THE SUPER CHIEF

Yes, THE SUPER CHIEF of the Santa Fe is the first train subject for Blackhawk's new Railroad Series. It's a new 1952 production, action-filled, entertaining and informative. While - naturally - it will have the greatest appeal to railroad fans and hobbyists, it qualifies for use by film libraries, schools, public libraries and groups of all types. It will hold the attention of a two-year-old, and any boy of six or over, dad or grandpappy will get a bang out of seeing it again and again.

The film covers the new Super's 39 $\frac{1}{2}$ hour streamlined journey from Chicago to Los Angeles. It shows the luxury accommodations in the most modern cars constructed by ACF, Pullman-Standard and Budd. It shows the Super's most unusual car - the Pleasure Dome car. The train is shown in detail, both inside and out, and there are a number of scenes at speed across Kansas and Colorado.

And the price? Like wholesale! The 1-reel, 1952 professionally produced production, available in 16mm. sound and in 8mm. silent is really easy on the pocket-book!
