There is a bit of confusion over the biological half-life of anadrol. 50 mg per day of anadrol is 350 mg per week of anabolics, which is not a low dosage. Hell, you might not need more than 25 mg per day for your personal goals, especially if it is being stacked on top of a testosterone base. Just switched from 50 to 100 mg a day on anadrol and ... The dosage for Anadrol is the same as for the Anadrol only cycle while testosterone involves 200 mg per day for the first 2 weeks, 300 mg per day for the following 3 weeks and finishing off with 350 mg per day for the last one week. Testo-Max 120 Caps #ChancaPiedra, also known as the 💎stone breaker,💎 is a popular herbal remedy for kidney stones. The herb is thought to help prevent calcium-oxalate stones from forming. It's also believed to reduce the size of existing stones. It's a greasy cleanser of the kidneys

An example might be using 50 mg/day of trenbolone acetate (or a total of about 350 mg/week of trenbolone enanthate) and 250-500 mg/week of testosterone. Another approach is to supplement fairly strong testosterone use, such as 1000 mg/week, with say 50 mg/day of trenbolone acetate.

Unfortunately, there is not enough research to prove that oysters help sexually. However, the food does boost dopamine hormone levels, which positively affects the libido of men and women. They also have lots of zinc. Zinc is known for increasing the production of testosterone. The two factors and more lead some people to believe that fresh oyster will solve their sexual difficulties.

102kg this morning and have been in the 102s all week. Claimed this weight now and feeling very very good for it. Feeling leaner than at 98kg tbh right now
