GOOD USED 16mm. SILENT PRINTS OF ABOUT 700-FEET IN LENGTH

BEN TURPIN in "A HAREM NIGHT"

We have been very fortunate in securing a moderate stock of excellent used 16mm. silent prints of this very, very typical Mack Sennett comedy of 1924. Co-starred with Ben in Madeline Hurlock. Ben is a member of the nobility they are trying to tie in marriage with some Amazon that looks like a tank—Ben prefers to have Madeline (and who wouldn't). It's a wow! Prints are on two 400-ft. reels.

Railroad Fans, Attention!

Here are two additional films for your collections produced by Dudley Pictures Corporation for the

SEABOARD AIRLINE RAILROAD

"NEW HORIZONS"

Used 600-foot, 16mm. sound prints IN FULL COLOR

This film, made in the late 1940s, shows the Seaboard Railroad and its relation to the cultural and industrial growth of the South. Many of the tourist high spots such as Cypress Gardens and Silver Springs are shown—but the whole fabric of the story is held together with action shots of Seaboard trains in operation.

You'll see both steam and diesels, and among the diesels, one of the Baldwin "centipede" units not in common use around the country. While not as jam-packed with train shots as some of our former railroad film offerings such as "Mainline U.S.A." or "On the Tracks"—at the very attractive prices at which this is being offered, you'll get more than your money's worth. It has a lot of appeal to non-railroad fans as well because of what it shows of the South.

"New Horizons," good used 16mm. sound prints in full color Kodachrome, Blackhawk priced at only $14.95

"New Horizons," used 16mm. sound prints in below par condition (main titles missing or more than average splicing), full color Kodachrome, only $11.95

"SALUTE TO THE SOUTH"

Used 500-foot, 16mm. black and white sound prints

"Salute to the South" is a revised version of "New Horizons" prepared especially for television. And, having been revised within the last few years, the emphasis is on diesel powered trains—we don't believe there is a single steam locomotive appearing prominently in the film. If you buy "New Horizons", you will not want "Salute to the South" because of the general duplication of scenes.

"Salute to the South," used 16mm. sound black and white prints in excellent condition $9.95

GOOD USED 16mm. SILENT PRINTS OF ABOUT 700-FEET IN LENGTH

HARRY LANGDON

in

"BOOBS IN THE WOODS"

One of the best two reel comedies Mack Sennett ever turned out with bashful Harry as the star. Harry is a lumberjack. Vernon Dent is the foreman. They both are after the same girl—that is, Vernon is after the girl, the girl is after Harry. This is an absolutely choice example of 1926 slapstick at its best!

Boy, oh boy!
What a buy!

MICO-VUE

Here's the famous Mico-Vue 2"x2" slide viewer that sold last year for $5.95. It's been discontinued and replaced by the Mico-Televue, but we have just been able to make a fortunate purchase from one of the big photographic distributors, and have acquired several hundred of these that we're able to offer at only one-third of last year's list price.

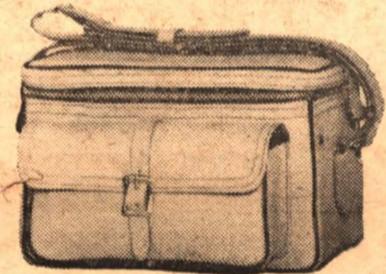

This viewer illuminates by daylight or from floor or reading lamp light. Slides are fed singly, and are stored in magazine at bottom, which holds up to thirty ready mounts.

"2x2" COLOR SLIDE SALE

like this great January-February Sale of Slides by

BLACKHAWK and WILD LIFE 11c

Buy any of these great slide sets, regularly selling at 14c to 18c per slide, during this January-February sale at, per slide, only

(WHILE THESE SETS ARE BEING OFFERED AT 11c PER SLIDE, THEY ARE PRICED ON THIS BASIS ONLY WHEN A COMPLETE SET IS PURCHASED—INDIVIDUAL SLIDES FROM A SET CANNOT BE SUPPLIED.)

Blackhawk has been doing its own 2"x2" color slide printing and mounting for slightly over a year. To our growing list of unusual slides has been added, this last spring, the line of the former Wild Life Films Co. of Hollywood, which we purchased. The Blackhawk line of slides in color has been priced to average out at about 14c to 16c per slide, while the Wild Life slides average at about 18c per slide. Before our acquiring of the Wild Life line, the retail price, in sets, had averaged nearly 25c a slide.

We know that the more copies of a slide set we can print at one time, the lower will our cost be per set. In making this January-February sale price of 11c per slide (in sets) we're trying to determine just how much additional volume we can generate by this lower price. If the added volume is sufficient, it may make it possible for us to regularly sell our Blackhawk and Wild Life sets at a lower average price. But, whether it proves this or not, it's a real opportunity for you to get a fine assortment of slide sets—many of absolutely superlative quality—at a saving of up to 40% from the prices at which they have been selling!

Blackhawk buys the entire 16mm. sound film reference library of

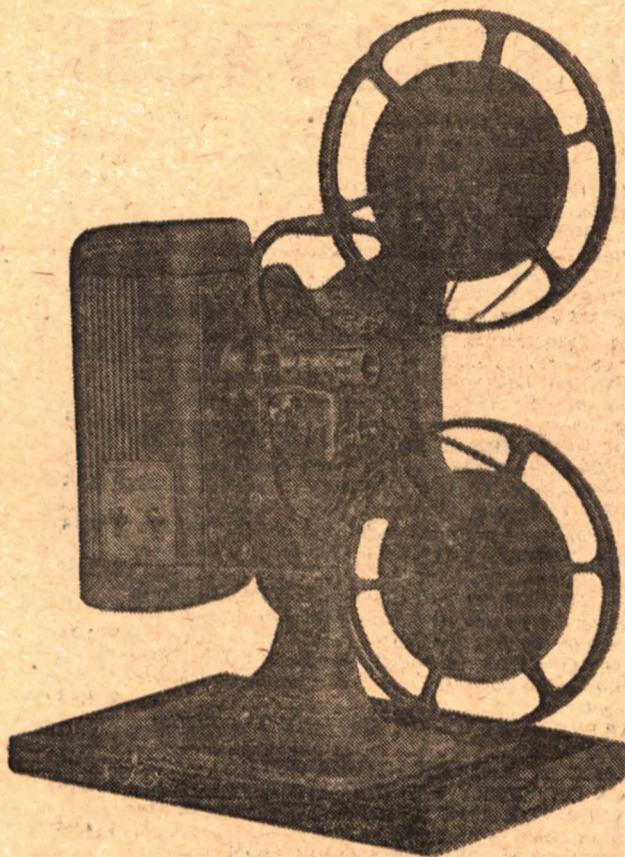

BRITISH INFORMATION SERVICE

Yes, with British Information Services closing their 16mm. sound film circulating library in the United States late this past summer, Blackhawk had the opportunity to purchase the entire collection of World War II Information Films in the reference library B. I. S. had maintained in New York. Most of these subjects are in like new condition. And, only a print or two of most titles are on hand. This is your opportunity to acquire at a very, very low price many items that in years to come will be collectors items dealing with World War II.

In addition to a number of combat films, these subjects depict many of Britain's special training requirements during and immediately after World War II—in agriculture and medical services, as an example—and chronicle the progress of Britain after the war. There are some films from the Dominions, and from Britain's Allies as well.

Blackhawk's regular guarantee applies—you may return any of these prints within five days after receipt if for any reason you do not wish to retain them. We'll give you full credit or refund.

LAUREL & HARDY "DO DETECTIVES THINK?"

While in "Slipping Wives" released in January, 1927, Laurel and Hardy were simply featured members of the cast, by July, 1927, when "Do Detectives Think?" was released, Stan and Ollie were at the top of the cast—and for our money they might as well have been starred. The boys are private detectives (Stan is next to the worst private detective—Ollie is the worst) called out to protect Judge Finlayson from an escaped prisoner he had just sentenced to the penitentiary. Talk about protection! And talk about laughs! This is an example of how a new comedy team started off on the right foot—it's a whiz of a good comedy.
