Dear Friends,

This spring we're loaded again with all kinds of great new titles that have been added right into this Big Book, so be sure you check every page carefully. As a help, we have listed on the next page most of the new items.

Gene Autry's BLUE CANADIAN ROCKIES is our first release in this memorable collection to include "Rawhide" Pat Buttram, and he's at his comic best!

We are deeply into the Pickford films and will be announcing the first one yet this spring. At that time we will be telling you what the price will be and how many firm orders we will have to have in order to go ahead and make the super 8 versions. If you are a super 8 collector, be sure you let us know right away when you see the offer if it's a title you want. More later.

Thank you for being a customer,

Ted

BLACKHAWK COLOR SLIDE SETS 35MM. 2x2

We offer a wide range of color slide sets of the same or similar subjects; however, no duplication of identical individual slides occur between any one set and another with respect to the specific sets offered here. All Blackhawk slides give true color fidelity. Using the more expensive reversal method of duplication, Blackhawk produces slides you'll be proud to include with the very best of your own. And yet, they are less expensive to own than are slides you shoot yourself and have processed.

Stan plays the portable organ, and Ollie plays the viol. Business isn't too good until they notice they are next to an institution for the deaf. ## BERTH MARKS<sup>2</sup> (1929)

STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY

Stan and Ollie are a vaudeville team enroute from one theater to another. Catching a train becomes a problem when Stan loses the music. A passenger trips over their cello as they all scramble aboard. When Ollie asks how they can perform without music, Stan suggests they fake it. It's time to find a seat, but Stan sits on a midget and a passenger's hat before they get settled. They are then put in the upper berth of an open section Pullman for the evening. While the space is confined, the laughs are not. 21 min. BW

Stan and Ollie acquire a new friend — a stray goat. Their fragrant friend follows them wherever they go — including their hotel room — where they meet the greatest challenge — the manager, Charlie Hall.

The score and sound effects are from the restored original studio MGM disc. In this particular title the various deteriorations have caused some apparent "drop outs" and some "small repeats" to keep the picture element intact. 21 min. BW MUS

The junior members of the families almost break up the long friendship that has existed between their fathers. Stan and Ollie work in planing mill and knock each other about with boards all day. Stan "helps" Ollie by planing his rear end, trapping his fingers in a window frame, opening a closet on him, and dumping a can of glue over his head. It's an ideal Laurel and Hardy comedy, especially when their prized Model T roadster heads straight for the bandsaw in the film's classic moment. 20 min. BW

STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY

It presents Stan and Ollie as blundering, fumbling Neanderthal men surviving as worst they can. Their leader decrees that all men between the ages of 13 to 25 must marry in 24 hours or else be killed or banished from the tribe. Ollie is a mighty giant who thinks he's quite the ladies man. His most effective line is "Beautiful weather we're having. The elephants are flying south." Stan is "Little Twinklestar," and both are after the same girl. There is a brief animated section in the middle of this film. BW

In most cases when Laurel and Hardy dealt with the law, they were on the wrong side... either by choice or by chance.

In MIDNIGHT PATROL they prove no more adept at crime busting than they are at crime causing.

STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY, BILLY GILBERT, CHARLIE HALL

Simply put, THE MUSIC BOX is one of the best sound films Laurel and Hardy every made.

In it, Stan and Ollie must deliver a piano to Professor Theodore von Schwarzenhoffen.

The good professor's house, however, is only reachable by a long flight of steps... a very long, very steep group of steps to be sure.

From then on things run from predictable to the nutso with tie-twiddling, the inevitable cop, a ridiculing nursemaid with baby carriage, and more.

THE MUSIC BOX is a rich, well-edited and perfectly executed example of frustration comedy. It's also Laurel and Hardy's only Oscar-winning film. 30 min. BW

Just as Victor Albert, great operatic composer, arrives at the Alpen Hotel in the Swiss Alps, two nincompoop mousetrap salesmen, Stan and Ollie, enter town. Albert needs peace and quiet to write his opera, and you can bet that is just what he doesn't get with Stan and Ollie around. The boys start out washing dishes and are promoted to waiters. Here Stan does a marvelous routine trying to con a St. Bernard out of his brandy keg. (Stan shot this remarkable sequence in one take.) The zany climax finds them moving a piano up a narrow Alpine trail, over a swaying bridge on which they meet... a gorilla? 77 min. BW

Doctor Billy Gilbert orders Ollie to the mountains for a complete rest. It seems too much "high living" has brought on an attack of the gout. # LOVE BUSINESS<sup>2</sup> (1931)

B Jackie Cooper has a crush on his pretty schoolteacher, Miss Crabtree; every night in bed he keeps his little brother Wheezer awake as he hugs and kisses his imaginary sweetheart and calls her lovey-dovey names. One day Jackie gets a piece of news that hits like a thunderbolt: Miss Crabtree is coming to live with his family! This means washing before every meal, and along with Wheezer and his sister Mary Ann, keeping an eye on dinner etiquette. But it also means having to put up with a romantic rival, as Chubby drops by to ask Miss Crabtree to marry him. Jackie heckles his adversary, but the love-scene comes to a definite halt when Jackie's mother recognizes the mushy sentiments Chubby is dishing out. He's memorized her old love letters, which Wheezer has been selling!

LOVE BUSINESS is a typically amusing and appealing short from the early-talkie period, featuring that idolized schoolmarm, Miss Crabtree, played by June Marlowe. In one scene, the Hal Roach filmmakers play a subtle inside-joke: Chubby practices love-making in front of the local movie theatre, when a giant photo shows a typically sappy movie couple — Charley Chase and Thelma Todd! 21 min. # THE GREAT DICTATOR (1940)

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, PAULETTE GODDARD

Chaplin plays a dual role in this, his first dialogue film: the modest, unassuming proprietor of a small barber shop in the Jewish ghetto of Tomania, and that country's maniacal dictator, Adenoid Hynkel. Through a complicated set of circumstances, Hynkel and the barber become mistaken for one another by Hynkel's troops. Forced into an impersonation of Hynkel at a mass rally celebrating Tomania's successful invasion of Austerlich, the barber steps even further out of character and becomes Charles Chaplin. His impassioned speech on the evils of militarism, delivered directly to the audience, created an instant sensation, and Chaplin was asked twice to repeat it on network radio broadcasts. 128 min. BW

The Great One is in top form as the purveyor of village gossip and solver of countless individual problems — from both his customers and innumerable "strays" and passersby.

The action begins when a local gangster enters O'Hare's barber shop and forces Fields to change his identity by shaving off his mustache and cutting his hair. Of course, W. C., being the brave soul he is, sets out to capture the bandit and claim the $2,000 reward. Now the laughs really begin. 21 min. BW

Blackhawk Biographies

Laurel and Hardy began as a team at Hal Roach Studios in 1926. Laurel had been Chaplin's roommate and understudy in Karno Theatrical Troupe. He was in vaudeville for a decade when he joined Roach, first to star in his own series, then as a writer, and finally as the "L" of L&H. Babe Hardy entered showbiz as a singer and went into films in 1913 as a villain.

As a team, Laurel and Hardy made 105 films which were largely ignored by critics until the 1950's.

Each was the other's dumbfunny foil. As their comedy evolved, they made millions laugh.

Both are gone now, but their effect on comedy continues.

Born 1889 in London in vaudevilian parents, Chaplin grew up in poverty. He came to America as a member of the Karno Theatrical Troupe. Mack Sennett and Mabel Normand attended a show and soon Chaplin was under contract to Keystone. At Keystone he learned the film medium and slapstick. From Keystone he went to Essanay, where he continued to develop the Tramp character, adding pathos to his repertoire of pantomime. Dissatisfied, Chaplin signed a spectacular contract with Mutual for $50,000 upon signing and $10,000 a week: $670,000 in all! At Mutual he made his greatest comedy shorts, at least 3 of the 12 are indisputable classics. From Mutual, Chaplin went into a transition phase at First National. There his work was uneven and his personal life difficult. In 1919, he, Fairbanks, Pickford and Griffith founded United Artists. In 1925 Chaplin released his first UA picture, THE GOLD RUSH, a feature length masterpiece, followed by CITY LIGHTS and MODERN TIMES. In later years, Chaplin's output dwindled. He became a political exile from the U.S. This poet of comedy died in 1977.

of a rich client. Dr. Jack meets the girl and it's love at first sight. He prescribes a cure of humorous situations — putting gun-boat sized shoes on the cute tootsies of his employer's wife; crashing a society ball in order to impress a young lady he falls in love with; finding himself aboard a trans-Pacific steamer without a ticket; hiding in a mail bag only to be picked up and carried with the mail on a ship-

Lloyd, the shy one-man disaster, has written a book starring "himself" as a champion romancer.

Heading to New York in quest of a publisher, this Poor Boy meets the girl of his dreams and becomes her friend by concealing her poodle from the conductor.

jects his novel) leads to another (the girl's

GRANDMA'S BOY (1922)

HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS,
ANNA TOWNSEND

GRANDMA'S BOY clearly established Harold Lloyd as one of the screen's leading comedians. Harold plays a young boy who thinks of himself as a coward. His grandmother tells him about his grandfather... a coward who was inspired to daring exploits by carrying a witch's lucky charm. She gives Harold the charm which is nothing more than the head of her cane, and leads a posse to capture the town bully. Lloyd's personal favorite among his films. The original 35mm film has intermittent white vertical streaks. This "flairing" is normal for this subject and no better print is available. This condition does not detract from the enjoyment of this film. 53 min. BW

HAUNTED SPOOKS (1920)

HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS

Poor Harold is unlucky in love. He loses every girl he loves to the other guy. Even suicide fails. Then along comes Hillary, who needs a husband to inherit a house. It's wedding bells for Harold but he gains a haunted house in the bargain. Although HAUNTED SPOOKS marked Lloyd's return to the screen after a bad accident, reviewers hailed it as his best comedy to that time. It's ingeniously simple in conception and filled with cleverly executed gags. 20 min. BW

This abridgment focuses primarily on two of Lloyd's finest and funniest gag sequences.
Harold wins a turkey he doesn't want. When he takes it home via the streetcar the bird ends up under a woman's skirt and Harold ends up walking. In the next scene Harold is forced to

THE KID BROTHER (1927)
HAROLD LLOYD, JOBYNA RALSTON

Poor Harold is the youngest of three sons living with their father, the sheriff a widower. Father and brothers are real he-men, but Harold is just a boy. When the men go to town he is left at home, for it is no place for boys. During a fantasy of being a hero, Harold meets Mary Powers who is traveling with Prof. Powers' Original Mammoth Medicine Show and two shady characters.

As the story unfolds, our shy and weak KID BROTHER proves to Mary and himself that he can be as effective as any of his family. Through some violence, "monkey-business" and loads of side splitting humor, our boy recovers the stolen money, rounds up the crooks, takes care of the bully, wins his girl, and makes his father proud.

Filming was done partly on Catalina Island near Alacenia, California.

NEVER WEAKEN (1921)
HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS

Take hair-raising action, play it for laughs, and you have the formula Harold Lloyd used to establish himself as one of the funniest comedians of all time. In NEVER WEAKEN the breezy go-getter is driven to despair; Harold hires an acrobat to generate business for a doctor's office where his fiancée works. When a crowd gathers around an unhealthy looking specimen Harold hides while the acrobat flips and falls. Harold runs to the rescue and administers aid. After what looks like a miracle cure Harold passes out the doctor's business cards. Soon a stream of patients fill the doctor's office, but when Harold peeks in to gloat he finds his betrothed embracing another man! He resigns himself to suicide but every attempt (poison, jumping out the window, and shooting himself) fails. 26 min. BW Idle rich boy meets girl. This time her father sets down the law, "make a name for yourself if you want to become my son-in-law" he makes perfectly clear. Lloyd joins the Navy to accomplish this goal. The girl invites Harold to a cruise on her father's yacht and so Harold returns to the recruiting station to cancel his enlistment. Too late. He is stationed on a dreadnought and off to the high seas.

THE CANNON BALL/ THE EYES HAVE IT

"The Eyes Have It" made in 1928 stars Ben Turpin with Georgia O'Dell, Helen Gilmore and Jack Lipson. Ben needs a day away from mother-in-law, but things go badly until he rescues a young lady and she invites him to her apartment. But the hounds are already on his trail — wifey and her mother smell a rat and guess who they catch, up to his neck in a compromising situation?

"The Cannon Ball" made in 1915 stars Chester Conklin. Here it's pandemonium in the Boom Powder factory when explosive expert Chester arrives to inspect operations. His methods are most unusual, but you must admit the wily little cuss knows his powder and his women!

But as sharp as he is, Chester's no match for the dim-witted Keystone Cops once they swing into action in this rousing melee of trick photography and high-flying actors. Score by Robert Isreal. 41 min. BW

LAUGHFEST

Five classic slapstick shorts by four of the greatest make "Laughfest" a ticklish riot. "It's a Gift" stars Snub Pollard with an invention for everything. The film opens with "a meeting of oil magnets, brokers, and a few honest men." Pollard has invented a substitute for gas, but his non-flammable, miracle fuel makes cars go crazy before they explode! "Barney Oldfield's Race for a Life" is an old fashioned melodrama timeless in appeal. It features the most famous race car driver of the period — Barney Oldfield, "fastest man on wheels". Kid's Auto Race", Chaplin's second film, gives birth to the tramp character, and "Busy Day" finds Charlie in drag. Then it's cross-eyed Ben Turpin as the endangered stuntman in "Daredevil". SINGIN' IN THE RAIN<sup>1</sup> (1952)

GENE KELLY, DEBBIE REYNOLDS, DONALD O'CONNOR, JEAN HAGEN

An exuberant, song-filled satire of Hollywood in the last days of the silent era. Gene Kelly's first "talkie" threatens to be a disaster due to the leading lady's squeaky voice until it is decided to dub Debbie Reynolds' voice in over the leading lady's. Energetic Kelly is "Fit as a Fiddle and Ready for Love". Reynolds inspires him to merrily hoof it out-of-doors in the unforgettable number, "Singin' in the Rain". "Moses Supposes" and "You Are My Lucky Star" are also heard in this section. "Good Morning" opens part two as sung by Gene and Debbie. A lover's spat calls forth "Make 'Em Laugh". Here O'Connor dances up walls! Kelly and Charisse dance to "Broadway Ballet." Abr.

Video Equipment

YOUR VIDEOTAPE CARE

Heat and dust are two of the videocassette system's main enemies. Videotapes should be good for hundreds of high quality showings if they and the recorder are properly maintained. Here are some maintenance suggestions:

THE CASSETTE TAPES

1. Store tapes in tightly closed containers, such as plastic cassette albums.
2. Store tapes out of direct sunlight or other heat sources.
3. Don't allow cassettes to lie on top of a recorder that is in use.
4. Very cold cassettes must be allowed to warm to room temperatures, preferably in a sealed container, before use, otherwise moisture may condense on the tape.
5. To give the "cleanest" recording, a new tape should be fast forwarded and rewound before its first use.
6. Leave tapes un-rewound at the end of a use and then rewind them just before the next use.
7. The "pause mode" causes rapid tape wear at the spot at which it is stopped, so use it sparingly.

THE RECORDER/PLAYER

1. The machine must have adequate ventilation, so it must be sitting on a hard surface with nothing, such as cloth or paper, under or on top of it. This includes the dust cover whenever the unit is switched on.
2. The machine must be positioned where it won't receive direct sunlight for any length of time (solar, plus the internally generated heat can become excessive) or where it will be in the direct heat of an air duct or radiator.
3. When not turned on, the machine must be covered to prevent dust infiltration.
4. Switch off the recorder when it isn't necessary that it be on. Whenever the on/off switch is "on" the motor is running which pulls airborne dust to the inside.

HAPPY VIEWING!

BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY<sup>2</sup> (1927)

Director Walter Ruttmann's famous BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY is one of the most influential non-fiction silent films.

On the surface it records everyday events: a railroad arriving from a suburb, factories opening, street filling, traffic jamming, an evening at a cabaret, etc.

But it's also a social commentary when it contrasts the simple meals of diners with the huge ones served at the Berlin Zoo... or a suicide at dusk.

And it's a lesson on the art of film with images piling on images. 68 min. BW

From the series: The History of the Motion Picture

Produced by Paul Killiam and Saul Turell

THE HISTORY OF THE MOTION PICTURE is a unique series of half-hours tracing the development of the 20th Century art of filmmaking.

Some units are condensations containing carefully chosen highlights and key scenes from great classics. Others present anthologically selected materials from many sources on specific themes: comedy styles, individual stars, directional techniques, etc. New musical scores enhance interest for today's audiences, and thoughtful narration pinpoints the significance of each sequence in movie history, recalling the challenges faced by the craftsmen who made them.

The 16mm. sound prints are ordered from Blackhawk with the understanding that they will not be copied, reproduced, transferred to other media, leased, re-distributed on a rental basis, used theatrically or for television of any kind, all of which rights are expressly reserved.

FAY WRAY, BRUCE CABOT,
ROBERT ARMSTRONG, KING KONG

The fantasy masterpiece about the giant ape captured on a prehistoric island who proceeds to terrorize New York until his final stand on top of the Empire State building. Legendary special effects, meticulous construction, and a superb musical score are what make "King Kong" work so well. Almost the entire first half is build up, so one gets to know the characters, to care about them and what happens to them. Once Kong makes his initial, fearsome appearance, the pace changes totally. It becomes hysterical, hammering home shock upon shock. 105 min. BW

by Sherlock Holmes to foil Professor Moriarty in this film based on the short story "Silver Blaze" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Arthur
Wontner, a Basil Rathbone look-alike was Sir
Arthur Conan Doyle's personal choice to play Holmes. Judging by Wontner's performance, a mixture of wry humor, complete confidence, and cool aloofness, Doyle was right. Holmes received an invitation to visit Sir Henry Baskervilles at his estate. The vacation is short-lived

The original negative of OUTSIDE THE LAW was destroyed, and until the mid-seventies no prints were thought to exist. Happily Bob Deflores did locate a print of this mystery in which Lon Chaney, the master of make-up, plays 3-parts.

The print, however, was somewhat damaged. So extensive restoration was necessary. As now offered, these prints are good, but do contain some flaws near the end.

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1925)
LON CHANEY, MARY PHILBIN

Strange things are happening at the Paris Opera House.

Deep beneath it lurks a scarred genius methodically plotting revenge. He's a creature so hideous that he strikes terror into everyone... including the prima donna his tutoring has brought success.

The story is a classic that this 1925 movie, the first filmed version, lives up to spectacularly.

Lon Chaney, Sr.'s acting brought never-again-equalled power and scope to the title role. Director Rupert Julian kept the action moving. And the highly unusual colored masked ball sequence shocked audiences used to black and white. A masterpiece of horror. 79 min. Part Color

GENE AUTRY AND WESTERN

SONGS (1947) GENE AUTRY

It's "Oklahoma Yodelling Cowboy" doing the thing he does best; singing. In the mid-1930's he sang on radio station KVOO in Tulsa and was picked up by the Okeh label. Soon he was hired by Sears to present the Gene Autry Program weekly on WLS. Immensely popular, he received 50,000 fan letters per month. In this promotional short he sings three songs he practically made standards: "Mexicali Rose", "Back in the Saddle", and "Home on the Range." 9 min. BW

MELODY RANCH<sup>2</sup> (1942)

GENE AUTRY, JIMMY DURANTE,
GEORGE "GABBY" HAYES, ANN MILLER

Melody Ranch is not only the title of this movie, it is also the title of the radio show that Gene and the boys star on in New York City every week. There is also a ranch named Melody Ranch that Gene has decided to return to when he retires. Ann Miller has the role of "Rosie", his on-mike sweetheart. Off mike, this is really a case of her chasing him until he catches her. Gene is visited by George "Gabby" Hayes who invites him and his companions to Gene Autry Day in Torpedo. Once there, Gene is forced to defend not only his honor but that of "Rosie" and all of the decent folks of the town. Gene finally runs for the job of sheriff and is elected. As Sheriff, he handily cleans up the town. There is plenty of music throughout. It is easy to understand why Gene Autry is so popular. He means good entertainment. 84 min. BW

ROBINHOOD OF TEXAS<sup>2</sup>

(1947)
GENE AUTRY, CASS COUNTY BOYS

Robinhood of Texas is a wonderful, old fashioned western in which the good guys wear white and triumph over the bad guys in black. Gene Autry, with the magnificent Champion Junior and also the Cass County Boys maintain their flawless reputation of always being the good guys by helping the local Sheriff round up a team of bank robbers along with all of their loot. At the same time, they salvage an almost defunct ranch by fixing it up and turning it into a fancy dude ranch. We are treated to the enjoyable singing style of Autry and the Cass County Boys. Along with the music we are treated to several good chases in classic horse opera style as well as the triumph of all of the good guys putting out a fire that threatens to consume the barn at the ranch. 71 min. ## INTOLERANCE (1916)

MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER, CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERICH VON STROHEIM, LILLIAN GISH

Although less financially successful than his earlier BIRTH OF A NATION, D. W. Griffith's INTOLERANCE is regarded as his most important work.

Using the image of a mother rocking a cradle as a bridge, Griffith skillfully wove four separate, but parallel stories (the Fall of Babylon, the Crucifixion of Christ, the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre of French Huguenots and a more modern story) into one whole. The magnificently achieved purpose: to illustrate the struggle between love and intolerance through the ages.

IT<sup>2</sup> (1927)

CLARA BOW, GARY COOPER, ANTONIO MORENO

"To have 'It', the fortunate possessor must have that strange magnetism which attracts both sexes. 'It' is purely virile quality, belonging to a strong character. He or she must be entirely self-conscious and full of self-confidence, indifferent to the effect he or she is producing, and uninfluenced by others. There must be physical attraction, but beauty is unnecessary. Conceit or self-consciousness destroys 'It' immediately."

The story is fictional and complex, involving a plot to take over the world by a German bank president/master criminal. Some film historians argue that director Fritz Lang's SPIES accurately reflect the attitudes and conditions that led to the Third Reich.

True, or not, this thriller definitely displays Lang's direction virtuosity. 89 min. BW

GREAT CINECON ADVENTURE EXCURSION

For those living in the New York or Los Angeles area a round-trip excursion at reduced prices to the Blackhawk Hotel, site of the Great Cinecon Adventure over the Labor Day weekend, is possible.

If enough interest is engendered, and these flights approved, the American airliner would leave New York's LaGuardia airport Thursday, Sept. 2nd at 1 PM Eastern time and arrive at the Chicago's O'Hare airport at 2:15 Central time. A chartered bus will be at the airport to take Cinephiles to Davenport's Blackhawk Hotel, an approximate 3 hour ride. On Monday, Sept. 6, at 2 PM, the same bus will return to O'Hare to meet a 6 PM flight back to New York, to arrive in New York at 8:59. Today's cost for the entire round trip — $236.

The American airliner flight would leave Los Angeles at 9:02 Pacific, arrive at O'Hare at 2:45 Central. Travelers will take the same chartered bus to Davenport as the New Yorkers. The 2 PM chartered bus on Sept. 6 will meet the return Los Angeles 6:00 PM flight, arriving in Los Angeles at 8 PM. Today's cost for the entire round trip — $308.

IMPORTANT: These prices are effective now! They are subject to change by the airlines without notice. The only way these prices can be firmed is if advance paid reservations are made. The Cinephiles have blocked 50 seats on each flight. The bus will be chartered as soon as enough people indicate interest in the trip. We must have that information as soon as possible. If you are a resident of these areas, if you are interested in these excursions, write Samuel K. Rubin, P.O. Box 4079, Davenport, Iowa 52808. NOW!

Remember, you must be a member of the Society for Cinephiles to attend the Great Cinecon Adventure. Send your membership fee of $10 to Chris Hubert, P.O. Box 543, No. Hollywood, CA 91603.

THE NBC UNIVERSITY THEATRE OF THE AIR

Radio drama was seldom better than this. These adaptations of modern novels were originally tied to college supervised home-study courses. (Sounds like the hoped for video world of the 1980's, what?) Intermission time features a known critic or author of the time talking about the writer whose work we hear. The show was planned into semesters with each featuring British and American authors of a certain era. The series was directed by Andrew C. Love of Hollywood.

REFLECTIONS

(Part II)

By Kent D. Eastin

During this time, I was privileged to see what went on in the composing room. I saw the linotype lines being set and the monotype display types being cast so that they could be hand set for the ads. And in this period, after I had some perception of what went on, my friend asked me if I would like to have a line of type set on the linotype and, if so, what should be set. Guess what? I said that the copy should be:

A KENT D. EASTIN PRODUCTION

which shows where my interest was. It came through, courtesy of my friend's dad, set in 10 point Cheltenham bold caps. I fondled it like a jewel and felt the lack of a means of printing it. But, on occasion, I would try to make an impression of it by means of a rubber stamp pad and pad of paper — never with really good results.

But somehow, the line: A KENT D. EASTIN PRODUCTION put me in the same league with Cecil B. DeMille, Frank Lloyd, Alan Dwan, and dozens of other producer-directors in the movie production business.

Then, just a year or two later, having acquired an interest in printing through the same magazine pages that brought me my first movie picture projector, I acquired, in used form, a 5 x 8 Excelsior place press owned by the son of a newspaper publisher and editor in the small town in western Illinois where my father had grown up. To make this purchase I was forced to borrow $5.00 from my dad (which was relatively promptly repaid out of my allowance) and I became a self-taught printer based on instructions which came along with the press. A year or so later, thinking of ways to capitalizing on my investment, I thought of the pair of local theatres then under common management and wrote the manager to sound him out on the imprinting of publicity heralds or leaflets which The West, particularly, used with some regularity. In my letter I expressed a thought that I could handle the imprinting on these at $1.00 per thousand, including the folding. I got a letter back from him telling me to drop in so that we could discuss it. I did just that and the discussion was fruitful. I came away lugging several bundles of small heralds packed 1000 to a bundle. I printed hundred of thousands of heralds in the several years that followed, but after this association began I found myself beginning to actually work at the theatre in taking care of displays, ushering, taking tickets and even serving as cashier at odd times. It even went so far, that by the middle or late 20's, I was actually writing the ad copy for the newspapers. I was in the theatre one afternoon when a member of the theatre staff called me aside to show me a huge wicker hamper containing the original costumes worn by Milton Sills, Enid Bennett and Wallace Beery in "The Sea Hawk". These costumes had been sent out by First National Pictures to be used in the promotion of the Galesburg run of the film. And they were, either in the windows of O. T. Johnson Co., the major local department store, or Temple & Carroll, the leading local book store of the period.

But they also found their way to several high school Halloween parties, and I imagine they also showed up at fraternity and sorority parties at the Knox and Lombard Colleges where the wearing of costumes would have been called for.

I found that the Galesburg Public Library had microfilms of both of the daily papers of that period, going through which would enable me to refresh my memory. This I did beginning one day in the fall of 1977. This research ultimately extended to some dozens of days spent in looking through the microfilms. But, going through the microfilms did much more. Discovering some facts of record of an event that I had long forgotten only brought up a question about something else and I found myself checking out various phases of movie history as it applied to my hometown and to me. For instance, there was the program that was playing at the Orpheum the weekend that Galesburg was a hot contender for the state basketball championship at Champaign-Urbana. We came in second, but I never did see the movie. And another program that was playing the same Friday evening as our class prom. This movie I also missed. And there were other associations along the way.

(These reflections have been published posthumously.)
