On These Ten Outstanding But Often Over-Looked Films

SALE ENDS JANUARY 31, 1973

In every group of films—in every series—there are some titles that outsell others for very obvious reasons—others that are extremely popular for reasons not quite so clear. But there is also the film that is outstanding among others with the star, or in the series, that never quite seems to attract the fullest degree of popularity.

What we have tried to do is to select productions that fall in this last category to offer as this month's special—films that offer far greater entertainment satisfaction than most of you have yet discovered.

For instance, the two Laurel & Hardy titles, "Them Thar Hills" and "Tit for Tat" are actually related subjects, with the latter being sort of a sequel to the former. In addition to Stan and Ollie they have Charlie Hall and Mae Busch very much in the cast. And we can recommend the two as top Laurel and Hardy fun!

Then, there is "His Regeneration" with Bronco Billy Anderson. This film is unique because it contains a guest appearance by Charlie Chaplin, and one of our good friends writes that Ben Turpin is also visible in the cast. But for Chaplin, he didn't even mention "His Regeneration" in the list of films in which he had appeared. And neither did his biographer, Theodore Huff.

And what about "Under Royal Patronage" with Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne? This is a charming production from the height of their careers at Essanay, a Graustarkian romance in the manner of the day. Shown at the 1972 Cinecon in Washington, D.C. over last Labor Day week-end, where Beverly Bayne was an honored guest.

Every other film has something to recommend it—and your making choices from this group at this sale period is almost certain to bring pleasant entertainment surprises for you, too!

A MOVIE STAR

(1916)
starring Mack Swain

Most of the action in this film takes place inside a silent movie theatre of the period with scenes in the booth, detailed action in the music department with Harry Carey as the one-man orchestra, and Mack Swain as the movie star who has shown up at the theatre to admire his own work on the screen.

RED NOSES

(1932)
with ZaSu Pitts and Thelma Todd

ZaSu Pitts and Thelma Todd are roommates working in the same office. With both of them home with terrible colds, their boss promises them a bonus and vacation if they will go to a Turkish Bath to get rid of their colds and come back to work.
The girls end up at the Nature 13 Health Institute where they are put through a series of exercise machines, massages, and mud packs, ending with a chase through the Health Club by a man (Billy Gilbert) from the tailor shop next door who gets innocently involved. Considered risque for its day (1932) this film today is a delightful comedy farce.

NEIGHBORHOOD HOUSE

(1936)

starring Charley Chase

It seems the Chases attend the theatre every week for "Bank Night"—and of course Charley rushes home from the office and the family rushes through dinner so they can be sure to get in without standing in line. The big event is not the film—it's the drawing at the end of the first evening show—and in this one, coincidence is strained to the breaking point with the Chase's little girl going up on stage to pick the lucky number—then calling out Charley's number!

THE SILENT PARTNER

starring Buster Keaton and Joe E. Brown

It is Academy Award night, and we see successful director, Arthur Vail (Joe E. Brown), arriving at the Pantages Theatre in Hollywood to view the ceremonies. At a lounge down the street is Selma (ZaSu Pitts) and an unidentified man—Selma just breathless to see the telecast of the Awards. It turns out that Arthur Vail is honored with the presentation of an Oscar, and he reminises about silent comedy star, Kelsey Dutton, who taught him so much of what he learned about direction, and of whom he lost track of after the coming of the talkies. His early comedy experience with Kelsey is pictured, and as television coverage unfolds, Selma recognizes the man at the bar as Kelsey Dutton, and gets the word through to Arthur Vail. There is a happy reunion and the promise of a new career for Kelsey.

The serials of the silent screen have become a legend, and few survive in their entirety. Of many of them, there is no trace at all.

During the "golden years" of the silent serial, probably dating from the release of "The Perils of Pauline" through the years of World War I, and possibly even on into 1920 or 1921, the two leading producers of serials were Pathe and Universal with Vitagraph possibly being a third contender for a time. But the location of a complete production from this period, made by one of these producers, has been a frustrating search for over a decade.

It was, therefore, quite a sensation for us some two years ago to receive a communication from an individual in Australia indicating that he was the possessor of a complete 30-reel Pathe serial of 1916, "Mystery of the Double Cross' in its original 35mm. form. We finally worked out arrangements to bring this 35mm. copy back to the United States, where it could be converted to 8mm.

The reimport was delayed for some weeks late in 1971 because of the dock strikes on both the east and west coasts. But finally, during holiday week last year, the 35mm. positive arrived, and within weeks was converted to 16mm. Done on our wet gate copying equipment from a print surprisingly free of splices in scenes, the results are amazingly good. And every chapter survives in virtuallly complete form. (There were perhaps a dozen scenes that had to be trimmed because of decomposition resulting from the several months on deck, and there may be some other short scenes also missing, although this is not obvious.)
So, for the first time, it's possible for a collector to own an 8mm. print of all fifteen chapters of a Pathe serial made in those golden years of the silent serial. Take advantage of our special offer—buy the first twelve chapters—get the final three free. (See details elsewhere on this page.)

THE JANITOR
(1921)

Billy Franey

Prohibition gave every man two jobs—brewing and his regular occupation. And as you'd guess, Billy's studying hard to become an authority in making bathtub gin—the only problem is that he can't seem to get the mixture right.

Unfortunately for our hero, the Blue Sunday Leaguers meet right below his home brewery in the apartment house. A mixup with the mash and a model next door brings everything to a head in a madcap climax unlike any you've ever seen. This was one of Billy's final Reelcraft Comedies, as the company went bankrupt a few months after its release in June 1921, and ranks with his best work.

AT THE RINGSIDE
(1921)

Snub Pollard

Shades of Chaplin's Easy Street (of which there's a cute imitation)! Snub's the neighborhood cop and what a neighborhood! It's open season on the good folk and Mario is about to lose her business for want of rent.

But never fear, Snub, the Battlin' Cop, takes on the champ (who also holds the mortgage) in a two-round funfest and beats the big bully at his own game. When At The Ringside was released in 1921, Pollard was at the height of his starring career and this comedy's a dead hit on your funnybone. Even if Snub's not your particular cup of tea, this one's an absolute delight!

HOLD 'ER COWBOY
(1928)

Bobby Vernon

"Three-Star" Hennessey sends his son Bobby East to spend a couple of months with Cactus Peter, who struck it rich and moved to the city. But Pete's daughter is getting engaged and he doesn't want any hicks spoiling the party.

Boby arrives in true western fashion and proves the hit of the party, especially when the guests and police begin a game of "throw him out—throw him in again." Our hero discovers the groom-to-be is a bigamist and manages to break up the proceedings before they begin in this laugh-a-second abridgment of one of Bobby's hilarious comedies from 1928.

(1923)

Snub Pollard, Marie Mosquini

Noah Young, Jimmy Finlayson

A silver-throated tenor singing in a nickelodeon, Snub's so bad that the patrons rig a popularity contest so that he wins a trip to Hollywood. At last, ears can rest all over town.

But you've probably guessed it—our hero becomes a big movie star and he's soon back at the old nickelodeon, for a personal appearance—just what the well-rested patrons can do without. But Snub pays for his new-found fame BEFORE THE PUCLIC is over and it's a laugh riot all the way.

DRAMATIC MOMENTS FROM ORPHANS OF THE STORM
(1921)
starring Lillian and Dorothy Gish

"Orphans of the Storm" was very nearly D. W. GRIFFITH'S last great picture although he was to produce and direct ten more silent films before the coming of the "talkies". It is a mixture of what was, in 1921, a well known play, "The Two Orphans" and Dickens' story of the French Revolution from "A Tale of Two Cities".

ROMANCE—KEYSTONE STYLE
(1912-14)

(A GROCERY CLERK'S ROMANCE & A FLIRT'S MISTAKE)

Ford Sterling, Roscoe Arbuckle

Always in the air, Keystone romance took a great variety of forms but never without a chuckle at the institution of marriage. Here are two brief peeks at the irreverent Keystone attitude toward American courtship and marriage.

Split reel comedies required little more than a slender plot line to put across a particular idea and no comedy company was better equipped to work with the concept. The Grocery Clerk's Romance pokes fun at hasty remarriages while A Flirt's Mistake follows the misadventures of the married man who can't stay away from other women.

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA
(1925)
starring LON CHANEY

with Mary Philbin, Norman Kerry

There is no question but what "The Phantom of the Opera" is one of the most sought after films from the silent era in-so-far as the collector is concerned. Over the years it has been the one about which we have had most inquiries. During this time, we could have brought out a version of "The Phantom" which might have sold a great quantity of prints, but which would hardly have been up to a standard of which we could have been proud.

As for the story—strange things have been happening at the Paris Opera—you'd almost think the place was haunted. In this day and age, that's impossible—or is it? For far beneath the reach of daylight lives a misshappened creature whose genius strikes terror into the hearts of all who meet him, including the one he loves. He casts his spell over the opera, upon Christine (Mary Philbin) and upon every audience which has ever seen the film.

USED 8mm. & SUPER 8 FILMS

BLACK & WHITE • COLOR • SILENT • SOUND • COMPLETE AND IN GOOD CONDITION

With this copy of the Flyer, the number of used Standard 8mm. and Super 8 prints on hand is somewhat less than over the past several months. Because of this, if you wish us to ship you the title of your choice, order early. Also, be sure to give us alternative choices whenever possible. We'll always ship your first choice if available. Titles shown here were on hand when the listing was prepared. But, because hundreds of prints are traded in monthly, we may or may not have your selection on hand when your order is received and processed. For that reason, you may receive an out-of-stock notice on your selection and then see the same title listed in the next issue. This often happens, and we've found no way to solve the problem because we cannot know ahead of time just which titles our customers will be trading in. Also, from the time the listing is prepared and you receive the Flyer, many titles will be sold which were listed previously but not requested.

Footages shown are approximate. Note, too, all films of major stars have been listed under separate headings.

Shipping Weights: Up to 200-feet, 11-ozs., 201-400 feet, 14-ozs., above 400-feet figure 1-lb. for each 400-feet of length, or fraction thereof.

Blackhawk Films®

EXCLUSIVE LINE of 35mm 2" COLOR SLIDE SETS

... distinctive slide sets on a vast array of subjects!!!

In many subject areas—particularly travel and railroads—Blackhawk offers a wide range of color slide sets of the same or similar subjects.

There is, however, no duplication of identical individual slides between any one set and another with respect to the specific sets offered here.

All Blackhawk slides give true color fidelity. Using the more expensive reversal method of duplication, Blackhawk produces slides you'd be proud to include with your own... yet they are less expensive to own than are slides you shoot yourself and have processed.

ASPEN ALBUM "THE EARLY DAYS", "GROWING UP", "TODAY & TOMORROW"
This film takes you back to the Aspen of early days, when the town was alive during the time of a silver mine strike. When the mines failed and closed, the population of Aspen dropped to only 500. In the 1930's skiers came to the valley, but it wasn't until the end of World War II, that Aspen began developing the mountains and the town began to re-build.

BLACKHAWK'S NEWSREEL

MORE ON 8MM. PRICES

In our December sales flyer, my Blackhawk's Newsreel column was devoted to Blackhawk prices. In the course of my story, I made reference to Eugene Castle's founding of Castle Films back in the late 1930's, and to the fact that a standare 8mm. film of one reel (150 to 200-feet) was priced then at $4.95 and today at $6.95.

Now, my good friend Murray Goodman, vice president of Castle Films writes me: "Castle Films started its activities in 1937. The price at that time for standard 8 complete editions of approximately 150-to 200-feet was $5.50 rather than the price of $4.95 which you quoted in your Newsreel. The price for specials, such as the "Hindenburg" for complete 8mm. prints, was $7.00."

Thanks, Murray, for setting the record straight. That makes the point all the more dramatic. The increase between 1937 and 1972 is not the 40% I had figured, but about 26-1/2% for standard 8mm. prints. Or, on a "special"—no increase at all!

RASPUTIN—SAINT OR DEVIL?

Film historian, Andrew C. McKay of Philadelphia, often sends us intriguing bits of information, and in a recent letter documented so much of interest about the German-made feature, "Rasputin—Saint or Devil?", that we asked his permission to relay it to our readers.

Mr. McKay writes: "The Blackhawk Sales Flyer #229 front-paged a new film available for sale—namely, "Rasputin—Saint or Devil?"—dated 1930. The ad stated that 'this deserving film was virtually ignored' in America. That may well have been the truth in most of America—since foreign films—especially silent ones—were rarely shown and then only in the 'art theatres' of the period and mostly in larger cities.

"A relative handful of theatres served to show-case foreign imports. However, when this same film was exhibited here in Philadelphia in 1932 it ran for some 14 record-breaking weeks—straight. It played at an art theatre here—then called The Europa—which dealt exclusively with imports or, as it preferred to call itself, 'A Distinctive Motion Picture Salon showing the very best in Foreign Film Entertainment'. This same 'Salon' long ago joined the inevitable—first showing 'tease' films and now out and out Skin Flicks!

"In Philadelphia this film was called 'Rasputin—The Holy Devil'—running through the hot and un-air conditioned months of July, August, September and part of October of 1932. This 1928-produced film was edited and titled by Irvin Shapiro with a 'special Musical Setting' by Herman G. Weinberg. The latter, as you probably know, is and has been for some time, an eminent film critic, historian, author and doubtless the best known foreign film titlist. In New York City—in 1935—this film was called "Rasputin—Sinner or Saint?" All in all, when the film was shown here in Philadelphia that summer (1932) it proved to be a helpful 'coming attraction' for MGM's spectacular 'Rasputin and the Empress' with the Barrymore family—the latter opening here in January of 1933."

HAROLD LLOYD AT KEYSTONE AND IN "LOVE, LOOT AND CRASH"

James J. Mohan of Syosset, N.Y., calls our attention to Harold Lloyd's appearance in two Keystone comedies that have been released by Blackhawk. He writes: "Love, Loot and Crash" has the first of the very few appearances of Harold Lloyd under the Keystone banner. Harold Lloyd is the man standing next to the fruit cart. Another Blackhawk film where Lloyd makes an uncredited appearance is in "Miss Fatty's Seaside Lovers", a discontinued release. Harold Lloyd is between Edgar Kennedy and the other Keystone player. Throughout this film he appears as one of the three seaside lovers."

"Love, Loot and Crash" is still very much in release, and we're giving consideration to bringing back "Miss Fatty's Seaside Lovers" if there is interest in our doing so. But, for those of you who have both or either of these subjects, this information should add interest to your screenings!

MUSICAL MOODS FROM THE SILENT FILMS

Selected and played (piano) by Arthur Kleiner, musical director of the Museum of Modern Art Film Library. "Silent films were never shown in silence." To the pianists and organists of the early movie houses, the studio composers provided various handbooks which enabled them, as it were, to compose their own scores for almost any film — themes marked "misterioso", "storm", "passion", "most impassioned ecstacy", "lurking villain", and "flirtatious vamp" did duty for appropriate passages in hundreds of movies.

On this basis, upon the opening of a Blackhawk charge account, you will be provided with an account number which should appear on all orders from you. Payment for orders shipped and billed during a month are due in Davenport not later than the 15th of the month following. As an example, orders which are shipped and billed to you in December must be paid in full not later than January 15, etc., etc. A Blackhawk charge account will be a particular convenience to our regular customers in that it eliminates the pre-figuring of remittance for postage, and the writing of several checks or the securing of several money orders during a single month.

Fill in completely (type or print) the BLACKHAWK CHARGE ACCOUNT APPLICATION below, sign and return it to us with the $2.00 charge account fee or an order of $10.00 or more. ($2.00 fee, if sent, will be refunded in the event an account is not opened by us.) We'll immediately confirm receipt and let you know as soon as the account is open—and your account number.

BUY ANYTHING OFFERED BY BLACKHAWK ON CONVENIENT MONTHLY PAYMENTS!

Customers in the United States may purchase anything from Blackhawk on convenient time payments.

The following time payment arrangements became effective with the Truth in Lending Act on July 1st, 1969.)

TIME PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

A. Down Payments

Below are the minimum down payments required based on the total amount of your purchase.

On orders totaling $25.00 to $50.00 ..... $ 5.00
On orders totaling $50.01 to $100.00 .... $ 7.50
On orders totaling $100.01 to $125.00 ... $12.50

The amount of your time payment charge and the amount of your monthly payment is determined by the unpaid balance remaining after we have deducted your down payment from the total of your purchase. Thus, the larger you can make your down payment, the lower will be your time payment charges and the smaller will be your monthly payments.

B. Time Payment Charges

Time payment charges are based on the unpaid balance remaining after the deduction of your down payment from the total of your purchase. Here they are scheduled:

On unpaid balances totaling $25.00 to $75.00 ..... $ 5.00
On unpaid balances totaling $75.01 to $125.00 ..... $ 7.50

C. Monthly Payments

As is explained above, the size of your monthly payment is based upon the unpaid balance (including the time payment charge) remaining after deducting your payment from the total of your purchase. Here is the schedule:

On unpaid balances totaling $25.00 to $50.00 ..... $ 5.00
On unpaid balances totaling $50.01 to $100.00 ..... $10.00
On unpaid balances totaling $100.01 to $125.00 ..... $12.50

D. Add-on Orders

New purchases may not be added to existing contracts. A separate contract, requiring a down payment and a time payment charge will be established each time you order. It will be to your advantage, as the time payment charges are fixed figures, to include as many items as possible in each time payment order.

E. Our Action

We've provided this information so that you will know exactly the amount you will owe. However, to help you further, we prepare a time payment schedule for you at the time we ship the merchandise. We show you the exact amount due and the dates on which the amount should be received here in Davenport. So don't let the detail bother you. We'll do the figuring.

OUT OF STOCK ITEMS

Where items are 'temporarily out of stock, we will create a back order, retain sufficient funds to cover shipment and send the item as quickly as our new stock is received. If there is a delay beyond two weeks, we will notify you, giving you any information we may have.

When an item is permanently out of stock, we will send you a credit memo as a refund. We follow the practice of issuing credit memos in such instances because most customers prefer to make another selection. If we return a check, this means that the customer who wants to select another item must then either pay for the cashing of our check and for the writing of another personal check, or must pay for a money order. This can be both inconvenient and expensive. To make alternate selections easy, therefore, we use the credit memorandum system.

If you would prefer a cash refund, just tell us on your order and we will send our bank check rather than a credit memorandum.

BLACKHAWK'S LAY-AWAY PLAN

Blackhawk's Lay-Away Plan costs you not a-penny more than Blackhawk's regular cash price—you pay 10% of the cost of the merchandise with your order, the balance within 90 days at your convenience. As soon as the balance is paid, Blackhawk ships the merchandise! And, Lay-Away is an easy way for you to get those limited availability bargains and sale items, for the moment we get your order, it is physically pulled and set aside for you! Remember—no interest or carrying charge on Lay-Away!

RETURNS

Should you for any reason desire to return items to Blackhawk for credit or for any other reason, YOU MUST RETURN ALL PAPERS INCLUDING YOUR ORIGINAL ORDER WITHIN 10 DAYS from the date you receive it. Because of the thousands of orders we handle, we do not keep copies of all orders, nor a list of the items you purchased. Unless you return the papers listed above, we are not in a position to handle your request without undue delay.

SHIPMENTS OUTSIDE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

Shipments made to Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Fleet Post Offices, Army Post Offices and other overseas locations move through the regular United States Postal System. We are glad to handle such shipments on exactly the same basis as shipments made within continental United States with the exception that no C.O.D.'s will be made outside continental United States.

Where shipments are made to countries other than the United States, payment may be made by letter of credit, by international money order or in any negotiable currency. Where, on any type of payment, you wish to know the exact cost of your merchandise we will be glad to send a proforma invoice—and hold the wanted items—so that a precise amount may be determined. Where checks, money orders or other remittances are made in currencies other than those of the United States, we will immediately clear these funds through our bank. Your order will be suspended until our bank has notified us of the actual credit resulting from this clearance. This usually takes a matter of a week or ten days.

PARCEL POST CHARGES

Shipping weights are given on all mailable merchandise so that you can remit approximate postage charges with your order. Just add up shipping weights on all items to be shipped by Parcel Post and figure total pounds (16 ounces to a pound).

A phone call to your local post office will get you information as to your zone from Davenport, or you can estimate it on the basis of distance as given in the table below. Alaska, Hawaii and territories of the United States are in the 8th zone from Davenport.

APO/FPO addresses in San Francisco and Seattle are charged as the 8th zone from Davenport. APO/FPO addresses in New York are charged as the 5th zone from Davenport.

Then, having determined the total shipping weight of your order and the zone in which you are located from Davenport, refer to the table below to determine the amount of postage to include when placing your cash order. (There is no need to figure this in advance on C.O.D. or Time Payment orders as actual postage charges will be billed to you.) We will send a credit voucher for any overpayment of postage which may be applied on your next order.

READ BEFORE YOU ORDER

Blackhawk Films' prices do not include postage. Shipping weights are given with each item and you can compute the approximate total weight and postage charges by referring to the postage table given below. While weights of a single shipment to virtually all post offices in continental United States are limited to 40 pounds, shipments to the states of Alaska and Hawaii may run as heavy as 70 pounds. These two states are in the eighth zone, and Blackhawk customers can approximate the correct postage to remit by figuring 18c per pound for each pound above twenty. The same formula applies to all U.S. Territories and Protectorates.

Some larger and heavier items, because of size and weight, are not mailable and will thus be shipped to you by express or freight, you paying the transportation charges on delivery. In general, shipments of size and weight requiring express or freight transportation will not be forwarded on a C.O.D. basis.

FOUR SEASONS AT RATON PASS

Photographed by William H. McKenzie

The fame of Raton Pass dates from the days of the Santa Fe Trail. With the building of the Santa Fe Railway, it became a major obstacle to the movement of trains. All through the era of steam, triple-headers over the pass were not uncommon—with more steam on behind.

While the characteristics of the diesel-electric locomotive have made the battle against Raton's grades easier, it still remains an impediment to operating efficiency. It still takes time and power and men to conquer it.

In our film we see modern day operations in the closing period of the Santa Fe's operations of its famed passenger trains, The Chief, The Super Chief and the El Capitan. And we see the Santa Fe's great variety of diesel power including second generation locomotives from both EMD and GE. All in the variety of all four seasons of the year.

WINTER RAILROADING IN THE COLORADO ROCKIES

Photographed by William H. McKenzie

Colorado railroading has always had its own special appeal. With most of the highest mountains in the 48-states and high passes through which the earliest bands of steel crossed the divide, pictures of struggling trains with steam locomotives ahead and behind were synonymous with railroading in the "Mile High" state. Today, even with more powerful diesel locomotives, freights still fight their way up mountain grades, and helper locomotives are still needed to get the tonnage over the top. Thus it is with the Rio Grande from Minturn (near Vail) east to Tennessee Pass in central Colorado. And in this film we see both first and second generation freight diesels as they move long freights through the Rockies, against a background of winter snow and winter storms.

MELIES—AT THE OPERA AND ELSEWHERE

In Faust and Marguerite 1904, Melies follows the story line of Gounod's opera scene by scene, from Mephistopheles' initial appearance in Faust's study to the prison scene, where Faust is taken to hell and Marguerite escorted to heaven by a choir of angels. The various stage sets are elaborate and highly picturesque, but the story would not be comprehensible to one who was not already familiar with it. In "The Revenant" a guest in a rented room has trouble with his candle, which insists on traveling to the other side of the table, momentarily enlarges itself until it almost reaches the ceiling, and finally sets his paper on fire. Next he is harassed first by the apparition of a woman and then by a weird, dancing creature in white garments. In Au Clair de la Lune 1904, Pierrot seranades his lady from the garden and is set upon by the servants of the house at the instigation of (presumably) her father. He is rescued by being taken to the moon, where a lovely lady awaits him. Simultaneously the father (?) is transformed into an old gaffer whom his servants fail to recognize. They beat him and refuse him into his old mansion.

BEAU REVEL

(1921)

Lewis Stone, Florence Vidor, Lloyd Hughes

Beau Revel was a dandy—a dude who lived to please his own vanity. He had a power over women, knew it and gave them a month at the outside to fall in love with him. But when his son falls in love, Beau imagined the worse and struck a deal—two weeks to discover if Nelly Steel was vice or virtue.

A tense drama filled with unusual character studies, Beau Revel came from the pen of noted fiction writer Louis Joseph Vance and was faithfully adapted to the screen by Luther Reed under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince. Florence Vidor delivers her usual sterling performance, making this Ince-Paramount release of March 20, 1921 one you won't want to miss.

WITH LOVE AND HISSES

starring STAN LAUREL OLIVER HARDY

with Jimmy Finlayson

They're in the Army now—and while it seems that Stan and Ollie's sole purpose in life is to drive crusty Jimmy Finlayson mad, they're only trying to be good soldiers. But isn't trying half the laughs?

Although With Love and Hisses features the boys prominently together, it was made in the months before the two were officially considered a team. For the Laurel & Hardy fan, this comedy exhibits a development of their comic styles which would shortly result in one of the screen's most beloved comedy duos; for others, it's just plain hilarious!

GOING TO CONGRESS

starring Will Rogers

During the 1920's and the early 1930's one of Will Rogers chief targets in his syndicated newspaper columns were Congressmen and Senators. He generally regarded them about one step higher than a used car salesman. It was particularly appropriate therefore that in his comedies, made in the early twenties, he took pokes at congress. This is one of the best.

Things look so bad for the party in the upcoming election that it runs Will as the candidate. A slip of the tongue and he wins, heading for the Amusement Center of the world—Washington, D.C., and a new career.

Will Rogers' political satire was sharp and timely and he made several telling points about the operation of a free society in several of his Roach comedies of 1923-24. After introducing his "ideal" political creature in Alfalfa Doolittle, Will carried him through a series of adventures in government, beginning with Going To Congress.

FIDDLESTICKS

starring Harry Langdon

with Vernon Dent

One of the choice Harry Langdon comedies not in evidence in recent years.

In spite of his diploma proclaiming him a "naturalized" musician, Harry Hogan's family throws him out. Dad thinks he's a loafer who hasn't contributed to the family welfare for years.

Alone and destitute, Harry's musical career takes a distinctly different turn as he discovers that there is money in music—if you play it right, all you have to do is pick it up! Harry Langdon's final short comedy before leaving Sennett for feature work at First National, Fiddlesticks remains one of his most memorable and a delightful example of the comedy routines used by a sad little clown who was once mentioned in the same breath with Chaplin, Keaton and Lloyd.

As wagon train guide Buckskin Hamilton, Bill Hart heads for Westport Landing on the Missouri River to meet his brother Billy, who's just graduated from medical school. But a crooked card game and tragedy combine to leave Billy dead.

Searching out those responsible, Hart discovers that Jane Novac is the culprit, but he doesn't believe her confession. Carrying out his own investigation, Bill confirms his suspicion that her brother is guilty and has somehow managed to convince her that she did it. BEN TURPIN in

IDLE EYES

(1928)

Lady Luck has been kicking Ben in the pants for years. Now all of a sudden, he's the most popular guy in town—it seems that everybody wants to catch him!

Of course, it's all because he's just inherited a fortune, but nobody's bothered to tell him of his good luck. In fact, no one knows where he is until a reward is posted and then our hero is fair game for all. Bewildered at the change of heart, Ben suspects a trick and the resulting escapades as he eludes each pursuer will keep your Idle Eyes busy, if you can stop laughing long enough.

SWEET AND TWENTY (1909)

starring

MARY PICKFORD, BILLY QUIRK

Mary and Billy are lovers, but she quarrels with him bitterly when she finds him kissing her sister in the parlor. Actually the boy is quite innocent, for both girls wear curls, and when he saw the sister from behind, he supposed her to be Mary. When Mary refuses to forgive Billy, he rushes down to the river to drown himself, but his determination wavers when he finds the water uncomfortably cold. Mary pursues him over the fields and begs his forgiveness on her knees after which they are reconciled.

This picture in itself is nothing much, but Mary is everything. She was only sixteen when Sweet and Twenty was made, and she was never more delightful. (Incidentally the screen seldom gave her an opportunity to be so delightfully flirtatious.)

ART ACORD in

THE EXTRA MAN AND THE MILK FED LION

(1916)

(Slightly Abridged)

It's Art Acord as Buck Parvin in this 1916 adaptation of Charles E. Van Loan's Saturday Evening Post popular story. As the Titan Moving Picture Company's chief hero, Art battles everything from Indians to rustlers, all for the movie camera.

But in addition to giving Acord fans a treat, The Extra Man and The Milk-Fed Lion also gives an excellent behind-the-scenes look at early picture making and American's Santa Barbara studio, with emphasis on that special magic that made the movies so popular a half-century ago—trickery.

BOBBY VERNON and DOROTHY DEVORE in

ALL JAZZED UP

(1920)

Guess who falls for the old stock swindle—country boy Bobby! His new wife isn't too happy with the big city and while tycoon Bobby is tied up with high-flying finance, she discovers Angel's Flight.

Returning to their hotel, Bobby finds a note telling him to meet her there and he imagines the worst—she's committed suicide. While he thinks up ways to join her in heaven, the swindlers discover that they've been beaten at their own game and between good-hearted strangers, his business associates and Fate, our hero is foiled in his scheme. All's well that ends well, but Bobby came out too far ahead in this delightful period piece.

THE MODERN PRODIGAL

Guy Hedlund, George Nichols and Kate Bruce

An escaping convict (Guy Hedlund) sees a boy drowning in the river and risks life and freedom to save him. The boy turns out to be the son of the local sheriff (George Nichols), who finds himself torn between gratitude and his fidelity as a sworn officer of the law. But, when he leaves the convict in the charge of his wife, she gets her husband off the hook by accidentally on purpose placing a suit of clothes beside the convict and then falling asleep.

This is a tightly-knit drama in which the convict and his problems are brought into the life of the sheriff and his family in a natural and convincing way. Though physical suspense is not absent, the real emphasis is on the ethical problem—the struggle between compassion and a sense of duty. Guy Hedlund disappeared early from Biograph, but Nichols and Kate Bruce worked for Griffith for many years.
