A TOUGH WINTER (1930)

The film is fascinating since it's a showcase for a definitive Stepin Fetchit characterization. As a document of changing attitudes and social mores, this is a subject film historians must have. Though this point is surely open to discussion, we would have to agree with Hal Roach's assessment that Stepin Fetchit "was a very funny guy . . . a skilled comic." MUSH AND MILK (1933)

THE LITTLE RASCALS

BOOK XXIV

57 min. Black & White. NO SOUND TRACKS, SILENT, LODGE NIGHT (1923)

Before racial self-consciousness, before organized rights movements, before laughter became sensitive, Hal Roach unaffectedly teamed blacks with whites. In this reel, LODGE NIGHT for the adults starts with a grandilaquent lecture by Professor C. Jefferson Culpepper which quickly degenerates into a down-on-the-floor crap game. For the kids, LODGE NIGHT consists of Joe Cobb's initiation into the Cluck Cluck Klan. For both adults and kids, the evening ends with the capture of two auto bandits. 1920's touring cars, 1920's furnishings, and 1920's humor — all nostalgic symbols now, but just part of the "new" movie trend of the early Hal Roach productions.

Don't miss out on this remarkable addition to your classic comedy collection.

BIG BUSINESS (1924)

The kids decide to go into business for themselves. They open up a barber shap complete with manicure lady, shoe shine boy and laundry service. What service they give . . . you would never recognize their customers when the Rascals get started on them. Horrified mothers converge on the business along with the local constable.

A very funny Hal Roach comedy.

BARNUM & RINGLING, INC. (1928)

Our Rascals dream up a big circus attraction and take over one of the ballrooms in their apartment hotel. Some of the livestock, real and otherwise, get loose in the guest rooms, and there follows a 3-ring circus of fun and fast action.

SPOOK SPOOFING (1928)

We highly recommend this delightful 1928 Little Rascals comedy SPOOK SPOOFING. Directed by Robert McGowan, it beautifully demonstrates his great ability to elicit the wonderful actions and reactions that made these child actors unsurpassed on the screen.

Farina, armed with his "mumbo-jumbo" charm, brags to the gang that it will protect him from witches, ghosts and the like, but Joe Cobb, ever the trickster, decides that this is the perfect opportunity to play the joke of jokes.

With the eclipse of the sun, however, the loke begins to backfire and the pranksters becoming the butts is even a funnier sequence as a myriad of barnyard animals converge to add to the general chaos and fun.

THE LITTLE RASCALS

BOOK XXVI

SCHOOL'S OUT (1930)

"Nostalgic" is a trite word these days, but it was meant to describe comedies of warmth and honest sentiment like SCHOOL'S OUT. The sequel to TEACHER'S PET (Book XXIII), it opens with Jackie Cooper pining for Miss Crobtree. He loves her so much he circulates a "partition" to keep the scenic little schoolhouse open in the summer.

MIKE FRIGHT (1934)

DIVOT DIGGERS

The caddies go on strike and the desperate caddy master recruits the Rascals. Real "duffers" to begin with, the golfers discover their caddies are their biggest handicap. Topped off with Jiggs on a runaway tractor, DIVOT DIGGERS rates as one of the ten best of all The Little Rascal comedies. Forty laughs to a reel is par!

05-0738 - VHS/Beta......$29.98

BOOK XXI

49 min. Black & White.

FLY MY KITE (1931)

Our Rascals have found a Grandma but John, her son-in-law wants to put poor Grandma in the poor house.

See how Grandma reels in the truth from a bowl of goldfish, nets her priceless bonds, and leaves her fish of a son-in-law out of water in a mud puddle picked to the bone by none other than our Little Rascals.

MAMA'S LITTLE PIRATE (1934)

Along the California coast, long-lost pirate's treasure has just been salvaged, and Spanky leads the gang into a spooky cave in search of another fabulous strike. Just as the situation seems hopeless, Spanky wakes from bis dream. Charming comedy with some ingenious double-exposure photography.

FRAMING YOUTH (1937)

The Rosest have established a voice studio, where Alfalfa is the temperamental cropner and Spanky is the manager. Alfalfa worstles "Just An Echo, In The Valley" which is absolutely beyond safire or description. We highly recommend this one!

PUPS IS PUPS (1930)
Everyone is busy sprucing up their pets
(everything from a parrot to a pig) for the city is one of the best early talkies and certainly one of the most charming of all the "Rascals"

FISH HOOKY (1933)

It's a beautiful day—just perfect for an outing to the amusement park, which is exactly what Miss Kornman, the teacher, has in mind for her students—the ones, that is, who are in class.

THE PINCH SINGER (1936)

1977 had the Gong Show, but Spanky was way ahead of them in 1936. In a take-off on Major Bowes Amateur Hour. Spanky holds tryouts for someone to represent the Eagles on Station KWZ's big $50.00 talent contest. Alfalfa of course is first to try out, and first to get the Gong.

TEACHERS PET (1930)

The new teacher is named Miss Crabtree and jumping to the most obvious conclusion, the Roscals expect the worst. Planning for her imminent arrival. Jackie Cooper masterminds a series of pranks involving bugs, a mouse and sneezing powder.

SPANKY (1932)

Pete the Pup (watch his ears) and Spanky are having fun stalking bugs with Spanky's gongun and hammer. George (Spanky) McFarland stated that some of the scenes in this short were actually parts of his screen test. It's easy to see why the little newcomer eventually became a Little Rascal.

HONKEY DONKEY (1934)

Stymie, Scotty, Spanky, Wally, a dignified chauffeur named, Barclay and a dankey named Algebra are featured characters in this Little Rascals comedy adventure. Rich kid Wally is bundled up by his mother and sent home with the stuffy, ineffectual chauffeur. When they come across the Little Rascals and Algebra, the fun begins.

KID'S AUTO RACE & MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE

KID'S AUTO RACE (1914) CHARLIE CHAPLIN

KID'S AUTO RACE (also known as KID AUTO RACES AT VENICE) is quite amusing. On short notice, Mack Sennett used to dispatch his actors and crew to improvise their comedies in the foreground of whatever might be happening around Los Angeles.

Filmed in just 45 minutes, there are no pretentions here, and the gags (there's hardly a story) all revolve around a camera-happy Chaplin, purposely, endlessly running out to obstruct the photographer's view of the kiddies racing down an incline in the background. Wandering into comera range, Chaplin invokes the ire of photographer, crew, and cops, who get quite a workout shoving this hammy pest out of the way. 5 min. Piano Score, BW

MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE (1915) CHARLIE CHAPLIN, MABEL NORMAND, MACK SWAIN

MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE was the nine-teenth film that Charlie Chaplin made during his year at Keystone — the seventh in which Mabel Normand was cast as his leading lady. Also appearing in the film is an "all star cast" of Keystone celebrities — Mack Swain, Charlie Murray, Hank Mann, Harry McCoy, Alice Davenport and Alice Howell.

MABEL'S MARRIED LIFE is one of the better Keystone Comedies starring Chaplin. The story line is based on a combination of flirtations in the park between married individuals, and the time spent by Charlie at the bar in a saloon, with resulting funny comic routine Gaylord Carter Organ score. 16 min. ESSANAY PERIOD

ESSANAY PERIOD

Here was the time that Chaplin began to come into his own. With more time devoted to the preparation of his films, his talent became even more in evidence and there was less and less dependence on slapstick. Almost all of his Essanay films were "two reelers" and were painstakingly produced. But, so high had his popularity skyrocketed in 1915 that Mutual was able to sign him away from Essanay in February 1916, at a salary and bonus totaling $670,000 for a year!

He mistakes this attention for love, but he discovers his error when the girl's boyfriend comes to visit. Dejected, the little tramp once again takes to the highway alone. BUSTER KEATON, MARION MACK CHARLES SMITH, FRANK BARNES, GLEN CAVENDER, JIM FARLEY, FRANK HAGNEY and JOE KEATON

Buster Keaton wrote and directed most of his films himself, and his best was THE GENERAL. Keaton created this great comedy out of an authentic episode of American history - a story about the famous Civil War

THE GENERAL was the last great feature comedy of the silent era, filmed only two years before the talkie revolution. Screen critics and historians generally rate it as one of the top fifty to seventy-five silent features. Keaton's heroines had one thing in common they were dumb — and Annabelle, heroine of THE GENERAL, was no exception. While other screen comedians treated their heroines with dignity, Keaton deliberately used his heroines as comedy foils — almost as props.

Although THE GENERAL is a comedy, the battle scense have the scope and realism of Matthew Brady's photographs of the Civil War brought to life. And through all the inferno and chaos, Keaton weaves his nonsense so expertly that two great armies serve as mere straight men. As a plucky little shop girl in a five-and-ten cent store, Mary Pickford seems to be simultaneously hopeless and resourceful.

POLLYANNA² (1920)

MARY PICKFORD Most of Mary Pickford's features are happy films. POLLYANNA is no exception. After viewing this delightful movie you are left with a special "glad" feeling.

This a charming tale of the young daughter of an Ozark missionary. The little girl, always seeing the brighter side of life, constantly plays her "glad" games; no matter what befalls her, she is glad because it could have been worse. Her father dies and she is shipped off to a cold, embittered aunt who reluctantly takes Pollyanna because it is her duty. She is apparently merciless and unkind. Even here Pollyanna continues with her 'glad'' game and eventually Aunt Polly softens up. However, before that, Pollyanna has earned a multitude of friends including Jimmy, an orphan boy; the rich John Pendleton, who had loved Pollyanna's mother before she married the missionary; and Dr. Chilton, who was once Aunt Polly's beau before a bitter separation.

Pollyanna spreads cheer throughout the town, making friends with her sunny disposition and good deeds. She arranages for Jimmy to "adopt" Mr. Pendleton.

A shadow darkens Pollyanna's life when she is run over by a car. At this point Aunt Polly realizes how much she loves her neice. She arranges for a specialist, against Pollyan-na's request for her friend Dr. Chilton. The specialist states she won't walk again. Pollyanna begs Aunt Polly for her to permit Dr. Chilton to examine her. Aunt Polly, bending, summons Dr. Chilton who eventually works a cure. He and Aunt Polly are reconciled and Pollyanna's "glad" game has now expanded to include everyone. She and Jimmy are extremely fond of each other . . . and, at the fade-out, we see them boarding their imaginary children on their own street car for a free ride. THE POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL²

MARY PICKFORD

Arthur Hopkins offered Eleanor Gates's play, The Poor Little Rich Girl, with Viola Dana, as his first Broadway production, in 1913, the same year that Mary Pickford did A Good Little Devil for Belasco. The film, released in March 1917, was Mary's third Artcraft and Maurice Tourneur's second production for Zukor

Neither Less Than the Dust nor The Pride of the Clan had been very successful, and Mary and her associates did not realize what they had achieved with Rich Girl until ecstation reviews and big business wake them up. It was Mary's first appearance as a child in a major film, and it exercised great influence on the rest of her career.

Her French director had the richest artistic background of any contemporary in filmdom, and only D. W. Griffith could come within hailing distance of the pictorial genius which the dream-delirium sequences gave him and his associates abundant opportunity to exercise.

The picture achieves a nice balance between fun and tenderness, and Mary's Gwendolyn is the most touching of all her carefully dif-ferentiated portraits of children. Certainly no other actress has ever created a superior illusion in kind. Come, then, and see the movies in the age of innocence at their best. Organ score by Gaylord Carter, 64 min. BW

Comes now Petruchio, Fairbanks, and tames the shrew, or does he?

This "talkie" is the only film co-starring Pickford and Fairbanks. This print is from the 1966 re-release, the only film Miss Pickford allowed done since her retirement. It is faithful to the original except that new music and new sound effects were added by Mr. Matty Kemp of the Mary Pickford Company during his painstaking restoration of this film. Also, seven minutes of the footage that were in the original were removed in bits and pieces to tighten the editing, and the sound of the voices was improved by new re-recording techniques since only the original sound discs, scratchy and deteriorated over the years, remained as the source material. Serious difficulties with Douglas Fairbanks, combined with other troubles, caused Miss Pickford to recall the filming of the SHREW as a dreadful experience, although in retrospect she has said that she thought Fairbanks was magnificent in the final version of the picture

As the title implies, DON Q, SON OF ZORRO was intended as a sequel to Douglas Fairbank's first costume swashbuckler, THE MARK OF ZORRO, which appeared five years and an equal number of films before. Fairbanks plays the role of the father Zorro as well as the son, Don Q, and two other characters in the film as well. The trick is accomplished by skillful cutting to give the illusion that Zorro and Don Q are in the same scenes, when in fact the scenes were shot

EARTH (1930)

Directed by Alexander Dovzhenko
On more than one occasion, EARTH has been voted by critics as one of the top films of all time (as at Brussels, 1958).

The rather slight story line of EARTH was taken by Dovzhenko from a newspaper story of so-called "kulaks" (reactionary farmers) murdering a pro-communist agitator who brought the first tractor to his village, and the film was actually taken in a village in the Ukraine where a young activist has recently been stabbed to death by kulaks. But this timely plot held little interest for Dovzhenko, who instead followed the dream-logic of passion and emotions, skipping impressionistically over events and characters to focus instead on the generalized, eternal experiences of nature and living things: love, family ties, birth, death, new birth, planting and harvest, rejoicing in the fruit of one's toil. SIEGFRIED² (1924) PAUL RICHTER, MARGARETA SCHOEN

In 1922 the German Studios, Ufa, decided to film this gigantic two-part version of the Nibelungenleid, the German epic that had been written at the close of the twelfth century This poem blended feudal and Christian customs and beliefs with even more ancient Teutonic legends and myths.

Fritz Lang, one of Germany's greatest directors, worked from a script by his wife, Thea Von Harbou, who in turn had based her version of the 1861 play of Hebbel, ignoring Wagner's more famous treatment of the story When released in 1924, the two-part film proved to be the most expensive and lavish picture that Germany had ever made. It is a saga of legendary figures set against a stylized medieval backdrop, containing many pagan elements (super-naturalism, a theme of revenge) partly disguised by a chivalric and somewhat Christianized setting. A reconstruction of the original film by and with Erich Von Stroheim.

Stroheim wanted to depict the confused milieu of post-war Europe in a realistic fashion, tracing all through the actions of a bogus count and his seductive, corrupt ways. The plot concerns a Russian emigre adventurer and two of his mistresses posing as his cousins, who lease a villa on the sea near Monte Carlo.

Because the master European copy had been severely trimmed, it was impossible to reconstruct as smooth a pictorial flow as Stroheim intended. Quality is not uniformly good, in our judgement, it is quite acceptable throughout. Organ score by John Muri. 107 min. BW

DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS

MARGUERITE COURTOT.

RAYMOND MCKEE, CLARA BOW

Clara Bow's films are considered the epitome of the Jazz Age, yet she made her screen debut not in a flapper role, but as a Quaker girl in DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS, a whaling epic whose authenticity and realism make today's JAWS and ORCA seem tame in comparison.

Elmer Clifton, who directed DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS, was a long-time associate of D. W. Griffith — he had leading roles in THE BIRTH OF A NATION and IN-TOLERANCE - and his devotion to the master's methods is much in evidence in this film. Set in New Bedford, the whaling capital of America in the 1850's, DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS faithfully recaptures on film Quaker life of 100 years ago and the exploits of the whaling industry; its stirring scenes of an actual whale hunt have never been surpassed. OLIVER TWIST (1922) was Dickens' first long integrated story, and since it is one of the most dramatic and sensational of all his works, it has always been a great favorite with dramatists and film makers.

Released on November 5, 1922, it was the second of young Jackie Coogan's starring vehicles after he had become famous overnight in Charlie Chaplin's THE KID, and he never found a better or more winning role. To present viewers the film abundantly attests both to his charm and to his wonderful acting ability, even when he did not have Chaplin to quide him.

When Lon Chaney created his impressive, evil Fagin in this film, he had THE MIRACLE MAN, THE PENALTY and his work with Maurice Tourneur in VICTORY and TREASURE ISLAND behind him.

The character of Sikes is a "natural" for the Griffith "heavy" George Siegmann, and Gladys Brockwell as Nancy makes the best of some vivid moments.

Because no copy of the original English title texts could be located, new titles were written for Blackhawk by Sol Lesser and Jackie Coogan, with help from Dickens scholar, Edward Wagenknecht. Picture quality of this release is very good.

THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME. His role of a small one compared to those enacted in the pictures in which he starred, but he is remarkable to see - and remarkably sympathetic — and performs well within the limitations imposed. The story is a well-built melodrama, thoroughly conventional in its outlook and values.

CITY OF THE GOLDEN GATEL

LONDON MEDLEY & CITY OF THE GOLDEN GATE LONDON MEDLEY (1932)

Movietone News takes you on a nostalgic tour of London in the tranquil days between the two great wars. You'll catch a glimpse of people and places of a more gentle era — fishermen on the Thames, Hyde Park on a Sunday afternoon. You'll visit a supper club complete with stage show and formally dressed orchestra. Picadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Bond Street where hansom cabs, liveried footmen and top-hatted sweepers are part of the normal street scene. An era when everything and everyone stops for tea; and a gentlman never appears in public without his topper, ascot and walking stick. A charming and unforgettable return to another time and place

CITY OF THE GOLDEN GATE (1934)

Here is a fond and charming look at San Francisco, "wonder city of the west," as it appeared to the Movietone cameramen of more than forty years ago. We see the ferryboats that carried communters from Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, described as "residential suburbs" in those days before the Bay Bridge; Fisherman's Wharf is shown as a haven for the fleets of small boats which provided the population with the fresh Pacific seafood; we also see the still-lively Chinatown and the ever popular cable cars. To these living glimpses of the past are added the patina of an early '30's music score and an elocutionary narration, bringing them an additional period flavor. Overall, the film is a quaint tribute to the city which rose like a phenix from the ashes of 1906. Total time 19 min. BW

BOSTON & MAINE - ITS FITCHBURG DIVISION AND HOOSAC TUNNEL IN STEAM DAYS

Photographed by J. W. Deely and E. R. Blanchard

That portion of the Boston & Maine which stretches west from Boston to Troy and Mechanicsville, N.Y., was, until the early years of this century, the Fitchburg Railroad. It has since been operated as the Fitchburg Division of the Boston & Maine.

The Hoosac Tunnel was originally thought of as a canal tunnel in 1819, but was ultimate ly built as a railroad tunnel between 1851 and 1876 a cost of $8-million to $20-million - no one actually knows. In all, 139 lives were lost in its construction. Its building saw hand drills and black powder give way to pneumatic drills and nitroglycerine blasting. The first train was run through the tunnel on February 9, 1876. Although it has a ventilating shaft of 1028-feet, it was electrified in 1911. Fires were banked and entire trains drawn through the tunnel by electric locomotives. The Boston & Maine had six electrics, generally teamed in two sets of three.

But our film shows steam locomotive activity on many parts of the B&M Fitchburg Division. 2-6-0s, 4-6-2s, 2-10-2s, 4-8-2s, 2-8-4s, as well as the electrics at the tunnel. 11 min. Piano score performed by Jon Mirsalis. BW 66-2375 - VHS/Beta......$24.98

MURDER AT THE BASKERVILLES

ARTHUR WONTNER IAN FLEMING, LYN HARDING

A dog that didn't bark, a curry dinner, a telegram from a small village, and a man who isn't interested in football are the clues used by Sherlock Holmes to foil Professor Moriarity in this film based on the short story "Silver Blaze" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Arthur Wontner, a Basil Rathbone look-alike was Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's personal choice to play Holmes. Judging by Wontner's performance, a mixture of wry humor, complete confidence, and cool aloofness, Doyle was right. Holmes received an invitation to visit Sir Henry Baskervilles at his estate. The vacation is shortlived as Baskervilles' daughter's fiance is accused of stealing Silver Blaze, a race horse, and murdering the horse's keeper. A suspenseful mystery full of surprises! 67 min.

LON CHANEY, PRISCILLA DEAN, RALPH LEWIS, E. A. WARREN The original negative of OUTSIDE THE AW was destroyed, and until the midseventies no prints were thought to exist. Happily Bob Deflores did locate a print of this mystery in which Lon Chaney, the master of make-up, plays 3-parts.

The print, however, was somewhat damaged. So extensive restoration was necessary As now offered, these prints are good, but do contain some flaws near the end

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA

LON CHANEY, MARY PHILBIN Strange things are happening at the Paris

Opera House. Deep beneath it lurks a scarred genius methodically plotting revenge. He's a creature so hideous that he strikes terror into everyone. The story is a classic that this 1925 movie, the first filmed version, lives up to spectacularly.

Lon Chaney, Sr.'s acting brought never-again-equalled power and scope to the title role. Director Rupert Julien kept the action moving. And the highly unusual colored masked ball sequence shocked audiences used to black and white. A masterpiece of horror. Organ score by Gaylord Carter. 79 min. Part Color

He examined the brig through his binoculars and recognized her to be the Mary Celeste, her skipper, Benjamin Briggs, was an old friend and he was particularly pleased. But his pleasure soon changed to bewilderment. There was no one at the ship's wheel, no lookout man and no one on deck! Afraid that they might all be ill with, perhaps, the plague, Morehouse pulled closer and called out. Still no answer. He then ordered that a boat be launched and men be dispatched to board the Mary Celeste. It wasn't like his old friend, Briggs, to leave the wheel unattended and the ship floating free with no one on deck. What was the explanation? He soon had the answer. There was nobody on board.
