The classical and beloved White Widow has been upgraded to an auto version by the Fast Buds team. We've been developing this old-school autoflowering strain for some time and the results are amazing, you can expect to harvest up to 500gr/m<sup>2</sup> of extremely dense silver coated buds in around 9 weeks from start to finish. . why doesnt my white widow smell at all.?this is my first grow and i havested most of my plants. they are white widow and throughtout the whole grow iv hardly smelled anything. Ive never grown white widow so i dont know what its suppose to look like or smell like. anyway i have the colas... #resinart #resinreactions #resinpieces #cannabiscommunity #cannabiscreations #cannabis #cannaleaf

The White Widow Autoflower has a sweet and sour citrus-like aroma and that familiar taste of old school ganja, just like the original White Widow. It's true that one of the first things you will notice about the White Widow Autoflower strain is the fantastic buds. Winning awards along the way, the weed clearly has something much newer strains don't. By crossing the original White Widow with an undisclosed Ruderalis strain, its autoflowering variant was born....

???? White Widow Auto is a feminised autoflowering version of the famous White Widow. The original White Widow was crossed with Ruderalis to create this strain. This short plant grows up to 70-80 cm tall and produces good yields. The flowering is 9 weeks from germination. The crop reaches 600 gr/m2 indoors and 70-80 gr/plant outdoors.

Very pretty bud. Very green and frosty. Not very dense, but not airy. Bag appeal is 7/10. Very floral skunk smell. Classic White Widow with the floral notes. Very dank too. A squeezed bud produces a dank skunk scent. Smell is 8/10. Flavorful. #cannabis #weed #marijuana #infused #cookingwithcannabis #live
