THE NBC UNIVERSITY THEATRE OF THE AIR

Radio drama was seldom better than this. These adaptations of modern novels were originally tied to college supervised home-study courses. (Sounds like the hoped for video world of the 1980's, what?) Intermission time features a known critic or author of the time talking about the writer whose work we hear. The show was planned into semesters with each featuring British and American authors of a certain era. The series was directed by Andrew C. Love of Hollywood.

"It's a Gift" stars Snub Pollard who has invented a substitute for gas, but miracle fuel makes cars go crazy before they explode! "Barney Oldfield's Race for a Life" is an old-fashioned melodrama timeless in appeal. It features Barney Oldfield. "Kids Auto Race", Charlie Chaplin's second film gives birth to the tramp character, and "Busy Day" finds Charlie in drag. The final sidebustler is cross-eyed Ben Turpin as an endangered stuntman in "Daredevil". PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1925) (scored with musical sound) has strange things happening at the Paris Opera House. The story is a classic and this the first filmed version lives up to it spectacularly. Stars Lon Chaney. ERUPTION: ST. HELENS EXPLODES (talkie) is the actual coverage of the 1980 blast and devastation caused when the only currently active volcano in the continental U.S. exploded.

Stan plays the portable organ, and Ollie plays the viol. Business isn't too good until they notice they are next to an institution for the deaf. Moving on, their rendition of "In the Good Old Summertime" irritates Charlie Hall who is shoveling snow. Stan and Ollie are a vaudeville team enroute from one theater to another. Catching a train becomes a problem when Stan loses the music. A passenger trips over their cello as they all scramble aboard. When Ollie asks how they can perform without music, Stan suggests they fake it. It's time to find a seat, but Stan sits on a midget and a passenger's hat before they get settled. They are then put in the upper berth of an open section Pullman for the evening. While the space is confined, the laughs are not. 21 min. BW

MIDNIGHT PATROL (1933) STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY, CHARLIE HALL, TINY SANDFORD

In most cases when Laurel and Hardy dealt with the law, they were on the wrong side . . . either by choice or by chance.

In MIDNIGHT PATROL they prove no more adept at crime busting than they are at crime causing.

Despite nearly having their squad car stolen, unwittingly aiding a burglar, and almost wrecking their Police Chief's house, the boys do apprehend a crook. Wonder of wonders. 21 min. BW

THE MUSIC BOX (1932) STAN LAUREL, OLIVER HARDY, BILLY GILBERT, CHARLIE HALL

In it, Stan and Ollie must deliver a piano to Professor Theodore von Schwarzenhoffen.

The good professor's house, however, is only reachable by a long flight of steps . . . a very long, very steep group of steps to be sure.

From then on things run from predictable to the nutso with tie-twiddling, the inevitable cop, a ridiculing nursemaid with baby carriage, and more.

THE MUSIC BOX is a rich, well-edited and perfectly executed example of frustration comedy. It's also Laurel and Hardy's only Oscar-winning film. 30 min. BW

EDGAR KENNEDY, CHARLIE HALL

Stan and Ollie are two sailors on leave who pick-up a pair of easily impressed young ladies for a joy ride in the country. En route they encounter a massive traffic jam. Ollie intervenes, but motorists' tempers flare and nearly every Model T on the road is more or less systematically pulled apart, crushed, smashed, or otherwise disfigured. More than a hundred cars were used in filming. 22 min. BW

H LOVE BUSINESS² (1931)

Jackie Cooper has a crush on his pretty schoolteacher, Miss Crabtree; every night in bed he keeps his little brother Wheezer awake as he hugs and kisses his imaginary sweetheart and calls her lovey-dovey names. One day Jackie gets a piece of news that hits like a thunderbolt: Miss Crabtree is coming to live with his family! This means washing before every meal, and along with Wheezer and his sister Mary Ann, keeping an eye on dinner etiquette. But it also means having to put up with a romantic rival, as Chubby drops by to ask Miss Crabtree to marry him. Jackie heckles his adversary, but the love-scene comes to a definite halt when Jackie's mother recognizes the mushy sentiments Chubby is dishing out. He's memorized her old love letters, which Wheezer has been selling!

LOVE BUSINESS is a typically amusing and appealing short from the early-talkie period, featuring that idolized schoolmarm, Miss Crabtree, played by June Marlowe. In one scene, the Hal Roach filmmakers play a subtle inside-joke; Chubby practices love-making in front of the local movie theatre, when a giant photo shows a typically sappy movie couple — Charley Chase and Thelma Todd! 21 min. READIN' AND WRITIN'² (1932)
 Summer vacation is over, and Breezy's mother sends the youngster reluctantly off to school once again, telling him that she wants him to be a good pupil and grow up to be President . . . but Breezy would rather be a streetcar conductor! Wise-guy Breezy decides that the easiest way to get out of going to school is to get himself expelled, and the easiest way to accomplish that feat is to prepare a parade of pranks and practical jokes on schoolteacher Miss Crabtree and her unsuspecting class. The culmination of smart aleck indignities comes when Breezy leads a mule into the classroom, leaving Miss Crabtree to snoot the stubborn animal away as best she can — to the laughing delight of her pupils. Breezy finally gets expelled, and the teacher warns that he cannot return until he apologizes, and commits to memory a silly poem read to the class by sniveling little apple-polisher Sherwood. Breezy is now a free man, but he finds to his surprise that being the only boy not in school during the day isn't much fun at all. He is haunted by the admonition to learn Sherwood's poem, and finally does, sheepishly returning to recite the sissy "daffodil" verse in front of jeering classmates, as tears roll down his face.

READIN' AND WRITIN' successfully combines comedy, sentiment, and true Americana — its heart and humor are entirely typical of the best Our Gang can offer.

This was the last of director Bob McGowan's Our Gang entries with lovely June Marlowe as everybody's ideal schoolteacher, Miss Crabtree, who, as always, takes it on the chin more than once in witty question and answer exchanges with students. 21 min. BW

 CHARLIE CHAPLIN, PAULETTE GODDARD

Chaplin plays a dual role in this, his first dialogue film: the modest, unassuming proprietor of a small barber shop in the Jewish ghetto of Tomania, and that country's maniacal dictator, Adenoid Hynkel. Through a complicated set of circumstances, Hynkel and the barber become mistaken for one another by Hynkel's troops. Forced into an impersonation of Hynkel at a mass rally celebrating Tomania's successful invasion of Austerlich, the barber steps even further out of character and becomes Charles Chaplin. His impassioned speech on the evils of militarism, delivered directly to the audience, created an instant sensation, and Chaplin was asked twice to repeat it on network radio broadcasts. 128 min. BW

LORENA CARR

The trials and tribulations of pharmacist Fields makes this Fields' show from beginning to end. W. C. finds two elderly ladies who wish a woman clerk to wait on them. Another customer comes in for a stamp — but insists on having it out of the middle of the sheet! A gangster runs into the store with gun blazing. Lorena's boy friend, Grady, who has just brought her home, has waited to call her from the pay phone in the store. Fields has had a low opinion of him, but now Grady wins out. The gangster is just outside the phonebooth door — and Grady opens the door and clobbers him — and Grady becomes the hero of the moment! 19 min. BW

Blackhawk Biographies

Laurel and Hardy began as a team at Hal Roach Studios in 1926. Laurel had been Chaplin's roommate and understudy in Karno Theatrical Troupe. He was in vaudeville for a decade when he joined Roach, first to star in his own series, then as a writer, and finally as the "L" of L&H.

Babe Hardy entered showbiz as a singer and went into films in 1913 as a villain.

As a team, Laurel and Hardy made 105 films which were largely ignored by critics until the 1950's.

Each was the other's dumbfunny foil. As their comedy evolved, they made millions laugh.

Both are gone now, but their effect on comedy continues.

Born 1889 in London to vaudevillian parents, Chaplin grew up in poverty. He came to America as a member of the Karno Theatrical Troupe. Mack Sennett and Mabel Normand attended a show and soon Chaplin was under contract to Keystone. At Keystone he learned the film medium and slapstick. From Keystone he went to Essanay, where he continued to develop the Tramp character, adding pathos to his repertoire of pantomime. Dissatisfied, Chaplin signed a spectacular contract with Mutual for $50,000 upon signing and $10,000 a week: $670,000 in all! At Mutual he made his greatest comedy shorts, at least 3 of the 12 are indisputable classics. From Mutual, Chaplin went into a transition phase at First National. There his work was uneven and his personal life difficult. In 1919, he, Fairbanks, Pickford and Griffith founded United Artists. In 1925 Chaplin released his first UA picture, THE GOLD RUSH, a feature length masterpiece, followed by CITY LIGHTS and MODERN TIMES. In later years, Chaplin's output dwindled. He became a political exile from the U.S. This poet of comedy died in 1977.

THE MARX BROS.

ANIMAL CRACKERS² (1930) MARX BROTHERS

"Hooray for Captain Spaulding! Here is a classic as uproariously funny as it was 50 years ago. Includes Groucho's African lecture 'One morning I shot an elephant in my pajamas. How he got into my pajamas, I don't know,' and the card game which Harpo and Chico play with the wealthy society woman Mrs. Rittenhouse."

Groucho is Rufus T. Firefly, the screwball monarch of Freedonia. Assisted ably by his mad and maddening brothers, Rufus dictates you name it, he'll dictate it. Their improvisational powers of visual humor and insult are in peak anarchic form here.

This is pointed political satire, pure and insane. Francois Truffaut once compared this and Chaplin's SHOULDER ARMS as the only valid anti-war films ever made. They both refuse to take war seriously. 72 min. BW

Perhaps their best film, it includes dozens of hilarious moments. Chico and Groucho haggling over an opera star's contract; the stateroom scene where dozens of the most improbable characters crowd into a ship's cabin, not much bigger than a Volkswagen; the Brother's impersonation of Russian aviators on a New York goodwill tour; their evasion of the obnoxious detective by shifting furniture from one room to another; and of course, the final sequence in which they "do it" to "Il Trovatore" as no one has done it before or since. 96 min. B GRANDMA'S BOY¹ (1922)

HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS,
ANNA TOWNSEND,
CHARLES STEVENSON, NOAH YOUNG,
DICK SUTHERLAND

GRANDMA'S BOY clearly established Harold Lloyd as one of the screen's leading comedians. Harold plays a young boy who thinks of himself as a coward. His grandmother tells him about his grandfather . . . a coward who was inspired to daring exploits by carrying a witch's lucky charm. She gives Harold the charm which is nothing more than the head of her cane, and leads a posse to capture the town bully. Lloyd's personal favorite among his films. The original 35mm film has intermittent white vertical streaks. This "flairing" is normal for this subject and no better print is available. This condition does not detract from the enjoyment of this film. 53 min. BW

HAUNTED SPOOKS (1920)
HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS

Poor Harold is unlucky in love. He loses every girl he loves to the other guy. Even suicide fails. Then along comes Hillary, who needs a husband to inherit a house. It's wedding bells for Harold but he gains a haunted house in the bargain. Although HAUNTED SPOOKS marked Lloyd's return to the screen after a bad accident, reviewers hailed it as his best comedy to that time. It's ingeniously simple in conception and filled with cleverly executed gags. 20 min. BW

HOT WATER (1924)
HAROLD LLOYD, JOBYNA RALSTON,
JOSEPHINE CROWELL,
CHARLES STEVEN, MICKEY MCBAN

This abridgment focuses primarily on two of Lloyd's finest and funniest gag sequences. Harold wins a turkey he doesn't want. When he takes it home via the streetcar the bird ends up under a woman's skirt and Harold ends up walking. In the next scene Harold is forced to take his wife's family for a ride in his new car. Thanks to the mother-in-law's constant interference they collide with a streetcar. 24 min. BW Abr.

THE KID BROTHER (1927)
HAROLD LLOYD, JOBYNA RALSTON

Poor Harold is the youngest of three sons living with their father, the sheriff a widower. Father and brothers are real heroes, but Harold is just a boy. When the men go to town he is left at home, for it is no place for boys. During a fantasy of being a hero, Harold meets Mary Powers who is travelling with Prof. Powers' Original Mammoth Medicine Show and two shady characters.

As the story unfolds, our shy and weak KID BROTHER proves to Mary and himself that he can be as effective as any of his family. Through some violence, "monkey-business" and loads of side splitting humor, our boy recovers the stolen money, rounds up the crooks, takes care of the bully, wins his girl, and makes his father proud.

NEVER WEAKEN (1921)
HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS

Take hair-raising action, play it for laughs, and you have the formula Harold Lloyd used to establish himself as one of the funniest comedians of all time. In NEVER WEAKEN the breezy go-getter is driven to despair; Harold hires an acrobat to generate business for a doctor's office where his fiance works. When a crowd gathers around an unhealthy looking specimen Harold hides while the acrobat flips and falls. Harold runs to the rescue and administers aid. After what looks like a miracle cure Harold passes out the doctor's business cards. Soon a stream of patients fill the doctor's office, but when Harold peeks in to gloat he finds his betrothed embracing another man! He resigns himself to suicide but every attempt (poison, jumping out the window, and shooting himself) fails. 26 min. BW

A SAILOR MADE MAN (1921)
HAROLD LLOYD, MILDRED DAVIS,

Idle rich boy meets girl. This time her father sets down the law, "make a name for yourself if you want to become my son-in-law" he makes perfectly clear. Lloyd joins the Navy to accomplish this goal. The girl invites Harold to a cruise on her father's yacht and so Harold returns to the recruiting station to cancel his enlistment. Too late. He is stationed on a dreadnought and off to the high seas.

Granted shore leave when they reach Khaipur-Bhankanna he meets the girl who has arrived at the same port of call. She is kidnapped by the natives and after a series of futile attempts to get in the palace, Harold makes a daring rescue of his lady love from the Maharajah. 33 min. BW

THE CANNON BALL/
THE EYES HAVE IT

"The Eyes Have It" made in 1928 stars Ben Turpin with Georgia O'Dell, Helen Gilmore and Jack Lipson. Ben needs a day away from mother-in-law, but things go badly until he rescues a young lady and she invites him to her apartment. But the hounds are already on his trail — wifey and her mother smell a rat and guess who they catch, up to his neck in a compromising situation?

"The Cannon Ball" made in 1915 stars Chester Conklin. Here it's pandemonium in the Boom Powder factory when explosives expert Chester arrives to inspect operations. His methods are most unusual, but you must admit the wily little cuss knows his powder and his women!

But as sharp as he is, Chester's no match for the dim-witted Keystone Cops once they swing into action in this rousing melee of trick photography and high-flying actors. Score by Robert Isreal. 41 min. BW

LAUGHFEST

Five classic slapstick shorts by four of the greatest make "Laughfest" a ticklish riot. "It's a Gift" stars Snub Pollard with an invention for everything. The film opens with "a meeting of oil magnets, brokers, and a few honest men." Pollard has invented a substitute for gas, but his non-flammable, miracle fuel makes cars go crazy before they explode! "Barney Oldfield's Race for a Life" is an old fashioned melodrama timeless in appeal. It features the most famous race car driver of the period — Barney Oldfield, "fastest man on wheels". "Kid's Auto Race", Chaplin's second film, gives birth to the tramp character, and "Busy Day" finds Charlie in drag. Then it's cross-eyed Ben Turpin in the endangered stuntman in "Daredevil". TONY ROBERTS, SUSAN ANSPACH

The first Diane Keaton-Woody Allen film. A movie buff (aren't we all) fanatic who keeps dreaming Bogart is giving tips on "how to make it with the ladies". His marriage goes astray, friends try to fix him up with other eligible young ladies, but he fails with them all. He's most comfortable with his best friend's wife. A superb CASABLANCA classical ending. Diane Keaton and Woody Allen make as great a team today as Laurel and Hardy did yesterday. 85 min.

THE RAINBOW PARADE (1934-36)

Animator/director Burt Gillette's RAINBOW PARADE contains some of the lushest and most subtly textured color work to be found in animation. The RAINBOW PARADE centers around the characters, Felix the Cat, Molly Moo Cow, and the Toonerville Folks. In BOLD KING COLE, only Felix can save the King from the family ghosts. Felix searches out a companion for his goldfish, Annabelle in NEPTUNES NONSENSE. Animated by Fontaine Fox and directed by Burt Gillette, the Toonerville Folks series (TOONERVILLE TROLLEY, and TOONERVILLE PICNIC) are all typified by lively music, fantastic yet gentle comedy and brilliant technicolor. Based on the famous radio money giveaway show of the same name, POT 'O GOLD was James Roosevelt's first and last movie production. Political connections enabled him to hire Hollywood's best talent. A forerunner of the big, flashy musicals, the plot revolves around a big band's struggle for their "big break". An oddball delight. 86 min. BW

SHALL WE DANCE² (1937)
FRED ASTAIRE, GINGER ROGERS,
EDWARD EVERETTE HORTON

Musical with a Gershwin score. Ginger is the snobbish musical comedy star who couldn't care less that ballet star Astaire has fallen for her. She isn't interested in him at all, until they dance together. They weave magic in the air with "They Can't Take That Away From Me", and "Let's Call The Whole Thing Off". SING YOUR WORRIES

BUDDY EBSEN, BERT LAHR, JUNE HAVOC,
THE KING SISTERS
Two songs writers try everything they can think of to become paid song writers. The great Bert Lahr mugs and carries on while Buddy dances and plays the piano. The King Sisters sing beautifully, and look equally as beautiful. The plot is complicated when the two innocents and their girl friends get entangled in a giant swindle. This is a fluffy funny film. A great addition to every collection. 71 min. BW

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN¹ (1952)
GENE KELLY, DEBBIE REYNOLDS,
DONALD O'CONNOR, JEAN HAGEN

An exuberant, song-filled satire of Hollywood in the last days of the silent era. Gene Kelly's first "talkie" threatens to be a disaster due to the leading lady's squeaky voice until it is decided to dub Debbie Reynolds's voice in over the leading lady's. Energetic Kelly is "Fit as a Fiddle and Ready for Love". Reynolds inspires him to merrily hoof it out-of-doors in the unforgettable number, "Singin' in the Rain". "Moses Supposes" and "You Are My Lucky Star" are also heard in this section. "Good Morning" opens part two as sung by Gene and Debbie. A lover's spat calls forth "Make 'Em Laugh". Here O'Connor dances up walls! Kelly and Charisse dance to "Broadway Ballet." Abr.

BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY² (1927)

Director Walter Ruttmann's famous BERLIN: SYMPHONY OF A GREAT CITY is one of the most influential non-fiction silent films.

On the surface it records everyday events: a railroad arriving from a suburb, factories opening, street filling, traffic jamming, an evening at a cabaret, etc.

But it's also a social commentary when it contrasts the simple meals of diners with the huge ones served at the Berlin Zoo . . . or a suicide at dusk.

And it's a lesson on the art of film with images piling on images. 68 min. BW

NANOOK OF THE NORTH¹ (1922)

Robert Flaherty, an explorer turned filmmaker, had spent 20 years in the North before he started this documentary.

Working at temperatures well below his camera's capabilities, Flaherty filmed on intelligent, almost allegorical record of Eskimo customs and Nanook's skills and humor. More amazing yet was Flaherty's ability to capture the warmth and tenderness Nanook and his family feel as they "conjur" food, shelter and clothing from the bitter Arctic. 91 min. BW

FLIGHTS AND FLYERS: AMELIA EARHART²

See her pilot an autogiro, a ticker-tape parade in New York following her trans-Atlantic trip, receiving the National Geographic Award from President Hoover. Also arriving at Newark after completing a cross country flight in 17 hours and some moments, and that after spending about 2 1/2 hours on the ground for canopy repairs. Then on to Honolulu by ship. Next, a new Lockheed comes to her by way of Purdue University where she is now on the faculty. In this new plane, she does tests at Burbank and finally leaves in 1937 ready to circle the Earth at the equator. She takes off from San Francisco toward Hawaii. In Honolulu on take-off the plane ground loops and crashes. Amelia goes back home by ship vowing she'll do it yet. Finally, we see her taking off from Miami toward Puerto Rico. 11 min. BW

The History of the Motion Picture

Produced by Paul Killiam and Saul Turell

THE HISTORY OF THE MOTION PICTURE is a unique series of half-hours tracing the development of the 20th Century art of filmmaking.

Some units are condensations containing carefully chosen highlights and key scenes from great classics. Others present anthropologically selected materials from many sources on specific themes: comedy styles, individual stars, directional techniques, etc. New musical scores enhance interest for today's audiences, and thoughtful narration pinpoints the significance of each sequence in movie history, recalling the challenges faced by the craftsmen who made them.

The 16mm. sound prints are ordered from Blackhawk with the understanding that they will not be copied, reproduced, transferred to other media, leased, re-distributed on a rental basis, used theatrically or for television of any kind, all of which rights are expressly reserved.

An eerie thriller about a group of travelers stranded on a small island in Greece during a plague epidemic. Karloff is a general who goes to the island to visit the grave of his wife. He and the war correspondent that accompanies him are quarantined to the island when the plague takes the life of a salesman. One by one they die until Karloff turns from a faith in science to the superstition of an evil spirit. An epileptic woman goes into a trance and is presumed dead from plague. She is nailed into her coffin alive and survivors turn on her young nurse believing she possesses an evil spirit. Driven mad but alive the woman escapes from the coffin to roam and kill. Directed with excellent timing to shock and suggest. Coffin sequences one of the single most chilling moments in the history of the screen! 72 min. BW

ARTHUR WONTNER, IAN FLEMING,
LYN HARDING

A dog that didn't bark, a curry dinner, a telegram from a small village, and a man who isn't interested in football are the clues used by Sherlock Holmes to foil Professor Moriarty in this film based on the short story "Silver Blaze" by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Arthur Wontner, a Basil Rathbone look-alike was Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's personal choice to play Holmes. Judging by Wontner's performance, a mixture of wry humor, complete confidence, and cool aloofness, Doyle was right. Holmes received an invitation to visit Sir Henry Baskervilles at his estate. The vacation is short-lived as Baskervilles' daughter's fiancé is accused of stealing Silver Blaze, a race horse, and murdering the horse's keeper. A suspenseful mystery full of surprises! 67 min. OUTSIDE THE LAW (1921)

LON CHANEY, PRISCILLA DEAN,
RALPH LEWIS, E. A. WARREN,
WHEELER OAKMAN

The original negative of OUTSIDE THE LAW was destroyed, and until the mid-seventies no prints were thought to exist. Happily Bob Deflores did locate a print of this mystery in which Lon Chaney, the master of make-up, plays 3-parts.

The print, however, was somewhat damaged. So extensive restoration was necessary. As now offered, these prints are good, but do contain some flaws near the end.

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA (1925)

LON CHANEY, MARY PHILBIN,
NORMAN KERRY

Strange things are happening at the Paris Opera House.

Deep beneath it lurks a scarred genius methodically plotting revenge. He's a creature so hideous that he strikes terror into everyone . . . including the prima donna his tutoring has brought success.

The story is a classic that this 1925 movie, the first filmed version, lives up to spectacularly.

Lon Chaney, Sr.'s acting brought never-again-equalled power and scope to the title role. Director Rupert Julien kept the action moving. And the highly unusual colored masked ball sequence shocked audiences used to black and white. A masterpiece of horror. 79 min. Part Color

Soon he was hired by Sears to present the Gene Autry Program weekly on WLS. Immensely popular, he received 50,000 fan letters per month. MELODY RANCH² (1942)

GENE AUTRY, JIMMY DURANTE,
GEORGE "GABBY" HAYES, ANN MILLER

Melody Ranch is not only the title of this movie, it is also the title of the radio show that Gene and the boys star on in New York City every week. There is also a ranch named Melody Ranch that Gene has decided to return to when he retires. Ann Miller has the role of "Rosie", his on-mike sweetheart. Off mike, this is really a case of her chasing him until he catches her. Gene is visited by George "Gabby" Hayes who invites him and his companions to Gene Autry Day in Torpedo. Once there, Gene is forced to defend not only his honor but that of "Rosie" and all of the decent folks of the town. Gene finally runs for the job of sheriff and is elected. As Sheriff, he handily cleans up the town. There is plenty of music throughout. It is easy to understand why Gene Autry is so popular. He means good entertainment. 84 min. BW

Perfectly captures the hip scenes of mid-sixties London. A hedonistic photographer records pop culture all around him but cannot come to grips with the significance of his own existence. A casual photo session in a park leads to discovery of a murder and now the photographer must face real danger as well as some difficult moral questions.

The locations, the photography and the unique thriller of this film have been in part absorbed by other filmmakers, but no one has succeeded in duplicating it. 102 min.

In the beginning there were many pioneers: the Frenchmen Lumiere and Melies plus the American Edison were among them.

Comparing to the films these men produced, the earlier magic lantern shows and shadow plays were undynamic, one dimensional and mundane.

In 1895 all that changed. That year French audiences were astonished to see a train move toward the camera in a production by Lumiere.

After Lumiere refused to sell Georges Melies a camera or explain how his worked, Melies set out to create one himself.

Melies succeeded and used his machine as a showman's tool, emphasizing both movement and magic. He had grasped the fantastic possibilities of film. His sets, effects and techniques were remarkable achievements then . . . and today remain spectacular.

INTOLERANCE (1916)

MAE MARSH, ROBERT HARRON, MIRIAM COOPER,

CONSTANCE TALMADGE, ERICH VON STROHEIM, LILLIAN GISH

Although less financially successful than his earlier BIRTH OF A NATION, D.W. Griffith's INTOLERANCE is regarded as his most important work.

Using the image of a mother rocking a cradle as a bridge, Griffith skillfully wove four separate, but parallel stories (The Fall of Babylon, the Crucifixion of Christ, the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre of French Huguenots and a more modern story) into one whole. The magificently achieved purpose: to illustrate the struggle between love and intolerance through the ages.

IT² (1927)

CLARA BOW, GARY COOPER, ANTONIO MORENO

"To have 'It', the fortunate possessor must have that strange magnetism which attracts both sexes. 'It' is a purely virile quality, belonging to a strong character. He or she must be entirely unself-conscious and full of self-confidence, indifferent to the effect he or she is producing, and uninfluenced by others. There must be physical attraction, but beauty is unnecessary. Conceit or self-consciousness destroys 'It' immediately."

Clara Bow, a saucy department store worker is out to land the store owner and isn't doing well, until she gets in on his yachting trip and with her wiles and 'It' wins her man. Score by William Perry.

SPIES (1929)

RUDOLF KLEIN-ROGG, GERDA MAURUS, LIEN DEYERS, WILLY FRITSCH

True, or not, this thriller definitely displays Lang's directional virtuosity. 89 min. BW

Collector's Card buy 12 and get the 13th one FREE!

SAVES YOU MONEY

Every video program you buy at regular price counts toward a FREE one.

SIMPLE TO USE

Just send in your personal Collector's Card with each order and we do all the updating of your record and send the card back to you so you can see just where you stand.

HOW IT WORKS

When you order either a videocassette or videodisc at regular price, we will create a Collector's Card for you. We send you your copy and we keep the record copy here in our files.

Whenever you order at regular prices, just send in your card and we'll validate your copy and our copy for the number of titles purchased at regular price. (When you order by phone, we create a new card for you with each order.)

When you have made 12 purchases at regular price you may then select any title that has a selling price not in excess of $50.00 for videocassette Collector's Card or not in excess of $20.00 for videodisc Collector's Card and we'll ship the title you have selected absolutely FREE.

If you wish a title that sells for more, just send the card and the difference in price for the title you want.

Because of telephone orders, or because you may forget to send your card sometimes, it is possible that you will have more than one card. If the total validations on all the cards equals 12, just send them off with your order. (Phone customers will have to mail in the cards with the FREE order as we must have both parts of the card to honor the FREE order.)

You cannot mix videocassette and videodisc Cards. We do require 12 purchases within the same format to qualify for the FREE title.

We will then issue a new card for you with the very next regular price purchase.

Send your order today, and get started on your very own Collector's Card.

FILM EXCHANGE

Exchange your Super 8, Standard 8mm, 16mm or Video prints for other movies!

- The Blackhawk Film Exchange program applies on films purchased from Blackhawk Films and includes Blackhawk prints or prints of other brands listed in the Blackhawk Film Digest.
- Exchange credits may be applied only against new purchases.
- Exchange credit of 50% of the original purchase price will be granted only when proof of purchase (invoice, packing slips, etc.) is returned with the exchanged films.
- In instances where there is no proof of purchase available, do not send your exchange films until you hear from us. Instead, mail us a list of titles and stock numbers from the side of the film box, we will assess the exchange value, and send you a Blackhawk Film Exchange quote.
- Films exchanged must be complete, in good condition with main and end titles and free from excessive splices or scratches. We reserve the right to reject films not suitable for resale.

Blackhawk Film Exchange, 1235 West 5th Street, Davenport, Iowa 52808. Transportation to us of films being exchanged must be prepaid. Have your shipment insured as we cannot be held responsible for losses enroute to Blackhawk Films, Inc.

NO CUSTOMER IDENTIFICATION IS PLACED ON EXCHANGED PRINTS, ONCE YOUR PRINT IS IN OUR HANDS IT CANNOT BE RETURNED TO YOU!

HOW TO USE YOUR BLACKHAWK FILM EXCHANGE WHEN YOU HAVE PROOF OF PURCHASE:

1. Fill out the exchange form below listing titles, stock numbers, your original purchase price and the exchange credit price at 50% (½) of the price you paid.
2. Total the amount of credit due you and enter it on the exchange form (below) and on the special line on the order blank (see other side).
3. Fill out the order form (order blank on back of this page) listing your new purchase(s).
4. Subtract your film exchange credit from your total order. Your new order must total at least three (3) times your exchange credit.
5. Indicate method of payment, (check, money order, Bank Americard, Mastercharge, or Blackhawk Charge) of the balance of your new purchase(s). Iowa residents pay 3% sales tax on this balance amount only.
6. Pack films in a secure corrugated box. If shipped by parcel post, all papers (proof of purchase, new order and remittance) may be included with films, but additional postage at current first class rates must be affixed to the package and "First Class Mail Enclosed" must be noted on the package. If shipping by other methods, papers must be mailed first class separately. (Papers should be marked Film Exchange.)
7. Prepay and insure your shipment of films to be exchanged. Blackhawk Films assumes no liability for losses or damages enroute.

EXAMPLE

This example will show you how easy it is to use the Blackhawk Film Exchange when you have proof of purchase.

Suppose the film being traded in is a Super 8 silent print purchased for $20.00. Your credit is ½ or $10.00.

Now suppose the film you have chosen to purchase is $30.00. With the $10.00 exchange credit all you have to pay is $20.00 plus transportation, handling and insurance.
