to unfold, you see that God had a purpose for your life and death couldn't take you in those places. Your life was preserved. That's a normal thing in people's lives, but God uses that to give you faith. Because when you look back there now you start to accept. When you work out the math, you have to accept that, because that isn't even good logic [as to] why you couldn't die. If you had died you couldn't have come into this, you wouldn't be here doing this. Do you understand?

Look at Joseph and Mary. Why did Cesar Augustus get that inspiration at that moment to call for a taxation? Why couldn't God just give them a revelation and say, "Leave here and go now for the child to be born, because it has a Scripture saying so, and forget king and taxation"? Why didn't God do that? Logic will tell you, well, God could have done that. Right? But you see, that is—Joseph and Mary today are not just one girl and one man. Mary today is the Bride around the world, that the Mighty Angel descended to, and has the revelation of Her name in the Bible. And Christ is being reproduced in Her to fulfill the Scripture. And it has time and season. And so, whether you are in Trinidad, somebody in Africa, somebody in Europe, somebody in Canada, somebody in North America, somebody in South America, you could look in the Scripture and realize that in the time and season of the fulfilling of the Word, look how the Holy Spirit Who watches over the Word, Who put that there, is working. That's why I'm bringing this out here and saying, watch when that power is rising, watch when it's shifting. There is a shift here taking place, where the Medes and the Persians, by prophecy, when... Where did Nebuchadnezzar get the dream from? God. Is that right?

So, it means to say, every nation and who is going to succeed Babylon, was already planned by God. Now somebody said, "Well, Medes and Persians one day will be a power, you know.” It didn’t say that they will become second. They may say the man had a war with Babylon; maybe when Babylon was a weak power or conquered or something, you know. But in the dream when it was interpreted, it showed, “Oh king, thou art the head of gold. Your kingdom will be succeeded, not by Alexander the Great, not by the Grecian power; the next part is silver.” So, catch this. The Medes and Persians came in powerful, but not as powerful as Babylon. You get that? Because silver is inferior to gold. So, that power is going to rise up and become a great power, a wealthy power. But not like Rome, not like Rome.

My, I tell you, when you see the Bible—this makes the Bible, God to me. This is what makes God and His Word, one. This is why you could tie your soul to the Word of God and know that the Word cannot fail. Heaven and earth will pass away, but not one jot or tittle of that Word shall in any wise fail.

We look and we see Mr. Putin rising. We watch how they tried to squeeze this man out and we watch the moves this man made. They brought Medvedev, [Dmitry Medvedev, former president of Russia -Ed.] he went there, he came back in, the law changed, he is there for about ten to twelve months—twelve years. All these people who are making noise are going out; their term is almost up. They can’t come back into power. Do you understand? And you are watching and seeing this alliance being formed.

They had their G8 meeting; they didn’t invite them. The western press is trying to blacken them and demonize them, because they realize now, they are getting leverage. The wealth that previously used to be controlled by the US and Babylon, is now being diverted.

And when they see these things, they know, “We tried to keep them down as an oppressed people. We said since the Soviet Union decommunized, you all—that empire is gone. We are the only superpower, we will dictate to the world!" They don't deal with the United Nations, because they say that there are three city states: Vatican, Washington and London. London is the financial – the Vatican financial State. Washington is the military power. And the Vatican is the religious; she controls all, but she has her centers. Because it is not Rome—we are not dealing with Italy. Babylon is the world, the cage. The whole world is the revived Roman empire. The iron is in all the toes. She drunken the inhabitants of the earth and the kings of the earth.

But now, some of the kings of the earth have moved aside and become the kings of the east in the earth. In other words, they are not—they are moving away from that influence and are heading for a showdown. Because according to the Scripture, she will come in, she will make the covenant with the Jews, which is also a nuclear power. And the whole nation will be deceived – political Israel, national Israel. But 144,000 in there are going to wake up when the Thunders that Daniel heard are unsealed, and those two eagle prophets begin to bring those Thunders down and the same Message we received... And Hosea said, "And God; in the third day, they'll be healed." And the former and latter rain will come.

And Zechariah prophesied about that former and latter rain. And Joel prophesied about that former and latter rain. And all those prophecies will be applied to the Jews like they are being applied to us here now before we go. Because their Seventh Trumpet and our Seventh Seal are the same. That Mighty Angel, "...in that Day shall Michael stand and deliver the names found written in the Book." We are having that now. And the Father's Name will be sealed on their forehead. And that Woman will get two wings of the great Eagle to fly, and She will have the hidden food where She goes in, prepared for Her. And when the Dragon comes to spurt water out of his mouth to make war on the remnant of the woman's seed, and those who have the testimony of God, here will be a people, the Bride – Asenath, dismissed to the palace; 144,000, the calling and sealing of the remnant according to the Election.

Just like us, for these last fifty years since the going of the Prophet, a calling and sealing of a remnant. Just like in the first Age, the nation was blinded, but Jesus, the Son of Man, Elijah, the called out, a little remnant according to the election of grace, their eyes were opened, they recognized their Day, they knew Elijah had come, they knew the Son of Man was revealed, they received the Seal of God, they knew the slaughtering angels were coming. That same thing is going to happen there. That same thing is happening here. Because the Bible said, "They overcame the beast and the image, and the name, and the number, and were singing the victory song."

They are being called out of Gentile's hands. Moses called them out of Gentile's hands. Elijah called them out of Gentile's hands. Elijah called them out of Jezebel's system and Moses called them out of Pharaoh's system, who said, "Let us deal wisely with them." Rome, Gentile power, is going to take Israel under its control, break the covenant that they made in the midst of the week, take away their daily sacrifice and the man of sin will sit in the temple as though he is God. Moses and Elijah are going to bring that little group out. Then they will be killed as their brethren were, who cried out, "How long?" But they will be raised back up to be in the Millennium, in Daniel 12:2, and be like the stars of God.

Handwriting On The Wall [1958-0108 -Ed.] He said: So, Babylon set just in that great fertile valley there, and it was surrounded and irrigated by the Euphrates River, and the Tigris. And it was a great agricultural center.

Here's the Prophet.

And Babylon was a great city. And it's, approximately, about one hundred and twenty miles around the city; thirty miles each side, that would make it a hundred and twenty miles around. They say that the streets in the city of Babylon was some two hundred feet across. The walls were eighty foot thick, and practically two hundred feet high. They could run chariot races around these walls, with the chariots. And the gates were made out of brass, Isaiah prophesied that, the two-leaved, brass gates.

... and those gates then would be two hundred feet across. And right in the center of the city set the palace, and the palace was the throne. And through the center of the city came the great river, Euphrates. If you'll notice it, it's the city of the devil, for it's designed after the City of God, as the River of Life before the Throne. And in this city, they had great, swinging gardens, off the walls, around.

And it was such a great, mighty nation at the time, until it had whipped the known world, and all the world was paying tribute. It had progressed further in science [catch it now] and it had the latest things that science could produce. It had the latest chariots, the latest designs, the most powerful armors, and best of metals. It was an outstanding to the rest of the world.

And then inside these walls, where King Belshazzar was king during the time of this event that we're speaking on tonight. King Belshazzar, which the Bible says, "Nebuchadnezzar, which was his father," but truly it was his grandfather that he succeeded, King Nebuchadnezzar.

And many of you remember that Nebuchadnezzar was the beginning of the Gentile kingdoms, the head of gold. And he had went up into Jerusalem, many, many miles away, and had captured the Jews and brought them down into his kingdom, and made them slaves, and they used their scientists and so forth.

And hear the Prophet now,

Just like Russia did when it went into Germany.

Just like the United States did too. We don't have time to go into it. But this is what they did. They had all the scientists marked out, Nazi Scientists. They had all those records of Mengele [Josef Mengele, Nazi doctor at Auschwitz extermination camp (1943–45) –Ed.] and all the biological tests that they performed and the weapons that they were inventing. They took these men back to their country and they used these men to empower the military. Because these men and these scientists were far advanced to the allied scientists. You don't kill scientists. Politicians don't kill scientists like that, unless it is somebody else's scientist getting ahead of you; if you can't turn them, you kill them to weaken them.

But they took these scientists. That is what Babylon did. They took the smiths, the ones in the industries who could build the chariots, who could do these things, and they took the wealth of the country. And they took the best trained people and they used them to advance their nation.

America is an immigration nation. That is why they have—they offer people all around the world, and they bring them into their country. You are good in science, you are good here—because all those people are only eating fast-food and getting fat and overweight, getting sick, obesity.

Watch!

And there is why they got the atomic bomb, and so forth, they got those German scientists.

Did you hear the Prophet say why Russia is advanced like that? After the war, they got the German scientists.

That's why they're so far advanced today, they captured them and took them back up there. Themselves, they didn't have it, but they went and got those things just like Nebuchadnezzar did the Jews.

Look how the Prophet is teaching us the way they worked. Then you go into the Book of Daniel, they are beasts, predators. And so, when they go to hunt and they take a wildebeest, or a deer, or an elk, or a moose, they know that—they are not running down a chicken. Do you think a lion would run down a chicken? He leaves chickens for the fox. For him to eat and to stay at the top of the food chain and be the strongest in the jungle, he has to eat the best.

And that's why wars are fought. When a nation's economy is going down and their standard of living has to go down, then they go to war. They go after a weak nation that may have resources, and they take them. That is what is going on in Africa, all this Ebola scare and all these things. This is, "They have the power to kill one-fourth part of the world, with sword." They used sword in Iraq, not in Egypt. They used cyber warfare in Egypt; social media in Tunisia. They are using biological weapons in Africa.

When you watch what is going on in the world, friends, it is a time to wake up. I was preaching and I mentioned sometime last week or the week before, when the Minister of Health said, "We could deal with Ebola."

And a man said, "You all are crazy. Deal with Ebola?" He said, "You don't even have beds in the hospital, people are laying on the floor in a corner and can't even get a bed; you are talking about dealing with Ebola?" You see?

When people hear "Ebola"... They started to play some psychological terror in Venezuela, trying to destabilize the nation. A couple of people, something showed up on them, and the media there—which a lot of it is influenced by the US trying to destabilize that country... Because they killed Chavez. They poisoned Chavez. When Putin went there, I think I was preaching and I told you that too, Putin carried his own cook, his own food, everything. He wasn't going to eat what they had. Because he already knew, these people, the Vatican, they like to poison. Jezebel likes to poison people. Roman thing is poison. Rome always has their poison chalice. That's how they deal with these nations. They weaken them with all these fast-food outlets. And advertisements kill them, Subway this, that this, this, this way. Kentucky: 'Killing the Father's Children', KFC. [Congregation laughs. -Ed.] You understand? Making them brain dead.

How many know the food is one of the things? Mad cow beef, Asian Flu, birds and beasts. We went through these things in the past. Genocide by famine and food. Bombs, in people's body. All these hormones, all these things that they spray to kill the bugs and the plants. And then now, the fowl is eating that and he is eating that cockroach and he is eating this here. And then it comes up in the fowl. And when the fowl brings the egg, then it is in the egg.

And you say now, "Boy, home fowl egg, boy!"

But you have a kitchen garden in the back of your house that you are spraying chemicals [Bro. Vin laughs. -Ed.] coming up the food chain. Because you see, man is on top of the food chain. He eats the cabbage and the lettuce and the tomato – botany life. He eats the duck, he eats the chicken – bird life. Then he is eating goat. He is eating pork, the pig. And then he is eating fish – marine life. See? They are throwing all their toxic waste into the sea. Then man is now eating botany life, marine life, bird life, animal life. Burger, tomato and lettuce, fish sandwich. As I told you the other day, when you are praying over your food, put a little more sincerity in your prayer and a little more faith. God promised to sanctify it. But remember the prayer and the Word of God, because it is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer. Don't be too hungry and run off the prayer and then afterwards you are seeing you're weak, you can't hold up your head, you know. You are out of breath. [Bro. Vin laughs. -Ed.] Check what you are eating. You are what you eat.

Sisters, get some nice, home-cooked food, healthy meals for the brothers. Amen! Keep it nice, keep it healthy, let it look lean and mean. [Bro. Vin laughs. -Ed.] I watch the Subway people say, "Subway, eat fresh." But all they have is sweet drinks [Soda, aerated beverages -Ed.] to carry it down. You see, it's a mind game; it's a mind game.

And we find out that, during this time, there was a righteous man by the name of Daniel, a prophet of the Lord, was taken in captivity at the time. He had served as a prince over all of the astrologers, and so forth, and the wise men and the Magi, in the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar.

And now Belshazzar had taken over. Belshazzar was a wicked sort of a man. He just didn't care.

You see how he could read that Bible? And he could just watch the kind of feast the man had. He watched and saw what the man did. There was no substance in the man. From the time he saw that handwriting on the wall, he started to call for astrologers. He started to offer money and wealth and position and power if somebody interpreted the thing, because he was really scared. Fear was making him do all that. But they were praising the god of wood and stone and everything just before. And when a Living God comes down and starts to write in their midst, they can't handle that.

But as long as it is an idol god and different things there, it is okay. Everybody is carrying on, everybody you know, is politically correct, religiously correct, everybody is kind of going through. Like when they have these things. Law season opened here and the Hindu man has to come and say his prayers. The Muslim has to come and say his prayers. The Bahai man has to come and say his prayers. An Orisha man says his prayers, in the Catholic church. Because they don't have any big cathedrals; the Catholic church has the cathedral. And then the Catholic priest is the one who is carrying on the mass. And he gives everybody maybe five minutes to say their prayers and so on. Watch and see. Understand. You are reading it, you are seeing it every day, but watch and see what is going on. You see?

And they all feel blessed and the new term and they walked down the street: Prime Minister, Chief Justice, everything. Everybody is walking and going down the road. Little Bride, know in your heart you carry the Word. Know in your heart there is a relationship with the Lord Jesus. Know in your heart, one of these days these kinds of services will be history for us. Until then, get that Word in your heart. May the Holy Spirit...

Look, little Rissah, I was asking for her the other day. She sent me two dreams. Then another sister the other night gave me a couple more. People are seeing the army up here, people are seeing all kinds of different things. These things are coming for years and years and years. Because the Spirit—Paul said, “The Spirit testified in every city that bonds and afflictions await this man in Jerusalem.”

If you are going somewhere, they could snatch you easily, just detain you. They say, “What are you going here for?” Fifteen Russians come down here. You are a Russian? What are you dealing with? What is that relationship about? What is going on here? We all were in Tobago. They know everything, friends. Because you have to come through immigration. You have to apply for that at immigration.

I am preaching this knowing that one of these days this wouldn't go on again, and I know that time is very close. Because what I am preaching here this morning, he is seeing; while that handwriting, that unknown language is being interpreted, the kings of the east are mobilizing, they are diverting the water. Babylon hasn't fallen yet, but they are drying up the river. They are setting up the image. All these things are things that are going on. You see?

This is real life thing on the earth. And then we could sit in a service like this and the Bible is not ancient history for us. We can sit here and watch these things. And then this is not like a new thing. Down through these years the Spirit followed these parts and brought the Word out so clear for us.

"It seem like when a man get to a place." He said, "In this great city."

And watch how Bro. Branham is bringing this out here. I want you to see this. That's why I'm reading this.

And then all the people of Babylon, with such a security... [catch it, okay] ... with such a security as they felt they had!

This is the same Spirit that is on the platform discerning people's hearts. When that Spirit of the Word starts to operate in the Prophet, now he is bringing out something there because he is watching this Day.

... all the people of Babylon, with such a security as they felt they had!

They had the best amours, they had the best scientists, they had the best materials, they had everything. They were the super power. He described the city. I just read it.

And now he is saying: Once inside those gates, and the gates closed, with two-hundred-foot walls, eighty foot thick, just think of how secure they must have felt in those walls!

When America, with satellites up in the skies, when they have powers and laws passed, they could listen to every telephone conversation, every email they could scan. They could monitor everybody. They have an information sharing network. You can't make a move on this earth. They have financial networks that you buy something with a credit card, they have a—that is leaving a paper trail. They know exactly what you are buying, what you are spending, what you are eating, where you are going, everything about you, because their system is set up like that, where you are controlled. You don't feel controlled, but you are so controlled. Because they create a feeling to make you feel prestigious having a gold card; to make you feel prestigious that you could do internet shopping. You could bring it through your sky box and land it at your door. You could take up your computer, your laptop and go through a motor car mart in Japan and watch the car and everything else, and buy it and have it shipped right to your door.

They don't make you feel [controlled], but they know if you buy a car and if you buy a pair of socks. And if you buy a hamburger and fries, they know that too. If you buy underwear, suits, what kind of brand of shirt, what, they know what you buy. Everything. Pay your child's school fees, they know where your child goes to school. Cheque; if it is not a credit card and it is a cheque, in the bank you are banking the cheque is going. They know exactly what you are spending, who you are paying to, what it is for, everything.

And you try to hide. Who are you hiding from? What are you trying to hide? You want to hide from me? You don't have to be scared of me. You have to hide from the Beast. That is the one who will be hunting you down. And you are hiding from the deacon, you hiding from the minister, you hiding from this one here, you hiding from this one over here. Here you shouldn't be hiding; you are among family. The man who is in trouble has to hide. And on a day like today, the Dove comes down, your troubles are ended.

He said, "Think of how secure they must have felt in those walls." He is bringing—he is showing now how the human spirit in man: wealth, power, affluence, they felt secured; they felt invincible. It's that way Babylon felt, and when they had that feast, that was in contempt to that siege. "You could take this city? You're crazy."

He doesn't know what they were doing there, where they couldn't see, they were diverting that river bed. And they were finding a way to come up inside the city. And what they thought was an impregnable fortress, what they thought was such a powerful defense system, how it was designed and built and everything else for security, God showed in such a simple way how they came in. And they had no defense against the method that was used. And what was that for? If you want to know what drying up the river Euphrates means in Revelation, how are you going to interpret that? You have to go back in Babylon in the Old Testament and see how the river Euphrates dried up. If you see what the waters of the river Euphrates brought to the city, Babylon, then you will understand when it used the same illustration, the waters of the city, you will understand what it did to this Babylon here. Because this is the Mystery to that. That is a natural Babylon; this is a Mystical Babylon. That is a literal Euphrates; this is a Mystic Euphrates. That is a literal water, H₂O; this is a Mystic Water.

The Scripture interprets the Scripture. If you want to know how the Bride is going to come in and get married to Christ, you have to find it in the Book of Ruth. You have to find it in Genesis with Rebekah. Isn't that right? You have to find it, where Ahasuerus the king—the time, the season, the manner, the way, the rights, the privileges, the power, everything, you have to find the shadow to know the reality. So, that is what we are talking about.

Who destroyed Rome? Communism. Who is the communist power? Who is the head of the communist power? Russia. They have alliances. How did Babylon fall? She had control of all the nations. But it had these... This kingdom wasn't in their alliance, who came and God gave them leverage over these, and they were able to conquer these, and bring an end to their rule.

In one hour, such great costliness burns; all these riches gone? The kings, the princes, and the merchants, weeping. And they standing in fear, for her torment. What is the torment? Radiation. What could burn that in one hour? Nuclear. So she, who is throwing biological weapons on people; she who is using chemical weapons on people, she who is manipulating the stock trades and falsifying the balances; she doesn't know God counts all these sins. And she doesn't repent. And she has a day coming, she has to pay. Because God judges individuals, families, churches, nations and the world. He judges everybody. What did He say? "You are weighed in the balances and found wanting: 'MENE MENE TEKEL UPHARSIN'." He said, "This night, your kingdom is taken away from you, and shall be given unto the Medes." It was gone. Babylon, who had conquered the world, the same one was falling now. And the prophet had prophesied: her ruling the world and her fall. And Daniel lived inside of there: between her conquest of the world and her fall. And he saw these things.

He said:

... they felt their great importance of being the leading nation of the world,

You heard what he is saying? First, they felt their security. He said, now,

... they felt their great importance of being the leading nation of the world, [he is talking about America.] a very typical, modern civilization just like the one that we live in, this fabulous America.

While all those men, Billy Graham and Oral Roberts and they, were playing up to the people, "Oh yeah." Here is a Prophet now, with a different kind of voice; he said, "America, you think you are important," because he knows that is Revelation 13. “This nation will have all the wickedness of that first one, because this nation will become the military power; she will force the earth to worship that Beast or die.” And he is the voice calling us out, “Come out of her!” And he said, “A bomb is coming upon you, and a bomb is coming upon her”; because this is Ahab and that is Jezebel. Think of that.

What do you expect me to preach, and how do you expect me to preach, fifty years after this man? If that is going on, and she hasn’t fallen yet, and she hasn’t gotten killed yet, and he prophesied the thing here and it is rising up, and they’re moving into their place. And the Bride back there who was in infancy didn’t even know what was going on; that when he died—like when Jesus died, everybody went back fishing; everybody went back to doing different things. What do you expect me to be preaching if I’m really called to carry that Word? If that Spirit on the Prophet comes on the Bride; that the Spirit in the Bride will say the same thing, what do you expect me to be saying? If what he was watching—what do you expect me to be watching?

What did Elisha and Micaiah and they do, when they saw Elijah? What did the apostles and they do, when they saw Jesus? Did they know Titus was coming? Or they said, “Well, Jesus preached that, but I’m not preaching that Titus is coming, because, maybe that—we don’t understand that prophecy.” They knew Titus was coming; that’s why they went forth quickly and got a people sealed up. Not one of them who was sealed, was caught in there when Titus came. Because, they knew it was coming.

That’s why... What did Joshua and they know, when Moses went off the scene? What did Gideon and they know, when Joshua had died? That’s right. They knew we came into this land for our inheritance. Let me tell you, your life must have the continuation of God’s plan if you are Elect! It's not us going along and saying, "Oh, that was a great thing. Bro. Branham was a great man." No, friends, it was a Message.

He pointed out Israel. He pointed out China. He pointed out the Iron Curtain, the Bamboo Curtain, and the Purple Curtain. He pointed them out. He said which one is going to rule the world, and which one is going to bring the destruction of the one that rules the world. And I'm taking this Scripture here in Daniel, in Revelation; showing you how that fall came, showing you how it is coming here, showing you the alliances in the world; showing you where we are in this Book of Daniel. Daniel, seeing the image being set up. Daniel, interpreting the unknown language. Daniel and they having faith; that they were seeing laws passing in their country. But the thing is, those laws were not making them change their religion. They were praying much more, and they were living above reproach; that the thing was—they said, "The only place"—even the enemy who wanted to trap them said, "There is no place to trap them. They are not getting trapped with money. They are not getting trapped with women. They are not getting trapped with pornography. They are not getting trapped with drugs. They are not getting trapped with these kinds of things. They are not getting trapped with gambling." He said, "You could only... You have to catch them in their faith. So, put pressure on them to join the World Council of Churches."

When they did that, they found out those men said, "No, no, no! We are not joining that."

So they say, "Lions' den for you, boys."

So they say, "That's it. Praise the Lord. If we have to go by the lion's den—if God brings us here to go out by being eaten in the lions' den—'Lion, you are eating a good man today.'" Do you understand?

But they are going down there because they know that same faith that they had there—they sat under a prophet. They knew, “We sat under Jeremiah.” Hear this! Ezekiel, in Ezekiel 14, the Spirit of prophecy is the Spirit of God speaking through Ezekiel. He said, “Thus saith the Lord, God says, if Noah and Job and Daniel are here, they will not save everybody, they will save themselves.” Daniel was still alive when Ezekiel was saying that. Daniel is a young man in Babylon.

You say, “What’s the point?”

Ezekiel is alive; he is contemporary with Daniel and he is saying Daniel is a man of the caliber of Job and Noah. Do you think Ezekiel was saying, “I wonder if Daniel will backslide, boy. I can’t see him like that. No, boy, Job and they were good fellows, boy.”

They didn’t get that trouble, they understood the Word. They understood the Word. They knew... That is why I say, if you are Bride, you are the greatest. You didn’t put yourself in this Age, God put you in this Age. God gave you the greatest Message. God gave you the greatest Prophet. And God put you in the most evil Age. And God said that some of you—most of you aren’t going in the grave. You will be changed while you are alive. Others can’t break that record, friends.

And you say that you are a nobody and you are frustrated, and you can’t serve God and you are under pressure. Ezekiel said, “Daniel is like Job and Noah.”

I would like to know that I am preaching to some of the greatest saints that were called out in any Age. Because when I look at the Word here, the Word called them Super Race, Super Church, invincible army.

Like I said on Friday, you may say, “Well, I don’t see you walking on your head or standing in the air.” When the time comes to see it, you will see it. But I asked you, I said “Martha and Mary, when you saw them, what did you see them doing?” You see? When a spiritual life... You heard this Word this morning. Do you think you can just walk in the Word and pick up that and cut through the Bible and preach that?

... they felt their great importance of being the leading nation of the world,

He is showing why Babylon fell. He was preaching Handwriting On The Wall [\[58-0108 -Ed.\]](#). He was saying here, “Look at the condition of Belshazzar when he and his kingdom went down.” He said, “Look at America, I see her in a vision, going down. It is an atomic explosion.” And he was saying, “Look at the American people, today.” That was fifty years ago. Look at how he was seeing them. Look at the condition of that nation, today. It’s a hundred times worse and more evil than when he was here. She did things in these last twelve years that—what they said Hitler and they were doing, is what she did. And she rejected the greatest Message, claiming to be a Christian nation. And they took down all the ten commandments, you can’t even pray in the name of God in all the schools and all these different things, and then they are endorsing same-sex marriages while they are doing that, in that same nation. You get that?

Don’t ever get self-secure, friends. There is only one security, that’s in Jesus Christ. No matter how secure science has made you, God will find you out when you have sinned.

... [And] as they felt their great importance of being the leading nation of the world, a very typical, modern civilization just like the one that we live in, this fabulous America. And I’m kind of disturbed, myself, but I’m afraid we are taking the same attitude that they took. [He is talking about Babylon.] That we feel because that we have got, what we think, the best scientists, and the best machine guns, and the atomic bombs, and the fastest planes... Being the leading nation of the world, we have somehow felt our safety without God.

They were still good back there in 1958. But in 1956, he said, “This nation turned down the Gospel.” He said, “It will go down from here.”

And in this great city, as they felt there was no way, in the world, for an army ever to invade that city. The great, high walls, and their modern equipment, and they were blocked off from the outside world. But little did they know that a wicked nation called the Medes and Persians, which are now are the Hindus of India, how little did they know that many miles away was digging a riverbed, to turn the Euphrates River, so that they could march under the walls. When they felt they were secured! All the time they felt that way. If they did feel that, then they went wading in sin.

They had that big party and the revelry. Watch. Have you ever seen how those American people do what they do? They have these kinds of talk shows, and people sit down there and talk about all the different things that they do, and then the husband is there and it's a big show, and people are clapping and laughing. I say, "But these people are crazy." And sometimes they give a little fight inside of there and different things. When nations of the world watch that kind of lifestyle and that kind of influence, you have to know something is socially gone; something is mentally wrong. Do you know what they call that? Democracy – freedom, that's their rights. That's what they call that.

He said:

... he called in the best liquors that he could find, for this great rock-and-roll party that he was going to have. He thought he was safe. He thought there was nothing could harm him, because he was safe. And he had this great spree in one of these gardens just behind the palace. And while out there in the garden, perhaps they had decorated it all up real pretty, all the tinsel hanging, and got all of the showgirls and many of the women to come to entertain the soldiers.

Hear the Prophet. It's a Prophet, friends. He sees. He isn't drawing an imaginary picture in his mind, he is dealing with reality. Bring in all the girls, it's a party.

They are going to get drunk, they are going to revel, they are going to carry on. But God is going to visit them in that party, in the Supernatural. And God is going to write out the death sentence on a wall, and say, "You are already weighed and found wanting." That is how it went out, that is how it went out.

They hid and they bombed up these places, they killed these people. Over a million they killed at the time. Now they're showing all these things on the TV saying, "ISIS. ISIS [The Islamic State Of Iraq And Syria -Ed.]. They are beheading people. We have to get together." You think so? They need a demon. They need something to fight. They need some form of justification. You boast in one voice you could read a license plate miles up in the sky. You have all these kinds of mind control experiments you're doing on people, all kinds of different things; sending out your assassins on the street.

Look at all these kinds of, The Bourne Identity [A 2002 action-thriller film -Ed.] thing that they have – that thing there. That is to show you how advanced their science is. They train assassins. They have them living out there. They are weapons; a thirty-million-dollar project. A man; they made him into the most skilled and trained assassin. And then the man suffers some amnesia. And when he suffers this amnesia, he forgets who he is. But he starts to notice he could watch and say how tall this man is; he could see this man works with his left hand. He could see this man is this. He could say how many paces there are from there to here. And he said, "How do I know this? Where is this coming from? These are people who—they compartmentalize their mind, because with all that neuroscience today, they know which part of your brain can do what. I preached that for you many times, with the business, and how they advertise and these things.

You had better be careful of what you see. You had better be careful of what you hear. Be careful of what you read. Be careful. And that's why you try to abide in the Word, because the Word is giving you an immunity. It's giving you something.

And no doubt but what many married women came. Their husbands was left at home as babysitters while they went out to have a good time. And vice versa, no doubt a mother walked the floor with a sick baby while a drunken husband went out to have a big time. It's just six of one, and half a dozen of the other. He says:

And I can see them [I can see them] as they begin to drink and to have a big time. And I would imagine they really struck up the band, and had the music. And the little teen-agers swinging one another. And the soldiers, drunk, grabbing the women and throwing them over their heads and kissing them and setting down in the chairs and hurraing. Thinking they were safe! He says:

Oh, America, the God that looked down on that drunken, rock-and-roll party is looking on you tonight!

And what a time they must have been having! And I can imagine this here king, Belshazzar, was a modern Elvis Presley, he could do a little of their fantastics that they had. And all of their carrying on, and not knowing, all the time, that death laid at the door!

I kept you long. I'm sorry. But these things I'm trying to show you are real. This is not like a 'message'; I'm bringing to you what is happening on the earth right now. I'm trying to bring you to know how a man like that felt self-secure, and couldn't see himself being judged, couldn't see himself having to be accountable; he couldn't see any of these things. But God came down. He had a Supernatural visitation; Supernatural writing on the wall; Supernatural mind to interpret what was written there. It was something so sealed up, that no wise man, no astrologer, no soothsayer, no Chaldean could interpret it. And they had the greatest among all wise men in Babylon. Because they took all of that from different countries and they had it in Babylon – countries that they conquered. They had the greatest army; they had the greatest city that the earth had known. Jerusalem was in ashes, while they were in all their glory and their pomp.

Look at the Vatican City, friends, there is nothing like it. Look at London, look at Washington – big, mighty centers. Look at that power: financial, military and religious powers in the world. Those are the three powers: your white horse, your red horse, your black horse, mixed together; united. Look at what they do to the people, by the media. And think of us here.

My young brothers and sisters, what I preached here, you can read that in history; you can read that in your Social Science, today; you can read that in your newspapers, and you can read that if you look at the nations of the earth. And then you read your Bible and you see these nations; what they were prophesied to do. And the same Scripture will show you what you and I suppose to be. The same Scripture will show the time and season we are living in.

So, this is not a fictitious thing; this is real. If you are in the school out there, you are in a system. You went there and that system was waiting there. You went in the system. In that system, you are under their control. You are taking in what they put to you. They have teachers that they train in their training schools. And these teachers are using materials that the UNESCO [United Nations Educational and Cultural Organization -Ed.] and they send down. And especially for third world countries: what our syllabus will be.

And they send down the fashions down here. What they bring down and they make available for this part of the world. And they send down the movies, and the pictures through the television, and the radio programs for how this part of the world is going to be. To shape our values; to influence us.

If you have been walking, thinking maybe, “Well, I live in Trinidad. Well, I don’t do that,” you know. No, when you walk in a store, they buy those clothes from somewhere to sell; they are a retailer. They are not manufacturing anything to sell there. When they put up something inside there, what they call the latest fashion—latest fashion is not late for them, it is somebody who established what the latest fashion is. The garment manufacturers and the garment industry determine what we are going to wear this Summer. What kind of bathing suit is ‘in’. What kind of bra is ‘in’. What kind of underwear is ‘in’. And that is what influences people; they go and get all these kinds of filthy looking things. Because that is ‘in’. They want to feel sexy, they want to look sexy, because that is the new sexy. And things come into their minds. They look in the mirror and they find, they look—they model; they do their own modeling inside their room.

Come to the place now in your heart; like I tell you, your body is a temple. Think of your body as a temple. When you miss that your body is a temple, you are thinking of your body as Hollywood showing you what your body is. So, subconsciously, by watching movies and watching pictures and different things, you start to know what you could use your body for. So, sometimes, you have what you call ‘body language’. How many know that term ‘body language’? And how many know there are certain parts of the body that attract? Of course they do.

And how many, when they find that they are taking long to get married sometimes, or like they are not getting any attention, they know, “I have to do something with the hair. I have to do something with the dress. I have to do something with the appearance. I have to do something with this, because maybe I’m not making the statement; I’m not throwing off the

They are not going to like you like that? You mean that they are not looking at character? You mean you want somebody who doesn't have character? You want to have somebody that you can't trust? Then you have to live in the gym, day and night, to be the 'number one' body. Because as soon as he sees another body different to your body that he likes, then you have lost your appeal.

I believe if I am leading sisters into a deep relationship with Jesus Christ; into a Spirit-filled life, to live in the Holy Ghost as a woman of God, a daughter of God, then they wouldn't be caught in that kind of business. Because Jesus said, "The Word that I have spoken to you has made you clean." The Word washes your thinking. The Word washes your desires. The Word shows you your value before God. The Word shows you your—gives you dignity and makes you carry yourself as a Godly woman, a beautiful woman. Beautiful! You still have your passion, you still have everything that you have. Elijah was a man of like passions. God didn't call you to be some mannequin. But the thing is, you don't go and try to play yourself like that.

And then, if you are dealing with somebody whose appetite is a different kind of appetite, you know, some bio-engineering; somebody rearranged their thinking and he took in too much of a certain thing on one side of the brain and then on the next side of the brain, and then, he turns into a werewolf or something. He turns into a little predator, that when he sees you, all he sees is sex, or something that he wants to touch, or something, you know. And there is no more respect, there is no more decency!

And if we have brothers like that inside of here... I can't imagine that I have brothers, while I'm preaching, would sit down and look at me and say, “Yes, amen, brother. That’s the Word,” and it’s like they love that Word, and then, they are not gentlemen. They are hearing this Word and as soon as they go outside with somebody, they can’t talk to them for about five minutes and they are already down a certain road. They are examining somebody’s body like they are performing a postmortem. We want to have an atmosphere in here, we want to have respect.

Well, you all know I believe in marriage in here, right? You know, we have betrothals. I believe in Godly young men and Godly young women. I believe in respect and approach and these things. I believe, you know, it’s a mystery of Christ and the Church. I believe that Jesus loves the Bride with such a Divine love. And I believe that two—I believe in falling in love. You know that! I don’t believe in any ‘there is no thing as falling in love. It doesn’t have anything like that, and it’s just a business arrangement’. I believe people are made for each other and I believe God leads you to find that. And I believe you wait for that and you look for it, and I believe that you know what you are looking for too.

And I believe you will be tempted and you will have pressures, because this body is a strange body. We inherited this body. This body has things that our father and grandfather and great grandfather and grandmother had. And we never knew what they did. So half of the time, we don’t know what we are dealing with inside of this body sometimes. But I believe that’s why God gave us a Word to hold that body. And you sing, “Something keeps holding me, every day I see, guiding me constantly.” That’s right! There is a power on the inside to bring this flesh in subjection to the Word. I believe that.

And I believe any wise young man and young woman will know which dog to feed. You are not going to feed the black dog and you keep feeding him all kinds of things; and he is only growling. He is like a pit-bull, he is only growling inside of there. And then the man inside is so weak, he can't restrain and contain and hold back that pit-bull; so that pit-bull is running and he is trying to hold it back and he is only getting himself in trouble. And then he says, "Saints, I fell in the flesh. Saints, I fell in the flesh." And wants to give some dry confession and these things. No, I think we want to have a greater conviction.

Not because we are just trying to fight up to live a moral life. Not that. Because God has raised us up to fulfill His Word. Because God wants to dwell in us and walk in us. And we want to make ourselves available because we believe the promises of God. Because we see that God has to have a sanctified vessel; a holy temple to live in. He can't—a Holy Spirit can't come in an unholy person. It doesn't work like that. You have to clean up that life. And I believe in this way that we are here to help each other.

We're going through these Men's meetings. We'll come back on Wednesday again for the Men's meeting. And you sisters, take this time, you know, and use it up in a good way. I know some of you stream the services, because it is streaming. You're not there, but it's nothing like 'boy talk' and 'girls can't see'. You know, you listen and you kind of enjoy it. So you kind of know what's going on with the men in church, and then, you're seeing where everybody is at. And then, you know how to pray for us too, by God's grace.

But it was nice to be here today. It was nice to be in your company. And do me a favor, pray that God's will be done for me this week. My personal desire is: I don't want to go anywhere. I want to be home. You see, talking to you this morning again, and preaching to you, I see you're needy. I spent so much of my time helping a lot of other people these few years. I have things – so many things that I have 'to see about' [to take care of –Ed.], that are left undone. And then for my people, I am seeing so many needs among them. I want to give to them first, because they have sacrificed by letting me go so many times. And some of these things—there are few places where I can preach this, because the people don't have the background to understand it. But I can preach these things here to bring you aware of what is happening. So, please pray for me. I need your prayers. You may never hear me talk like this before but I need it. I really do not want to go.

But again, I don't say... I can't... I'm not carnal enough to say, "Because I don't want to go, I shouldn't go." I talk as a man: I'm tired and I want to be home. There is no glory for me in going to these places, because when I go there, I'm working myself to the bone. And I have been doing so much preaching, to go and double the amount of preaching. This is ministers now, and this is through interpreters all day. Let me sit down and laugh and play with my children and maybe get around you and let you love me up a little bit around here, and I'll feel good. And we'll have a nice, little time in the house, by God's grace.

This is what I feel I need, and this is what I want at this time. I want to see—we have some people who have been coming to service. I want to see some of them make a decision and follow the Lord, and give their heart to Christ, if they have not done it.

I trust that even today, if you feel that the Word spoke to your heart, you know, take it into your heart. Don't just come and hear and hear and hear. While you are hearing, search the Scriptures, and if you see these things be so, say, "I've recognized the Voice. This is Truth. This is making sense. This is right on target. I think this is what I've been looking for. I want to make a stand. I want to accept Jesus Christ." If you are a stranger, or you are a visitor, you know, make a decision when you hear the Word like this. We don't pull on people here and try to proselyte people and... I am not in that kind of business here. I'm not interested in... All I'm interested in is if you have faith to believe. I'm not interested in money. I'm not looking to preach for your money. I'm not interested in proselytizing to see more membership in the church and these kinds of things.

We will talk on Friday about the chairs—'re-chairing'. I guess that the trustees may have that little thing to pass around for you concerning that. But this morning, by the grace of God, I'm so thankful to be here with you in His Presence.

I want to call Bro. Collin if he is around, to pray. Just relax in His Presence a little bit. We know it will have a little [Tape inaudible -Ed.] part but...

Do you appreciate the Word? [Congregation says, "Amen." -Ed.] A way is being prepared. God is preparing a way. There is so much more... There is so much more in that, but, you know, as I say, I'm trying to keep things simple and break it down so many of the young ones could understand. I trust they understood when they read that Scripture: drying up the water, diverting the river bed. And to bring... This is what brought the fall of Babylon. This is how that is coming to pass. And that is showing us it is coming to pass. It is a Day when in this uniting time we see how that Roman hierarchy is gathering the whole world together: religions, politics and demon powers. And we're seeing... Where are they going? Armageddon. A third war. It is coming, friends. But we are being taken out before all of this.

And that's why when we can see what we're seeing, we know these things are moving and advancing and progressing. And we ourselves want to see that we too are making the progress unto our end; the faith, the unity. And that's what 'the restructuring' means to me: trying to get the church settled into these places. Because our services are running out. Very soon we wouldn't be able to have any more services. Because remember, these laws have already passed. They just...

They are creating these situations. All these Ebola 'business', all these things there. Imagine if you get two people with that in Trinidad here; next thing you know... You see how they moved there already? When you see they bring out all these big armored vehicles; all these different things that are going on. Know something for a fact; when you see that coming out, they have to bring it in softly, not to alarm the public. Because they are already having those exercises in the States.

Some years ago when I preached, I told you they brought back all those troops from Iraq. They brought them and put them in the streets of America. It's a police State and all these things are being changed. And it is being done so easily because they're making the people feel that there is a need to feel safe. Because there are terrorists; there are these things happening there. And this is how they are stealing the minds of the people. And the media, (as I showed you this morning) how they have the people controlled and they don't know much of what is going on.

So, don't walk around thinking, "Well, everything..." Everything in this Age is by design. The Rapture is by design: you have to be elected, called, anointed and placed. If you're not elected, you're not chosen, your name is not written in the Book, then you are not going anywhere. You could feel you have plenty of faith, but if you can't see yourself in the Word, you don't have real faith. Real faith comes by you knowing who you are, that is Perfect Faith. You understand? So, everything is by design. God has design, Satan has design. There are two architects, two kingdoms, two heads, and two vines. And so, that's why you want to know, "Our Head has appeared and this is the uniting time with our Head." Understand. The world is united with their head. Understand this. While that group is riding, there is another group riding.

Let's just bow our hearts as our brother would pray.

[Bro. Collin prays. -Ed.]
