THE BLACKHAWK TRADITION

We have been in the business of selecting and offering the very best in filmed entertainment for over sixty years, and through that time, Blackhawk has established a reputation as having the foremost and most comprehensive selection of classic movies and contemporary hits available.

We take pride in being "The Video Collector's Choice" and we take that responsibility seriously. For six decades we have maintained a close relationship with our customers by striving to present the most definitive selection of films you should own and the best examples of our cinematic heritage.

Some films are great the day they are made, others attain greatness over time. Some films are great examples of exceptional performances, others are directing masterpieces, still others are great for their technical achievement. Each month we review the film libraries of every studio, looking for those select few pictures that deserve to be presented as among the best. They may not all be blockbuster movies, in fact many will be small, quality pictures we believe deserve your attention.

Most films entertain, some inform, some impact you for life. But only the very best films become landmarks in entertainment and these films are worth owning. We are in the business of finding those pictures for you and providing you the highest quality available at the best price. Most all of the films offered in our catalog are mastered from the original 35mm print elements, giving you the best quality possible. You should expect nothing less.

From early masterpieces, like "Intolerance" and "Birth of a Nation" (page 20) to all-time classics like "Gone With the Wind" and "Citizen Kane" (page 28) to the recent blockbusters "Platoon" and "Fatal Attraction" (page 1) there is no more complete source for motion pictures on video-cassette. We have a six-decade tradition to uphold and we do so by promising you quality, value and service.

We always welcome your comments. If our viewing staff has not yet selected one of your favorites, please write and let us know. Also, if you encounter problems with delivery, service or value, we welcome your comments so that we can rectify the situation. We value you as a customer and will do what we can to satisfy you.

The Little Rascals Vol. 2

The First Seven Years (1930)

This comedy explores the age-old situation of two boys, Jackie and Speck, seeking the affection of one girl, Mary Ann.

Bored of Education (1936)

Facing a new school year and a new teacher, Spanky and Alfalfa contrive to skip class by rigging a phony, bulging toothache with a balloon. Winner of the Academy Award: Best Short Subject of 1936.

Rushin' Ballet (1937)

Spanky and Alfalfa organize the Secret Revengers Club. Challenged by a clear-cut case of oppression, they pull out their Sherlock Holmes hats and bravely set forth to avenge the two helpless victims, Porky and Buckwheat. 50 min. B&W.

COMEDY'S GOLDEN AGE

The Best of W.C. Fields

This collection of three early Fields shorts is presented un-cut, and has been produced by the finest quality film materials available. It is a hilarious early record of Fields' comedy genius. 58 min. B&W. Golf Specialist, The Dentist, The Fatal Glass of Beer.

RP7058-S $19.95

Good Sam (1948)

Gary Cooper, Ann Sheridan
Directed by Leo McCarey

Gary Cooper plays an out-of-control Good Samaritan who goes to such lengths as co-signing bank loans for mere acquaintances and taking in boarders. Ann Sheridan plays the big-hearted man's frustrated wife. 120 min. B&W.

RP1578-S Was $24.95 Now $19.95

It Happened One Night (1934)

Clark Gable, Claudette Colbert
Directed by Frank Capra

A runaway heiress falls in love with a newspaperman on a cross country bus trip. Academy Awards '34: Best Picture; Best Actor (Gable); Best Actress (Colbert); Best Director (Capra). 105 min. B&W.

Three Stooges Comedy Classics

Moe, Larry, Shemp, Curly, Ted Healy

It's golden-era slapstick with the Stooges in this video collection. Five of the Three Stooges most outrageous shorts. Hollywood on Parade, Disorder in the Court, Malice in the Palace, Brideless Groom, Sing a Song of Six Pants. 79 min. B&W.

RP7835-S $19.95

Min and Bill (1930)

Marie Dressler, Wallace Beery

The legendary Marie Dressler won an Oscar for her performance in this hilarious, heart-warming movie from Hollywood's golden era. Co-starred with Wallace Beery, she plays a feisty waterfront woman determined to make a good life for the girl she has raised. 66 min. B&W.

MG300606-S $24.95

It's in the Bag (1945)

Fred Allen, Jack Benny, William Bendix, John Carradine, Don Ameche, Rudy Valle
Directed by Richard Wallace

Fred Allen discovers that he has inherited $12 million from his late grand-uncle; the only catch is that the money was hidden in a chair that seems to have disappeared, setting off a race among various parties to get it first. Fans of old radio will especially want to see the enactment of the longstanding Fred Allen-Jack Benny radio feud. 87 min. B&W.

RP2070-S $19.95

The Senator Was Indiscreet (1947)

William Powell, Ella Raines
Directed by George S. Kaufman

A charming farce about political machinery jammed up with human imperfections. William Powell shines as a senator who watches the complications pile up when a juicy political diary slips out of his hands. It has the rapidfire pacing and snappy dialogue characteristic of all classic Kaufman-Hart comedies. Crackling hilarity. 81 min. B&W.

RP3624-S $19.95

At The Circus (1939)

Groucho, Chico, Harpo Marx

Wherever the Marx Brothers go, they turn the proceedings into a three-ring circus, so when they turn up at The Circus you can be sure they'll create some extra special big-top mayhem! A classic of comic insanity, the film races along at a hilarious, logic-defying pace. In one of the film's most outrageous scenes, the zany trio, Margaret Dumont and a gorilla on the loose all wind up swinging wildly from a trapeze. 87 min. B&W.

MG500121-S $19.95

Go West (1940)

Groucho, Chico, Harpo Marx

All the one-liners that have become Groucho Marx trademarks are here. For example, while tying up and gagging a train's engineer: "This is the best gag in the picture." The climactic chase scene is vintage Marxmania, with Harpo as a human accordion holding two trains together, and with Groucho and Chico stoking the engine with popcorn, singing "Pop goes the diesel." 80 min. B&W.

MG500085-S $19.95

A Day at the Races (1937)

Groucho, Chico, Harpo Marx

Marx mania is off and running in A Day at the Races. Groucho is Dr. Hugo A. Hackenbush, who is mistakenly put in charge of a sanitarium for wealthy hypochondriacs. When he gets involved with Harpo (a jockey who uses animal psychology to spur his horse to win) and Chico (a shady gent who sells good ice cream and bad racing tips) lunacy sets in. 99 min. B&W.

MG500064-S $19.95

A Night at the Opera (1935)

Groucho, Chico, Harpo Marx

Groucho's hilarious business schemes bring Milan's finest opera stars to New York, with some unexpected stowaways on board—Harpo and Chico. The three of them create a near riot on the ship (the state-room sequence is an all-time classic), a scandal in New York and an evening of insanity in the concert hall that the opera world will never forget. 92 min. B&W.

MG500009-S $19.95

Harold And Maude (1971)

Bud Cort, Ruth Gordon, Cyril Cusack

He's a young man in love with death. She's an old swinger in love with life. And they're strangely attracted to each other. A cult favorite, directed by Hal Ashby. 91 min. Color.

PA8042-S $24.95

Annie Hall (1977)

Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Shelley Duval

Probably Allen's finest film. A largely autobiographical examination of a love affair between a Jewish comedian (Allen) and a midwestern girl (Keaton). This warm, wise and witty movie swept the Oscars for Best Picture, Best Actress, Best Direction and Best Screenplay. Trivia buffs take note that Diane Keaton's family name is Hall. 99 min. Color.

MG200251-S $19.95

The Odd Couple (1968)

Jack Lemmon, Walter Matthau
Directed by Gene Saks

Neil Simon's long-running Broadway comedy about two divorced men, one a fussy newsreader, the other a sloppy sportswriter, who live together but can't stand each other. Simon's Academy Award nominated script served as the basis for the popular TV series. 106 min. Color.

Dracula (1931)

Bela Lugosi

Directed by Tod Browning

This film is certainly the one whose images have passed most completely into popular vampire iconography: black-and-white photography with an expressionist edge and Lugosi's classic performance. The yardstick by which other vampire films are measured, Dracula's popularity helped launch Universal Studios on the classic horror chain that includes Frankenstein, The Black Cat, and The Wolf Man. 75 min.
