THE GOLD RUSH

(1925)

with special musical score and narration
by Charles Chaplin

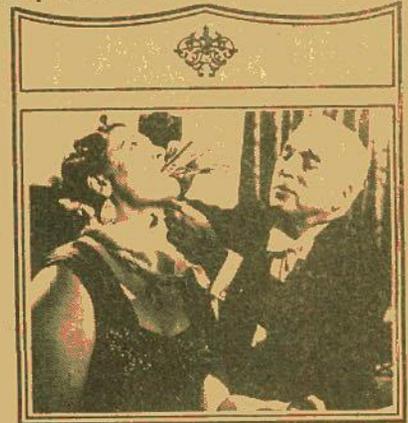

Restricted To United States Only

THE GOLD RUSH was Chaplin's first starring picture for United Artists, the company he formed with Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Sr. and the great director, D. W. Griffith.

Originally released in 1925, THE GOLD RUSH became Chaplin's most popular picture. One of the best-known scenes of the silent screen is the little tramp eating his shoe to delay starvation. In 1942 Chaplin composed a score for THE GOLD RUSH, and redated the film's subtitles with his own narration.

A King in New York

with a script and narration by Charles Chaplin

Chaplin made A KING IN NEW YORK in England in 1957, three years after he left the United States, and at a time when anti-Chaplin sentiment was at its peak. The film is a satirical look at the United States of the 1950's, and, perhaps because he felt that Americans would not appreciate his comments on American manners and mores, Chaplin never allowed A KING IN NEW YORK to be seen in the U.S. This will be the first time the film has been available for American audiences.

In A KING IN NEW YORK, Chaplin pokes fun at McCarthyism, dogma-spouting Marxists, rock & roll, wide-screen movies, and television. In the end, the King returns to Europe, having had enough of a temporarily crazy society, much as Chaplin decided to remain in Europe rather than return to the U.S.

PAY DAY

(1922)

PAY DAY was Chaplin's last two-reel comedy — also one of his funniest. Charlie goes out drinking with his buddies on payday — and you can imagine the consequences. This rare short also stars Chaplin's brother Sydney.

CLASSIC COMEDY

MODERN TIMES

with Paulette Goddard

written, directed and scored by Charles Chaplin

(1936)

Restricted To United States Only

MODERN TIMES was an ideal vehicle for the little tramps' last real appearance on the screen. It is a perfect weaving of all the elements that made Chaplin the most-beloved performer in the world.

The film was Chaplin's last attempt of keeping the silent film tradition alive in the sound era. He did make use of voices emanating from radios and television sets, some sound effects, and he composed a score for the film, as he had for his earlier CITY LIGHTS (1931); but, the Tramp character maintained his silence, except for gibberish song he performs as a singing waiter.

Appearing with Chaplin in MODERN TIMES is Paulette Goddard, who was Chaplin's wife of the time. Her performance in this picture, and in Chaplin's next film, THE GREAT DICTATOR (1940), brought her a great deal of attention, and she became one of the leading stars of the 1940's.

These classic comedies are at the top of most collectors' want lists. They represent the finest moments in screen comedy, and are perfect family entertainment.

Pre-press material for these super 8 magnetic sound prints of the films of Charles Chaplin are made directly from Mr. Chaplin's 35mm master negatives, and are excellent in picture and sound quality.

Yes, all of these new Chaplin comedies have sound! With the exception of A KING IN NEW YORK, which is an all-talkie, Chaplin added beautifully moving musical scores. The shorts, PAY DAY and A DAY'S PLEASURE have music only.

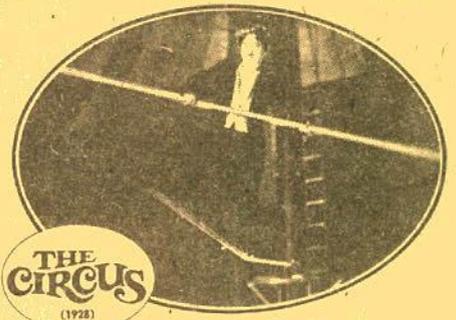

Chaplin added a song for the introduction of THE CIRCUS, composed just six years ago. MODERN TIMES contains the original music and sound effects from its 1936 release. This comedy also marks the first time that the "Little Tramp's" voice was heard on screen when he sang a delightful nonsense song.

Perhaps the most notable Chaplin dialogue is in the 1942 reissue version of THE GOLD RUSH. This contains the original musical score composed by the comedian who replaced the title cards with his own spoken narration. This movie is perfect for youngsters who aren't quite old enough to read, and for those collectors who already have the silent version in their collections.

The Chaplin films on these two pages are being made available to customers on a long-term lease to expire in 1991, or for the life of the print whichever occurs first; and each order must be accompanied by the signed lease agreement.

THE CIRCUS
(1928)

SPECIAL ACADEMY AWARD

in 1928 for writing, acting in, directing and producing THE CIRCUS

written, directed and scored by Charles Chaplin

Restricted To United States Only

THE CIRCUS is reminiscent of Chaplin's earlier films. Fast-paced, imaginative, with only a touch of pathos, it is Chaplin's most light-hearted feature.

One of the last great silent comedies, THE CIRCUS was made just as Hollywood was frantically converting to "all talking, all singing, all dancing" pictures. In the first year of the Academy Awards, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences honored Charlie Chaplin with a special award for "Writing, Producing, Directing, and Starring in THE CIRCUS".

In 1970, Chaplin composed a musical score and wrote a song for THE CIRCUS, and mounted a world-wide reissue of the film through his old studio, United Artists. The tremendous response to the forty year old film proved Chaplin's artistry to be as fresh and funny as ever.

THE ADVENTURER (1917)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

The alarm sounds, and a desperate convict has eluded the long arm of the law! Charlie is the convict — soon mistakenly swept into a dizzy, outrageous social whirl with wild chases, clever pantomime and comedy sequences that are hilarious. Highly rated!

BEHIND THE SCREEN (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

The comedy is set in a film studio of the period, with the dramatic stage close to the comedy set, and action going on all over the place. The wind-up is a pie-throwing sequence all too typical of the period, but somewhat less typical of Chaplin.

THE COUNT (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie catches his boss impersonating a real count, and all kinds of situations evolve. Charlie's dance with Miss Moneybags at the ball is one of the film's highlights, because of the first use of a dolly camera over the floor to follow the dancers.

THE CURE (1917)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie is a sophisticated bon vivant, addicted to alcohol, and visiting one of the "springs" of the day where the "cure" was administered. His trunk full of liquor finds its way into the mineral spring with devastating and hilarious results.

EASY STREET (1917)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie is "saved" after visiting a rescue mission on tough Easy Street (where a policeman is knocked off by the hour). Charlie gets the nerve to apply for the job of patrolman and gets the job. A classically funny episode has little Charlie mastering big Eric Campbell.

THE FIREMAN (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

As the driver of a pumper wagon, Charlie gets involved in an arson plot with his girl's father. When the lady gets trapped in the fire, he rushes to the scene — minus most of the engine — but makes a heroic rescue.

THE FLOORWALKER (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie's first Mutual comedy in this famous group of twelve. Charlie gets involved with a store detective on the escalator in a series of escapades entirely in the slapstick tradition of his earlier Keystone and Essanay productions.

THE IMMIGRANT (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

On their way to America, Charlie befriends a girl and her mother after an incident aboard ship. Later ashore they become involved in one of the funniest restaurant sequences ever filmed. One of the top Chaplin comedies of the Mutual period.
 860-04-2507, Super 8, 435-ft.
 880-04-2507, Super 8 magnetic sound, music, 21-min.

ONE A.M. (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN with ALBERT AUSTIN as the cab driver

Except for the cobbles, this one is Charlie's solo. You'd never believe what an effort it is for him to "hit the sock" after an evening on the town. One of the cleverest comedies ever made. Again, Chaplin is not cast as the tramp, but as a man-about-town.

THE PAWNSHOP (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie is the handy man in the pawnshop (handy being a relative term). Edna is the daughter of the shop's owner. As a combination janitor and clerk, Charlie gets involved with another clerk, causing pandemonium and confusion with the staff and customers.
 860-04-2509, Super 8, 440-ft.
 880-04-2509, Super 8 magnetic sound, music, 22-min.
 640-04-2509, 16mm optical sound, music, 22-min.

THE RINK (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie is a waiter who spends his spare time at the roller rink. He crashes a skating party of which Edna is the hostess. This comedy highlights every "fall" and species of mayhem. There is a skating sequence that is actually a beautifully timed ballet.
 860-04-2510, Super 8, 430-ft.
 880-04-2510, Super 8 magnetic sound, music, 22-min.

THE VAGABOND (1916)

starring CHARLIE CHAPLIN, EDNA PURVIANCE and ERIC CAMPBELL

Charlie befriends a young girl who has been kidnapped by gypsies. This comedy has Charlie giving one of his outstanding performances as the pathetic little tramp. It's one which more than any other up to that time anticipates the pathos that was to become, so much a part of Chaplin.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN FEATURE FILMS

THE GOLD RUSH

(1925)

Restricted to the United States

with MACK SWAIN and GEORGIA HALE

THE GOLD RUSH is one of the most famous of all films ever made and perhaps "the masterpiece of the cinema." In 1925, when it was released, there was tremendous excitement. Charlie had not released a film for over thirty months. The film itself is a series of famous scenes; the long line of gold seekers in the mountains when suddenly there appears a lone man with a bear following him; Charlie devouring his boots when on the verge of starvation; his companion going crazy and thinking Charlie is a giant rooster; the saloon with its patrons singing Irish or Scottish songs and Charlie falling in love with Georgia, one of the dance hall girls. Blackhawk's version is that of the original 1925 release.

TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE

with MARIE DRESSLER, MABEL NORMAND, MACK SWAIN, CHESTER CONKLIN, EDGAR KENNEDY, CHARLEY CHASE and CHARLIE MURRAY

A classic in every sense of the word, TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE was the first American feature comedy and has remained a popular favorite since its release in 1914. Adapted in general terms from Marie Dressler's stage hit, "Tillie's Nightmare", it was a farcical parody of the city slicker vs. country girl theme popular in turn-of-the-century melodrama.

Keystone Period

Chaplin came to the movies late in 1913 when he was signed by Mack Sennett to appear in Keystone Comedies. This was the period in which Charlie's comedy character was taking form, and his style developing from his days in pantomime. Starting out at the tremendous salary of $150.00 a week and as an unknown he was signed by Essanay at $125.00 a week in December, 1914.

MABEL'S MARRIED

LIFE

(1915)
with MABEL NORMAND and MACK SWAIN

MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE was the nineteenth film that Charlie Chaplin made during his year at Keystone — the seventh in which Mabel Normand was cast as his leading lady. Also appearing in the film is an "all star cast" of Keystone celebrities — Mack Swain, Charlie Murray, Hank Mann, Harry McCoy, Alice Davenport and Alice Howell.

MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE is one of the better of the Keystone Comedies starring Chaplin and the storyline is based on a combination of flirtations in the park between married individuals, and the time spent by Charlie at the bar in a saloon, with a resulting very funny comic routine.

Essanay Period

Here was the time that Chaplin began to come into his own. With more time devoted to the preparation of his films, his talent became even more in evidence and there was less and less dependence on slapstick. Almost all of his Essanay films were two reels (most of them are or will be available from Blackhawk) and were more painstakingly produced. But, so high had his popularity skyrocketed in 1915 that Mutual was able to sign him away from Essanay in February, 1916, at salary and bonus totaling $670,000 for a year.

W. C. FIELDS
THE DENTIST

(1932)

Written by Fields, THE DENTIST begins with a rather placid breakfast, a run in with the ice-man and then on to the golf course where Fields, to the dismay of his companion, makes a hole-in-one on a ball drop over his shoulder. Later at the office, you see him treat several patients in the usual roughshod Fieldsian manner. Part way through with his treatment of a patient, Elise Cavanna, he leaves and goes upstairs to his apartment to punish his daughter. Her temper tantrum cracks the ceiling plaster, part of it falling in Elise's mouth.

BLACKHAWK'S NEWSREEL

We have had several letters within the last month or two regarding our print of the film NOSFERATU, THE VAMPIRE. The comments have come from the fact that in the 49th Anniversary Sale Flyer, our copy indicated that this was the complete version of the film, and several people have written to remind us that there are other versions that contain more scenes.

In the 1920's foreign films released in the United States were usually cut or adapted for the American market. NOSFERATU, made in 1922, was not actually released in the United States until 1929. In 1929 State's Rights Distributors made cuts in the original version and it is this version that we are circulating. It has been regarded as the original U.S. version. Longer versions have recently become available from Europe. However, we are not yet able to acquire any of these. Obviously, if it becomes possible to obtain the longer version, we shall.

FOR OUR STANDARD 8 CUSTOMERS

We have been wondering for several months what we at Blackhawk could do for you our Standard 8 customers to enable you to continue to enjoy your standard 8mm collection and yet be able to take advantage of all of the new and upcoming super 8 products that will be available in the future.

On page 6 you will find an offer for dual 8 projectors, either sound or silent, at the lowest price we have ever offered. Because of the extremely low price on these projectors, we are able to offer this only through December 31, 1976, but we look forward to helping as many of you as possible in continuing your most enjoyable hobby.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS

I have been asked by Carrol Anderson, our Data Processing Manager, to request that any of you who are notifying us of a change of address, please give us your old address as well as your new address. This will allow Carrol's people to be able to specifically find your name in our index and be sure they are getting your new address assigned and your old address removed from the index so that you will continue to get your catalogs at the proper address. If you have a Blackhawk charge account, it will enable us to keep your Blackhawk charge account alive.

Please help us and we will do our best to see that you get uninterrupted service and availability of your Blackhawk credit account.

ORDER BY PHONE

This is just a reminder to you that we do have a WATS line available (except in the state of Iowa, Hawaii and Alaska) and it's toll free. You will recall that this WATS line service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. If you have Blackhawk charge, Master Charge or BankAmericard, you will find that telephone ordering is a very easy and convenient way to shop. You can sit right in the comfort of your own living room and call us any time of the day or night. Ordering is all that can be done on the WATS line. The department is physically located where no other records are available. Helen West and all of her fine employees in the Telephone Order Department look forward to placing your orders for you as you call them in.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

Speaking on behalf of the entire Blackhawk family, let me wish you a most happy and prosperous Holiday Season.

Perhaps some Blackhawk customer can come to our aid. As a result of a very large acquisition which Blackhawk made last year, that incorporated thousands of reels of original 35mm negatives, masters and prints, we found ourselves owners of several one reel subjects that had been created out of the Soundies musicals of World War II time. But, we have encountered problems with the track negatives of two of the units — "Hep Cat Serenade" and "Big City Blues". We have found that the original 35mm track negatives of these two units have suffered from decomposition or other damage so that at regular intervals of every fifteen or twenty frames the sound fades out and then rapidly fades back in.

The way we would propose to reconstruct the track, is to make a 16mm full coated magnetic recording from the 35mm track, and another 16mm full coated magnetic track from a 16mm print that was of satisfactory quality — either one of the original reverse image Soundies prints, or a later normal image print. These mags would then be run in absolute sync with that from the 16mm film filling in for the bad spots in the 35mm.

If any of you have good prints of either or both subjects in your files that you can make available to us, just let us know. We'll give you a new 16mm print of the complete subject for the use of your prints — which will be returned to you after our recording.

The Child Star Who Became U.S. Chief of Protocol

"SHIRLEY TEMPLE"
THE BIGGEST LITTLE STAR OF THE THIRTIES

(1976)
Restricted to the United States and Canada

See how this irresistible little girl with big bright eyes, deep dimples, and cute curly hair captured the heart of America and transformed the whole country into her own backyard. Travel with Miss Temple to New York, and watch her roast holidays with Eleanor Roosevelt.
Walk the beaches of Waikiki with Shirley as she inspects Honolulu's life guard patrol. Watch Tyrone Power, Sophie Tucker, Alice Faye, and others await Shirley's plix appearance at the Hollywood premiere of "Wee Willie Winkie".
Watch Shirley Temple drive her own little car to work through the treacherous Twentieth Century Fox backlots, and pay close attention to her delightful demonstration on parking miniature motor cars.
After a soft shoe routine with Bill Robinson, Shirley concludes this picture with her unforgettable Academy Award acceptance speech. It's a little film, but like Shirley Temple, "The Biggest Little Star" burns bright with charm and delight.

An Al Christie Comedy!

Recent Release

KNOW THY WIFE
(1918)

starring EARL RODNEY, DOROTHY DEVORE and LEOTA LORRAINE

The Brownings are overjoyed when their son arrives home from college to marry the girl they have carefully chosen for him — a girl with wealth and social position.
But after Mother Browning finds her son in the embrace of his best man, and Father Browning discovers a corset in the boy's room, the perplexed parents feel their son has acquired rather odd habits away at school that will require a little corrective parental guidance.
Al Christie never produced a comedy funnier or more perfectly suited to his style of humor than KNOW THY WIFE, and Earl Rodney and Dorothy Devore play to the hilt the film's mood of comical confusion, suspicion and self-righteous indignation that spoofs the double standards of moral hypocrisy.

THE DESPERATE SCOUNDREL

(1916)
with FORD STERLING, MINTA DURFEE, THE KEYSTONE COPS

The opening scene of this film establishes just how desperate the scoundrel (Ford Sterling) is. He steals a bottle from a baby!

The rest of the film details Sterling's attempts to steal and keep possession of money from the laundry shop. He first obtains the cash by turning on a fan which is on the manager's desk directly behind the money, thus blowing the bills out of the office, into Ford's hat. When he returns to his apartment, he looks out the window in time to see a laundry truck pull up in front of the building. In a panic, he hides the money in some of his dirty clothes. The landlady enters his room with the laundry man and guess who has the money now?

THE BANGVILLE POLICE

with FRED MACE, MABEL NORMAND, DOT FARLEY and NICK COGLEY

Mistake a cow for a burglar? It could only happen in the madcap world of Keystone. But when Mabel calls the police to investigate, what follows tickles the funnybone of the real world. It's a story of the Keystone Cops and although in a rural setting, stands out today as one of the high points in the development of the world's best known police force. Fred Mace has the role of their Chief and while he was later replaced by Ford Sterling, Fred sets a tone and pace which the cops rode to stardom unmatched by any other anonymous group of comedians. If you like the Keystone Cops, you'll treasure this gem.

INTOLERANCE

with MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER, CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERIC VON STROHEIM, BESSIE LOVE and LILLIAN GISH

INTOLERANCE has for decades been regarded as D. W. Griffith's most important work and perhaps the greatest achievement in the history of the American film, but as is likely inevitable for any film which has gathered so long a train of criticism and appreciation behind it, the enthusiasm Griffith wanted his audience to feel for what are, after all, four tremendously exciting stories, has been replaced by the sort of sepulchral reverence frequently reserved for the study of Chaucer or PIERS PLOWMAN.

D. W. Griffith, in four separate stories, attacked intolerance and bigotry through the ages, bringing the epic to the screen with film techniques far advanced for the times.

For this edition, Blackhawk has added a stupendous musical score by Gaylord Corlier, and with it, INTOLERANCE again becomes an experience not just of the mind but of the heart.

NOSFERATU, THE VAMPIRE

starring MAX SCHRECK and GUSTAVE von WANGENHEIM

The first attempt to translate Bram Stoker's DRACULA to the screen, NOSFERATU is filled with unusual and symbolic camera work and differs considerably in approach and content from Universal's version of 1931 which brought Bela Lugosi to fame.

The locale and characterizations were altered in the adaptation because of copyright problems, and the script veered sharply away from the vampire lore set forth by Stoker. Close your eyes and wind back through the murky past to 1838, when an unspeakable horror was let loose upon the earth...

from Policeman's Little Run

ENCHANTED STUDIO

Pathe Freres Studios were the world's largest film producers in the early years of this century. This movie is a collection of short films from the Pathe Studios. The first section is POLICEMAN'S LITTLE RUN in which a group of Keystone-like cops chase a small canine thief across town. The second part of the film, entitled THE DOG AND HIS VARIOUS MERITS, also features man's best friend, this time several of them engaged in canine activities — including fox hunting and shepherding.

A DIABOLICAL ITCHING is the third short feature. This is the story of a mischievous young fellow who creates havoc with a bellows and a powder that causes most severe itching.

The final segment, THE RED SPECTRE, is probably the most interesting. This skillfully hand-colored picture features a man in a skeleton costume, equipped with horns and a cape, who pops out of a coffin and performs various magic tricks. This film is a must for students of cinema history.

JIMMY

(1915)
starring CECIL C. HOLLAND and EDITH JOHNSON

Recent Release

Jimmy, a messenger boy, is so distressed by the unhappiness of a lover to whom a girl has sent back her engagement ring that he urges the young man not to give up and takes the initiative in sending the girl flowers. Touched, she orders a turkey dinner for Jimmy. When Jimmy is run down rushing out into the street to save a little girl from a speeding ambulance, the lovers seal their reconciliation at his bedside.

A touching little film from the Chicago firm best known for THE ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN and THE SPOILERS, JIMMY is essentially a character study of a "tough" little messenger boy with the proverbial "heart of gold".

Phone Your Order TOLL FREE: 800 — 553-1163 (Not Valid In Iowa, Hawaii, Alaska)

A Column By CARL N. LANGE

The other day I had an opportunity of hearing, for the first time, our WATS line Code-A-Phone message. I realize that all of the items we want you to give us, when placing an order, would be difficult for you to remember. Perhaps this column will enable you to know, in advance, the data needed so that we can properly handle your request.

If you'd keep this list handy it would simplify your placing a phone order with us.

We need:

1. Your Name
2. Your Address (Street, City, State, Zip)
3. Your Phone Number (in case we want to call you about the order)
4. Your Customer Number (It appears on the bulletin label between asterisks)

5. How You Wish To Pay For This Order
6. How You Want This Order Shipped
7. Quantity
8. Stock Number
9. Title Or Description
10. Selling Price
11. Bulletin Number
12. If the order is to be handled on Master-Charge or Bank Americard be sure and give the card number and the card expiration date.

This list may seem formidable but without the information there may be a delay in the processing of the order or it could mean the order couldn't be handled at all.

I'm certainly pleased how our customers, have made use of our toll free WATS line (800-553-1163). To be honest we were snowed, at first, but we now feel we can give our phone order customers good service.

Our order Department is now working on an Order Acknowledgement System for phone orders. This system will provide written acknowledgement of your phone order which will let you know quickly that your order was received and processed and any other important order information. You'll read more about this in later bulletins.

Our congratulations go to Velma for coming up with this idea to better serve you — our customers!!

HYSTERICAL PERSONALITIES

Lew Lehr's

ALBUM OF ANIMALS

(1947)

Produced by Movietone News

Restricted To The United States And Canada

And now, kiddies, nonsensical Lew Lehr will teach you the alphabet. Well, maybe not all 26 letters, but the ones that really matter — from B for Bear to W for Walrus. Lew and the chimpanzees who inspired his "monkeys is the waziest people" share with you an ALBUM OF ANIMALS.

Lew's first guests, a flock of fluffy goats, slip and slither down a slide, then try the teeter-totter — with predictable results. The next star in the Album has greater success in his gymnastic attempt. An enormous sleek walrus easily rolls almost upside-down for his lunch, whole fish devoured in one gulp.

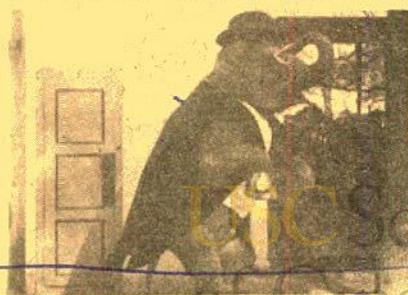

Next, four cuddly baby koala bears hitchhike a bareback ride on a long-suffering german shepherd dog, while their bright-eyed brothers and sisters wait their turn on low-hanging tree branches. Baby brown bears appear in a sparring match, refereed by ever-watchful mama bear. Their battles, activated more by inexhaustible energy than skill at fisticuffs, turn into a tumbling whirl of fur.

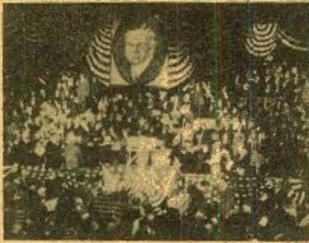

From cozy monkeys to frolicsome kittens, from 8 to 80 will have a field day with jolly Lew Lehr and his ALBUM OF ANIMALS.

MORE STARS THAN YOU HAVE EVER SEEN BEFORE OR SINCE IN ONE FILM are the precious loot for viewers of THE STOLEN JOOLS. Identifying the cast of characters before the film ends will be a delightful challenge.

What began as a fund-raising short for a company union has survived as a legend in the film world. Over fifty of Hollywood's top stars of the thirties appear in one film, flashing the magnificence that established their reputations and captured theater audiences of their day. Donations of tickets prices from viewers went into a fund for the NVA Sanatorium — a rest home for unemployed vaudeville actors, members of National Variety Artists Union.

The loose story line of a search for Norma Shearer's jewels, stolen during a Hollywood party, is the vehicle for their all-too-brief appearances. The police station, a dressing room, a movie set, a park — we see them where they chose to be photographed.

Never before available for home distribution, THE STOLEN JOOLS is an unequalled parade of stars, the glamorous stars of the thirties, brought together in one slight contrived story for our continuing delight.

LONDON MEDLEY

(1932)
 Restricted to the United States and Canada

Movietone News takes you on a nostalgic tour of London in the tranquil days between the two great wars. You'll catch a glimpse of people and places of a more gentle era — fishermen on the Thames, Hyde Park on a Sunday afternoon. You'll visit a supper club complete with stage show and formally dressed orchestra. Picadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Bond Street where hansom cabs, liveried footmen and top-hatted sweepers are part of the normal street scene. An era when everything and everyone stops for tea; and a gentleman never appears in public without his fopper, ascot and walking stick. A charming and unforgettable return to another time and place.

THE BIRTH OF A NATION

(1914)

with LILLIAN GISH, HENRY B. WALTHALL, MAE MARSH, WALLACE REID, and MIRIAM COOPER

Restricted to the United States and Canada

From nearly the first moment it was shown in December of 1914, THE BIRTH OF A NATION changed the history of motion pictures. It established the idea of film as a serious art form, established Griffith's methods of movie storytelling as the basis of film technique, established the director as the principal creative figure in filmmaking, and established film as a force for effective propaganda. Commercially, THE BIRTH OF A NATION was the first film to be presented as a legitimate stage attraction (the best seats cost $2), with specially composed music performed at each screening by a large orchestra. THE BIRTH OF A NATION aroused a storm of controversy. Liberals and socialists condemned it, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was able to force certain cuts in the film. Theatrical showings of it were picketed as recently as 1973. Thus historically, THE BIRTH OF A NATION demonstrated that movies, no less than literature or traditional theatre, could become the subject of serious social, political and ideological discussion. In this way it brought film into a position of influence in the social life of the American nation.

8MM TRADE-IN SCHEDULE

Trade-in prices apply to Super 8 or Standard 8mm films only of Blackhawk brand or other brands listed in the current Blackhawk Bulletin. Trade-in prices are based on the current prices of new prints of the subjects to be traded. Allowances may be applied only against the purchase of new Blackhawk subjects with the full allowance being taken against any subject or combination of subjects.

Trade-in prices are based on a reel-for-reel trade. This means that if you send in three reels of film for trade, you must select three reels or more of new 8mm prints from Blackhawk. You take credit for the films you send in trade at the rate shown, against the new films you select for purchase, paying the difference between the purchase price and the credit for those films sent in, plus postage. You may trade-in any quantity of 8mm films from one reel on up.

Blackhawk will not accept in trade any "art", "Burlesque", "pin-up", "girlie" or nude movies. The trade-in allowances shown are the amounts we will allow you for your 8mm films against the purchase of new 8mm films as outlined above.

Films traded in must be complete with main and end titles and free from excessive splices or scratches. All films traded must not only be complete but in generally good condition. We reserve the right to reject films not suitable for resale.

We would also advise you to have your shipment insured as we cannot be held responsible for losses enroute to Blackhawk Films, Inc.

| FORMAT       | FOOTAGE      | SILENT     | SOUND      |
|--------------|--------------|------------|------------|
| Standard 8mm | per 100-feet | 7½ minutes | 5½ minutes |
| Super 8      | per 100-feet | 6¼ minutes | 5 minutes  |
| 16mm         | per 100-feet | 3¼ minutes | 2¼ minutes |

- 8mm films up to 225-feet are on 5-inch reels. Films over 200 feet are on 6-inch or 7-inch reels.
- Because most 8mm projectors have a maximum capacity of 400 feet, no Blackhawk films are on reels larger than 400-feet.
- All 16mm sound films offered by Blackhawk are Optical Sound. All Standard 8mm and Super 8 sound films are Magnetic Sound.
- When the letter S appears behind a 16mm stock number this means that the item will be shipped directly to you from the factory with a four to six week delay.

RIGHTS OF USE ON MOTION PICTURES

- Use of 16mm and 8mm motion picture prints sold by Blackhawk is limited to home and non-theatrical showing — theatrical and television rights are specifically reserved.
- Productions of Hal Roach Studios, Inc., are distributed by Blackhawk on license under copyright for non-theatrical and home use only, and in the limited territories set forth on the pages carrying the major listings of these particular groups of subjects.
- The copyright status if any, of other subjects in countries and territories outside the United States is unknown and purchasers acquiring and exhibiting such prints do so at their own risk.
- No authority or license is granted for the public performance of any copyright music which may be included in or as a part of any of the film offered herein unless the person, firm or corporation proposing to reproduce such music as part of the picture is duly authorized where such authorizations is needed, by the copyright owner of any such music, to perform the same publicly.

SHIPMENTS OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

- Shipments made to Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Fleet Post Offices, Army Post Offices and other overseas locations move through the regular United States Postal System. We are glad to handle such shipments on exactly the same basis as shipments made within the continental United States with the exception that no C.O.D.'s will be made outside the continental United States.
- Where shipments are made to countries other than the United States, payment may be made by letter of credit, by international money order or in any negotiable currency.
- Where, on any type of payment, you wish to know the exact cost of your merchandise we will be glad to send you a perform invoice — and hold the wanted items — so that a precise amount may be determined.
- Where checks, money orders or other remittances are made in currencies other than those of the United States, we will immediately clear these funds through our bank.
- Your order will be suspended until our bank has notified us of the actual credit resulting from this clearance. This usually takes a matter of a week or ten days.
- On shipments to overseas destinations other than those served directly by the United States Postal System, a surcharge of 10 percent is made to cover postage, and the preparation of the necessary customs forms.
- Blackhawk cannot guarantee safe delivery on foreign shipments. If you want your shipment insured we can do it for you at an additional charge. Ask for details.

HOW TO OPEN A BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT

Open account billing is now available to individuals in the continental United States on the payment of a fee of $2.00 and the submission of satisfactory credit information. (Payment of the $2.00 fee is not required when application is accompanied by an order for $10.00 or more.) On this basis, upon the opening of a Blackhawk charge account, you will be provided with an account number which should appear on all orders from you. Payment for orders shipped and billed during a month are due in Davenport not later than the 15th of the month following. As an example, orders which are shipped and billed to you in December must be paid in full not later than January 15, etc. etc. A Blackhawk charge account will be a particular convenience to our regular customers in that it eliminates the pre-figuring of remittance for postage, and the writing of several checks or the securing of several money orders during a single month.

Fill in completely (type or print) the BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT APPLICATION below, sign and return it to us with the $2.00 charge account fee or an order of $10.00 or more. ($2.00 fee, if sent, will be refunded in the event an account is not opened by us.) We'll immediately confirm receipt and let you know as soon as the account is open — and your account number.

BUY ANYTHING OFFERED BY BLACKHAWK ON CONVENIENT MONTHLY PAYMENTS!

The following time payment arrangements became effective with the Truth in Lending Act on July 1st, 1969.)

Customers in the United States may purchase anything from Blackhawk on convenient time payments.

TIME PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

A. Down Payments

Below are the minimum down payments required based on the total amount of your purchase.

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| On orders totaling $25.00 to $50.00.....   | $ 5.00 |
| On orders totaling $50.01 to $100.00.....  | $ 7.50 |
| On orders totaling $100.01 to $125.00..... | $12.50 |

The amount of your time payment charge and the amount of your monthly payment is determined by the unpaid balance remaining after we have deducted your down payment from the total of your purchase. Thus, the larger you can make your down payment, the lower will be your time payment charges and the smaller will be your monthly payments.

B. Time Payment Charges

Time payment charges are based on the unpaid balance remaining after the deduction of your down payment from the total of your purchase. Here they are scheduled:

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| On unpaid balances totaling $ 25.00 to $ 75.00..... | $ 5.00 |
| On unpaid balances totaling $ 75.01 to $125.00..... | $ 7.50 |

C. Monthly Payments

As is explained above, the size of your monthly payment is based upon the unpaid balance (including the time payment charge) remaining after deducting your payment from the total of your purchase. Here is the schedule:

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| On unpaid balances totaling $ 25.00 to $ 50.00..... | $ 5.00 |
| On unpaid balances totaling $ 50.01 to $100.00..... | $10.00 |
| On unpaid balances totaling $100.01 to $125.00..... | $12.50 |

D. Add-On Orders

New purchases may not be added to existing contracts. A separate contract, requiring a down payment and a time payment charge will be established each time you order. It will be to your advantage, as the time payment charges are fixed figures, to include as many items as possible in each time payment order.

E. Our Action

We've provided this information so that you will know exactly the amount you will owe. However, to help you further, we prepare a time payment schedule for you at the time we ship the merchandise. We show you the exact amount due and the dates on which the amount should be received here in Davenport. So don't let the detail bother you. We'll do the figuring.

NEW FROM KEN FILMS

THE BIBLE

Three scenes are excerpted from the epic motion picture, THE BIBLE. First, Adam and Eve eat the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil, become ashamed of their nakedness, and incur the wrath of their Creator. God expels them from paradise and makes the serpent crawl on his belly in the dust.
The next scene shows the story of Noah and the Ark. Noah, the only righteous man of his generation, herds his family and two of every creature into his ship just before the big flood. As the waters recede, God sets his sign, the rainbow, in the heavens to signify that he will never again destroy mankind with the waters.
The final episode shows the people of Nimrod erecting a tower as high as Nimrod's pride, while singing "there is none greater than Nimrod either in heaven or on earth." The Creator blows away the tower of Babel and confuses the language of the people, much to the distress of Nimrod, who wants to finish the tower. The film's locations are magnificent in this retelling of the classic Hebrew legends.

THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH

(1934)

Restricted to the United States with LESLIE BANKS and EDNA BEST

Blackhawk Films brings you 1934 vintage Hitchcock, his greatest British success. THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH, featuring Peter Lorre as the dedicated anarchist, Abbott; Leslie Banks as the imperturbable Englishman Bob Lawrence, and Edna Best as his skeet-shooting wife, the movie upset all the 30's conventions of murder mysteries. The New York Times reviewed it in 1935 as "fascinating staccato violence, a blistering style of story-telling, merging scenes so breathlessly you are always rapt and tense."

Hitchcock used a real-life incident as his model for the suspenseful climax to his story. In 1910, several Russian anarchists were holed up in an old building on Sidney Street in London. Winston Churchill, as Home Secretary, was called to direct their capture. Final scenes of defeat and death for Abbott, and the split-second roof-top rescue of the kidnapped girl are pure breath-taking Hitchcock.

Blackhawk's prints have been made from a 35mm original, with beautiful re-production that maintains the quality of Hitchcock's film. The sound track suffers only from the actors' clipped British accents. But as with all Hitchcock movies, the action compensates for any loss of words.

Terror in A Wax Museum

MIDNIGHT AT MADAME TUSSAUD'S

(1937)

Restricted to the United States

Sir Clive Cheyne has bet a hundred pounds with his friend Harry Newton that he can spend an entire night alone in Madame Tussaud's. Their wager is encouraged by the mysterious curator, Mr. Kelvin, who exhibits a morbid interest in the nocturnal adventure. If Sir Clive never returns from the Chamber of Horrors, Carol, his ward, will marry the fortune hunter Nick Frome. To compound his danger, his demise would also benefit Sir Clive's friend Newton, who would not only receive the wagered hundred pounds, but would no longer be compelled to reimburse Sir Clive for thousands of pounds he has embezzled, and face financial ruin.

Marvelous eerie scenes filmed at Madame Tussaud's Waxworks in London establish a genuine sense of terror when Sir Clive descends to his midnight rendezvous.

The authentic stars of this thriller are not listed in the cast of characters. London itself, its streets seen through the windshield of an elegant Rolls-Royce, shares top billing with Madame Tussaud's Waxworks where much of the actual filming was done. Famous and infamous personalities appear. Mae West is there, so is Marie Antoinette, Hitler, Mussolini, Churchill, all the headline names — as well as Mr. Kelvin's uncommon collection of favorite murderers.

Triple Feature Now Musically Scored By Gaylord Carter

Directed by D. W. GRIFFITH

THE BATTLE AT ELDERBUSH GULCH

(1914)

starring LILLIAN GISH, MAE MARSH and HARRY CAREY

The arrival of Sally Cameron, her sister and the Harlow family on the frontier sets the stage for a high-strung tale of danger and suspense most remarkable for its era.

To produce a Western melodrama of utmost authenticity, Griffith built a three-dimensional town in California's San Fernando Valley, and hired hundreds of extras to portray U.S. Cavalry and Indians. When the Biograph Company opposed Griffith's spending and his desire to make films of feature length, their former director resigned in October, 1913.

THE MUSKETEERS OF PIG ALLEY

with LILLIAN GISH, ELMER BOOTH, HARRY CAREY, WALTER MILLER, ALFRED PAGET, MARION SUNSHINE and LEE DOUGHERTY

A young musician dwelling in the slums is beaten and robbed by a gangster who is attracted to his sister. A quarrel over the girl touches off a small war between rival gangs, but because the gangster has protected the girl against a rival, she and her brother furnish an alibi for him on the assumption that "one good turn deserves another."

Lillian Gish has her first important role as the Little Lady.

JUDITH OF BETHULIA

(1913)

starring BLANCHE SWEET, HENRY B. WALTHALL and MAE MARSH

This was Griffith's first feature-length production. It cost about $36,000. This Biblical spectacle was a forerunner of "Intolerance" which Griffith was to make only three years later. It is being presented by Blackhawk in the original form in which it was placed in distribution on November 24, 1913.

GUILLOTINE SPLICER WORKSHOP

This kit contains the Guillotine Super 8 Splicer plus everything needed to splice both sound and silent Super 8 film.

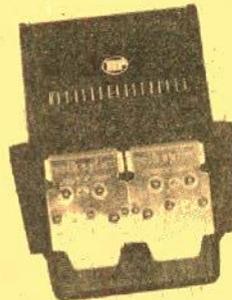

It is a frame to frame splicer — actually butting the two pieces of film being joined together without overlap or space in between. The splicing block features a recessed register in channel to precisely position and hold the film being spliced. The non-magnetic stainless steel blade eliminates all chances of "clocks" or "pops" being introduced into the soundtrack of Super 8 sound film. Any color or black and white film can be spliced, even if a magnetic strip has been added. Torn film can be butted at the tear and repaired by the Guillotine Splicer and broken sprocket holes can be rebuilt. Splicing without frame loss is another outstanding feature of the Guillotine Splicer. 034-11-0047, 6-lbs. $37.95

GUILLOTINE SUPER 8 FILM SPLICER

GUILLOTINE'S SPLICING TAPE

Guillotine makes the only non-bleeding frame-line-to-frame-line splicing tapes. Today's strongest and optically clear tape offers a space that cannot be seen, even with the finest projection or TV broadcast equipment. Guillotine tape does not discolor, its permanently uniform adhesive does not bleed under pressure or projection heat, and the resulting bond is stronger than the film itself. The only tape designed for use with Guillotine splicers is economical too — costs only half a penny a splice. 034-11-0046, 2-ozs. $3.50 2/$6.49

AUTOMATIC SUPER 8 SPLICER 3751

BLACKHAWK FILMS

KEATON AS STEAMBOAT BILL, JR.

(1928)

STEAMBOAT BILL, JR. was released in 1928, two years after Buster Keaton's memorable "The General". Keaton had incorporated so many special effects in his movies that only he could handle a cyclone. After all, he was born during a cyclone; so what better preparation could he have! The last of his independently produced films, STEAMBOAT BILL, JR. is his most spectacular. And for continuous perfect Keaton pantomime, it eclipses all his previous appearances.

River Junction on the Sacramento River is the locale for a feud between Steamboat Bill (Ernest Torrence) tough captain of the old steamer Stonewall Jackson, and J. King (Tom McGuire) stuffed shirt owner of the shiny new steamer King, and proprietor of every local institution in River Junction. Steamboat Bill, Jr. (Buster Keaton) arrives home from school in Boston — complete with beret, moustache and ukelele. With a roar from his embarrassed father "take that barnacle off" Junior lands in a barber chair, and two deft strokes of the straight razor remove the offending moustache. In the opposite barber chair sits King's daughter Kitty (Marion Byron) also on school holiday. The predictable plot — the feuding fathers and the frustrated young lovers — is secondary to the amazing special effects Keaton developed. A torrential rainstorm precedes a cyclone; and Buster Keaton pulls out all the stops as director, actor and technological expert.

A car's rooftop flips up like a sail; buildings collapse and disintegrate, or slide intact into the flood-swollen river. A classic bit of Keaton magic occurs when the winds capriciously drop a complete house front on our hero. An open window conveniently descends over his head, and he remains standing imperturbable. Keaton made use of an enormous crane a hundred twenty feet high, set on a barge, to knock down breakaway buildings — or left them high in the air as wind machines blew everything portable down River Junction's drenched streets. The crane also carried Keaton soaring overhead, clinging to the trunk of an unproofed tree — a funny bit of relief from the storm's buffeting.

Dumped in the river he clammers aboard the Stonewall Jackson just in time to rescue Kitty and the two feuding fathers. As the terrified Kitty floats downriver on a housetop, Junior neatly tosses the ship's anchor and pulls KITTY to safety. Next appears Steamboat Bill in the window of the almost — submerged jail, having been spitefully imprisoned by Mr. King. With agonizing deceptive fumbling, Junior rigs the ship's controls and slices through the floating jail with the bow of the Jackson — thus freeing his father. Mr. King's rescue from his sunken steamer completes Junior's transformation into a son worthy of his father's name, and of the hand of Mr. King's daughter.

Acrobat's timing, staggering physical dexterity, and a deadpan expression made Buster Keaton one of cinema's greatest comics. While STEAMBOAT BILL, JR. may not have received critical acclaim on its release, it offers an astonishing exhibition of Buster Keaton's talents. Blackhawk Films is proud to make it available to homeviewers.

IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE

Young Johnnie Steele has an Oldsmobile.

Blackhawk Films offers a true screen rarity, the only screen-song by Fleischer Studios still in circulation, IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE.

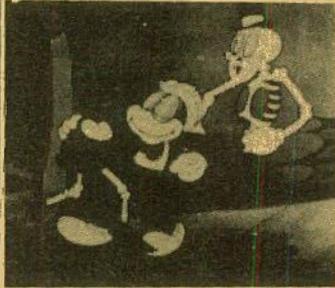

The soft-voiced off-color mumbblings of the villain in IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE and slightly risqué visuals are typical of the Fleischer style that kept thirties' audiences wondering how far he would go.

Betty Boop, with her "boop-boop-be-doop", Popeye, Olive Oil — all were products of Fleischer's drawing boards. So when the fair heroine of IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE shows a striking similarity to Betty Boop, with a touch of Olive Oil, it's more than coincidence.

SPOOKS!

(1930)

On a dark and stormy night, with lightning flashing and gale winds blowing, Flip and his horse head go for shelter. The temporary cover of an old shed disappears in a strong gust, and they trudge up the hill to a ghostly mansion.

Once inside, Flip finds his host to be a very lively, but menacing skeleton, who insists on sharing his meal. As the night proceeds, Flip meets a skeleton dancer, skeleton musicians, even a skeleton dog. The dog becomes an unexpected ally for Flip, when he surreptitiously disposes of Flip's indigestible meal. Flip's future is perilous, however, no matter how politely he treats his host. And when he discovers that he is scheduled to become a skeleton too, he opts for the great outdoors, storm or not!

AS YOU LIKE IT

starring Sir Laurence Olivier
(1936)
Restricted to the United States

Sir James Barrie's adaptation, while consistent in time and place with Shakespeare's, departs from the original in the somewhat whimsical characterizations, particularly noticeable in Rosalind. Elizabeth Bergner starts out as a shy, gentle young maiden, wide eyed and breathlessly eager but when she is banished and assumes the guise of a young man, not only her costume changes but also her entire personality.

Songs and music performed by members of the London Philharmonic Orchestra are an added enhancement to the film called "thoroughly delightful" by the New York Times.

starring JAMES STEWART and PAULETTE GODDARD
cameo appearance by ART CARNEY

Based on the famous radio money giveaway show of the same name, POT O' GOLD was James Roosevelt's first (and last) attempt at movie producing. Probably for no less simple a reason than his prodigious political connection, Mr. Roosevelt was able to hire Hollywood's best talent; the ever-bewildered but lovable James Stewart, who had won the Oscar the year before, the beautiful and tempestuous Paulette Goddard, who was making headlines as Chaplin's soon-to-be-divorced third wife and because these were the days of the big band sound, popular Horace Heidt and his thirty musical knights.

THE MYSTERY OF THE MARY CELESTE

with BELA LUGOSI

On December 4, 1872, Captain Morehouse of the British Brigantine, "Del Grata," sighted another brigantine ship steering an erratic course. She did not reply to Morehouse's signal. He examined the brig through his binoculars and recognized her to be the Mary Celeste, her skipper, Benjamin Briggs, an old friend and he was particularly pleased. But his pleasure soon changed to bewilderment. There was no one at the ship's wheel, no lookout man and no one on deck! What was the explanation? He soon had the answer. The Mary Celeste was a derelict.

MIDNIGHT

starring O. P. HEGGE, HENRY HULL, SIDNEY FOX and HUMPHREY BOGART

MIDNIGHT, a Universal Picture release of 1934, does NOT star Humphrey Bogart. While Bogart's function in the film is certainly secondary, his performance remains noteworthy and foretells the characterization that made him a star.

Briefly, it is the story of a jury foreman who asked a woman accused of murdering her husband the one question which sent her to the electric chair. Sometime later, the foreman's own daughter in a fit of passion attempts to shoot her lover who is rejecting her.

MURDER AT THE BASKERVILLES

with ARTHUR WONTNER as SHERLOCK HOLMES adapted from the Sir Arthur Conan Doyle short story "Silver Blaze"

(1937)
(Restricted to the United States)

A dog that didn't bark, a curry dinner, a telegram from a small village, and a man who isn't interested in football are the clues used by the amazing Sherlock Holmes to foil his old foe Professor Moriarty in this film based on the short story "Silver Blaze" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

Arthur Wontner, a Basil Rathbone look-alike, portrays Holmes with a mixture of wry humor, complete confidence, and cool aloofness. Professor Moriarty, as characterized by Lyn Harding, is reminiscent of Sidney Greenstreet, but is humorless and more sinister than Greenstreet ever was. Ian Fleming's Dr. Watson is an adequate foil for the restrained and brilliant Holmes — baffled by what Holmes calls "elementary" and appreciative of Holmes' occasional sarcasms.

FRANKIE & JOHNNIE

Frankie, not wanting to stay home and wait for her man, borrows her share of the travelling money. Frankie begins a frantic search for Johnnie. She overhears someone say, "Why don't she look for him at Nellie Bly's". Quick to catch the hint, she loads a pistol and goes to confront him.

PRISON TRAIN

with FRED KEATING, LINDA WINTERS and CLARENCE MUSE

When you hear about "B" movies, most people think of second rate, contrived, cheap films. When you find one that makes up in energy and imagination what it lacks in cost, it is bound to be quite a picture. PRISON TRAIN is an example of just that!

On a train carrying prisoners to Alcatraz, Frankie, convicted of manslaughter, must avoid a father's revenge. Frankie is played by Fred Keating, once a popular stage magician who tried his luck on the screen. He portrays Frankie as a man who acted in the heat of passion rather than pre-meditated violence.

LUMIERE'S FIRST PICTURE SHOW

The acknowledged birth of film history was December 28, 1895, when the first paying audience gathered at the Grand Cafe on Boulevard des Capucines, Paris, for a performance of films on a machine called the CINEMATOGRAPH, invented by brothers Louis and Auguste Lumiere. This compilation brings together many of the films included in that historic showing, along with a generous selection of other films actually made by the brothers themselves. It is reproduced from a collection of original Lumiere prints which was rediscovered in 1972, and the picture quality of Blackhawk's copies is amazingly good.

The CINEMATOGRAPH was a combination camera, printer and projector which was capable of taking, copying or showing twenty meters (about one minute) of film at a time. Each Lumiere program consisted of between ten and fifteen films. The first subjects were found in the daily surroundings of the inventors themselves, so this compilation is not only a beautiful document of the very first motion pictures but also a loving scrapbook of life among Lumiere's well-to-do French family of the last century.

CINEMATOGRAPH SOUVENIRS OF AMERICA

Less than a month after the first projection of Edison films at Koster & Bial's Music Hall in New York, two Lumiere operators began showings with their French CINEMATOGRAPH at a theater only one block from the studio where D.W. Griffith was to begin making films a dozen years later. Each week for six months thereafter, a new Cinematographer arrived from France until finally, twenty-one operators toured the United States, taking and performing Lumiere films in cities large and small.

CINEMATOGRAPH SOUVENIRS OF AMERICA presents both famous and fabulously rare American Lumiere subjects, restored from the excellent original prints. The views include the inauguration of President William McKinley; a parade of the Chicago police; street and harbor scenes in New York and Brooklyn; and a cavalry review of the U.S. Army. Containing thirteen films all together, this program is about the same length as an original CINEMATOGRAPH exhibition.

FILM FIRSTS, CHAPTER I

An absorbing assembly of motion picture history from the early flip cards and zoetrope into the movies' earliest days. Scenes from the early feature, "Cleopatra", Griffith's "A Corner in Wheat", a chase down Riverside Drive in the early 1900's — a tracking shot — long before Griffith was supposed to have invented the technique, a sequence from Griffith's "Muskeeters of Pig Alley", Griffith's "The Battle", a sampling of the pre-Communist anarchist film "The Nihilists" made by Biograph in 1905, a look at 1904's "The Suburbanite", Porter's "The Great Train Robbery", another early Western, "A Race For Millions", "Bronco Billy" Anderson, the Screen's first Western star, Fred Ott. This film contains sequences from certain films Blackhawk released in their entirety, and of other films in which Blackhawk has released excerpts.

FILM FIRSTS, CHAPTER II

Highlights from a variety of significant films from the silent days that present many "Film Firsts". In the prehistoric animals department a segment from Windsor McKay's "Gertie The Dinosaur", D.W. Griffith's "Brute Force" and Willis O'Brien's "The Lost World". The ruthless business man in Griffith's "A Corner in Wheat", one of the earliest examples of social criticism on the screen. One of the earliest examples of table-top photography in Edison's 1905 film, "The Night Before Christmas". An important Melles' film, "Baron Munchausen's Dream" and the first feature version of Jules Verne's "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea". A segment from the famous British film, "The Possibilities Of War In The Air" and items that brought on early attempts at censorship such as Fatima, the Sally Rand of the 1893 Chicago World's Fair. They're all in FILM FIRST, CHAPTER II.

While all the television half-hours had only the TV introductions and the five minutes of Lowell Thomas in each program, in color, the newsreel footage is black and white. Therefore, the film formats of Super 8 and 16mm are being made available only in black and white, and by so doing save you virtually half of what their cost would be if printed on color stock. The video tapes have the same color sequences from each year's program that you will have seen on television.

Do news cameras tell the truth? Does their presence affect the events they have come to record? What were the factors in the production of our twice-weekly newsreels? In the early days of newsreels, camera equipment was bulky and cumbersome. Camera crews set up their cameras, and filmed what passed before them — all very well for a parade that would pass a fixed spot, but otherwise unsatisfactory. So some events were staged for the cameras. Lowell Thomas shows us a specific example from World War I newsreel footage.

In the Opener, Lowell Thomas and the producers of his series help to put the newsreel in historical perspective. Strengths and weaknesses, moments of greatness and moments of fallibility, the newsreels were no different from the TV news programs of today. The newsreels included represent a record of honest, often dangerous newsgathering. The small bits of fakery, the occasional manufactured incidents in no way diminish the historical value of our look backward in "Lowell Thomas Remembers".

1921, as Lowell Thomas remembers, was not so very long ago. American occupation troops of World War I returned from Europe, some with French and German wives, but all with a new awareness of life outside the United States. The shock suffered by black soldiers on their re-entry to American culture, from their acceptance as uniformed soldiers to their rejection as United States citizens, became another facet of our national problems.

President Harding, having campaigned for a "return to normalcy", pledged non-discrimination to all the unemployed.

Lowell Thomas traces the varied effects of the automobile, from the first traffic light in Newark, N.J. (built at a cost of $20,000) to the construction of the Holland Tunnel, a forty million dollar miracle of engineering. Newsreel cameramen followed installation workers down with the caissons for the Tunnel, and high up to the towers of the partially-completed George Washington Bridge.

Organized auto races soon became annual sports events. The most famous, and most highly competitive, was the Indy 500, started in 1920. The first year's winner was a four-cylinder Frontenac, achieving an unbelievable 88 miles per hour!

The date was 1926, America's 150th anniversary. Re-enactments of historical events were recorded by newsreel cameras, from authentically uniformed minutemen to an exhausted latter-day Paul Revere. In Philadelphia, a giant fair with trade exhibitions from every part of the world drew over six million people.

In the world of sports, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig kept the New York Yankees champions of baseball. Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney slugged it out for the world heavyweight championship. Gertrude Ederly, champion swimmer, swam the stormy English Channel — becoming the outstanding woman of 1926.

Movies, products of the twenties, became a symbol of the way people looked at themselves. Beauty existed on the screen for its own sake, Lowell Thomas tells us, and a new culture influenced America.

LOWELL THOMAS REMEMBERS 1927

The big story of 1927, perhaps of the decade — and still America's special legend — was the Lone Eagle's flight from Curtiss Field, Long Island to LeBourget. Movie-tone newsreel cameras, equipped with direct sound, recorded the echoes of his straining engine as The Spirit of St. Louis lumbered down the muddy runway. At Le Bourget, cameras filmed the enormous crowds waiting to greet him and captured their shouts of joy. During his 33½ solitary hours in flight, the young mail pilot became a hero. A familiar story, but Lowell Thomas brings us some fresh insights: Lindbergh's concern over having no visa in a foreign country; his legitimate worry about the safety of his plane — the fabric ripped from the wings and fuselage of The Spirit of St. Louis as souvenirs, even his flight log gone.

Lowell Thomas remembers two other major stories of 1927 that divided Americans on the domestic front; the attempt to enforce Prohibition, and the Sacco-Venzetti Case.

Lowell Thomas looks at 1928 with hindsight and foresight, reminding us of Lindbergh's epoch-making flight in 1927 and the devastating economic crash in 1929. The overlapping events emphasize the overall view of 1928, giving added significance to an apparently normal year.

The new idol of the skies was Amelia Earhart, 31 years old and already a seven year flying veteran. Her trans-Atlantic journey from Newfoundland to Wales in twenty hours, 40 minutes made her a heroine in the Lindbergh style, and America fell in love with her.

Black Tuesday, October 29th, 1929 was the day of the stock market crash. In retrospect, Lowell Thomas says "your guess is probably better than mine" about the cause. Movie-tone newsreel cameramen filmed interviews with economic experts, men like E. C. Forbes, who attributed the crash to speculation on borrowed money, buying on margin, and unsound business practices. Investors in airplane production, confident that small airplane sales would soon rival automobile sales, had lost their shirts four months previously. Strikes and demonstration by union workers, fearful of lay-offs and reduced wages, antagonized management. Voluntary controls of industry were met grudgingly, and big business attached the "communist" label to labor groups.

Lowell Thomas estimates that 80 million people attended motion picture theaters by 1930. Movies, talking pictures and newsreels were an escape, a diversion, a source of information, and an educational process. The buying habits of American families were influenced by what they saw on the silver screen. Their political thinking was influenced by men who recognized the possibilities of mass communications. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, then Governor of New York, became the personal friend of the state's residents, looking directly into the newsreel camera lens and asking for feedback from his constituents.

The Great Depression dominated most of America's thinking, with advice for survival coming from some unlikely sources. John D. Rockefeller appeared in newsreels with "Prosperity always returns after depression", little comfort to millions of the unemployed.

Rare views of giants of our era highlight 1931's reminiscences, and make it an exceptional treasure. Small, fragile Mahatma Gandhi speaks of discipline and truth, tenets of the passive resistance movement that would free India from British domination. Thomas Edison, still active and mischievous in his 80's, kisses his wife goodbye and strides off to his laboratory. Lowell Thomas quotes Edison's last words, just before his death in October of 1931 — "my work is done, I am content to go".

America honored a new aviation hero, Wiley Post, with a ticker tape parade down New York's streets. In a high-wing monoplane, the Winnie Mae, Post and his navigator flew from New York's Roosevelt Field over the Atlantic, over Europe, Russia and Alaska and back to New York in less than 9 days!

The year was 1932 when Al Capone reluctantly departed for Leavenworth; armored tanks confronted WW I Bonus marchers in Washington; the Lindbergh baby was kidnapped; and FDR was elected to the Presidency.

Republican President Hoover, already identified with the Great Depression, became a sitting duck for the opposition after the well-documented Veterans' March on Washington. When 20,000 jobless World War I veterans marched on Washington hoping to mobilize economic assistance, they found full military force mobilized against them.

Movietone Newsreels preserved a poignant event in 1932 — an interview with the anguished Charles and Anne Lindbergh, pleading for the return of their kidnapped child.

Two dominant personalities came to tremendous power in the Western world: Hitler in Germany and Franklin Roosevelt in the United States, each of them fully aware of the potential of the camera.

The small island nation of Japan had embarked on a wild course of aggression, spreading west to China. The Great Wall of China became a familiar sight to American moviegoers as Fox Movietone's cameras recorded border skirmishes. A watch tower shattered by bombardment, the Chinese and Japanese adversaries bundled against their common enemy, the piercing cold, ice boats being propelled toward shore along frozen waterfronts — all appeared as evidence of front line camera work. Matsuoka, Japan's delegate to the League of Nations, walked out of the League, refusing to accept censure for Japan's aggression.

Here are the newsreels Americans watched in the depth of the Depression: films of bread lines, abandoned farms, the great dust bowl, and armies of unemployed. Eighteen million people were without jobs. President Franklin Roosevelt faced the country, his optimism and jaunty air lending credence to his assertion that this country was coming back better than ever. During this desperate year, the Social Security measure was passed, providing old age pensions, unemployment compensation and protection for children.

News of Hitler's dramatic rise to power dominated the Movietone newsreels from Europe. In 1935 Hitler convened the Nuremberg Congress (ten years later the scene of Nazi war crimes trials) and 200,000 storm troops paraded with standards held high, a theatrical display equalling any Cecil B. DeMille extravaganza.

Americans were saddened by the tragic death of Will Rogers. His gentle, perceptive humor was stifled when he and Wiley Post crashed in their small plane in Alaska.

The 1936 Olympics, staged in Nazi Germany, were heralded as a showcase for Third Reich athletic superiority. Instead of Aryan Olympic achievements, however, audiences cheered and newsreel cameras recorded the astonishing performance of a black American, Jesse Owens, who won four gold medals and set long-standing records.

The emotional speeches of King Edward VIII of England, of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, and President Roosevelt of the United States are landmarks of the historical year of 1936.

Howard Hughes, reclusive and mystery man of the last two decades, is remembered by Lowell Thomas as a tall, handsome, young pilot who circled the globe in 1938. At Floyd Bennett Field, Movietone newsreel cameramen filmed the youthful Hughes climbing into the cockpit of his twin-engine Lockheed Lodestar, oblivious of crowds and cameras.

In Europe, Lowell Thomas reminisces about Hitler's occupation of Austria and the Sudetenland; and Prime Minister Chamberlain's "peace in our time" speech. Hitler's visit to Mussolini in Rome aroused fear in Europe, and films of military parades with goosestepping Roman legions did nothing to allay that fear.

In June of 1941, Hitler turned against Stalin, his former ally, and started his invasion of the Soviet Union. In July, Japan landed occupation forces in Indochina; and General MacArthur was made supreme commander in the Philippines, our outpost in the Pacific.

John Glenn, Pope John, John Kennedy — names made the news in 1962.

The big event for the United States and the world was the voyage of Friendship VII which orbited our globe three times, carrying John Glenn and our space team to international fame. Lowell Thomas remembers with undiminished excitement the wonder of a 4200 lb. space capsule blasting off our earth. The gap was closed in the space-race with Russia, as President Kennedy had promised.

The Kennedys, a new breed of White House family, made daily headlines, either political or social. Jackie Kennedy's good-will trip to Europe and the Far East was thoroughly documented, from her audience with Pope John to her howdah ride on the back of an elephant in India. WHY WORRY?

(1925)

BILLY FRANEY and BABE LONDON

NEW RELEASE

A trigger-happy jealous husband; a Rube Goldberg therapeutic pool with an inattentive attendant; and an overweight, over-sexed, overlooked bundle of frustrated womanhood all add up to George Bunny's worries in WHY WORRY?

Sight gags keep the action moving. When George Wilson (played by George Bunny) is locked in his sickroom at home by an overzealous nurse, escape is inevitable. Out the bathroom window he swings, into the bathroom window downstairs — right into a full bathtub. The bath was intended for Mrs. Allen, the lady of the house. Gunshots from Mr. Allen precipitate George out the window and onto the Di-Aster Sanitarium bus. The Sanitarium is not a refuge for the fugitive. Lurking behind corners and looking for any unwary victim is a love-starved oversized vamp — and a few one-sided encounters convince George the safest place is in the lobby, not down the primrose path.

SO LONG BILL

with ETHELYN GIBSON and CHARLES KING (1926)

NEW RELEASE

The green-eyed monster, Jealousy, moves in with love-dovies Bill and Ethel when they each receive an anonymous note advising that the other is unfaithful. Between Ethel's pretend boyfriends at the front door, and their fickle cook's real suitors at the back door, it's almost So Long Everybody in this frantic domestic comedy.

SO LONG BILL features Billy West and his real-life wife Ethelyn Gibson as the newlyweds, and Charles King as the "friend" who perpetrates all the mischief. Western fans have a real surprise in store when they see their favorite villain, Charles King, in a comedy role.

Taken from a 35mm original, Blackhawk's prints of SO LONG BILL are of excellent film quality, a suitable golden anniversary for this 1926 release.
