Stan and Ollie are a "big time" vaudeville team enroute from one theatre to another in the upper berth of an open section Pullman. While the space is confined, the laughs are not, and this one has some great moments.

THE PRINCE OF PEP

(1925)

(abridged)

starring RICHARD TALMADGE
with Brindley Shaw, Nola Luxford, Joe Harrington

A fashionable physician, Dr. James Leland caught his secretary stealing drugs and in the ensuing struggle, lost his memory from a blow on the head. Shortly after, a mysterious figure known only as The Black X stepped forth to fight the war on crime and drug peddlers.

It's all here—the fabulous Richard Talmadge in one of his amazing adventure feats. A professional abridgement from a 5-reel feature of 1925, Blackhawk's version of The Prince of Pep retains both story line and fast-moving action, bringing a long-neglected favorite of the silent screen back to life. If you've heard of Richard Talmadge (and what silent screen fan hasn't?), this one is a must-have for that collection.

Generally rated as the best of all the Laurel and Hardy features, the story of the boys trying to get away for the national convention of "The Sons of the Desert!" is jam-packed comedy that doesn't let down from beginning to end, and contains some of the best comedy routines the boys ever developed. # Charley Chase Comedies

CRAZY LIKE A FOX

with MARTHA SLEEPER

The story of two millionaires who want their respective son and daughter who have never met, to marry. The son of one is Charley—the daughter of the other is Martha. They both do everything they can to avoid the situation, only to meet and fall in love without having identified each other. This leads to all sorts of complications—and some good old 1926 comedy laughs! (1926)

810-03-0458, Standard 8mm., 375-foot, 14-ozs. $12.98

HASTY MARRIAGE

with JIMMY FINLAYSON and LILLIAN ELLIOT

Here is a Charley Chase comedy of considerably greater appeal today than at the time of its initial release in 1931. Charley has ambitions to become a trolley employee, but in the depression days of 1931, the trolley company will only hire married men. As Gay prefers Charley, as does Jimmy, they set out to have a "hasty marriage" against the competition of Gay's mother. Most of the action takes place around, inside or on top of the trolley car—with Jimmy Finlayson at the controls. (1931)

MOVIE NIGHT

with EUGENIA GILBERT, SPEC O'DONNELL

"Movie Night" is a funny and accurate reflection of movie-going at the time. It deals with the Chases and their faithful attendance at the Monday night movies, more for the regular prize drawings than for interest in the picture. (1929)

810-03-0351, Standard 8mm., 350-foot, 14-ozs. $12.98
860-03-0079, Super 8, 400-foot, 14-ozs. $14.98

MIDSUMMER MUSH

with BETTY MACK

In this one Charley is a scoutmaster setting out with his troop of scouts from Broadway and 42nd Street for a period of summer camping. Even if you're a parent, you can't imagine the complications of leaving the city with a group of young scouts, the distraction of traffic, of bicycling, of pitching camp by the side of the lake; the dramatic impact of being propelled in the middle of the night from a hammock into the lake. ## NATURE IN THE WRONG

with MURIEL EVANS

Issued just as the Tarzan craze was sweeping the country in 1933. Charley is in love with Muriel and wants to marry her. Ronnie is also a real contender and has the inside track with Muriel's mother because of his "blue blood". Charley thus sets out to reconstruct his family tree—but Ronnie gets in the act and causes a document to reach Charley that states he is a direct descendant of Tarzan, the Ape Man. Muriel thinks this is great—and Charley sets out to practice up on his inherited powers—dressed in a leopard skin. (1933)

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

with ROSINA LAWRENCE

It seems that the Chases attend the theatre every week for "Bank Night"—and of course Charley rushes home from the office and the family rushes through dinner so they can be sure to get in without standing in line. The big event is not the film—it's the drawing at the end of the first evening show—and in this one coincidence is strained to the breaking point with the Chase's little girl going on stage to pick the lucky number—then calling out Charley's number! (1936)

THE NICKEL NURSER

with BILLY GILBERT and THELMA TODD

This is one of the funniest of the Charley Chase comedies, with Charley cast as the efficiency expert brought into the home of a wealthy tycoon to attempt to teach his three daughters the value of money and the virtue of economy. (1932)

830-03-0060, Standard 8mm. magnetic sound, 450-foot, 1-lb. $24.98

NOW WE'LL TELL ONE

with MURIEL EVANS

Here is one of the very funny Charley Chase comedies of 1933 in which Charley, as the bashful young man, is transformed into an aggressive go-getter because of an electric belt developed by a wacky inventor. Crammed with action and laughs this fast moving two-reeler will have you with it all the way as Charley, acting as the absolutely confident suitor, chases Muriel only to be caught without the magic belt in its climactic moments. Guaranteed to please! (1933)

FARO NELL

with LOUISE FAZENDA and JACK LUDEN
Here is a quote from a 1929 issue of Photoplay Magazine in which the two-reel talking short subject, "Faro Nell", was classed as one of the best pictures of the month—the first time Photoplay had singled out a short comedy for that award:

"It takes something hot in the way of a two-reel talking comedy to break into this fast company of best pictures, and this Louise Fazenda howl is the bright baby. "Faro Nell" is a scream—an airtight, perfectly acted burlesque of the old-time Western thriller. Louise, in long yellow curls, is a panic. This is just what we've long wanted—a two-reel talkie we could bellow at." (1929)

MONKEY SHINES

with EDDIE BARRY, EARL RODNEY and HELEN DARLING

American social history after World War I saw many peculiar fads, but one of the most unbelievable involved the belief that a goat gland, transplanted in the human body, would restore youth and vitality. Such follies and foibles were regarded by silent film makers as fair game for parody and Al Christie's group are past masters of the art.

Made at the height of the craze, Monkey Shines took direct aim at the more gullible members of the audience. Although we may wonder why anyone would embrace the current fads, "Monkey Shines" remains today as visual proof that those generations before us were susceptible to the same fallings. (1920)

THE DENTIST

Written by Fields, THE DENTIST begins with a rather placid breakfast, a run in with the ice man and then on to the golf course where Fields, to the dismay of his companion, makes a hole-in-one on a ball drop over his shoulder. Later at the office, you see him treat several patients in the usual roughshod Fields manner. Part way through with his treatment of a patient, Elise Cavanna, he leaves and goes upstairs to his apartment to punish his daughter. Her temper tantrum cracks the plaster, part of it falling in Elise's mouth. His New Job was Chaplin's first film for Essanay and the only one made in Chicago. With him in the cast are Leo White and Charlotte Mineau, Ben Turpin and Gloria Swanson. ### TRIPLE TROUBLE with EDNA PURVIANCE, WESLEY RUGGLES and LEO WHITE

During 1915, his year with Essanay, Chaplin completed fourteen subjects. "Triple Trouble" is a fifteenth edited from sequences from two of these productions: "Police" (Prior to the release of that subject) and "Work"—and also from a never-finished feature "Life" in 1918; this assembly was made possible by the shooting of new scenes (in which Chaplin, obviously, did not appear), by using a double to bridge the gaps that otherwise would have been left in the action, some skillful cutting, and subtitles slanted at that wartime year. For such a hodgepodge, "Triple Trouble" came off surprisingly well. (1918)

Mutual Period

In this period, during 1915-1917, Chaplin produced and directed a dozen two reel comedies for Mutual. As a group, these rank at the very top of any series of short comedy films ever produced. And it is here that Chaplin came into his own. Every film of the twelve is a delight!

ONE A. M.

You'd never believe what an effort it is for Charlie to "hit the sack" after an evening on the town. Once inside the door, it all should be so simple, but our hero just can't seem to make it.

The Murphy bed alone seems to have it in for Charlie but what he had to go through just to reach the bed is enough to discourage the average drunk. Visual comedy reduced to its fastidious essentials, One A.M. is Chaplin's only attempt at solo comedy and stands out as one of his most clever short comedies, proving once more (if it's necessary at this late date) that he was the genius of silent screen comedy. Buster Keaton Comedies

THE BALLOONATIC

PHYLLISHAVER

One-time Sennett Bathing Beauty and comedienne Phyllis Haver is featured with Buster briefly in this nature romp, but most of the film and all of the action belongs to this comic genius of the silent screen. The Balloonatic represents Keaton's closest approach to a solo comedy, demonstrates his uncanny way with a visual gag and shows the style that made Buster one of the few outstanding practitioners of pantomimic comedy. THE BLACKSMITH

with VIRGINIA FOX

Buster Keaton's superb comic talent comes alive again in this burlesque based on the time-honored poem "The Village Blacksmith." Of course, it's a loose base and doesn't work out quite as Longfellow wrote it, but with Buster as the lead, does it really make a difference? (1922)

COLLEGE

Honor grad Buster heads for college and an education, but Ann Cornwall soon forgets that she's his girl and begins casting eyes at Harold Goodwin, star athlete and delight of all the coeds.

The only way for Buster to cure her case of "broad shoulder blues" is to make the team, win the big race and save the day, exactly what he does. But the fun is in how he does it and this is where audiences usually come unglued with laughter. (1927)

The General

starring BUSTER KEATON

Buster Keaton wrote and directed most of his films himself and his best was "The General." Keaton created this great comedy of the silent era, filmed only two years before the talkie revolution. Screen critics and historians generally rate it as one of the top fifty to seventy-five silent features.

Although "The General" is a comedy, the battle scenes have the scope and realism of Matthew Brady's photographs of the Civil War brought to life. And through all the inferno and chaos, Keaton weaves his nonsense so expertly that the two great armies serve as mere straight men (1927).

Edison's early films were both imaginative and inventive, as these three short movies of the nickelodeon era prove. Each has its own particular value and charm and each marks a stepping stone in the motion picture's development.

Buffalo Bill

THE LIFE OF BUFFALO BILL

Here is an authentic early film of the West in frontier days filmed by the Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill Film Co.—and featuring Col. Wm. F. Cody, himself, in the prologue and epilogue! Produced in 1912, this production is unique, for it represents a very early example of an "independent" production, and one of the first serious American film attempts at a biographical film. And, it is of further importance in that the principal of the biography himself appears in the film.

Films Of Melies

The primitive works of George Melies of France—the professional magician, theatre proprietor and director—in whose hands the motion picture camera was first used for such unique camera tricks as stop photography, double exposures, super-imposition, fade-ins and fade-outs and dissolves, were without a question the first truly creative films.

BARON MUNCHAUSEN'S DREAM

(Les Aventures Des Baron Munchausen)

A George Melies Star Film. After a scrupulous feast, the Baron retired to his bed for a nap but a wild stomach and a vivid imagination conjure up a panorama of dreams and nightmares involving the most weird of creatures and beautiful women amidst lavish stage settings. Relief comes when the Baron falls out of bed and through his window to the ground below. (1911)

CONQUEST OF THE NORTH POLE

In "Conquest of the North Pole" as in his other films, Melies anticipated many of the supposedly later Hollywood innovations such as trick stages, moving scenery, double exposure, miniatures, stop motion, cross fades and other special effects, both mystical and comic. This sense of ingenuity and trickery pervades all his films. Of this one, it might be said that Melies created a fantasy built around the theme of the conquest of the pole—but far removed from reality. (1912)

THE IMAGINATIVE GEORGE MELIES

Although a magician by profession, George Melies became the first man to harness the camera's potential for telling a story. Filled with imagination and ingenuity, three of those which Melies produced in 1903 make up this Blackhawk offering. They are: "Bob Kick, the Mischievous Kid", "The Oracle of Delphi" and "The Lesson" or "The Living Statue" — all copied by Blackhawk from the 35mm. paper positives in the Library of Congress. (1903)

LA COMEDIE ET MAGIQUE DE MELIES

THE SURREALISM OF MELIES

Remembered best today as the master of unusual and fantastic films, George Melies also anticipated the imagery of surrealism even while his work breathed the unmistakable atmosphere of 19th century Paris. Relying mainly on photographic illusion to tell his story, The Ballet Master's Dream (1903) hints at the rich imagery which Melies was capable of suggesting. (1903)

MELIES TALES OF TERROR

In THE MELOMANIAC (1903) a musician takes off his head again and again and throws it up to a set of wires to form the notes of "God Save the King" or "America", which is then played by the band. THE MONSTER (1903) has a painted background showing the Sphinx and one of the pyramids. A skeleton is dug up, and the bones become animated. When clothed it dances violently and terrifies the two men present. Finally it becomes a skeleton again. THE TERRIBLE TURKISH EXECUTIONER (1904) is seated beside his shop when four condemned persons are brought to him. Their heads are placed in a kind of stock, after which he cuts off all four with a single stroke of his scimitar. He picks up the heads, throws them in a basket and returns to his work, but the heads emerge, rejoin their bodies and the men live again. Finally the executioner is himself cut in two, and though this is not the end of him, he is finally routed by soldiers.

In A Spiritualist Photographer (1903), a magician turns a woman into a picture of herself and vice versa.

It shows New York policemen leaving the station, directing traffic, and being kind to children. Separate and more developed episodes show policemen saving a woman when her horse runs away with her in the park, frightened by an automobile, and trying in vain to revive a woman whom they have fished out of the river. The closing episode "A Joke on the Roundsmen," showing how a lazy patrolman fooled an inspector, is the most developed. (1905)

ON A GOOD OLD FIVE CENT TROLLEY RIDE

An entertaining Edison offering of 1905, this was produced as a comedy for one of the early "split reel" programs for the store shows and has a particular appeal for trolley fans. Coupled with this is a Biograph film of 1905, "A Trip To Salt Lake City", and a comedy of this early period built around the theme of polygamy, with the setting an open section sleeping car of the day.

NURSERY FAVORITES

An Edison Kinetophone Production Edison had experimented with talking pictures as early as 1893, connecting a phonograph to a set of ear tubes and using it to accompany the movie provided by his peep-show machine, The Kinetoscope. In 1899, when the peep show was replaced by the store shows, Edison's idea of adding sound to the movies became more practical. A four-inch diameter cylinder was played, crudely in synchronization with the projected image, thus creating some very primitive, but (for those times) very exciting film viewing. NURSERY FAVORITES will become one of your truly valued sound films, as it comes as close to the same effect of the Kinetophone as is possible. (1913)

TITANIC

The Titanic was a ship which sank April 15, 1912, on her maiden voyage from Southampton, after striking an iceberg northeast of New York City. 1,517 lost their lives and 706 persons were rescued. Its sinking was the greatest peacetime maritime disaster.

There were no formal newsreel organizations in 1912, but many production companies did offer special events on an individual basis. Whether all scenes of the Titanic in this film are authentic, or are of a sister ship, has not been fully determined.

Griffith's "Brute Force" and Willis O'Brien's "The Lost World". ### GERTIE THE DINOSAUR

Created by WINSOR MCCAY

McCay's Gertie the Dinosaur, done in 1909, may or may not have been absolutely the first animated cartoon, but it was the first in any consequence. Its animation is what today's artists call "limited", that is, the drawings change the position of the characters only intermittently.

It is said that 10,000 separate drawings were required for Gertie. Cartoons, by the 1920's, set a faster and more expensive standard with many characters on the screen, all moving in practically every frame. (1909)

D. W. Griffith Features

AMERICA

featuring NEIL HAMILTON, CAROL DEMPSTER and LIONEL BARRYMORE
This story of the Revolutionary War was adapted from one written by Robert W. Chambers. It was produced by D. W. Griffith at the Griffith Studio at Mamaroneck, N. Y., with outside sequences filmed on the Shirley and Westover Plantations along the James River in Virginia, and in Williamsburg — a decade before Williamsburg's restoration. It is presented substantially as it was at the time of its initial release. (1924)

BROKEN BLOSSOMS

with LILLIAN GISH, RICHARD BARTHELMESS and DONALD CRISP
Released in the spring of 1919, "Broken Blossoms", the last of D. W. Griffith's supremely great films, is as tender and sensitive a production as "Intolerance" and "The Birth of a Nation" are spectacular, and Griffith's skill for using the camera to bare the hearts and emotions of his characters is at the best in this story. (1919)
810-50-0378, Standard 8mm., 1325-feet, 3-lbs. $48.98
860-50-0456, Super 8, 1450-feet, 4-lbs. $56.98

THE FALL OF BABYLON

Griffith, taking the Babylonian story from the context of its mother film INTOLERANCE, shot additional footage and added an independent climax, thus creating a feature entirely apart from INTOLERANCE. THE FALL OF BABYLON was hoped to regain some of the profits lost in filming the earlier Griffith spectacular. Blackhawk's version is an abridgment of this. (1916-1919)
810-50-0804, Standard 8mm., 575-feet, 2-lbs. $21.98
860-50-0364, Super 8, 625-feet, 2-lbs. $24.98

JUDITH OF BETHULIA

with BLANCHE SWEET, HENRY B. WALTHALL, MAE MARSH
This was Griffith's first feature-length production, it cost about $36,000. This Biblical spectacle was a forerunner of "Intolerance" which Griffith was to make only three years later. It is being presented by Blackhawk in the original form in which it was placed in distribution on Nov. 24, 1913.

HEARTS OF THE WORLD

with LILLIAN and DOROTHY GISH, ROBERT HARRON
In 1917, the British Government asked D. W. Griffith to make a propaganda picture on behalf of the Allied War effort. "Hearts of the World" was the result. Filmed in both France and England, and completed in the United States, it proved to be one of Griffith's most popular films. And it brought to Lillian and Dorothy Gish and to Erich Von Stroheim, added impetus to their careers. (1917)
810-50-0412, Standard 8mm., 1925-feet, 4-lbs. $69.98

INTOLERANCE
with LILLIAN GISH, MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER, CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERIC VON STROHEIM and BESSIE LOVE
D. W. Griffith in four separate stories, attacked intolerance and bigotry through the ages, bringing the epic to the screen with film techniques far advanced for the times. (1916)
810-50-0353, Standard 8mm., 2425-feet, 5-lbs. $90.98
860-50-0017, Super 8, 2650-feet, 6-lbs. $103.98

ORPHANS OF THE STORM

starring LILLIAN and DOROTHY GISH
"Orphans of the Storm" was very nearly D. W. Griffith's last great picture although he was to produce and direct ten more silent films before the coming of the talkies. It is a mixture of what was, in 1921, a well known play, "The Two Orphans" and Dickens' story of the French Revolution from "A Tale of Two Cities". (1921)
810-50-0357, Standard 8mm., 2375-feet, 5-lbs. $83.98
860-50-0235, Super 8 version, 2600-feet, 5-lbs. $95.98

WAY DOWN EAST

with LILLIAN GISH, RICHARD BARTHELMESS, LOWELL SHERMAN
An old stage melodrama, written by Lottie Blair Parker of Otsego, New York (first presented on the stage in 1898), and purchased by D. W. Griffith from William A. Brady for $175,000 — a price which in those days made all Hollywood scream — "Way Down East" was undoubtedly one of the most commercially successful of all the Griffith films. The picture, which cost $1,004,662 to make, opened in New York in August, 1920.
810-50-0371, Standard 8mm., 2250-feet, 5-lbs. $76.98

Starring Mary Pickford

AN ARCADIAN MAID

MACK SENNETT

FRIENDS

HENRY B. WHITEHALL, LIONEL BARRYMORE, HARRY CAREY
As the orphan girl of Placier Gulch, Mary has more suitors than she knows what to do with. Miss Pickford's personality is especially bright in this Griffith tale of the rough and rugged mining days. (1912)
810-33-0686, Standard 8mm., 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98
860-33-0331, Super 8, 225-feet, 11-ozs. $7.98

LITTLE MARY, AMERICA'S SWEETHEART

810-33-0752, Standard 8mm., 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98

THE LIGHT THAT CAME

MARION LEONARD, MARY PICKFORD, KATE BRUCE and ARTHUR JOHNSON

There are three sisters in the family—two vain and pretty, one disfigured by an ugly scar. The pretty sisters have plenty of beaux, the "homely" girl attracts only a blind musician. When she learns that his sight can be restored through an expensive operation, she gives her savings for the purpose, though she fears she will lose him as soon as he is able to see. But the lover, who has come to value her for her qualities of character, remains faithful. (1909)

A BEAST AT BAY

As soon as she has left him in her motorcar, she is highjacked by an escaping convict (Alfred Paget), who forces her to drive him where he wishes to go. On the road lying parallel to the railroad tracks, her lover chases them with a locomotive. Finally, after she has left the car, and been cornered in a barn by the convict, now grown lascivious, she is rescued and of course reconciled with her lover. (1912)

860-33-0968, Super 8, 250-feet, 11-ozs. $8.98

THE FEMALE OF THE SPECIES

with CLAIRE McDOWELL, DOROTHY BERNARD and CHARLES WEST
Since neither cast nor credits were listed in Biograph films, Mary Pickford in 1912 was known to her movie public only by any of her various nicknames. Billed as a "psychological tragedy", this is a classic tale of infidelity, jealousy and three women alone in the desert. The finding of a lost baby boy brings about peace — illustrates the vagaries of "the female of the species". (1912)
810-33-0330, Standard 8mm., 225-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98

The Films of Douglas Fairbanks

Fairbanks Features

AMERICAN ARISTOCRACY

JEWEL CARMEN
"American Aristocracy" was Doug's tenth film in the series he made for Triangle in the period from late 1915 to early 1917, and is one that offers considerable to today's viewers from the standpoint of the manners and points-of-view of a half century ago, not to mention the sport roadsters, seaplanes and motor cruisers of the day. (1917)

THE AMERICANO

with ALMA RUBENS
This film features Douglas Fairbanks at his smiling best. It's the story of a Yankee engineer who goes to a revolt-ridden Caribbean country because of a smile from the President's daughter. The revolt is no match for Doug's wits and vigor and he ends up with the country in the palm of his hand — and the daughter as well. (1916)

810-53-0152, Standard 8mm., 850-feet, 2-lbs. $29.98

THE BLACK PIRATE

starring DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS with BILLIE DOVE
It is the time when tall galleons carried wondrous treasure across the sea to Spain, and the time the sea rovers flourished in the Spanish Main. The bloodthirsty pirates have just captured a merchantman aboard which is the Duke of Arnela and his son (Doug Fairbanks). The old Duke dies, but Doug decides he can best serve the purposes of justice by becoming a member of the pirate band. He challenges the pirate chief to a duel, and comes off the victor. Doug vows he can capture the first ship they sight — single handed. This he does, and aboard is a beautiful princess (Billie Dove). Here Doug is put to a supreme test to rescue the princess (with whom he has fallen in love) and to do away with the band of ruffians. (1926)

FLIRTING WITH FATE
"Flirting With Fate", Douglas Fairbanks' seventh film, hit the screens of the country's growing number of movie palaces in the summer of 1916. In less than a year, so sensational had been Fairbanks' rise to popularity, he was one of the top stars of the screen. THE MATRIMANIAC
with CONSTANCE TALMADGE
This Douglas Fairbanks feature picture of 1916, is one of the last of the long series he made for Triangle after coming to the screen in 1915. It is an excellent farce comedy, at many spots coming very close to slapstick. Triangle released this subject as a five-reel feature, although, in footage, it is barely four reels in length. For your convenience, and for economy, we have redivided the subject into four reels — without making any eliminations — and we highly recommend it to you. (1916)

RÉGGIE MIXES IN
with BESSIE LOVE and ALMA RUBENS
This was Douglas Fairbanks' sixth film, and cast him as a wealthy young man with few responsibilities. He gets involved with life on the other side of the tracks and falls in love with Bessie Love. The elements of the underworld are out to get Doug but the Fairbanks' athletic prowess and never-say-die approach puts Doug on top. (1916)
810-53-0509, Standard 8mm., about 725-feet, 2-lbs. $29.98
860-53-0601, Super 8, 800-feet, 2-lbs. $33.98

THE THIEF OF BAGDAD
with JULIANNE JOHNSTON
There's magic in it, as Doug meets and falls in love with the beautiful princess, and competes with the most wealthy and eligible princess of the Orient for her hand. There's magic, too, in many of the effects that were created for this film, a milestone for its day. (1924)

THE MARK OF ZORRO
with MARGUERITE DE LA MOTTE
The Mark of Zorro remains one of the best of Douglas Fairbank's Cloak-and-swore adventures as it is a product of the old Doug with the zip and pace of his early films.
As the famous Mexican Robin Hood, Doug masquerades as the tippish Don Diego, with many delightful comedy touches of his own — then springs into action as Zorro, the crusader for the rights of the Mexican people. You will also see a couple of fine duel sequences, and a wonderful chase towards the end, where Doug eludes his pursuers with some fantastic acrobatics. (1920)

It all starts aboard a yacht in the Pacific. Doug and his friends, William Farnum and Earle Browne, are reminded of Robinson Crusoe, and Doug ventures that he, too, could successfully survive alone on a tropical island.
As the story develops, a girl arrives on the shore trying to escape from an intertribal marriage her parents, on a nearby island have tried to force on her. Doug has rigged up a fish net and a giant catapult to set the net automatically to make an animal trap — and what does he catch but a 100-lb., two legged beauty. (1932)

BLOOD AND SAND

with LILA LEE and NITA NALDI

At a small-town arena in Spain, where young Spaniards meet for their national sport, just as American kids team up for sandlot baseball, the local hero is Juan Gallardo, played by Valentino. This promising amateur becomes Spain's most idolized matador. Returning to his home town, he sees for the first time in two years, his childhood sweetheart, Carmen, played by Lila Lee. It is apparent that there is nothing in the way of an early wedding.

As the months go by, in Madrid's Plaza de Toros, the great Gallardo entertains the presidential party and aristocratic Donna Sol, played by Nita Naldi. Though quite accustomed to the admiration of beautiful women, Gallardo senses a special magnetism in this one and, after the fight, accepts his manager's offer to introduce him. (1922)

starring RUDOLPH VALENTINO with VILMA BANKY, AGNES AYRES

Son of the Sheik is a full-blooded and exotic romantic story. It crosses the screen with fates-worse-than death, desert chases, last minute rescues, stunts and furious fights. In Son of the Sheik, Valentino plays a dual role, both as father and son. As Ahmed, he falls in love with Yasmin, the dancing girl, played by the lovely Vilma Banky. Ambushed by desert brigands, Ahmed puts up a stiff battle, but is finally subdued and savagely whipped, believing Yasmin betrayed him. (1926)

THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME

with PATSY RUTH MILLER

Here is the great Lon Chaney feature of 1923 complete and substantially as it was when it was first released. While Chaney had first attracted more than casual attention in "The Miracle Man" in which he appeared at Paramount in 1919, it was unquestionably his performance in "The Hunchback" and in "The Phantom of the Opera", which followed at Universal in 1925, that laid the groundwork for his highly successful career at M-G-M (1923).

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA

with LON CHANEY, MARY PHILBIN, NORMAN KERRY

Strange things have been happening at the Paris Opera — you'd almost think the place was haunted, but in this day and age, that's impossible—or is it? For far beneath the reach of daylight lives a misshapened creature whose genius strikes terror in the hearts of all who meet him, including the one he loves.

The original version of The Phantom of the Opera has never been equalled in subsequent remakes; all seem to lack the same power and scope brought to the role by Lon Chaney and director Rupert Julian. One of the smash hits of 1925, The Phantom continues to generate the same excitement today as it did nearly a half-century ago and remains one of the very classic of the silents.

THE BLOCK SIGNAL

with RALPH LEWIS, JEAN ARTHUR

The story of a railroad engineer nearing retirement, his involvement in a wreck and consignment to a spot of crossing flagman. And of his daughter with whom an ambitious young fireman and a highway engineer are both in love. Of course, for rail buffs the story is only incidental, because of the extensive amount of Santa Fe motive power of trains of the 1920's that are shown. 8mm. version is abridged from the original. Helen Holmes in
THE LOST EXPRESS

The story of The Lost Express has the hijacking of the railroad president's private car as its basic theme. The hi-jackers are working on behalf of the president's son-in-law, who is estranged from his wife. The railroad's president is probably the prime-mover in trying to break up the marriage of his daughter. Through this highly complicated process, the son-in-law is trying to hold off the president of the road long enough to bring about a reconciliation with his wife. It's a far-fetched story, but it does serve as a framework onto which some dashing railroad action can be fashioned. (1926)

Railroad Stories
Short Subjects

In the early years of the movies, trains and railroads were a favorite subject for action dramas. Trains were the fastest things on wheels and train robbery and train wrecks were front page news.

Thus it was that pioneer producers, Edison and Biograph, captured for posterity much of the flavor of railroading in the east in the early years of the century, while Kalem, with its "Hazards of Helen" shot against the background of the Salt Lake Line (now Union Pacific) and Santa Fe, has done much the same for the area around Los Angeles.

In the dramatic railroad subjects offered here you'll see much of the action from the golden age of railroading in the years before World War I.

BETWEEN ORTON JUNCTION AND FALLONVILLE

with EDNA FLUGRATH, BIGELOW
COOPER, AUGUSTUS PHILLIPS and BARRY O'MOORE

Between Orton Junction and Fallonville tells the story of a railroad engineer and a telegraph operator competing for the affections of the girl. One day, the telegraph operator sends a message to hold the fast freight at Orton Junction for a meet with No. 51. But the operator there is romantically occupied and lets the fast freight go through. The error discovered, he wires back the report of his failure. Our telegraph operator phones the girl of the impending disaster and asks her to ride (horseback) to Big Ben and flag down the express, on which his rival is the engineer. Our heroine rides for life and reaches Big Bend just as the two trains appear on opposite sides of the curve headed straight for each other. But the trains are stopped and the day is saved! (1913)

While all of those films dealt with railroading, the activities of the "telegraph operator at the station down the line" were often rather superficially set against this background. The story of Kapitän-Leutenant Stockmar and the unrestricted German submarine warfare of World War I is superbly told in this semi-documentary produced in England during the late twenties.

Blending actual combat footage within the film — and using some of those actually involved in the action to portray themselves, New Era Productions achieved a remarkable and fascinating portrait of war on the high seas and one that rivals anything Hollywood had concocted up to that time. It is historically accurate and dramatic in its impact. (1928)

The names of Biograph and D.W. Griffith are inevitably linked together but Biograph was producing solid film subjects before the great director arrived and for the most part, they were ahead of their time even then.

The Suburbanite is a delightful comedy of 1904 as timely today as it was then and is typical of American screen humor of the era. The other part of this unusual release is a 1905 melodrama called simply enough, The Fire Bug. starring CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG

with Wilton Lackaye and Chester Barnett

Trilby O'Ferral is an artist's model who smokes cigarettes and poses in the nude. The aspiring young artist Little Billie falls helplessly and idealistically in love with her. But the sinister Svengali, who has musical imagination amounting to genius, but no voice, conceives the idea of using Trilby as a medium to project his own interpretations. He lures the girl away with him and she performs (robot-like) with power under his influence but is wholly possessed by him, with no opportunity for human satisfaction or development. The strain involved in exercising his powers over her brings on a fatal heart attack, and ultimately Trilby and Little Billie are reunited.

The serials of the silent screen have become a legend, and few survive in their entirety. Of many of them, there is no trace at all. During the "golden years" of the silent serial, probably dating from the release of "The Perils of Pauline" through the years of World War I, and possibly even on into 1920 or 1922, the two leading producers of serials were Pathe and Universal with Vitaphone possibly being a third contender for a time. But the location of a complete production from this period, made by one of these producers, has been a frustrating search for over a decade. It was, therefore, quite a sensation for us some two years ago to receive a communication from an individual in Australia indicating that he was the possessor of a complete 30-reel Pathe serial of 1916, "Mystery of the Double Cross" in its original 35mm. form. We finally worked out arrangements to bring this 35mm. copy back to the United States, where it could be converted to film. The reprint was delayed for some weeks late in 1971 because of the dock strikes on both the east and west coasts. But finally, during holiday week last year, the 35mm. positive arrived, and within weeks was converted to 16mm. Done on our wet gate copy- ing equipment from a print surprisingly free of splices in scenes, the results are amazingly good. And every chapter survives in virtually complete form. (There were perhaps a dozen scenes that had to be trimmed because of decomposition resulting from the several months on deck, and there may be some other short scenes also missing, although this is not obvious.) So, for the first time, it's possible for a collector to own an 8mm. print of all fifteen chapters of a Pathe serial made in those golden years of the silent serial. Take advantage of our special offer—buy the first twelve chapters—get the final three free. (See details elsewhere on this page.)

THE MYSTERY OF THE DOUBLE CROSS

(1917)

STORY SYNOPSIS

The terms of Robert Hale's will are clear—his son Peter must woo and win The Girl of the Double Cross as his wife or forfeit the Hale fortune to whoever marries her. It sounds simple enough but two other people have a distinct interest in Philippa Brewster—villainous Bridgely Bentley and The Masked Stranger. Can Peter solve The Mystery of the Double Cross?

Now for the first time in over a half-century, this exciting cliffhanger from the heyday of the silent serial is to be made available in its complete 15 episode version. Technically, this production was highly advanced for its day and as for the story, it was adapted by Bertram Millhauser from a novel by Gilson Willets—and for the true serial buff, no more need be said. But for good measure (and those not steeped in serial lore), here is the first serial appearance of Mollie King—the girl Pathe began to groom in 1916 as Pearl White's replacement. Had she not left the screen for marriage and a return to the stage, Mollie could even have upstaged Allene Ray as the Serial Queen of the twenties. It's all here in every exciting foot—thrilling plot turns, dastardly deeds and last minute rescues ending in a surprising denouement—and you won't want to miss one single chapter!

EPISODE 6

THE DEAD COME BACK

Peter recovers from his wounds and returning home finds a note telling him that the girl he seeks is not Philippa Brewster.

Bridgely Bentley in another of his schemes plans to rob the Brewster home of valuable papers including one about the mystery of Philippa's birth. The masked stranger learns of the plot, sends a note to Peter Hale asking for assistance in stopping Bridgely Bentley. Bridgely in the meantime thinks he has killed the masked stranger and is rid of him.

Bridgely does not succeed in stealing the papers but he is not believed to be the guilty party in the robbery by Mr. Brewster. Mr. Brewster believes the masked stranger to be the culprit. Peter Hale saves the masked stranger and once again asks the masked stranger who he is? The masked stranger replies "you will know when you marry the girl of the double cross!"

Philippa tells the police about Peter Hale having been to see her father earlier. Peter is arrested and while in jail a note is passed to him. ## THE FUN FACTORY

Mack Sennett's Fun Factory was a place where wonderful raw material such as custard pies—Keystone Cops—and beautiful bathing girls were assembled onto celluloid, packed into cans, and sent forth to make the world laugh. The Sennett comedies were rarely subtle. They were usually made up of organized chaos from which not even the stars were exempt.

Turning out two or three comedies a week took a lot of ingenuity and Sennett had plenty.

Mack Sennett worked hard to make his audiences laugh and his hard work made him a millionaire—until 1929. But the loss did not break his spirit, he was satisfied that it had been his fortune to make the world rich in laughter.

THE EXTRA MAN AND THE MILK-FED LION

(1916)

starring ART ACORD

(slightly abridged)

It's Art Acord as Buck Parvin in this 1916 adaptation of Charles E. Van Loan's Saturday Evening Post popular story. As the Titan Moving Picture Company's chief hero, Art battles everything from Indians to rustlers, all for the movie camera.

But in addition to giving Acord fans a treat, The Extra Man and The Milk-Fed Lion also gives an excellent behind-the-scenes look at early picture making and American's Santa Barbara studio, with emphasis on that special magic that made the movies so popular a half-century ago—trickery.

EDISON PRIMITIVES

(1893-1903)

The earliest motion picture subjects projected were those originally made for use in the Kinetoscopes of penny arcade days. This fascinating reel contains 9 Edison films in their entirety that trace the motion picture from its very beginning to just before The Great Train Robbery.

In addition to the great variety of subject matter that formed grist for the early cameraman's mill, several technical innovations appear in the different films—from the use of semi-slow motion in an attempt to cure "the flickers" to the unusual forms that copyright notices took, and even early censorship of the screen. A most unusual offering.

The Men Behind the Megaphone wielded immense power over the lives of the stars and to work with an important director was of great help to a rising starlet. Watch some of Hollywood's finest at work in behind-the-scenes shots on-the set!

The director's value has been argued for years by critics and historians, but there is little doubt that without a knowledgeable man behind the megaphone, few of the stars could have become as important as they did. In most cases, the creative imagination of the director was imprinted on the picture and certain directors became noted for their styles. Seldom have you been able to see some of the top talent in action!

THE LONG COUNT DEMPSEY-TUNNEY FIGHT

(1927)

Jack Dempsey had lost the world heavy-weight boxing title to Gene Tunney on Sept. 23, 1926. Dempsey then fought and won Jack Sharkey and, in an attempt to regain the title, challenged Tunney to a return bout.

Tunney got the decision after ten rounds, but the fight became The Classic because of the "long count" in the seventh round. Tunney went to the floor and Dempsey, slow in retiring to a neutral corner, caused the referee to delay the count.

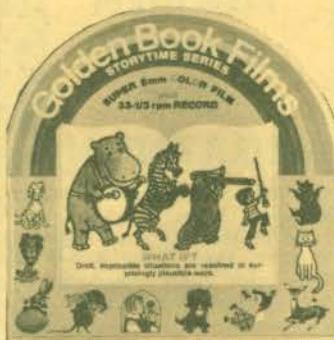

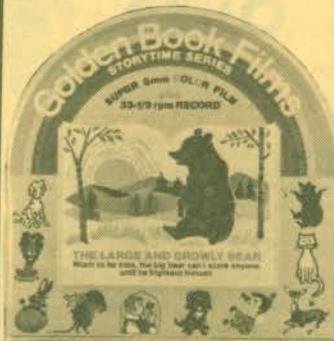

This film is presented just as it appeared at thousands of theatres around the world in 1927.

MEET THE FOLKS

(1927)

starring
JIMMIE ADAMS, GAYLE LLOYD

It's feuding time in the mountains and bound for a trip there for his health, Jimmie walks right smack into the middle of it all. Seems he's a Pittingill, whom the Blakes have vowed to eradicate.

But they need more than an eraser to get rid of our boy, who just happens to have a friend in the Blake camp and she's crazy about him—all's well that ends well. Adams' comedies were filled with elaborate sight gags and Jimmie's combination of slapstick in a situation comedy setting is about as close as Christie ever came to imitating Mack Sennett. A madcap marathon, that every silent comedy fan will enjoy, this delightful romp is one you shouldn't miss.

ROMANCE- KEYSTONE STYLE

(1912-14)

(A GROCERY CLERK'S ROMANCE & A FLIRT'S MISTAKE)

with Ford Sterling, Roscoe Arbuckle

Always in the air, Keystone romance took a great variety of forms but never without a chuckle at the institution of marriage. Here are two brief peeks at the irreverent Keystone attitude toward American courtship and marriage.

Split reel comedies required little more than a slender plot line to put across a particular idea and no comedy company was better equipped to work with the concept. The Grocery Clerk's Romance pokes fun at hasty remarriages while A Flirt's Mistake follows the misadventures of the married man who can't stay away from other women.

MELIES—AT THE OPERA AND ELSEWHERE

(1904)

In Faust and Marguerite 1904, Melies follows the story line of Gounod's opera scene by scene, from Mephistopheles' initial appearance in Faust's study to the prison scene, where Faust is taken to hell and Marguerite escorted to heaven by a choir of angels. The various stage sets are elaborate and highly picturesque, but the story would not be comprehensible to one who was not already familiar with it. In "The Revenant" a guest in a rented room has trouble with his candle, which insists on traveling to the other side of the table, momentarily enlarges itself until it almost reaches the ceiling, and finally sets his paper on fire. Next he is harassed first by the apparition of a woman and then by a weird, dancing creature in white garments. In Au Clair de la Lune 1904, Pierrot serenades his lady from the garden and is set upon by the servants of the house at the instigation of (presumably) her father. He is rescued by being taken to the moon, where a lovely lady awaits him. Simultaneously the father (?) is transformed into an old gaffer whom his servants fail to recognize. They beat him and refuse him into his old mansion.

THE JAPANESE EARTHQUAKE OF SEPTEMBER 1, 1923

One of the great disasters of the twentieth century was the Japanese earthquake of Sept. 1, 1923 which destroyed most of the city of Tokyo and Yokohama. It left 99,331 dead, 103,733 injured, and 43,476 missing.

As in the San Francisco earthquake of 1906, most of the loss of life and property was not caused directly by the earthquake, but from the great fires that followed.

No motion picture exists of the earthquake happening, or of the height of the fires that followed. What we do have are scenes of the aftermath of the disaster photographed by newsreel cameramen who were able to penetrate the cordon of martial law. These are presented here with titles very closely following the text of the contemporary newsreels.

AT THE MERCY OF THE FLAMES

(A Chapter from "The Woman in Grey") starring ARLINE PRETTY

The seventh installment of this production, this chapter is presented in its entirety, and has some thrilling action in a mansion fitted with secret doors—automobile chases—the mad pursuit of an open trolley car—and the capture and binding of a beautiful blonde heroine in a building deliberately set on fire. (1919)

THE PURPLE DAGGER

(Chapter Two of "The Trail of the Octopus")

starring BEN WILSON

Subjects dealing with the supernatural were in vogue during the 1919-1921 period and "The Trail of the Octopus" leaned quite heavily in that direction. As the noted criminologist Carter Holmes, Ben Wilson attempted to foil the evil plot of the mysterious "Monsieur X", on Seal Island, which, of course, deeply involved Neva Gerber. Chapters One and Two left the hero and heroine in deadly peril. But we've been able to add on the opening sequences from Chapter Three, "Face to Face", to bring this excellent example of the silent "Cliff-Hanger" to its conclusion. (1919)

Serial Sequences

THRILLS FROM "THE LIGHTNING RAIDER"
And Other Pathe Cliff-Hangers

In addition to two thrilling sequences from "The Lightning Raider" in which Pearl White starred late in 1918 and early in 1919, you'll see exciting highlights from "The Iron Claw", "The Shielding Shadow", "The Fatal Ring", "The Tiger's Trail", "The Third Eye", "White Eagle" and "Timber Queen".

EXCERPTS FROM "THE LURE OF THE CIRCUS"

with EDDIE POLO, MOLLY MALONE, EILEEN SEDGEWICK and CHARLES HILL MAILES

With a circus background as well as the atmosphere of a booming oil field, the highlights revolve around Eddie Polo as "Eddie Somers", the hero, part owner of the Great Western Circus and a trapeze artist of some repute; who finds himself the middle-man in one near disastrous situation after another as he fights not only for his share of the circus against almost insurmountable odds, but takes on enemies of his father who seek to ruin the elder man's good luck in an oil field venture. ### CLIFF-HANGING MOMENTS FROM THE SERIALS with WILLIAM DUNCAN, EDITH JOHNSON, ARLINE PRETTY, HENRY G. SELL, EDDIE POLO

Scenes from "The Steel Trail" (1923), a fifteen chapter serial which had William Duncan cast as a hard-punching construction engineer, are from one of Universal's primitive coming attraction trailers of the period. Edge-of-the-seat suspense is created in the climactic segment from "Burning Strands", chapter nine of "A Woman in Grey" (1919). The excerpt from Captain Kidd" (1922), in which Eddie Polo played the role of a wealthy man who had been shanghaied aboard the ship, the Albatross, has Eddie and the boat's crew in a desperate battle with the notorious pirate, Captain Kidd, and his band of cutthroats.

THE AERIAL WIRE

with CRANE WILBUR and PAUL PANZER
 In the continuing effort to gain the Marvin fortune for himself by disposing of Pauline, Koerner arranged with a band of gypsies to trap her and Harry in an abandoned cellar by the river. The plan is to dynamite the cellar wall, allowing the river to flood in and drown the captives. All goes according to plan, but Harry and Pauline outwit death by swimming under the water and up into the chimney. Pauline and Harry attempt to escape their clutches by spanning an aerial wire across the river. Cut by the villain as they reach mid-point, the wire drops both into the river, but scrambling out safely, they make their escape in Harry's car and return to the Marvin mansion. (1914)

DEADLY TURNING

with PAUL PANZER and CRANE WILBUR
 Unlike the later chapter plays or "cliff-hangers" this early serial is made up of related episodes, each complete in itself. "Deadly Turning" has Pearl cast as a wealthy industrialist's daughter who wishes to compete in a cross country automobile race. (1914)

810-43-0109, Standard 8mm., 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98

Boat full of holes and sinking fast—Pauline ties a note to her dog's neck and sends him ashore to safety. Pauline does survive, and after this narrow escape decides to dispense with adventure and marry Harry! (1914)

THE PIRATE'S TREASURE

 860-42-1147, Super 8, 300-feet, 14-ozs. $10.98

THE REPTILE UNDER THE FLOWERS

with CRANE WILBUR and PAUL PANZER
 Although ever so many chapters of the "Perils of Pauline" had appeared prior to "The Reptile Under the Flowers" and Pauline seemed set on a successful career before marriage, she and Harry were now making wedding plans. Koerner, feeling that Pauline's fortune is finally going to escape him, enlists the help of Balthazar. But there is some plotting with gypsies in which one is wounded, and the wife vows vengeance—not against Koerner, but against Pauline—and plants a "viper" in a basket of flowers to be given to our heroine. (1914)

THROUGH AIR AND FIRE

with CRANE WILBUR and PAUL PANZER
 Here is the first chapter of the serial that started it all! In this first episode, Pauline is left by the passing of her guardian, with her fortune in the hands of the shady Koerner, who has one prime purpose in life—to do away with Pauline and get the fortune for himself. Pauline is cast loose in a balloon high above the Hudson River and the Jersey Palisades and—rescued from this peril—is kidnapped, taken to an abandoned house, and left to burn to death in the fire set by her abductor. #### THE TRAGIC PLUNGE

This unusually good chapter is longer than most and has a story thread that's easier to follow than most. The story has to do with a woman spy, Miss de Yagow, who is out to capture inside information on U.S. submarines. As the story progresses, Pauline is invited aboard the submarine which is then sunk by a bomb to the harbor bottom. (1914)

Other Pearl White Serials

THE DEATH RAY (A Chapter from "The Exploits of Elaine") with CREIGHTON HALE and SHELDON LEWIS

An early example of the science-fiction type of subject. Although pretty elementary science-fiction, this film is a vivid example of the great strides being made in the movie industry at the time—particularly when compared to "The Perils of Pauline" which preceded it. (1915)

810-43-0207, Standard 8mm., 400-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98
 860-43-0595, Super 8, 450-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

THE HOODED HELPER

(A Chapter from
"The Iron Claw")
with CREIGHTON HALE and SHELDON LEWIS

The fourth of the famous Pearl White serials, "The Iron Claw" showed slicker and more elaborate production. This episode, "The Hooded Helper", is filled with sinister characters, Oriental armor, mysterious sliding panels, thrown daggers! But Pauline survives it all! (1916)

810-43-0280, Standard 8mm., 425-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98

PERILS FROM "PLUNDER"

A story of a NYC skyscraper beneath which a fabulous treasure was hidden. Learning of the secret hoard, a mysterious villain attempted to secure all the stock in the building, including that belonging to Pearl. # Pictorial History of the 20th Century

The Innocent Years

CHAPTER I AMERICA INDUSTRIALIZES

Here is the first of a four-chapter film picturing America in the early years of the twentieth century — years of great change and dynamic progress — when we were a nation of 67,000,000 people.

You'll see New York City which O. Henry called "Bagdad on the Subway." The aftermath of McKinley's assassination with Theodore Roosevelt assuming the Presidency, the factory towns springing up absorbing the torrent of immigrants, mass production, the automobile. Rare motion pictures of sixty and seventy years ago!

810-76-0845, Standard 8mm., 325-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98
860-76-0483, Super 8, 350-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

CHAPTER II—GOOD TIMES AND BIG BUSINESS

It was a time of the industrial czars like John D. Rockefeller of oil, Andrew Carnegie of steel and J. P. Morgan of Wall Street. On Broad Street in New York a "curb exchange" springs up to handle securities the conservative stock exchange declines to list. Teddy Roosevelt is re-elected by a landslide — builds the Panama Canal — battles for conservation of America's natural resources — mediates the Russo-Japanese War for which he wins the Nobel Peace Prize — is the first president to test the Wright Brothers' fantastic invention, the airplane.

There was mixed bathing at ocean beaches — more leisure, more freedom, more fun. More and more people escape by the new trolley car, the new subway, the new automobile.

810-76-0846, Standard 8mm., 325-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98
860-76-0484, Super 8, 375-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

CHAPTER III, SECURITY, SUFFRAGETTES AND SHOW BUSINESS

This chapter gives us William Howard Taft, Teddy Roosevelt's hand-picked successor in the White House. As for fashion, "How charming they all were in their picture hats and organdies!" The suffragettes were dismissed by some as a band of silly, excited, exaggerated women — but look what they brought about in social change. This was the time of Lillian Russell — and from the Palace in New York to the thousands of tank towns from coast to coast, the theatre meant vaudeville — but vaudeville's dancing days were numbered because of something called the moving picture which, overnight, became a new form of mass entertainment.

810-76-0847, Standard 8mm., 325-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98
860-76-0485, Super 8, 350-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

CHAPTER IV, THE NATION MATURES

The fourth and final chapter of "The Innocent Years" starts with the aftermath of the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906, carries the viewer through the Dayton, Ohio, flood, covers Teddy Roosevelt's triumphant return from 15 months of big game hunting in Africa, Roosevelt's rift with Taft and the campaign of 1912, Woodrow Wilson's election to the presidency, the Mexican border war and Pancho Villa, the first use of the airplane by the United States Army, and the first ripples of the impact of The Great War in Europe on the United States. Americans emerge gradually, reluctantly, from their provincial past as the innocent years fade into history.

810-76-0848, Standard 8mm., 325-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98
860-76-0486, Super 8, 350-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

Kinograms appeared on the scene about the time of World War I, first being released through the exchanges of World Film Corporation.

This collector's edition being offered by Blackhawk is edited from several issues of Kinograms from the early 1920's and gives an authentic and still interesting picture of what this newsreel was like.

The Mutual Weekly No. 109, is the issue released to the theatres on January 31, 1917, just two months before America's entry into World War I. This issue reflects America's preoccupation with the war then raging in Europe and its preparedness for entry into that war. Shown are sequences of the Serbian Army in the Balkans, the launching of the dreadnaught Mississippi, at Newport News, Va., at the front in France, and the launching of the destroyer, Shaw, at Mare Island, Calif.

GAUMONT GRAPHIC

Virtually a complete original issue of one of the newsreels released just weeks after the armistice of Nov. 11, 1918. It pictures much of the aftermath of the war in Europe, and the beginning of the movement of the U. S. troops from Europe back to the United States, and early stages of demobilization. A collector's item! (1919)

Moving picture newsreels first appeared in 1911. In January, 1916. The Selig-Tribune began. This issue No. 21 of 1916 is complete and in the form in which it was originally released.

The sub-titles have alternate German and Italian texts in addition to the English and were, it is surmised, for the benefit of foreign-born movie patrons in the United States rather than for the export market.

Politics were never dull during the twenties. President Woodrow Wilson's plan for forming a League of Nations was defeated in a fight led by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Sr. and in 1920's presidential campaign, Warren G. CHAPTER I - THE SEARCH FOR NORMALCY

Here's another look at the 1920's, this one through the eyes of an NBC television program of the mid-1950's, prepared by Blackhawk through arrangement with McGraw-Hill.

This first chapter opens with scenes at Versailles with President Wilson representing the United States at the peace conference following World War I. It pictures the failure of Wilson, the idealist, pitted against a group of powerful senators, headed by Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, who wish to avoid all foreign entanglements for this country.

Then came Warren Gamaliel Harding and prohibition. There were strikes and walkouts from Boston to Seattle—strikes against the 12-hour working day and a 100 percent increase in the cost of living. There was the Ku Klux Klan, bigotry in bed sheets.

810-76-0841, Standard 8mm., 350-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98

860-76-0479, Super 8, 400-feet, 14-ozs. $14.98

CHAPTER II PROHIBITION AND PROSPERITY

With prohibition enforced, the automobile becomes a portable saloon and a four-wheel sofa for flaming youth. The drink is gin, the music jazz, the dance the Charleston. George Gershwin refines the jungle rhythms of jazz. Paul Whiteman interprets them for those heilbent on going places and doing things. Bootleg hooch becomes the dictator in the revolution of manners and morals. Gun barrels and beer barrels are a highly compatible combination. The gangsters turn against each other and murder become synonymous with Chicgao. Public Enemy No. 1—they don't come any bigger than Alphonse Capone. David, the Prince of Wales, England's most popular export, sweeps America off its feet. Queen Marie of Rumania arrives on the Leviathan for a command performance. Half a million Americans a year head for France and are surprised to find that all the natives are foreigners.

CHAPTER III NON-STOP TO PARIS

This chapter of "The Jazz Age" covers that period of the 1920's made especially famous by Lorelei Lee, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and Charles A. Lindbergh. Paris of the period is generously and fascinatingly covered with Josephine Baker, Gertrude Stein, Hemingway and Gienway Westcott. But the real story is the flight of the lone eagle, which this chapter charts from the take off of The Spirit of St. Louis on soggy Roosevelt Field on Long Island to the touch down in Paris, thirty-three and a half hours later. This was a time of heroes, and Lindbergh became the greatest one of the era.

CHAPTER IV, BINGE, BONANZE AND BUST

This final chapter in the four making up "The Jazz Age" covers the last two or three years of that decade—the great sports stars, Dempsey and Tunney, Man of War, the Sultan of Swat, the Gallopin Ghost, the Four Horsemen, Gertrude Erlerle, Bobby Jones, The Republicans nominate Hoover at Kansas City, the Democrats, Alfred E. Smith at Houston. Times were never better! From Boston to San Francisco the bull market is the national media. Everything is going up! Three hundred million shares are being carried on margin. Everything's "the flea's eyebrows," "the snake's hips," and "I don't mean maybe!" Americans are rolling in money! Valentino is gone, but Vallee is here! The screech of the times comes from a speakeasy queen—"Hello, Sucker!" Indian Summer, 1929, and New York sweaters in a heat wave. The stock market goes up a little—then it goes down a lot! The bears finally jump the bulls and it's all over here in Wall Street. The jazz age is over—all over!

Roosevelt. In 1932, the "fireside chat", the "brain trust", the Agricultural Adjustment Act, the Public Works Administration, an avalanche of new offices and agencies, NRA and the Blue Eagle, the ending of prohibition, the Works Progress Administration, the C.C.C., the dust bowl, the "Ookies", "Share-the-Wealth" and Senator Huey Long.

You'll see President Truman reporting on Japan's unconditional surrender, V-J Day, the housewife's hassle with the rationing system which finally ended, price tags—which never were the same again, "Fill'er up!", Kiltroys coming home, the war brides, the displaced persons.

We see the Mayor of New York clowning with Abbott and Costello, chasing fire engines and reading the comics over the radio during a newspaper strike. Then revolution on the sport scene as Branch Rickey brought the first negro player into the major leagues—Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers. At Fulton, Missouri, Winston Churchill warned the world of "The Iron Curtain." And the brand new United Nations was trying to cope with the "Cold War."

Shirley Temple married John Agar, Rita Hayworth married Aly Khan, Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini were romantically linked, Princess Elizabeth married the Duke of Edinburgh. Starving Europe was threatened by Communist domination and turned to America to stave off collapse. World leadership passed to Washington when the big news broke of a revolutionary plan to rescue Europe with American billions for relief and economic aid. In a war without bullets, an old soldier took over—Secretary of State George Marshall. President by accident, Harry Truman, was out to win the office on his own. The Republicans nominated Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Everybody expected Dewey to win. But the next morning, when California totals came in, it was Harry Truman, winner on his own!

CHAPTER IV THE TRUMAN VICTORY AND A LOST PEACE

The final chapter of "Not So Long Ago" opens with the Truman victory of Nov. 2, 1948, an upset if there ever was one. And there were signs and potents in the sky—or were there? People had seen saucers in the sky—with their own eyes! And there was something else in the air besides saucers—television! Then, on a June week end in 1950, President Truman was called back to Washington from a weekend at Independence. It was a major crisis—in a distant place called Korea. Somewhere, far, far away the peace had been lost—and we had to go and bring it back!

The Great War (WORLD WAR I)

CHAPTER I—THE WAR CLOUDS BREAK

The first chapter of "The Great War" is devoted to background personalities and events of the period—the pomp, pageantry and parades that were the order of the day in Europe—the visit of King George and Queen Mary of England to Germany and the king's first cousin, Kaiser Wilhelm II, German Emperor and King of Prussia.

Imperial Germany had become a power at sea—had developed the modern submarine—and its gun crews on surface vessels had been precisely trained. All Europe was like dry tinder—ready to explode—and the murder of the Archduke provided the spark. The attack on the west began with Germany's advance through little Belgium and in fourteen days the German armies had swept 250 miles.

810-75-0560, Standard 8mm., 200-feet, 14-ozs. $6.98

CHAPTER II—1914-1917, STALEMATE AND U.S. NEUTRALITY

Britain sends her small army to help invade Belgium—six weeks after the collapse of Belgium, the Germans attack on the Marne—to within 18 miles of Paris—the famous taxicabs of Paris rush every available soldier to the defense—refugees with their meager belongings trudge to the rear areas.

In the United States, there is peace and neutrality—Germany declares unrestricted submarine warfare—in the Lusitania disaster, almost 1,200 of the passengers and crew lose their lives—U. S. sentiment begins to swing away from Germany, but there remains strong support for isolation. America declares war—ten million Americans register for draft.

CHAPTER III—1917: YEAR OF CRISIS

The American Expeditionary Force begins to move "over there." Inadequate weapon stocks at home force draftees to train with wooden cannon. U. S. Admiral Sims develops the convoy system for Atlantic crossings. Disastrous attacks by the Germans in the early spring of 1917 have led to spot mutinies in the French army. In both the French and British armies casualties exceed replacement abilities. In the rainy fall of 1917, the trenches run in an unbroken line from Switzerland to the English Channel. Lenin overthrows Kerensky's provisional government in Russia. A million German troops are released from the eastern front, and the German High Command prepares a western front attack.

CHAPTER IV—THE YANKS ENTER

In this final chapter of "The Great War", the action begins in late May of 1918, when the French retreat at Chemin des Dames ridge—but the U. S. Marines move forward. U. S. youth and vitality encouraged the French. The airplane was a new weapon of war, and General Billy Mitchell commanded the greatest concentration of air power ever assembled.

The Americans got their first real combat experience at Seicheprey and Cantigny. Losses are heavy—but the Big Parade is under way. Chateau-Thierry was the new milestone. Belleau Wood and Vaux were captured. French morale jumps. Pershing was cautious—estimating that the war might end by the fall of 1919 "with eighty U. S. divisions."

The True Glory

This is Blackhawk's 8mm. production of "The True Glory", edited from the sound film of the same name. An official motion picture production of the governments of Great Britain and the United States, this surveys the entire final World War I campaign on the European Western Front, called "The Crusade in Europe" by General Dwight Eisenhower. The seven chapters of "The True Glory" vividly picture the many land, air and sea battles and emphasize the miracles of comradeship and cooperation which came out of the various campaigns. The full impact of the meaning of the film's title is felt in the final chapter when the familiar prayer of Sir Francis Drake is presented.

FURY IN THE PACIFIC

Fury in the Pacific is the story of Allied capture of the island, Peleliu, from the Japanese. The capture of its airstrip was essential to the security of our advance to the Philippines. Peleliu was but six miles long and, at its maximum, six miles wide. It seemed that it would be easy to concentrate destruction within that small area. Yet, our conquest of Peleliu took from Sept. 15 to Nov. 26, 1944, when hostilities ceased completely. Adapted from official U. S. Department of Defense materials.

GERMAN PANZERS ATTACK WESTWARD, 1940

Edited from captured German Army footage. This motion picture shows the historic "Panzer" or tank attack across Western Europe. General Heinz Guderian, perhaps the most important individual in the development of Germany's "blitzkrieg" tactics, commanded the German Corps. In seventeen days, the components of the corps swept from western Germany across Luxemburg and southern Belgium into France and then to the English Channel. Our film shows the entire campaign from the command to attack on May 9, 1940, to the capture of the Channel ports of Calais and Boulogne.

In 1935, Hitler announced that his new Germany had violated its post-war treaties and had secretly rearmed. While he assured France and England that his armies were only for defense, Germany marched into the demilitarized Rhineland.

In the summer of 1941, in his most spectacular betrayal, Hitler struck with full force against his recent partner, Joseph Stalin. So great had been his victories that he was now confident that no earthly power could prevail against him.

The German Blitzkrieg smashed through Poland. Hitler then commanded German armies to march across Europe—France and England would be conquered. But Denmark, Norway and Holland must be conquered first, and Hitler unleashed mechanized warfare upon them. Then the Nazi Panzer Divisions pushed into Belgium, where they were challenged for the first time by French and British troops. The war was now engulfing all of Europe.

CHAPTER IV—THE FALL OF THE THIRD REICH

In the winter of 1944, the Germans counterattacked. This "Battle of the Bulge" was Hitler's last gamble—and the gamble failed. Allied Armies pushed across the Rhine and into Germany. The Red Army penetrated the outskirts of Berlin. Eva Braun took poison—Hitler put a gun to his mouth and pulled the trigger. In the end, Adolph Hitler destroyed his nation and himself.

Dillinger PUBLIC ENEMY NO. ONE

Edited from newsreel footage from the early 1930's this film traces the exploits of John Dillinger in bank robberies and prison escapes criss-crossing the midwest and ending at the Biograph Theatre in Chicago. This is not a dramatized or fictionalized treatment of the subject—but strictly a documentary account. A trap was set to capture Dillinger as he left the theatre. As agents closed in, Dillinger reached for his gun. But it was too late. Dillinger fell, with three bullets in his body. Public Enemy No. 1 was dead, but the legend lived.

Theodore Roosevelt

CHAPTER I POLITICIAN AND PRESIDENT

This film shows the life of Teddy Roosevelt from his marriage and early career as a politician and soldier. He was elected Vice President in 1900 and became President after the assassination of McKinley in 1901. As Teddy covered the country in 1904 with an exhaustive schedule of speeches he was convinced that the American population would consign him to political oblivion.

CHAPTER II THE PATRIOT

After being elected by a landslide vote in 1904, Teddy declined to run for a third term as President. In the eyes of the American people he remained a popular hero. Mr. Roosevelt was convinced that Wilson was making a tragic mistake in trying to remain neutral in the First World War. He was proven right. His youngest son was killed in action over France. Theodore Roosevelt died in his sleep on January 6, 1919.

Benito Mussolini

CHAPTER I THE FIRST OF THE MODERN DICTATORS

In 1925, Mussolini declared himself the dictator of Italy, consolidated his power, began a program of turning hospitals into baby factories, took personal charge of the campaign to increase agricultural output, and, his power secure, subordinated personal freedom to the needs of the Fascist state.

CHAPTER II TWENTIETH CENTURY CAESAR

By 1934, Italy had become a militarized police state governed by Benito Mussolini's will. Elections were a sham. Early in 1934 Mussolini had his first meeting with Adolph Hitler, the man who ruled Nazi Germany. Less than a month later, Hitler engineered the assassination of Austria's Chancellor Dollfuss and an enraged Mussolini sent four divisions to the Austrian border. He warned Germany "hands off Austria" and was bitterly disappointed that England and France failed to follow his lead. This chapter continues through World War II until Mussolini's death.

Joseph Stalin

CHAPTER I—HIS RISE TO POWER

In the days of Czar Nicholas most of the wealth and all of the political power in Russia rested in the hands of the Czar and a small ruling class, and the masses lived primitively, millions of them in degrading poverty. It was from such people that Joseph Stalin came. Our film covers briefly his early years when he studied to become a priest, how he became a revolutionary and a follower of Lenin and his ambition for world domination.

CHAPTER II—THE ALMOST ABSOLUTE DICTATOR

If there is any lingering question today about the nature of Communism, the brutal career of Joseph Stalin should provide the answer. Stalin's cynical nature allowed him to sign a pact with Hitler, an even more ruthless dictator, in 1939, thereby opening the floodgates to the terrible conflict of World War II.

FOUR SEASONS AT RATON PASS

Photographed by William H. McKenzie
The fame of Raton Pass dates from the days of the Santa Fe Trail. With the building of the Santa Fe Railway, it became a major obstacle to the movement of trains. All through the era of steam, triple-headers over the pass were not uncommon — with more steam on hand.
While the characteristics of the diesel-electric locomotive have made the battle against Raton's grades easier, it still remains an impediment to operating efficiency. It still takes time and power and men to conquer it.

LOGGING RAILROADS OF THE WEST

Here is steam power coverage on three of the important logging railroads of the West—Southwest Lumber Mills out of Flagstaff, Arizona; both the Callam and Grays Harbor operations of Rayonier on the Olympic Peninsula in Washington State; and the West Side Lumber Company out of Tuolumne, Calif. 810-77-0276, Standard 8mm., 325-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98

Here is a comprehensive and beautifully photographed film that tells the whole story of The Silverton, the summer passenger train on the Denver and Rio Grande Western's Durango-Silverton Branch. As the train approaches the 700-ft. high ledge in the cliffs near Rockwood, and snakes around the high curves, we are treated to scenes shot both from the train, and of the train from across the canyon. And there are some very effective scenes made from the head end of the locomotive itself as it creeps along the ledge. 810-77-0315, Standard 8mm., 300-feet, 14-ozs. $12.98

Photographed by William H. McKenzie With most of the highest mountains in the 48 states and high passes through which the earliest bands of steel crossed the divide, pictures of struggling trains with steam locomotives ahead, and behind were synonymous with railroading in the "Mile High" state. Today, even with more powerful diesel locomotives, freights still fight their way up mountain grades, and helper locomotives are still needed to get the tonnage over the top. 810-77-1116, Standard 8mm., 200-feet, 11-ozs. $6.98

starring DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS with BILLIE DOVE

It is the time when tall galleons carried wondrous treasure across the sea to Spain, and the time the sea rovers flourished in the Spanish Main. The bloodthirsty pirate here just captured a merchantman aboard which is the Duke of Arnaida and his son (Doug Fairbanks). The old duke dies, but Doug decides he can best serve the purposes of justice by becoming a member of the pirate band. He challenges the pirate chief to a duel, and comes off victor. Doug vows he can capture the first ship they sight—single handed. This he does, and aboard is a beautiful princess (Billie Dove). But the pirates propose to cast lots for the princess, and here Doug is put to a supreme test to rescue the princess (with whom he has fallen in love) and to do away with the band of ruffians.

THE BLACK PIRATE was the only Fairbanks picture ever to have been filmed in color (the original 2-color Technicolor system)—but it survives only in black and white. The story was by Doug himself under the pseudonym of Elton Thomas. 810-53-0401, standard 8mm., 1475-feet, 4-lbs. $49.98

starring Douglas Fairbanks with Marguerite de la Motte

The Mark of Zorro remains one of the best of Douglas Fairbanks' cloak-and-sword adventures as it is a product of the old Doug with the zip and pace of his early films.

As the famous Mexican Robin Hood, Doug masquerades as the foppish Don Diego, with many delightful comedy touches of his own—then springing into action as Zorro, the crusader for the rights of the Mexican people. You will also see a couple of fine duel sequences, and a wonderful chase towards the end, where Doug eludes his pursuers with some fantastic acrobatics. 810-53-0951, Standard 8mm., 1725-feet, 3-lbs. $55.98

THE THIEF OF BAGDAD (1924)

with DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JULIANNE JOHNSTON, SOJIN, SNITZ EDWARDS

In The Thief of Bagdad, Douglas Fairbanks departed from the swashbuckler roles he had portrayed in The Mark of Zorro, The Three Musketeers and Robin Hood, to play that of a page scamp, a purse snatcher and a pick-pocket.

Doug assembled, at the cost of two millions, the biggest cast, the biggest sets and the most elaborate costumes, for this glittering production, this fairy tale of old Bagdad. There's magic in it, as Doug meets and falls in love with the beautiful princess, and competes with the most wealthy and eligible princes of the Orient for her hand. There's magic, too, in many of the effects that were created for this film, a milestone for its day.

THE CENTURY OF PROGRESS EXPOSITION, CHICAGO, 1933-1934

For all of the financial difficulties of the time and the high level of unemployment, the 1933 period of the Century of Progress Exposition was so obviously a success that, well before that season was over, it was decided to continue and expand the Fair for another year.

Our film covers a number of the highlights of the Exposition . . . The Avenue of Flags, the Sky-Ride, the House of Tomorrow, the Golden Temple of Jehol, the Italian Pavilion, the Belgian Village, the Maya Temple, the American Indian Village, the Ukrainian Village, the Midway, Admiral Byrd's flagship, the Federal Building, the lagoon, the Streets of Paris, the Hall of Science, the Travel and Transportation Building and Enchanted Island, as well as several of the industrial exhibits.

Viewed from the vantage point of 1971, the Fair looks quite modern compared with either the San Francisco or San Diego Expositions of 1915.

A CERTAIN NOBLEMAN

This film tells the story of the nobleman who lived at Capernaum (John 4:47-53). When his only son, whom he loved dearly, fell ill, he appealed to his Roman gods in vain. In despair, he sought out the man whose teachings he had heard about, begging him to come to his son. Jesus, seeing the father was sincere, told him to go home, that his son would live. The father, believing, hurried home to find his son was healed at that very hour.

860-91-0030, Super 8, 400-feet, 1-lb. $15.98

THE STORY OF THE PRODIGAL SON

THE CHILD OF BETHLEHEM

860-91-0001, Super 8, 400-feet, 1-lb. $15.98

SIMON PETER, FISHERMAN

We see Jesus healing and comforting. Here is the full drama of Jesus' call to His first disciples. This film shows the effect of Jesus on the life of strong, impetuous Simon Peter. The setting is Capernaum and Antioch. There are scenes of typical home and community life, fishing scenes and the Sea of Galilee.

810-91-0494, Standard 8mm., 475-feet, 2-lb. $14.98

THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY

G. M. ANDERSON, MARIE MURRAY, GEORGE BARNES

Credited as the first film to tell a complete story, The Great Train Robbery was an "eastern" western made in New Jersey and employed intercutting to tell the story, captivating the audiences who flocked to see it in 1903.

INTOLERANCE (1915)

with LILLIAN GISH, MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER, CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERIC VON STROHEIM and BESSIE LOVE

INTOLERANCE considered by some a commercial failure, perhaps because it went into release only months before America entered World War I, and the country was preoccupied with the war in Europe. Yet, Intolerance was an artistic success and has, perhaps, grown in stature with the years. Blackhawk's Standard 8mm. and Super 8 versions of Intolerance are complete and authentic in every way except for the main and credit titles which were removed from the original negative some years ago and were not available. All sub-titles which are part of the original print have excellent quality.

TOL'ABLE DAVID

(1921)

with RICHARD BARTHELMESS, GLADYS HULETTE and ERNEST TORRENCE

The story of Tol'able David takes place in a small southeastern village. David Kinnemon passionately longs to be a man and assume a man's responsibilities but others regard him only "tol'able." His particular desire is to drive the mail. Three thugs named Hatburn move themselves in on David's "girl" and her grandfather. One of them kills David's dog, and when David's older brother rebukes him, he hits him in the back with a stone and cripples him for life. David's father only has time to reach for his gun to go out and settle with the Hatburns when he drops dead of heart failure.

This leaves David the "man" of his family, and one day, when no one else is available, he gets a chance to carry the mail. But the mail sack drops out of his wagon, and one of the Hatburns picks it up and carries it away. David invades their hiding place, shoots it out, kills all three, and delivers the mail, himself more dead than alive.

INTOLERANCE

(1915)
with LILLIAN GISH, MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER, CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERIC VON STROHEIM and BESSIE LOVE

INTOLERANCE considered by some a commercial failure, perhaps because it went into release only months before America entered World War I, and the country was preoccupied with the war in Europe. Yet, Intolerance was an artistic success and has, perhaps, grown in stature with the years. Certainly when all the films of Griffith are considered Intolerance stands at the top.

D.W. Griffith, in four separate stories, attacked intolerance and bigotry through the ages, bringing the epic to the screen with film techniques far advanced for the times.

TWENTY THOUSAND
LEAGUES
UNDER THE SEA

(1916) with ALLEN HOLUBAR as
CAPTAIN NEMO, JANE GAIL,
MATT MOORE

Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea is actually a mixture of two Verne works with about two-thirds being loosely adapted from his The Mysterious Island. But it was the underwater sequences that made it such a spectacular film for its time. It was the first real underwater picture, made possible by the Williamson tube developed by the Williamson Brothers.

The submarine aspects of the production added measurably to its exploitation possibilities, for World War I was raging, and unrestricted submarine warfare in the Atlantic was making almost daily headlines.

Blackhawk's release follows closely the editing of the original "road show" version even to the retention of the title: "Intermission Ten Minutes", which was in evidence at the premiere showing of the film at Chicago's Studebaker Theatre on October 9, 1916.

RETURNS
 Should you for any reason desire to return items to Blackhawk for credit or for any other reason, YOU MUST RETURN ALL PAPERS INCLUDING YOUR ORIGINAL ORDER WITHIN 10 DAYS from the date you receive it. Because of the thousands of orders we handle, we do not keep copies of all orders, nor a list of the items you purchased. Unless you return the papers listed above, we are not in a position to handle your request without undue delay.

BLACKHAWK'S LAY-AWAY PLAN
 Blackhawk's Lay-Away Plan costs you not a penny more than Blackhawk's regular cash price—you pay 10% of the cost of the merchandise with your order, the balance within 90 days at your convenience. As soon as the balance is paid, Blackhawk ships the merchandise! And, Lay-Away is an easy way for you to get those limited availability bargains and sale items, for the moment we get your order, it is physically pulled and set aside for you! Remember—no interest or carrying charge on Lay-Away!

OUT OF STOCK ITEMS
 Where items are temporarily out of stock, we will create a back order, retain sufficient funds to cover shipment and send the item as quickly as our new stock is received. If there is a delay beyond two weeks, we will notify you, giving you any information we may have.
 When an item is permanently out of stock, we will send you a credit memo as a refund. We follow the practice of issuing credit memos in such instances because most customers prefer to make another selection. If we return a check, this means that the customer who wants to select another item must then either pay for the cashing of our check and for the writing of another personal check, or must pay for a money order. This can be both inconvenient and expensive. To make alternate selections easy, therefore, we use the credit memorandum system.
 If you would prefer a cash refund, just tell us on your order and we will send our bank check rather than a credit memorandum.

HOW TO OPEN A BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT

Open account billing is now available to individuals in the continental United States on the payment of a fee of $2.00 and the submission of satisfactory credit information. (Payment of the $2.00 fee is not required when application is accompanied by an order for $10.00 or more.) On this basis, upon the opening of a Blackhawk charge account, you will be provided with an account number which should appear on all orders from you. Payment for orders shipped and billed during a month are due in Davenport not later than the 15th of the month following. As an example, orders which are shipped and billed to you in December must be paid in full not later than January 15, etc., etc. A Blackhawk charge account will be a particular convenience to our regular customers in that it eliminates the prefiguring of remittance for postage, and the writing of several checks or the securing of several money orders during a single month.

Fill in completely (type or print) the BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT APPLICATION below, sign and return it to us with the $2.00 charge account fee or an order of $10.00 or more. ($2.00 fee, if sent, will be refunded in the event an account is not opened by us.) We'll immediately confirm receipt and let you know as soon as the account is open—and your account number.

BUY ANYTHING OFFERED BY BLACKHAWK ON CONVENIENT MONTHLY PAYMENTS!

Customers in the United States may purchase anything from Blackhawk on convenient time payments.

The following time payment arrangements became effective with the Truth in Lending Act on July 1st, 1969.)

TIME PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

A. Down Payments

Below are the minimum down payments required based on the total amount of your purchase.

On orders totaling $25.00 to $50.00 . . . . . $ 5.00

On orders totaling $50.01 to $100.00 . . . . . $ 7.50

On orders totaling $100.01 to $125.00 . . . . . $12.50

The amount of your time payment charge and the amount of your monthly payment is determined by the unpaid balance remaining after we have deducted your down payment from the total of your purchase. Thus, the larger you can make your down payment, the lower will be your time payment charges and the smaller will be your monthly payments.

B. Time Payment Charges

Time payment charges are based on the unpaid balance remaining after the deduction of your down payment from the total of your purchase. Here they are scheduled:

On unpaid balances totaling $25.00 to $75.00 . . . . . $ 5.00

On unpaid balances totaling $75.01 to $125.00 . . . . . $ 7.50

C. Monthly Payments

As is explained above, the size of your monthly payment is based upon the unpaid balance (including the time payment charge) remaining after deducting your payment from the total of your purchase. Here is the schedule:

On unpaid balances totaling $25.00 to $50.00 . . . . . $ 5.00

On unpaid balances totaling $50.01 to $100.00 . . . . . $10.00

On unpaid balances totaling $100.01 to $125.00 . . . . . $12.50

D. Add-on Orders

New purchases may not be added to existing contracts. A separate contract, requiring a down payment and a time payment charge will be established each time you order. It will be to your advantage, as the time payment charges are fixed figures, to include as many items as possible in each time payment order.

E. Our Action

We've provided this information so that you will know exactly the amount you will owe. However, to help you further, we prepare a time payment schedule for you at the time we ship the merchandise. We show you the exact amount due and the dates on which the amount should be received here in Davenport. So don't let the detail bother you. We'll do the figuring.

PARCEL POST CHARGES

Shipping weights are given on all mailable merchandise so that you can remit approximate postage charges with your order. Just add up shipping weights on all items to be shipped by Parcel Post and figure total pounds (16 ounces to a pound).

A phone call to your local post office will get you information as to your zone from Davenport, or you can estimate it on the basis of distance as given in the table below. Alaska, Hawaii and territories of the United States are in the 8th zone from Davenport. APO/FPO addresses in San Francisco and Seattle are charged as the 8th zone from Davenport. APO/FPO addresses in New York are charged as the 5th zone from Davenport.

Then, having determined the total shipping weight of your order and the zone in which you are located from Davenport, refer to the table below to determine the amount of postage to include when placing your cash order. (There is no time to figure this in advance on C.O.D. or Time Payment orders as actual postage charges will be billed to you.) We will send a credit voucher for any overpayment of postage which may be applied on your next order.

READ BEFORE YOU ORDER

Blackhawk Films' prices do not include postage. Shipping weights are given with each item and you can compute the approximate total weight and postage charges by referring to the postage table given below. While weights of a single shipment to virtually all post offices in continental United States are limited to 40 pounds, shipments to the states of Alaska and Hawaii may run as heavy as 70 pounds. These two states are in the eighth zone, and Blackhawk customers can approximate the correct postage to remit by figuring 18¢ per pound for each pound above twenty. The same formula applies to all U.S. Territories and Protectorates.

Some larger and heavier items, because of size and weight, are not mailable and will thus be shipped to you by express or freight, you paying the transportation charges on delivery. In general, shipments of size and weight requiring express or freight transportation will not be forwarded on a C.O.D. basis.

Weight, up to and including 16 ounces; 8¢ first two ounces; 4¢ each additional ounce, irrespective of zone. Weight, over 16 ounces but not exceeding:	Zones

On orders over $50.00 we will charge U.S. Post Office rates shown below.

Values from $50.01 to $100	Insurance Fee: 40¢
Values from $100.01 to $150	Insurance Fee: 50¢
Values from $150.01 to $200	Insurance Fee: 60¢

SALES TAX ON IOWA SHIPMENTS

Customers ordering films for shipment to points in Iowa must also add 3% for the State Sales Tax.

C.O.D. SHIPMENTS

Except where noted, Blackhawk will gladly make shipments of merchandise on a C.O.D. basis to any point in the United States. However, on C.O.D. shipments, the purchaser pays all transportation charges, insurance and C.O.D. fees, and money order fees, in addition to the cost of the merchandise.

SHIPMENTS OUTSIDE

CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

Shipments made to Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Fleet Post Offices, Army Post Offices and other overseas locations move through the regular United States Postal System. We are glad to handle such shipments on exactly the same basis as shipments made within continental United States with the exception that no C.O.D.'s will be made outside continental United States.

Where shipments are made to countries other than the United States, payment may be made by letter of credit, by international money order or in any negotiable currency. Where, on any type of payment, you wish to know the exact cost of your merchandise we will be glad to send a proforma invoice—and hold the wanted items—so that a precise amount may be determined. Where checks, money orders or other remittances are made in currencies other than those of the United States, we will immediately clear these funds through our bank. Your order will be suspended until our bank has notified us of the actual credit resulting from this clearance. This usually takes a matter of a week or ten days.

On shipments to overseas destinations other than those served directly by the United States Postal System, a surcharge of 10% is made to cover postage, and the preparation of necessary customs forms.

Blackhawk cannot guarantee safe delivery on foreign shipments. If you want your shipment insured we can do it for you at an additional charge. Ask for details.

RIGHTS of U.S. on MOTION PICTURES

Use of new 16mm. and 8mm. motion picture prints sold by Blackhawk is limited to home and non-theatrical showing—theatrical and television rights are specifically reserved. Productions of Hal Roach Studios, Inc., and National Telefilm Associates, Inc., are distributed by Blackhawk on license under copyright for non-theatrical and home use only, and in the limited territories set forth on the pages carrying the major listings of these particular groups of subjects. The copyright status, if any, of other subjects in countries and territories outside of the United States, is unknown and purchasers acquiring and exhibiting such prints do so at their own risk.

No authority or license is granted for the public performance of any copyrighted music which may be included in or as a part of any of the films offered herein unless the person, firm or corporation proposing to reproduce such music as part of the picture is duly authorized where such authorization is needed, by the copyright owner of any such music, to perform the same publicly.

THE UNCHASTENED WOMAN

(1925)

starring THEDA BARA
with Wyndham Standing, Eileen Percy,
John Miljan
(slightly abridged)

Caroline Knollys is just about to tell her husband she is to bear him a child when she sees him embracing his secretary. Without making her presence known, she sails for Europe, and her son is born in Paris without his father's knowledge. In Venice, she surrounds herself with a court of admirers and becomes an expert at playing the coquette.

Back in New York she continues these tactics until her husband, whose affair with his secretary has now gone sour, becomes furiously jealous, especially of a young architect, Sanbury, whom Caroline has retained to do over their country house. Finally Sanbury's wife and the secretary (now engaged to a customs officer) gang up on Caroline and enlist the cooperation of her husband, but when the party arrives at the Knollys home, the only man found in Caroline's room is her son, and husband and wife are reconciled.

THE LONG COUNT TUNNEY-DEMPSEY FIGHT

(1927)

Jack Dempsey had held the world heavyweight boxing title to Gene Tunney on Sept. 23, 1926. Dempsey then fought and won Jack Sharkey and, in an attempt to regain the title, challenged Tunney to a "burn out" bout. Tunney got the decision after ten rounds, and the fight became The Classic because of the "long count" in the seventh round. Tunney went to the floor and Dempsey, slow in retiring to a neutral corner, caused the referee to delay the count.

This film is presented just as it appeared at thousands of theatres around the world in 1927.

TRILBY

(1915)

starring CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG,
with Wilton Lackaye and Chester Barnett

Trilby O'Ferral is an artist's model who smokes cigarettes and poses in the nude. The aspiring young artist Little Billie falls helplessly and idealistically in love with her. But the sinister Svengali, who has musical imagination amounting to genius, but no voice, conceives the idea of using Trilby as a medium to project his own interpretations. He lures the girl away with him and she performs (robot-like) with power under his influence but is wholly possessed by him, with no opportunity for human satisfaction or development. The strain involved in exercising his powers over her brings on a fatal heart attack, and ultimately Trilby and Little Billie are reunited.

WAGON TRACKS

(1919)

starring WILLIAM S. HART
with Jane Novak, Robert McKim,

As wagon train guide Buckskin Hamilton, Bill Hart heads for Westport Landing on the Missouri River to meet his brother Billy, who's just graduated from medical school. But a crooked card game and tragedy combine to leave Billy dead.

Searching out those responsible, Hart discovers that Jane Novak is the culprit, but he doesn't believe her confession. Carrying out his own investigation, Bill confirms his suspicion that her brother is guilty, and has somehow managed to convince her that she did it. The denouement is vintage Hart and Wagon Tracks will keep you in suspense all the way as the greatest cowboy of them all rides again.
