WINTER 1980-81 Vol. 329

©1980 Blackhawk Films, Inc., 1235 W. 5th Street, Davenport, Iowa 52808

Dear Friends,

Here is the first of the revised Blackhawk[®] Film Digest. The biggest noticeable change is that all products we offer are found in this "big catalog". It will be issued 4 times per year with the seasons. In between times we will send you a supplement about every 4th week showing some of the items from the "big book" as well as Special Sales and New and Recent Releases. Also in the main part of these catalogs you will now find the titles in each category listed pretty much in alphabetical order. Once in a while you may find one title out of place with its neighbor, but that's the license we must take to get everything on the page.

Please also note that page 48 is an index of the video titles in the main part of the catalog, while on page 49 is the index of the film titles in the main part.

I was asked several weeks ago if we have a guiding philosophy and in replying it occurred that it might be a good time to review it again. We know companies today that are trying to benefit from the trend toward buying lasting value. It sometimes seems ironic when so many are looking for ways to lessen the cost of their product or service.

We have always believed in giving our customers the high quality they expect, understanding they would rather pay for real value. Our products are made from the finest materials currently available and are constantly being improved when it is proved to us that a better way or better material is available. We have never cut back or skimmed on materials or labor. We will continue to provide the best quality available. That is our philosophy.

As this goes to the printer we are in the throes of opening a retail store in the Spring Village Shopping Center in Davenport, so the next time you're in town please come by and see us there. Of course, you're always welcome to visit here at the main plant, but take-home sales will now be made at the store.

All of the Blackhawk Family joins with me in wishing you and yours a very Merry Christmas and joyous Holiday season.

Thank you for being a Blackhawk customer.

THE LITTEST ANGEL²

To the gates of Heaven came a small and very lonely little angel, who, though he tried hard to look and act like a good little angel should, just couldn't seem to stay out of trouble. Then one day, the kindly old Understanding Angel granted the Littest Angel's wish and from that day on, the cherub's conduct and appearance were above reproach. Finally came the time when Jesus was to be born. All the angels of Paradise busied themselves with the preparation of their costly gifts. Yet, it was the gift of the Littlest Angel that was chosen by God to shine as an inspiration for all man. 18 min.

THE GREATEST SELECTION OF THINGS TO SHOW

(This article is written for its cinematic historical interest. The property is no longer open to the public and it is hoped that Mr. McGee's sharing of his tour will be as enjoyable to you as it has been to the Blackhawk family.)

Green Acres Harold Lloyd's Estate

by R. John McGee

PART II

Mr. Lloyd loved Christmas and his friends liked adding to his collection of tree ornaments, finally it became such a chore putting the tree up every year they decided to just leave it up — and there it stands as it has since 1965, 18 feet tall covered with over 5,000 ornaments and our guide said again as many in storage. The needles are long gone, but with the ornaments as close as one can be upon another even when you look one doesn't miss them. It is like something out of a Russian fairy tale or the workshop of Faberge.

The Christmas tree is in what is called the sun room and is alone something to behold. The walls and ceiling are painted as if one is in a lath-house all trellised with vines, butterflies floating by with three open patches of sky visible with birds flying overhead. The story connected with this room concerns the mural painter commissioned to paint it, our guide said he had a drinking problem perhaps aggravated by the intricate design he was to do. As the work progressed he got more and more profane until at last the Lloyd's had had enough and set the date he would have to be finished and out of the house. For this reason, it is pointed out the patterns of leaves are larger at the far end of the room! Now we went to the adjoining room called the music room. There is a large Steinway grand player piano. It is said Mr. Lloyd liked to be sitting at the piano when guests arrived "playing" a very intricate piece of music, then he would get up and greet his guests while the piano continued on its own. This room also has a pipe organ built in and a projection booth. In later years Mr. Lloyd became a great hi-fi and stereo fan with thousands of records and speakers placed all around this room. He liked his music so loud the gold decorations from the baroque golf-leaf ceiling would vibrate, crack and fall to the floor, truly gold from the heavens. On leaving this room we go into the hall leading to the main hall passing what is called the white room done in French 18th century furnishings, a rare aubusson petit-point rug, another grand piano and portraits of the two daughters. Here on a fire screen, foot stool and smaller chairs we see Mrs. Lloyds needlework and we are told this is the room that was really used the most as a living room. It is one of the smaller rooms on this floor. We are now taken down the stairs to the floor below, after being told the floor above has eleven bedrooms not on the tour.

In the basement we see what they called the "Friendship Gallery". Here are autographed pictures of film stars of the mid-1920's to the early 1940's, the Golden Era of Hollywood. Heading up the list is Marian Davies on the landing, she was a special friend of Mildred Lloyds, they had beach houses near each other at Santa Monica.

Mr. Lloyd believed in buying quality and keeping things forever. There are several cars from various periods over the years in the garages. These Rolls Royces are very interesting because they are from the short-lived American Rolls Royce plant and have appeared in several films, one having been in "Sabrina" and the other in one of Mr. Lloyds films as well as having been used by the family. This is a good place to take a last look at the exterior of the house. Sunset Magazine tells us it was designed by architect Sumner Spaulding and one must quite agree with them, it is a relatively unostentatious Mediterranean style with simple masses and elegant lines.

Now we go to the star garden with its cool shade and fountain that is little more than a single jet of water overlooking the large 85 foot swimming pool with a fountain at one end separating the main body of the pool from the child's wading end. The swimming pool and pool house became the most used area of entertainment in the later years. The pool itself has glass windows in the side to indulge Mr. Lloyd's hobby of photography. This is a lovely place to end our tour to this fantastic estate.

In 1968 Mildred Lloyd died. In 1971 at the age of 78 Harold Lloyd was told he had cancer and if he went to a hospital he would have six months to live. With the singleness of purpose of the "glasses character," Harold Lloyd decided he would stay at Green Acres this home that he loved, settle his affairs and died in three weeks in his bedroom overlooking the vast formal gardens. Like many of us Harold Lloyd had a superstition concerning the central fountain in the entrance courtyard where the two Rolls Royces now stand. Our guide said he felt if he circled this fountain with his car he would never return to this fantastic palace he had built and would always in a determined manner back up and turn so he would come and go on one side of it. Not knowing this tradition, when the ambulance came for Harold Lloyd, the driver circled the fountain.

HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS,
JOHN T. PRINCE, ERIC MAYNE,
C. NORMAND HAMMOND, ANNA TOWNSEND,
MICKEY DANIELS

Harold is a brash young country doctor with his own peculiar theories about how to treat patients. He tends a little girl's doll which has apparently drowned and prescribes a medicine for a sick old lady: bringing her attorney son home from the city to visit her.

Her son is so pleased with Dr. Jack that he asks him to look at a sick daughter of one of his rich clients. Dr. Jack meets the girl and it's love at first sight. He prescribes a cure of "excitement" and pretends to be an escaped lunatic running through the house. Many hilarious moments including the old trick of darting in and out of doorways finally prove to the father that the girl is not sick. This our last of the Time-Life collection of Lloyd films is fast-paced and very entertaining. BW

What Every Santa Should Know

THE BRAVE TIN SOLDIER (1934)

This charming adaptation of Hans Christian Anderson's "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" is both beautiful and dramatic. Stan, stuck with the check, decides it's all or nothing and puts every last cent into a slot machine. Luck is with him, and he hits the jackpot. MIDNIGHT PATROL² (1933)
STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY,
CHARLIE HALL, TINY SANDFORD

In most cases when Laurel and Hardy dealt with the law, they were on the wrong side . . . either by choice or by chance.

In MIDNIGHT PATROL they prove no more adept at crime busting than they are at crime causing.

Despite nearly having their squad car stolen, unwittingly aiding a burglar, and almost wrecking their Police Chief's house, the boys do apprehend a crook. Wonder of wonders. 21 min. BW

THE MUSIC BOX² (1932)
STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY,
BILLY GILBERT, CHARLIE HALL

Simply put, THE MUSIC BOX is one of the best sound films Laurel and Hardy ever made.

In it, Stan and Ollie must deliver a piano to Professor Theodore von Schwarzenhoffen.

The good professor's house, however, is only reachable by a long flight of steps . . . a very long, very steep group of steps to be sure.

From then on things run from predictable to the nutso with tie-twiddling, the inevitable cop, a ridiculing nursemaid with baby carriage, and more.

THE MUSIC BOX is a rich, well-edited and perfectly executed example of frustration comedy. It's also Laurel and Hardy's only Oscar-winning film. 30 min. BW

LOVE BUSINESS² (1931)

Jackie Cooper has a crush on his pretty schoolteacher, Miss Crabtree; every night in bed he keeps his little brother Wheezer awake as he hugs and kisses his imaginary sweetheart and calls her lovey-dovey names. One day Jackie gets a piece of news that hits like a thunderbolt: Miss Crabtree is coming to live with his family! This means washing before every meal, and along with Wheezer and his sister Mary Ann, keeping an eye on dinner etiquette. But it also means having to put up with a romantic rival, as Chubby drops by to ask Miss Crabtree to marry him. Jackie heckles his adversary, but the love-scene comes to a definite halt when Jackie's mother recognizes the mushy sentiments Chubby is dishing out. He's memorized her old love letters, which Wheezer has been selling!

LOVE BUSINESS is a typically amusing and appealing short from the early-talkie period, featuring that idolized schoolmarm, Miss Crabtree, played by June Marlowe. In one scene, the Hal Roach filmmakers play a subtle inside-joke; Chubby practices love-making in front of the local movie theatre, when a giant photo shows a typically sappy movie couple — Charley Chase and Thelma Todd! 21 min. B READIN' AND WRITIN'² (1932)

Summer vacation is over, and Breezy's mother sends the youngster reluctantly off to school once again, telling him that she wants him to be a good pupil and grow up to be President . . . but Breezy would rather be a streetcar conductor! Wise-guy Breezy decides that the easiest way to get out of going to school is to get himself expelled, and the easiest way to accomplish that feat is to prepare a parade of pranks and practical jokes on schoolteacher Miss Crabtree and her unsuspecting class. The culmination of smart aleck indignities comes when Breezy leads a mule into the classroom, leaving Miss Crabtree to shoo the stubborn animal away as best she can — to the laughing delight of her pupils. Breezy finally gets expelled, and the teacher warns that he cannot return until he apologizes, and commits to memory a silly poem read to the class by sniveling little apple-polisher Sherwood. Breezy is now a free man, but he finds to his surprise that being the only boy not in school during the day isn't much fun at all. He is haunted by the admonition to learn Sherwood's poem, and finally does, sheepishly returning to recite the sissy "daffodil" verse in front of jeering classmates, as tears roll down his face.

READIN' AND WRITIN' successfully combines comedy, sentiment, and true Americana — its heart and humor are entirely typical of the best Our Gang can offer.

This was the last of director Bob McGowan's Our Gang entries with lovely June Marlowe as everybody's ideal schoolteacher, Miss Crabtree, who, as always, takes it on the chin more than once in witty question and answer exchanges with students. 21 min. BW

After the Tramp falls in love with a blind girl, he struggles for money to help her regain her sight. THE GREAT DICTATOR' (1940)

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, PAULETTE GODDARD

Chaplin plays a dual role in this, his first dialogue film: the modest, unassuming proprietor of a small barber shop in the Jewish ghetto of Tomania, and that country's manic dictator, Adenoid Hynkel. Through a complicated set of circumstances, Hynkel and the barber become mistaken for one another by Hynkel's troops. Forced into an impersonation of Hynkel at a mass rally celebrating Tomania's successful invasion of Austerlich, the barber steps even further out of character and becomes Charles Chaplin. His impassioned speech on the evils of militarism, delivered directly to the audience, created an instant sensation, and Chaplin was asked twice to repeat it on network radio broadcasts. 128 min. BW

THE MARX BROS.

ANIMAL CRACKERS² (1930) MARX BROTHERS

"Hooray for Captain Spaulding! Here is a classic as uproariously funny as it was 50 years ago. Includes Groucho's African lecture 'One morning I shot an elephant in my pajamas. How he got into my pajamas, I don't know,' and the card game which Harpo and Chico play with the wealthy society woman Mrs. Rittenhouse."

Groucho is Rufus T. Firefly, the screwball monarch of Freedonia. Assisted ably by his mad and maddening brothers, Rufus dictates you name it, he'll dictate it. Their improvisational powers of visual humor and insult are in peak anarchic form here.

This is pointed political satire, pure and insane. Francois Truffaut once compared this and Chaplin's SHOULDER ARMS as the only valid anti-war films ever made. They both refuse to take war seriously. 72 min. BW

GRANDMA'S BOY clearly established Harold Lloyd as one of the screen's leading comedians. Harold plays a young boy who thinks of himself as a coward. His grandmother tells him about his grandfather . . . a coward who was inspired to daring exploits by carrying a witch's lucky charm. She gives Harold the charm which is nothing more than the head of her cane, and leads a posse to capture the town bully. Lloyd's personal favorite among his films. The original 35mm film has intermittent white vertical streaks. This "flaring" is normal for this subject and no better print is available. This condition does not detract from the enjoyment of this film. 53 min. BW

It's wedding bells for Harold but he gains a haunted house in the bargain. H THE KID BROTHER (1927)
HAROLD LLOYD, JOBYNA RALSTON

Poor Harold is the youngest of three sons living with their father, the sheriff a widower. Father and brothers are real men, but Harold is just a boy. When the men go to town he is left at home, for it is no place for boys. During a fantasy of being a hero, Harold meets Mary Powers who is travelling with Prof. Powers' Original Mammoth Medicine Show and two shady characters.

As the story unfolds, our shy and weak KID BROTHER proves to Mary and himself that he can be as effective as any of his family. Through some violence, "monkey-business" and loads of side splitting humor, our boy recovers the stolen money, rounds up the crooks, takes care of the bully, wins his girl, and makes his father proud.

Filming was done partly on Catalina Island near Alacantia, California.

HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS

Take hair-raising action, play it for laughs, and you have the formula Harold Lloyd used to establish himself as one of the funniest comedians of all time. In NEVER WEAKEN the breezy go-getter is driven to despair; Harold hires an acrobat to generate business for a doctor's office where his fiance works. When a crowd gathers around an unhealthy looking specimen Harold hides while the acrobat flips and falls. Harold runs to the rescue and administers aid. After what looks like a miracle cure Harold passes out the doctor's business cards. Soon a stream of patients fill the doctor's office, but when Harold peeks in to gloat he finds his betrothed embracing another man! He resigns himself to suicide but every attempt (poison, jumping out the window, and shooting himself) fails. 26 min. BW

Lloyd joins the Navy to accomplish this goal. The girl invites Harold to a cruise on her father's yacht and so Harold returns to the recruiting station to cancel his enlistment. Too late. He is stationed on a dreadnought and off to the high seas.

LAUGHFEST

Five classic slapstick shorts by four of the greatest make "Laughfest" a ticklish riot. "It's a Gift" stars Snub Pollard with an invention for everything. The film opens with "a meeting of oil magnets, brokers, and a few honest men." Pollard has invented a substitute for gas, but his non-flammable, miracle fuel makes cars go crazy before they explode! "Barney Oldfield's Race for a Life" is an old fashioned melodrama timeless in appeal. It features the most famous race car driver of the period — Barney Oldfield, "fastest man on wheels". "Kid's Auto Race", Chaplin's second film, gives birth to the tramp character, and "Busy Day" finds Charlie in drag. Then it's cross-eyed Ben Turpin as the endangered stuntman in "Daredevil". A side-buster! 59 min. Musical score Eventually seven different dogs played the Teddy part. Each was portrayed as at least as bright as the human stars.

A riotous and racy comic valentine to those daring men who took to the air in the first outlandish flying machines. THE RAINBOW PARADE (1934-36)

Animator/director Burt Gillette's RAINBOW PARADE contains some of the lushest and most subtly textured color work to be found in animation. The RAINBOW PARADE centers around the characters, Felix the Cat, Molly Moo Cow, and the Toonerville Folks. In BOLD KING COLE, only Felix can save the King from the family ghosts. Felix searches out a companion for his goldfish, Annabelle in NEPTUNES NONSENSE. Animated by Fontaine Fox and directed by Burt Gillette, the Toonerville Folks series (TOONERVILLE TROLLEY, and TOONERVILLE PICNIC) are all typified by lively music, fantastic yet gentle comedy and brilliant technicolor. Delicate and graceful Molly Moo Cow is a friend to the multicolored butterflies in MOLLY MOO COW AND THE BUTTERFLIES. Also included is THE GOOSE THAT LAID THE GOLDEN EGG. 50 min.

The setting is Norway. Jennie (MacDonald) enters the marathon dance contest at a cafe to attempt to get funds to aid her brother Nels (Nye) who has embezzled bank funds to support his gambling.

On her release from prison for aiding him, Jennie offers herself as a lottery bride.

Her ticket is purchased by Chris, who gives it to his older brother. She takes up residence with them, pending marriage and Chris joins Alberto on a dirigible expedition into the Arctic. The ship is wrecked, but a successful search is organized. Jennie and Chris are reunited.

ANTHONY NEWLEY, DAVID HEMMINGS

A delightful, yet sometimes sad, musical adaptation of the 19th Century Dickens classic. Quilp, a greedy moneylender, teams up with a corrupt lawyer to take over the Old Curiosity Shop. Quilp imprisons the shop's elderly owner and his granddaughter, but they escape to seek a better life for themselves. The even matching of good and evil results in a bittersweet ending, but clearly the long-term winner is love and virtue. 114 min.

Based on the famous radio money giveaway show of the same name, POT 'O GOLD was James Roosevelt's first and last movie production. Political connections enabled him to hire Hollywood's best talent. Musical

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER¹

(1977) JOHN TRAVOLTA, KAREN LYNN GORNEY, BARRY MILLER, JOSEPH CALI, PAUL PAPE, DONNA PESCOV

Oscar-nominee John Travolta gives a sensual and intelligent performance as a local disco kingpin at the peak of his popularity. Through the influence of Stephanie — a born-and-bred Brooklynite shedding her origins for a more sophisticated lifestyle — and Tony's brother — a disillusioned priest — Tony begins to question the way he views life and the narrowness of his perspective. The disco dance sequences, matched in hip-throbbing vitality by the Bee Gees' music, make the film an accurate and absorbing barometer for the seventies generation. SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER is a full-fledged, thoroughly absorbing drama as pulsating and infectious as the incessant disco beat that sets its rhythm. Rated R. 119 min.

SHALL WE DANCE?² (1937)

FRED ASTAIRE, GINGER ROGERS, EDWARD EVERETTE HORTON

Musical with a Gershwin score. Ginger is the snobbish musical comedy star who couldn't care less that ballet star Astaire has fallen for her. She isn't interested in him at all, until they dance together. They weave magic in the air with "They Can't Take That Away From Me", and "Let's Call The Whole Thing Off". Also, featured is the famous roller skate sequence where Fred dances with Ginger. 116 min. BW

BUDDY EBSEN, BERT LAHR, JUNE HAVOC, THE KING SISTERS

Two songs writers try everything they can think of to become paid song writers. The great Bert Lahr mugs and carries on while Buddy dances and plays the piano. The King Sisters sing beautifully, and look equally as beautiful. The plot is complicated when the two innocents and their girl friends get entangled in a giant swindle. This is a fluffy funny film. A great addition to every collection. 71 min. BW

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN¹ (1952)

GENE KELLY, DEBBIE REYNOLDS, DONALD O'CONNOR, JEAN HAGEN

An exuberant, song-filled satire of Hollywood in the last days of the silent era. Gene Kelly's first "talkie" threatens to be a disaster due to the leading lady's squeaky voice until it is decided to dub Debbie Reynolds's voice in over the leading lady's. Energetic Kelly is "Fit as a Fiddle and Ready for Love". Reynolds inspires him to merrily hoof it out-of-doors in the unforgettable number, "Singin' in the Rain". "Moses Supposes" and "You Are My Lucky Star" are also heard in this section. "Good Morning" opens part two as sung by Gene and Debbie. A lover's spat calls forth "Make 'Em Laugh". Here O'Connor dances up walls! Kelly and Charisse dance to "Broadway Ballet." Abr.

The story takes place during the Nazi annexation of Austria. The family escapes to Switzerland while viewers escape to panoramic scenery and song. Especially popular for its deep concern for family and religion, this highly professional production won five Academy Awards. 174 min.

One of the most romantic and tightly constructed of the duo's films. Music by Jerome Kern includes the songs "Pick Yourself Up, Dust Yourself Off, Start All Over Again", "Just The Way You Look Tonight" and "A Fine Romance". Fred, a vaudeville dance star, hops a freight in pursuit of Ginger, a dance school instructor. Their romance is hampered by the girl back home. An unbelievable musical with Fred and Ginger in dazzling form. The Irving Berlin score boasts such great songs as: "Cheek to Cheek", "Top Hat", and "Isn't This A Lovely Day To Be Caught In The Rain". BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY² (1927)

Director Walter Ruttmann's famous BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY is one of the most influential non-fiction silent films.

On the surface it records everyday events: a railroad arriving from a suburb, factories opening, street filling, traffic jamming, an evening at a cabaret, etc.

But it's also a social commentary when it contrasts the simple meals of diners with the huge ones served at the Berlin Zoo . . . or a suicide at dusk.

And it's a lesson on the art of film with images piling on images. 68 min. BW

NANOOK OF THE NORTH¹ (1922)

Robert Flaherty, an explorer turned filmmaker, had spent 20 years in the North before he started this documentary.

Working at temperatures well below his camera's capabilities, Flaherty filmed on intelligent, almost allegorical record of Eskimo customs and Nanook's skills and humor. More amazing yet was Flaherty's ability to capture the warmth and tenderness Nanook and his family feel as they "conjur" food, shelter and clothing from the bitter Arctic. 91 min. BW

From the series:

The History of the Motion Picture

Produced by Paul Killiam and Saul Turrell

THE HISTORY OF THE MOTION PICTURE is a unique series of half-hours tracing the development of the 20th Century art of film-making.

Some units are condensations containing carefully chosen highlights and key scenes from great classics. Others present anthologically selected materials from many sources on specific themes: comedy styles, individual stars, directional techniques, etc. New musical scores enhance interest for today's audiences, and thoughtful narration pinpoints the significance of each sequence in movie history, recalling the challenges faced by the craftsmen who made them.

The 16mm. sound prints are ordered from Blackhawk with the understanding that they will not be copied, reproduced, transferred to other media, leased, re-distributed on a rental basis, used theatrically or for television of any kind, all of which rights are expressly reserved.

A compilation taken from actual Movietone Newsreel footage of World War II. Movietone, alone among all newsreels, secured authentic scenes of the devastation of the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Next Franklin D. Roosevelt declares war in 1941. Japanese kamikaze raids demonstrate some of the most frightening manifestations of man's destructive capabilities during the war. Next, the invasion of Iwo Jima as filmed by Navy, Coast Guard and Marine photographers. Witness the battle as the Marines slowly push their way from the beachhead into the island. Military films show the atomic bomb being dropped on Hiroshima: blinding light, a ball of fire, a whirlpool of elemental fires rising to 60,000 feet, the shock and sound with boiling clouds. BARBARELLA² (1967)

JANE FONDA, JOHN PHILIP LAW, DAVID HEMMINGS, MILO O'SHEA

BARBARELLA recaptures the spirit of the early American comic strips, marked by the same audacity and originality, and horror, cruelty and eroticism that made comic books such a favorite. The setting is the planet Lytton in the year 40,000, when Barbarella (Jane Fonda) makes a forced landing while traveling through space in her rocket. She acts like a female James Bond, vanquishing evil in the forms of robots and monsters. She also rewards, in an uninhibited manner, the handsome men who assist her in the adventure. Whether she is wrestling with Black Guards, the evil Queen, her innocent lover, or the Angel Pygar, she just can't seem to avoid losing at least part of her skin-tight space suit. 98 min. Rated R

An eerie thriller about a group of travelers stranded on a small island in Greece during a plague epidemic. Karloff is a general who goes to the island to visit the grave of his wife. He and the war correspondent that accompanies him are quarantined to the island when the plague takes the life of a salesman. One by one they die until Karloff turns from a faith in science to the superstition of an evil spirit. An epileptic woman goes into a trance and is presumed dead from plague. She is nailed into her coffin alive and survivors turn on her young nurse believing she possesses an evil spirit. Driven mad but alive the woman escapes from the coffin to roam and kill. Directed with excellent timing to shock and suggest. Coffin sequences one of the single most chilling moments in the history of the screen! 72 min. BW

The fantasy masterpiece about the giant ape captured on a prehistoric island who proceeds to terrorize New York until his final stand on top of the Empire State Building. B MURDER AT THE BASKERVILLES (1937)

ARTHUR WONTNER, IAN FLEMING,
LYN HARDING

A dog that didn't bark, a curry dinner, a telegram from a small village, and a man who isn't interested in football are the clues used by Sherlock Holmes to foil Professor Moriarty in this film based on the short story "Silver Blaze" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Arthur Wontner, a Basil Rathbone look-alike was Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's personal choice to play Holmes. Judging by Wontner's performance, a mixture of wry humor, complete confidence, and cool aloofness, Doyle was right. Holmes received an invitation to visit Sir Henry Baskervilles at his estate. The vacation is short-lived as Baskervilles' daughter's fiancé is accused of stealing Silver Blaze, a race horse, and murdering the horse's keeper. A suspenseful mystery full of surprises! 67 min. B OUTSIDE THE LAW (1921)

The original negative of OUTSIDE THE LAW was destroyed, and until the mid-seventies no prints were thought to exist. Happily Bob Deflores did locate a print of this mystery in which Lon Chaney, the master of make-up, plays 3-parts.

The print, however, was somewhat damaged. So extensive restoration was necessary. As now offered, these prints are good, but do contain some flaws near the end.

B THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1925)

LON CHANEY, MARY PHILBIN,
NORMAN KERRY

Strange things are happening at the Paris Opera House.

Deep beneath it lurks a scarred genius methodically plotting revenge. He's a creature so hideous that he strikes terror into everyone . . . including the prima donna his tutoring has brought success.

The story is a classic that this 1925 movie, the first filmed version, lives up to spectacularly.

Lon Chaney, Sr.'s acting brought never-again-equalled power and scope to the title role. Director Rupert Julien kept the action moving. And the highly unusual colored masked ball sequence shocked audiences used to black and white. A masterpiece of horror. 79 min. Part Color

THE AFRICAN QUEEN¹ (1951)

HUMPHREY BOGART, KATHARINE HEPBURN,
ROBERT MORLEY

Although less than 30 years old, "The African Queen" is quite rightly considered a classic.

John Huston's direction mixes humor and drama in perfect proportions. The player's interaction is riveting. And the James Agee script is filled with superb character development.

As Hepburn moves from being the thoroughly prim and proper missionary to plotting to destroy a German battleship, Bogart develops his Oscar-winning characterization of the drunken boat captain who is amazed by the company the outbreak of WW I has forced him to keep.

A rare combination of wit, charm and action . . . humor and drama in perfect proportions . . . a superb film. 105 min.

I INTOLERANCE (1916)
MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON,
MIRIAM COOPER,
CONSTANCE TALMADGE,
ERICH VON STROHEIM, LILLIAN GISH

Although less financially successful than his earlier BIRTH OF A NATION, D.W. Griffith's INTOLERANCE is regarded as his most important work.

Using the image of a mother rocking a cradle as a bridge, Griffith skillfully wove four separate, but parallel stories (The Fall of Babylon, the Crucifixion of Christ, the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre of French Huguenots and a more modern story) into one whole. The magificently achieved purpose: to illustrate the struggle between love and intolerance through the ages.

I IT² (1927)
CLARA BO, GARY COOPER,

"To have 'It', the fortunate possessor must have that strange magnetism which attracts both sexes. 'It' is a purely virile quality, belonging to a strong character. He or she must be entirely unself-conscious and full of self-confidence, indifferent to the effect he or she is producing, and uninfluenced by others. There must be physical attraction, but beauty is unnecessary. Conceit or self-consciousness destroys 'It' immediately."

Clara Bow, a saucy department store worker is out to land the store owner and isn't doing well, until she gets in on his yachting trip and with her wiles and 'It' wins her man. Score by William Perry.

MOUNT ST. HELENS

"Described by geologists and volcanologists as a once in a lifetime event, Mount St. Helen in southwest Washington state erupted in a titanic explosion on May 18, 1980, unparalleled in the continental U.S. in 3,500 years. The force of the blast was beyond the comprehension of man. A huge volcanic peak, one of the world's most beautiful, was literally torn away by the blast. Early damage estimates were already above 2 billion dollars, well on the way to becoming the most costly disaster in American history."

Our slide set made by Finley-Holiday is a remarkable collection of color slides of the mountain's story made of 40 2" x 2" 35mm color slides and an audio cassette tape.

B BIG BUSINESS² (1929)
STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY,
JAMES FINLAYSON, TINY SANDFORD

BIG BUSINESS is one of the comedy classics. Even non-Laurel and Hardy devotees are automatically caught up in the fury which in its precise mounting excitement, attention to detail, meticulous editing, and no-pause-for-breath action, is to the comedy film what THE BIRTH OF A NATION is to the historical spectacle. Selling Christmas trees in California, Stan and Ollie seem to bring out the "Bah, humbug!" in everyone. At the home of Scotsman Finlayson, disaster nearly overtakes everyone.

BELOW ZERO² (1930)
STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY,
CHARLIE HALL, TINY SANDFORD

Stan and Ollie are street musicians. Stan plays the portable organ, and Ollie plays the viol. Business isn't too good on this particular day until they notice they are next to an institution for the deaf. They relocate and a woman pays them double just to get them off her street. Moving on, their rendition of "In the Good Old Summertime" irritates Charlie Hall who is shoveling snow. Things get violent; and the organ is flattened by a passing truck while Ollie gets smashed over the head with the viol. In a stroke of what appears to be good luck, they find a loaded wallet. But when they invite the cop to share in the cash, they discover it belongs to him.
