CHARLES PEACE

$125

One of the true masterpieces of primitive cinema anywhere," (Noël Burch, Life to Those Shadows, 1990) this 1905 production was made in South Wales by William Haggart to show in his itinerant cinema booth which travelled with fairs and played to a clientele consisting mostly of coal miners. It depicts incidents in the criminal career of Charles Peace, a daring burglar and murderer who was hanged in 1879. "For some reason," according to Colin Wilson in the Encyclopaedia of Murder, "he touched the imagination of the English; there are more legends about him than any other super-thief since Robin Hood." Writes Burch, "This Peace character is a kind of acrobat-clown straight from popular music-hall (his face is made up in the same way), and the way he ridicules the police, in particular, makes him a character manifestly close to the popular audience... On the one hand this film contains interiors so stylized as to put C. Gordon Craig to shame — schematic structural details drawn onto walls, the moon pinned to a backcloth behind a window, a complete lack of sidewalls coming towards the camera. In striking contrast to these interior tableaux ... there are scenes of violent action — fights, chases — filmed in exteriors and arranged to make admirable use of depth of field." Our print is from a 35mm fine grain master of the meticulous 1995 restoration by Britain's National Film and Television Archive and is circulated by arrangement with the Archive and with Mr. Roy Haggart. 10 mins.

THE ABYSS

WITH ASTA NIELSEN; DIRECTED BY URBAN GAD; PRODUCED IN DENMARK

One of the earliest long films in the world: "The first to realize the artistic possibilities which the new length gave was Asta Nielsen, who in September 1910 made her fabulous debut in Afgrunden (The Abyss), produced by Kosmorama and directed by Urban Gad. She understood at once that now it was possible to dwell upon an important scene and not to rush through it as had been the rule until then...and that intensity of feeling was not to be measured by big gestures and violent grimaces, but was to be expressed with the whole body, and with small means...she touches us this very day because each fibre of her body emanates her feelings... The Abyss introduced a new film genre: the erotic melodrama... We have, for instance, the long drawn-out kisses, a Danish invention in films, soon to become a cliché in the films of other countries. A dance scene...is also very explicit sexually." (Marguerite Engberg, Film History, Vol. 5, 1993) This print is taken from a 35mm copy which contains a good deal of nitrate deterioration, but the power of the film is undiminished by these blemishes. 33 minutes at 18 fps.

EUROPEAN FILMS

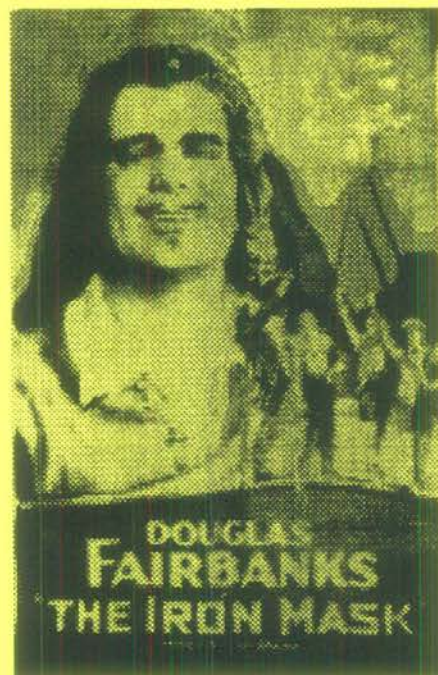

THE CABINET OF DR. CALIGARI

WITH CONRAD VEIDT AND WERNER KRAUSS;
DIRECTED BY ROBERT WIENE $350

After decades of miserable dupes, a crystal-clear print of this landmark of German expressionist cinema (1919). Contains footage lacking from the usual prints, and has fresh, accurately-translated titles.

EXTRAORDINARY ILLUSIONS OF 1904

Two short films from that year by Georges Méliès: "The Mischievous Whiskers" and "Tchin-Chao, The Chinese Conjurer". Very good photographic quality.

EARLY AMERICAN FEATURES

INTOLERANCE $895

Superb-quality, beautiful silent print of the version prepared by D.W. Griffith for the 1926 reissue, reviewed at that time as "a timeless masterpiece with no apology for the date of its birth" (Richard Watts, Jr.). With the benefit of ten years hindsight, this version — now regarded as the "standard" edition — plays much better than the actual 1916 assembly, also available but in a less thrilling print. Please specify version desired. $895 for either version (the 1916 assembly also has a music track at 24 fps).

CIVILIZATION $395

1916's would-be rival to INTOLERANCE, also financed by H.E. Aitken. Delirious but awe-inspiring melodrama depicting the horrors of war and intended to reinforce American neutrality at that time. Fine print from nitrate fine grain of slightly shortened reissue version.

STAR VEHICLES

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE $375

STARRING JOHN BARRYMORE;
DIRECTED BY JOHN S. ROBERTSON

1920 version, notable for Barrymore's performance and for re-creating London on New York studio interiors. Musical score by Gaylord Carter.

THE IRON MASK $635

STARRING DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS;
DIRECTED BY ALLAN DWAN

Original silent version of the last of Fairbanks' costume-adventure spectacles. "The production values are lavish, and Allan Dwan's direction of big crowd scenes in vast sets is very effective" (Museum of Modern Art). 98 minutes at 24 fps.

THE CHEAT

THE CHEAT $350

Beautiful print of C.B. DeMille's 1915 film noted for its high-contrast lighting and for the erotic allure of Sessue Hayakawa who brands Fannie Ward as his property, then attempts to seduce and possess her. "As powerful as ever today" (Kevin Brownlow, The Parade's Gone By)

OUTSIDE THE LAW $470

STARRING LON CHANEY;
DIRECTED BY TOD BROWNING

Chaney delivers a dual performance of dynamic intensity, starring as Ah Wing, a kind-hearted student of Confucian philosophy, and Black Mike Silva, a murderous rake of the San Francisco underworld. The second of Chaney's ten collaborations with director Browning. Fine duplicate of only known nitrate original, with very good music and effects track.

COMEDIES

THE BOAT $160

STARRING BUSTER KEATON
One of Keaton's best two-reelers, in which he launches and later loses the infamous "Damfino". Our print was made from a nitrate original and has all original titles, although there are a few areas of decomposition, some black lines, and a couple of short bits out of frame; but it's still superior to anything else available. Musical score by Gaylord Carter.

RING UP THE CURTAIN $85

STARRING HAROLD LLOYD, BEBE DANIELS AND SNUB POLLARD
A one-reel Rolin cutup of 1919 with action centering on a small-town vaudeville house. Much funnier than most of the Lloyd one-reelers, and also a print of very good quality taken from a nitrate original in good condition. Music track at 24 fps.

BE MY KING $160

STARRING LUPINO LANE AND WALLACE LUPINO
One of the very clever entries from Lane's 1929 series directed by Henry W. George. Adrift on the remains of a house in the middle of the ocean, they're washed up on a carnival Isle. Their many attempts to escape the stewpot provide laugh after laugh.

RED NOSES $160

WITH THELMA TODD AND ZASU PITTS
Pitts and Todd are roommates with terrible colds. With both absent from the same office, the boss promises a bonus and vacation if they will go to a Turkish bath to get rid of the colds and come back to work. Considered risqué in 1932, today it's a delightful farce. With Billy Gilbert. A Hal Roach Production; Restricted to the U.S. and Canada. Sound, 21 mins.

SOUTHERN EXPOSURE

STARRING CHARLEY CHASE $160

Charley has dual roles (himself and pappy). A trip to forgotten relatives in Kentucky motivates hillbilly comedy and hillbilly music with Bob Burns and his bazooka. 1935 Hal Roach Production. Restricted to the U.S. and Canada. 22 mins.

DRY AND THIRSTY

WITH BILLY BLETCHER $85

A spoof of prohibition from the year the United States went dry! This fast-moving independent comedy has some really funny gags, and one outstandingly-executed sequence of traffic in a hotel corridor where the thirsty public arrives and departs, replenished, from a big-time bootlegger's suite. Fine print from nitrate original.

VISITS TO AMERICAN CITIES

THIS WAS NEW YORK, 1900

$160

Life in New York almost a century ago, taken from paper prints in the archives of the Library of Congress. We see immigration, life on the lower east side, the Flatiron building in 1902, winter skating in Central Park, Easter on Fifth Avenue in 1904, boys vending newspapers, and much more. Silent.

A VISIT TO LOS ANGELES AND A TRIP UP MOUNT LOWE, 1916

$125

The first half of the film shows business and residential landmarks of this fast-growing city, then of 350,000 people; the second half takes us up the cog railway and on the electric trolley to the White City on Mt. Lowe, then a lavish resort above suburban Altadena. Silent.

D.W. GRIFFITH

CORNER IN WHEAT

$85

We found a 35mm fine grain master made from the camera negative and then misfiled for forty years, and can at last offer this landmark film of 1909 in a beautiful print. As is well known, it's a populist commentary derived via a vaudeville playlet from two Frank Norris stories; its point is made by bold cross-cutting.

ONE IS BUSINESS, THE OTHER CRIME

$85

Another social drama of comparisons, building upon the ideas in CORNER IN WHEAT and pointing towards the mighty INTOLERANCE. The film is also a great step forward for Griffith's cameraman, Billy Bitzer, the interiors being illuminated by source light. A fine print derived from 35mm master material taken from the original negative.

THE BURGLAR'S DILEMMA

WITH LIONEL BARRYMORE, HENRY B. WALTHALL, LILLIAN GISH, ROBERT HARRON $85

Harron almost framed for dishonest acts committed by Walthall, building upon the neurotic characters which were a specialty. Cinematically, the film is very interesting for the intimate style of its performances and for the association of certain screen spaces with the emotional states of the characters. Excellent print.

ANIMATION

ALADDIN AND THE WONDERFUL LAMP

$85

An Arabian Night's tale brought to life by Ub Iwerks in a dazzling display of color and tricky animation. The Genie grants three wishes; Aladdin wins the princess' hand. Iwerks pulls out more tricks than the Genie in this Cinecolor cartoon; from a swirling spiral of color filling the screen to magic puffs of Genie smoke, he creates a triumph of animation. 1934, color, 8 minutes.

MODELING

An elegant Ko-Ko cartoon from 1921 by Max and Dave Fleischer. Out of the inkwell and on to the ice, with a good selection of the self-referential gags for which this series is famous, and the added presence of Snitz Edwards as a sculptor's model. A good-looking, clean print from a tinted nitrate original.

WINSOR MCKAY AND HIS ANIMATED PICTURES

$65

In this Vitagraph short of 1911, McKay is shown with John Bunny and other Vitagraph stars wagering that he can make the animated cartoon which is then shown in production, and in final form at the end of the reel. Copied from a nitrate original and of very good quality; there is a logical ending although the last two or three original shots are lacking.
